EIGHTY-THIRD SESSION

"Autumn Enchantment"

GRAND CHAPTER OF TEXAS
ORDER OF THE EASTERN STAR

October 25-28, 1965

Fort Worth, Texas

Welcomes you to the

Eighty-third Session

"Autumn Enchantment"

OCTOBER 25, 26, 27, 28, 1965

Will Rogers Coliseum

Fort Worth, Texas

Grand Secretary

Dedication

Once in a while a friend is found
Who's a friend right from the start,
Once in a while a friendship's made
That really warms the heart,
Once in a while a friendship's formed
To last a lifetime through,
It really does happen,
Just once in a while—
For it happened to us and to you.

We are deeply grateful to the Jr. Past Matrons and the Jr. Past Patrons of Texas, who are affectionately referred to as the "Amy Goebel Girls" (Amy's Angels) and the "Jim Goettee Boys," for their loyalty, support, and encouragement, manifested by their friendly smile, and kindly actions. It was not difficult to discern that our hopes and desires were also theirs too, and whatever accomplishments were attained, we share with them.

Therefore, it is with justifiable pride and pleasure that we lovingly dedicate—

"THE AUTUMN ENCHANTMENT SESSION"

to the

WORTHY MATRONS AND WORTHY PATRONS

with whom we have served

MRS. AMY GOEBEL
Worthy Grand Matron

DR. JAMES H. GOETTEE
Worthy Grand Patron

Theme

SURPASSES ALL ELSE

"AND NOW ABIDETH FAITH, HOPE, LOVE,
THESE THREE; BUT THE GREATEST OF THESE IS Love"

— 1 COR. 13:13

Harvest Prayer

Almighty God, in Thine infinite power and wisdom, Thou hast brought into being the vast universe and all life therein.

Thou art the sender of rain, sunshine, and fertility, making possible SEEDTIME and HARVEST.

Thou hast made man in Thine image, so our hearts are restless until we find rest in Thee.

O God, help us to measure up to our responsibilities, to be an influence in fertility for eternal life.

AMEN.

Hope

The Bible is the window through which we look into eternity—the Hope of the world.

Hope is more precious than fine gold—
This I would keep, although all else is lost—
Hope within the heart—that precious, priceless thing—
It gives new strength, new joys, and puts a line of beauty in every life it touches—
Hope at any cost.

Greetings . . .

from the Worthy Grand Matron

It is with special pride and pleasure that I extend to each of you a very special welcome to the EIGHTY-THIRD SESSION, "THE AUTUMN ENCHANTMENT SESSION," of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

The friendly spirit of the Fort Worth people, and their hospitality with individual attention await you.

Fort Worth, spoken of as, "The City Where the West Begins," is a part of an internationally famous metropolitan complex. You will find that it blends the friendly charm of the Old West with the polish of the Cosmopolitan East. I am certain that you will find the friendliness and personal interest of the members of this city not to be excelled anywhere.

To the General Grand Chapter Officers, the Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of Texas, and visitors from other jurisdictions, I extend to you a very warm handclasp and a friendly smile as I join with the membership of Texas in extending to you a sincere and gracious welcome. It will be a privilege to greet you personally, and I hope that your visit here will be a pleasant and memorable one.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Amy Goebel

Greetings . . .

from the Worthy Grand Patron

We come together at the close of another Eastern Star year for the Annual Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas. Some of the business of this Session will include reports to be made, legislation to be enacted, and new officers to be elected and installed.

Grand Chapter is always a happy occasion where we renew old friendships and make many new ones. I am looking forward to this event with the joy of anticipation, and it is a real pleasure to greet and welcome each of you to this Eighty-Third Annual Session, "The Autumn Enchantment Session," of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Eighty-third Annual Session
OF THE
GRAND CHAPTER OF TEXAS
Order of the Eastern Star

Autumn Enchantment Session

The Eighty-third Session, the Autumn Enchantment Session, of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star, was held in Fort Worth, Texas, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 24 through 28, 1965.

DEDICATION

The Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron dedicated the Autumn Enchantment Session to the Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons with whom they had served.

DECORATIONS FOR GRAND CHAPTER

The Will Rogers Coliseum, where the General Sessions were held, was appropriately decorated in keeping with the name of the session, simple, but suggestive throughout of an autumn scene. Immediately back of the chairs in the East stood a representation of the wall of a formal garden, with a top frieze supported by white columns, and with open archways looking out upon a scene of trees and shrubbery in all the brilliant shades of autumn splendor, with a vista of low hills and blue sky in the distant background. The central opening was topped by a Proscenium Arch in the center of which was a lighted star. In the opening itself, on a raised pedestal immediately back of the podium, stood a gilded statue of the blinded Greek Goddess "Statue of Justice" holding high the Scales of Justice in Perfect Balance. The columns and the frieze on top of the wall were entwined with autumn leaves, and floral arrangements in autumn colors were displayed on the tops of the columns.

A simple white fence, entwined with autumn leaves, surrounded the labyrinth.

The Altar was white, oval in design, bordered with gold at the base and top.

The stations in the North, South and West were on slightly raised pedestals with background of white columns. The Grand Officers were seated in white garden chairs.

Eastern Star Service of Worship
AND
Presentation of ESTARL Scholarships

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1965

10:45 A. M.

At 10:45 o'clock Sunday morning, October 24, the Eastern Star Service of Worship and ESTARL Presentation of Scholarships was held in the beautiful and commodious auditorium of the First Baptist Church. Before the hour for the service arrived the church sanctuary was filled to capacity and the overflow crowd was accommodated in the Church Chapel and participated in the service through closed circuit TV.

The Grand Choir, under the able direction of Mrs. Cloe Thomas, Grand Choir Director, and Mr. Ben Winder, Assistant Grand Choir Director, and accompanied by Mrs. Vivian Jaynes, Grand Organist, rendered appropriate musical selections.

Most impressive were solos, "Climb Every Mountain" and "In Times Like These," sung by Mr. Ed. Searcy.

The Invocation was by Reverend Roy Truman Bassett, Brite Divinity School, TCU, an ESTARL Scholarship recipient.

PRESENTATION OF ESTARL SCHOLARSHIPS

MRS. LOUISE JONES, ESTARL Chairman: Thank you, Mrs. Amy Goebel, for giving me the sweet privilege of serving as Chairman of the ESTARL Committee for the year 1964-1965.

There were those who served with me working very diligently in their respective Districts making possible the outstanding report for this year. I would like to present them to you at this time.

• Mrs. Mae Powell, Irving, Texas, District 1.

Mrs. Hazel Lindsey, Lamesa, Texas, District 2. She was unable to be with us today.

Mrs. Vena Hereford, Fort Worth, Texas, District 3.

Mrs. Judy Welch, San Antonio, Texas, District 5.

I am sure that you were aware that these committee members were those who stood at the doorway to greet you this morning as you entered this Temple of God.

Eastern Star Training Awards for Religious Leadership was started in 1952 by the General Grand Chapter. Since that time scholarships have been given by the Order of the Eastern Star throughout the world.

The Grand Chapter of Texas is one of the leaders in this field. To date, through the gifts of the Texas Subordinate Chapters, there have been a total of three hundred and sixteen and a half scholarships, amounting to $125,600.00 given.

This year we have given twenty-eight $400.00 scholarships to young men and women preparing themselves for labor in the fields of religious leadership as ministers, missionaries, directors of church music, directors of religious education and directors of youth leadership.

This raises our statistical record of three hundred and forty-four and a half scholarships, totaling $136,800.00.

At this time the Worthy Grand Matron will present the Awards for this year to the students who are present. Many of those receiving awards are unable to be with us due to obligations in their own churches at this hour.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is my privilege to present these Awards to you.

Mrs. Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron, and Dr. James H. Goettee, Worthy Grand Patron, then presented the ESTARL Scholarships to the fifteen recipients who were able to be present in person.

The recipients who were present to receive scholarships from the hands of the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron were:

Mr. Richard Glenn Baggett, studying for the Baptist Ministry, Hardin Simmons University.

Mr. Roy T. Bassett, Christian Ministry, Brite Divinity School of Theology, TCU.

Mr. Joseph Leroy Bentley, Methodist Ministry, McMurry College.

Mr. Richard Wilson Clark, Baptist Ministry, Howard Payne College.

Mr. Thos. Edward Carter, Methodist Ministry, Texas Wesleyan College.

Mr. Clyde Thomas Cook, Minister of Religious Education, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Mr. James W. Fuller, Jr., Baptist Ministry, Baylor, University.

Mr. Edward LeBorn Free, Methodist Ministry, Perkins School of Theology, SMU.

Mr. Wm. E. Golightly, Baptist Ministry, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Mr. Joe C. Hayes, III, Methodist Ministry, Perkins School of Theology, SMU.

Mr. James S. Hackney, studying for the field of Religious Education and Church Music, Baptist Seminary.

Mr. Henry H. Kincade, II, Baptist Ministry, Dallas Baptist College.

Miss Patricia Ann McGuire, Director of Youth Leadership, Mary Hardin Baylor.

Mr. Michael Paul Palmer, Foreign Mission Service, McMurry College.

Mr. Lewis B. White, Methodist Ministry, attending Perkins School of Theology, SMU.

Mr. Michael P. Palmer, McMurry College, accepted the Awards in behalf of the group.

The sermon was by the Reverend Homer Ritchie, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

SERMON

A profound and inspirational sermon was delivered by the Reverend Homer Ritchie, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Fort Worth.

GOD'S ETERNAL LAMB

Sermon by Rev. Homer G. Ritchie
First Baptist Church, Sunday A. M., October 24, 1965

May I welcome all the members of Eastern Star in Texas to Fort Worth and the First Baptist Church, and again this afternoon to your special memorial service which will convene here at five o'clock.

I would like to suggest, and I hope the power of suggestion is good, that following your memorial service you will stay for the six o'clock service of the First Baptist Church. You are welcome here. I noticed a moment ago that we had a number of Methodist and Baptist preachers who were being awarded, and I am delighted to see them. We have one special spot in this church that we are always happy to show the Methodist, and that is our baptistry. (Laughter.)

Our members have been told this story so many times they probably can tell it better than I, but the story goes that in a small town (probably a town like the one from which many of you come) in earlier days various churches conducted what they once called "protracted" meetings. How many of you old-timers have been to that type meeting? Well, I suspected that. Probably many of us need to get back to that kind of revival meeting. This particular year the revival was being conducted in the Methodist church, and a Baptist preacher, of all people, was conducting the revival. On the pulpit stand was a multi-colored vase filled with sparkling refreshing water. The Lords knows a Baptist preacher needs water because their sermons are sometimes dry. At the conclusion of the sermon the preacher proceeded to drink every drop of the water. The poor Methodist preacher came to the platform and said, "Folks, we were going to have a baptizing but the Baptist preacher drank our baptistry dry." (Laughter.) I would hate to see the Methodist drink our baptistry dry. (Laughter.)

May I say to Mrs. Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron, Dr. Goettee, Worthy Grand Patron, and Mrs. Jones, Chairman of this ESTARL Committee, how delighted we are to have you dear people with us today. I am especially appreciative of the Order of Eastern Star, because I know of no organization that has nobler ideals. I am personally familiar with the principles which they teach and some of the projects which they sponsor, and they are akin to the glorious cause of Christianity.

I would like to say that we should praise the Order for recognizing the need of Christian education. An educated ministry is needed in times like these in our nation and in our world.

I would like to compliment these young men and young ladies who are recipients of these awards.

When Omer and I first came from Alabama and entered a theological seminary, you fellows don't know how thrilled we would have been to get $400.00 to help further our education. I know you are appreciative of the kindness of the Order in making this contribution to your lives. Nothing is more vital to the interest of our nation than the ministry of men and women in the cause of Jesus Christ and the church of our Lord.

I do not think, Brother Omer, that we recognized all of our guests. Quite frankly, I have been apprehensive of having all our guests stand; I am afraid they might outnumber our members. We do not have to urge a large number of our members to go home, and they knew you were coming and they left to make room for you. All of you who are our guests will you stand, please. Where are the First Baptist Church members? (Laughter.) Wonderful. Now, if I could just arrange to have a meeting filled with visitors like this every Sunday, wouldn't that be great?

I would like to get right into my message for today. I am going to speak on a subject which is familiar to all of us who are Christians. The title of my sermon is: "GOD'S ETERNAL LAMB."

The Bible uses many and various symbols to represent the glorious character and work of our Saviour Jesus Christ. For example, the word "Lamb" is used to denote innocence. The word "Lion" is used to represent strength of character and power of personality. As the lion is king of beasts, so Christ is King of kings and Lord of lords. The Old Testament offering of an oxen, which symbolized the sacrifices of Christ on the cross for our sins, certainly beautifully represents the patience of Christ in giving His life for the world.

There are a number of scriptures in the New Testament which I would like to read at this time.

In Acts 2, Verse 23, these words are recorded:

"Him (Jesus Christ) being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain."

The greatest travesty of justice in the history of the world was the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. An innocent, perfect Man was slain by the hands of wicked and malicious men.

Some times I have been asked, IF Jesus Christ came back in the twentieth century, in our enlightened society, would He be crucified as then? My friends, it has been my observation that human nature does not change; education and culture are not deterrents to wicked human character. Man is basically a depraved being and only God's power and grace can transform him. Some of the people responsible for the death of Christ constituted the intelligensia and religious people of His day. There seems to be a deep-seated prejudice against truth in the hearts of those who will not believe it or accept it.

In Revelation 13, Verse 8, it is recorded:

"And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship Him (Jesus Christ), whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world."

In I Peter, beginning with Verse 18, we read these remarkable words:

"Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

"But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot:

"Who verily was forordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you.

"Who by Him do believe in God, that raised Him up from the dead, and gave Him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God."

All of the scriptures which I read to you include the word Lamb. Twenty-seven times it is recorded in the book of the Revelation, the last book of the Bible.

John the Baptist, upon the occasion of baptizing our Saviour, said to the milling multitudes upon the banks of the Jordan River, "Behold, the Lamb of God that beareth away the sins of the world."

The great purpose of our Saviour was to come into the world in the capacity of a Lamb that He might offer Himself as a sin offering for the world and bear away their sins. By so doing humanity could escape the divine wrath of God.

The cross of Jesus Christ is the supreme interpretation of God and man. It reveals God's love, God's grace, God's wrath upon sin, man's unbelief and sin, and man's only way of eternal salvation.

I would like for you to observe several vital facts this morning which will interest all of us.

First of all, the cross of Jesus Christ shows God's eternal interest in man. God has always been interested in man. He has demonstrated in ten thousand different ways His continued concern over the wellbeing of His creatures, but it was never more revealed than when Christ died upon a Roman cross. God's agony over man has been perennial—the Bible says: "He hath loved us with an everlasting love," and the idea of Christ's death is ageless. It was not just the product of the times in which Jesus lived. Jesus was not crucified merely because of the impulsiveness of the mob or the decision of the leaders of religion and government of that day; but it was also the result of the determinate decree and counsel of eternal God. Isaiah said: "It hath pleased the Lord to put Him to grief."

The Bible puts it this way—Christ was slain as a Lamb, without spot or blemish, before the foundation of the world. Before God scooped out the oceans with His hands and raised up the mountains out of the bowels of the earth, and flung out into immeasurable space innumerable stars and systems, Christ, in the mind of God, was already a slain Lamb. Although in fact, Jesus was not crucified until two thousand years ago, nevertheless, in the mind and heart of eternal God His Son had already given Himself for the sins of the world. Christ died not only by the decree of God but by His own consent.

My friends, some times we say I would be willing to die for Christ, but God is not so much interested in you dying for Christ as He is in you living for Christ. Many times it is much easier to die than to live, and when we live for Jesus we bring blessings to thousands of others.

Christ did not die by decree of Jehovah only, but by His own volition. The Bible says in the 10th chapter of John: "I have the power to lay my life down, and the power to take it up again." He was not forced to die, but, my friends, the Son of God lovingly, willingly went yonder to that cruel cross and poured out His life's blood that you and I might be saved.

I want you to notice that Christ knew the end from the beginning:
 "His holy fingers formed the bough
 Where grew the thorns that crowned His brow.
 The nails that pierced His hands
 Were mined in secret places He designed."

Knowing that He was the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world,

"He made the forrests whence there sprung
 The tree on which His holy body hung.
 He died upon a cross of wood,
 Yet made the hill on which it stood."

Being acquainted with the determinate counsel and eternal foreknowledge of God,

"The sun which hid from His its face
 By His decree was poised in space.
 The sky which darkened o'er His head
 By Him above the earth was spread."

Christ knew that He was foreordained before the foundation of the world.

"The spear which pierced His side and spilled His blood
 Was tempered in the fires of God,
 The grave in which His form was laid
 Was hewn in rocks His hand had made."

We utterly despair of finding any words that adequately express such great and awesome facts concerning the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

My friends, Christ's face was set toward Calvary before ought of creation from the womb of nothingness came.

In the second place, I want you to notice God's eternal Lamb and how He died among men, and the great purpose for which He died.

When Christ died as a Lamb it was only the fulfillment of prophecy and shadows that had preceded Him; and a Lamb, keep in mind, must be offered without spot.

In the Old Testament says when God was about to deliver Israel from the oppression of the Egyptians, He instructed Moses to tell the people to find an innocent lamb without spot or blemish and bring that innocent lamb and offer its life for the life of each family; and the Bible says: "When I see the blood I will pass over you."

The sign and symbol of the Christian faith is the life of the Lord Jesus Christ and the cross upon which He was impaled for you and me; but this Lamb must be without spot of blemish. Therefore, the sacrifice which will be acceptable to God must also be without spot or blemish and without sin.

Seven times in the New Testament Jesus was proclaimed absolutely without sin. His enemies and His friends said there was no guile in His mouth, and, truly, He was without sin.

On one occasion our Lord Jesus Christ was addressing some of His enemies and several of them were pointing long accusing fingers at Him, and He turned and said to them: "Which of you can convince me of sin?" and not one of them stood up to accuse the Son of God of sin. Jesus was perfect in every sense of the word—perfect in mind, body and soul. His was the only kind of sacrifice which would be acceptable to an infinitely just and holy God for the sins of mankind.

Also, this Lamb of sacrifice must be divine. Christ was both human and divine. The Athanasian Creed boldly proclaims that He is very God of very man, and very man of very man, and this issue was settled from the Holy Scriptures in ages bygone.

I will never forget this poetic expression of His glorious Divinity:

"If Christ be not divine
 Then throw the Book away,
 And every blessed faith resign
 That has been yours and mine through many a trying day.
 Go seal again the tomb,
 Take down the cross, redemption's sign;
 Let us turn and travel on across the night that knows no dawn,
 If Christ be not divine."

And, then, the sacrifice must be human. Not only was Christ divine, but, my fellow-christians and friends, Christ was human. He was touched with the feelings of our infirmities, yet without sin. He was tempted in all points as we have been tempted, yet without sin. When we have our sorrows, He weeps with us. When we have our joys, He laughs with us. Christ is human and He cares for us and understands us.

This was one of the motivating reasons for Christ coming into the world in the first place. God being God, infinite, eternal, unapproachable, everlasting, was incapable of being touched or feeling the infirmities of His creatures. Hence, it became necessary for God, in the person of Christ His Son, to come down and dwell among men, watch them and live among them, so that He could feel as they felt and see as they saw. He was the only perfect Man to ever live among men.

Now, this sacrifice must not only be acceptable to God, but it also must be accepted by man. When Jesus Christ paid the supreme debt of death upon the cross for your sins and mine, it was fully accepted by Jehovah God as the final payment for all of our iniquities, and now all that remains is for the individual to also accept fully, completely God's gift of eternal life. The Bible says: "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ."

Hurriedly, let me call attention to the third proposition, namely, the effects of Christ's death as the Lamb of God.

First, it was singular. The Bible explicitly teaches us that Jesus Christ died "once for all." He fulfilled the Old Testament symbolism when the High Priest went inside the most holy place and offered once each year the blood of an innocent animal for the sins of all Israel. And the Bible says that as the priest felt it necessary on behalf of himself and his people to go once each year to the most holy place on the great day of atonement, Jesus Christ entered once into that holy temple of heaven and made eternal redemption possible for you and me.

It is not necessary for Christ to come back to a world of sin and be put to open shame and be crucified again on the cross. My friends, when Christ died He died once for all, and His payment for our sins was adequate. He paid every farthing. There is nothing that is owed against us, every whit has been paid. Every sin has been purchased and covered by His precious life and death. His death was singular.

Secondly, it was ageless, because He died from before the foundation of the world.

I want you to notice also that His death as a Lamb was universal. He died for all men. It does not matter the color, the creed, the station in life, or one's moral need, Jesus Christ died for all men. He died for the little child and the adult. He died for the king on his throne as well as for the peasant in the hovel. He died for the illiterate as well as for the literate. He died for all men everywhere, and His wonderful grace is available to whosoever will.

Now, there are some people who live in a different type of society than we do, and they cover their sins with an air of respectability and culture, but I say to you that sin in any form is offensive to the eternal God of holiness. Sin must be paid for. And here is the great truth of Christianity, and if you learn nothing from this sermon but this, remember it as long as you live. Remember this—Jesus Christ died for all of our sins, no matter how many we commit or what the nature of those sins are, and God accepted the payment of Christ for all of our sins. If you learn this truth and believe it sincerely, then you, too, shall be saved by the grace of God.

The Bible also states that Christ is the Saviour of the world—that it, especially those that believe. It is obvious that He is not the Saviour of those who do not believe in Him and His word. Contrawise, He is the Saviour of those who do believe. The Bible avers: "He that believeth hath everlasting life; but he that believeth not shall not see life: but the wrath of God abideth upon him."

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Oh, this wonderful truth needs to be heralded among men; it needs to be shouted from the house tops; it needs to be spoken in the streets, in the work shops, and it needs to be told ten thousand miles away in every country and clime on earth. This is the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Bible teaches that Christ tasted death for every man, and He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for the sins of the whole world. And yet, my friends, the death of Christ is not effectual, does not do any good to any individual unless that individual is willing to believe in Him and fully, completely accept Him and commit his soul into His hands.

I remember reading an illustration of three men who went to the holy land—George Nixon Briggs was one of them. I stood in the same place that Mr. Briggs stood one day. He was standing on the top of the hill of Calvary, and down beneath the hill are two grottos. One of them is the cave in which Jeremiah, the weeping prophet, was incarcerated for a time. As one approaches the hill of Calvary he can see these two caves in the side of the hill, and from a distance they have the appearance of eye sockets and look like the sunken eyes of a skull. That is why the Bible describes Calvary as "the place of a skull." Then there is a huge rock that protrudes out of the side of the hill and has the appearance of a nose. Beneath that there is a longer cave which has the appearance of a mouth. Consequently, all of this looks like a skull from a distance. Two of these men went over into one of those caves while Mr. Briggs stood on top of it. They explored the caves and looked up to the top and saw Mr. Briggs peering over the ledge of the hill. They said, "George, we thought of you," and George said to these men, "Thank you, gentlemen, but I am standing in the place of one who thought of me two thousand years ago and gave His life's blood that I might have eternal redemption."

Finally, let me explain to you some of the purposes of Christ's death.

First of all, it is obvious that the great purpose of His death was to save men. The Bible says: "He came to seek and to save that which was lost." He came "to give His life a ransom for many"; and one of the noble principles of Eastern Star is to share with others what God has so bountifully given you. And this is what Christ did—He gave His life that you and I might possess eternal life. He gave His life a ransom, and then He said: "For this cause came I into the world."

Another effect of Christ's death was to make men holy. Men are sinners because they are born in sins. They are sinners by nature, choice and practice, and God's purpose is to change this nature by a miraculous work in the human heart.

Jesus said: "Ye must be born again." "Except a man be born again, he cannot see or enter the kingdom of heaven." He makes it very plain. We are not saved by our own human merits or following certain religious rituals; we are born into the family of God by the act of the new birth. The Word of God is the agent of the new birth, and Peter says: "Being born again not of corruptible things but by the Word of God which liveth and abideth forever."

The only other agent is the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit does for us what we cannot do for ourselves. When we sincerely believe in Christ, then the Holy Spirit works inside of us a spiritual work that cannot be done by ourselves, and the Bible calls this "a new creation." We are made new creatures in the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Bible says also that Christ came into the world to destroy the power of Satan. Paul wrote: "Who through death destroyed him who had the power of death." Also, "He that committeth sin is of the devil, for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifest that he might destroy the works of the devil." All of the evil, all of the wickedness, all of the anarchy, all of the rebellion, all of the restlessness in the world is certainly partially caused by sinful humanity, including greed for power and money and lust for pleasure. But, it also is caused by an evil, sinister personality called the devil. The day will come, according to the prediction of the Holy Scripture, when this evil personality and all of his aides shall be destroyed by the mighty, invincible power of the Lord Jesus Christ, who, at the moment, is our Lamb but then will be the Lion of the tribe of Judah.

When we think about Calvary, we wonder at it all, and as the rays of the glory emanating from Christ find focus in Calvary, so at Calvary the history of human guilt culminates, the purposes of divine love become intelligible, the mysteries of prophecy are unraveled, the majesty of the law is vindicated, the great problem of human redemption is solved. At Calvary all human sorrows hide in His wounds. At Calvary the hieroglyphics of types find their substance and keys. At Calvary Satan's armour is removed. At Calvary the fires of the law against us are extinguished. At Calvary the penal claims of God against us are exhausted. At Calvary every righteous judgment of God is perfectly met and satisfied. At Calvary our condemnation is lifted, and at Calvary the death of sin is made certain. At Calvary our death sentence is revoked. At Calvary the serpent's head is bruised. At Calvary the door of heaven is opened, and at Calvary the fountain of salvation is unsealed. What a wonderful story we have to tell to the nations. We sing, "Years I spent in vanity and pride" in the church, but, when we go to that cross both pride, vanity and sin are all washed away by the blood of Christ.

I remember reading a story recently that made a lasting impression upon my mind. During a cruel and bloody war a commander took his oath in the presence of his troops that he would slaughter the entire population of a certain town, and in due course the bloodhounds of war were let loose upon the defenseless citizens of that little town. It so happened that a fugitive spied a number of soldiers as they broke into a house, the inmates of which they put to the sword. On leaving the house one of them dipped a cloth into a pool of human blood and splashed it on the door as a token to any who might follow after of what had already taken place. Quick as his feet would carry him, the poor fugitive sped away to a large house in the center of the town where a large number of his friends were concealed and breathlessly told them what he had seen. At once it flashed upon them what they must do. There was a goat in the back yard; some of the men went out and quickly slew this goat and caught its blood in a basin and took a piece of cloth and splashed it over the door and hid themselves inside this house. And as these soldiers, spurred by the order of their commander to kill every living person in that community, passed by, they saw the blood on the door and they passed it by. The poor victims on the inside were saved from a horrible death by the sword because of the blood.

My friends, the Bible says: "When I see the blood I will pass over you." Whether God was delivering Israel, His people, from the oppression of the Egyptians, or whether He is delivering your soul or mine from the oppression of sin, the blood must be applied in a symbolic sense. The blood represents the precious life of Christ, God's beloved Son, and when that is applied to the door-posts of our souls, then the avenging angel of justice, as in olden days, will pass over us.

"In the cross of Christ I glory,
Tow'ring o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

"When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me;
Lo! it glows with peace and joy."

Shall we stand, please.

INVITATION. (Many came.)

BENEDICTION

By Rev. James W. Fuller
Ministerial Student, Baylor University

Once again, our Heavenly Father, we pause from the rush and hurry of life, to be still and know that Thou art God. With this sustaining knowledge, we pause to sincerely thank Thee for the abundant blessings bestowed upon us in the days past, and to offer a heartfelt trust for the days to be.

"His Love Eternal" Memorial Service was held in the First Baptist Church of Fort Worth, and was presented by the Grand Chaplain, Mrs. Elna Mosshart.

May we ever rally around the Holy Altar, be it in our church, our home, or our fraternal home, to give Thee thanks and praise—be it sunshine or shadow.

Bestow upon these who are about to receive the mantle of authority, and their associates, the needful energy of body and mind for the efficient performance of their respective duties.

Fix our minds and hearts upon Thee, that we may not be afraid, and that our lives may be fashioned into the likeness of Thee. Grant that we may look at life through eyes of reason and love. Give us brave hearts and strong wills, so that whatever life brings to us we may use it for good—through Jesus Christ our Lord, in whose name we pray.

Memorial Service

At 5:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon "His Love Eternal" Memorial Service, under the direction of Mrs. Elna Mosshart, Grand Chaplain, was conducted in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church. In an atmosphere of referential and solemn quiet the church sanctuary was completely filled before the service began.

Appropriate music was rendered by the Grand Choir, directed by Mrs. Cloe Thomas, Grand Choir Director, and accompanied by Mrs. Vivian Jaynes, Grand Organist.

Mr. Ed Searcy sang "I Believe" and "In the Garden of Tomorrow."

PRAYER

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Our gracious Heavenly Father, with a heart full of love for Thee and for all of our members who have taken their places in the ranks of eternity, we dedicate this service.

This evening we accept Thy promise of a future life, and know that it is true. We know that because of Thy love we shall all be united again in that "place not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens." The golden links from the chain are broken, shall be found in place, whole and perfect, when we shall have finished our service here. Believing this, and trusting Thy love to bring us all safely unto Thyself, we bow before Thee in gratitude and praise.

Bless this beautiful structure, our Father, and fill it with Thy love. Help us to make the doors of this, Thy house, a gateway leading us from ourselves to a closer understanding of Thee.

Bless this assembly, and this Memorial Service. May we feel the influence of this hour long after this meeting is closed. In times of doubt and despair, may we see the glorified cross uplifted to guide our feet. Thou art our Father and our God. Be Thou our guide and stay. In the name of our Saviour and Lord, Jesus Christ, Thy Son, we ask it. Amen.

DEDICATION

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is fitting that we pause and dedicate this Memorial Service to the memory of our departed members, who in days gone by have met with us in the holy bonds of fraternity. This is an hour of memory.

May this hour be filled with the spirit of love that can bridge time and space, and bring back to us in our thoughts and in our prayers, the memory of all those we hold most dear. This is a sacred moment in the beginning of the Eighty-third, the "Autumn Enchantment Session," of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

The infinite Father's ever watchful care is nowhere more impressively taught than by His voice speaking to us through the enchantment of Autumn in all its vibrant colors, and splendor.

We accept His promise of a future life, and know that it is true. We know that because of His Eternal Love, that we shall be united again in that place not made by hands, eternal in the Heavens. Believing this, trusting in His love to bring us all safely unto Thyself, we bow before Thee in gratitude and praise, and thank Thee for this Holy Hour of Memory.

With a heart full of love for Thee and for all of our members whom Thou hast called to a higher plane of service, we bow in awe of Thy name, and accept Thy promises.

"HIS LOVE ETERNAL" DEVOTION

MRS. ELNA MOSSHART, Grand Chaplain: One glorious night, many centuries ago, a brilliant Star appeared in the heavens, proclaiming the birth of Christ, proclaiming God's love for us. In that instant, God labelled His love for the world. He channelled that love to earth through the person of His Son, who came into the world as the "Lamb of God."

Of all the phenomena in God's world, calculated to arouse man's admiration and amazement, His Eternal Love is the greatest.

No love story has ever declared a greater love than that which God has demonstrated on the Cross. One cannot, with the marvel and mind of imagination, travel back across the centuries and stand at the foot of the cross and look afresh upon that scene, without being drawn closer to God. Here we see earth's greatest breach with justice, but at the same time it is our clearest picture of God's Eternal Love. Here we see the heart of God broken for us upon Calvary. Here we see love battered and bleeding, but not defeated. We see Love bruised and mistreated, but not dead. In this, its greatest test, love did not falter. God was finding expression for His great Eternal Love for us. Thus we see in Christ the crucified, His channel of love. It would be impossible to explain the life, death and resurrection of His only begotten Son, aside from this love.

We should never lose sight of His love as we travel down the road of life, and we should never forget that God's love made the abundant life possible for all of us. It is His love that will sustain us through sickness and pain, shelter us in every storm, reassure us as we struggle through the valley of bitter sorrow, and keep the light of faith burning brightly, when the way is steep and disappointment and despair are near.

Yes, God's love is eternal. His love never gives up; it follows us up and down the road of life. When God made us, He showered us with love, and nothing can change, alter or stop that love. Paul wrote, "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creatures, shall be able to separate us from the Love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 8:38-39.

Love—HIS LOVE ETERNAL—the greatest thing in the world.

Tribute to Grand Officers of other Grand Jurisdictions .. Mrs. Agnes Lee Howard Past Grand Matron

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD, Past Grand Matron: It is fitting that we linger for a moment and remember with reverence the Grand Officers of Other Grand Jurisdictions who have crossed life's bridge during this Eastern Star Year of 1964-1965.

"Kind and loving, faithful, true,
They blessed our world by passing through."

May all of their virtues be firmly impressed upon the minds and hearts of those that follow after them. Indelible are the deeds they left behind. The joys of other days are deep within the memories of the membership of some Grand Jurisdiction, because each one holds a place dear.

May we, at this hour, resolve in our hearts to put on the full armor carrying out the determined efforts of these devoted members to whom we pay everlasting tribute. The service they have given to others now brings manifold blessings to us, and let the memory of them serve as a reminder of those, that through their loyalty and unselfish love, have left a rich and lasting heritage so that their successors may push onward and upward to a keener knowledge. So strangely is Gods purpose planned that none of us can see into the great unchartered land which men call destiny. Life is only the prelude to eternity, and we are all moving toward that higher Chapter above. It is truly said that "the thought of eternity consoles for the shortness of life." We read in the blessed Book of Revelations, "And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. He that overcometh shall inherit all things."

May each of us place in the cornerstone of our hearts seeds of righteousness, understanding, truthfulness and happiness so that the bonds of true fraternity may be strengthened for the great work we strive to do and that these Sisters and Brothers will not have labored in vain.

"They do not die—
Who leave their thoughts on some living page;
They may pass,
But the good they wrought lives on from age to age."

Tribute to Members of Subordinate Chapters..... Dr. T. G. Rogers
Past Grand Patron

DR. T. G. ROGERS; Past Grand Patron: During the year the Angel of Death has visited our ranks and has taken the lives of 1,687 members of the Subordinate Chapters of Texas. Tonight we are here to pay the tribute of our love and devotion to perpetuate the memory of these departed Sisters and Brothers. All the pleasure which we shall experience at this Grand Chapter Session will be tinged with sadness by the loss of these members who no longer meet with us. Now we can only cherish their memories, and emulate all that was noble, good, true and beautiful in their lives.

“There is no death! The stars go down
 To rise upon some other shore;
 And bright in heaven’s jewelled crown
 They shine forever more.
 And ever near us, though unseen,
 The dear immortal spirits tread;
 For all the boundless Universe
 Is life—There are no dead.”

Death is only the doorway of Immortality, and Paul tells us that “Then shall we know fully even as also we are known.” Our hearts find solace in the remembrance of our loved ones. We cannot escape the sorrow which comes from the loss of our beloved Sisters and Brothers. God has given us the strength to endure it, and He will always lift us above it.

For out beyond the sunset
 Where loveliness never dies,
 They live in the land of glory,
 Beneath the blue and gold of the sky.
 And we who have known and loved them,
 Whose passing has brought sad tears,
 Will cherish their memories always,
 To brighten the passing years.

REPORT OF GRAND CHAPLAIN

MRS. ELNA MOSSHART, Grand Chaplain:

We have no promise that the road of life has no detours,
 But that the love and grace of God forever endures.
 We have no promise that no cross will be a burden sore,
 But that we shall not suffer loss now or forevermore.
 We have no promise that our way will not be hard and long,
 But that at last will dawn the day of endless joy and song.

Another year has passed and in the quiet of this hour of meditation, we have come to pay our full measure of respect and love to the memory of those of our beautiful Order, who have stepped through the heavenly portals into the larger and more beautiful life and who are now enjoying to the fullest, His Love Eternal.

We rejoice that during this year our family circle of Grand Officers has not been broken. However, we have been saddened by the loss of 1,687 members in our Subordinate Chapters of Texas, and we extend our deep sympathy to their loved ones.

During the year, 117 memorial cards have come from the various Sister Grand Jurisdictions, conveying the message that some loved one had been summoned from their fraternal family. Sympathy has been extended from the Grand Chapter of Texas in the loss of 57 Past Grand Matrons, 58 Past Grand Patrons, one Grand Conductress and one Honorary Life Member.

“Death is just passing to God’s sweet world above, Death is just entering into God’s Eternal Love.”

Then as the Grand Chaplain narrated "Our Star of Remembrance," the Grand Organist played softly "Star of the East."

GRAND CHAPLAIN: The story of that bright star, which shone in the East, became for us a symbol of God's Love Eternal; so that when our Order, devoted to charity and loving-kindness, was formed, it was named "The Order of the Eastern Star."

Members of the Order of the Eastern Star are inspired and sustained by the truth that God is the Architect of their lives. The supremacy of the Divine Being is exemplified in all the teachings of our Order.

We like to think that somewhere, in that vast blown velvet of the night sky, a special star has been set for each of these beloved members. There through all the ages, the radiance of their beautiful lives will shine in undiminished splendor to light the way of those who will one day follow in their footsteps.

They have slipped away to follow the Star
In a land beyond our sight.
And we know that they journey there as here
In the beautiful Eastern light.
No matter how winding the labyrinth
They know each step of the way,
With their faces towards the East they are glorified,
In the land of Eternal day.

The beauty of the flowers in their fullness, is significant of the fullness of the lives of those whom we have eulogized this evening. To add to the words of our spoken tributes, we will erect Our Star of Remembrance to the memory of these beloved members of our Order who saw His Star in the East and are now at home with Him.

The Infinite Father's watchful care over us is nowhere more impressively taught than by His voice speaking to us through the floral kingdom. The lessons and sentiments brought to us by the flowers are sweet and beautiful, but they have for us another impressive lesson of greatest importance and the deepest significance; year by year, we see the flowers bloom in all their beauty, live their life, and then wither, fade and pass away. But we know that they are not dead. We know that in God's own time, they will bloom again in a richer, more abundant beauty.

STAR OF BETHLEHEM

Blue symbolizes Fidelity, and is appropriate to Jephthah's daughter, who in the morning of life, surrendered to the grave the brightest of earthly hopes, that she might be faithful to her convictions of right and preserve her father's honor. With the Blue flowers of Adah, we remember the daughters and sons we have lost this past year, and as a token of faithfulness to the memory of those loving daughters and sons, who now share our Father's throne, we place these blue flowers to form the first point of our Star of Remembrance.

"For now we see through a glass darkly, but then face to face, now I know in part, but then shall I know even as also I am known."—I Corinthians 13:12.

Yellow symbolizes Constancy, and is appropriate to Ruth, who through her great vision to remain with Naomi and accept her God, came out victorious. As a token of faithfulness to the memory of the widows, whose hearts are filled with the sunshine of our Father's Love, we place these yellow flowers to form the second point of our Star of Remembrance.

"The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit."—Psalms 34:18.

White symbolizes light and purity. The heroic Queen Esther evinced the purity of her motive and love of kindred and friends by her willingness to risk the loss of crown and life to save her people from death. In memory of those wives, who sought first within their hearts the Kingdom of Heaven, we place these white flowers to form the third point of our Star of Remembrance.

"For neither can they die any more, for they are equal unto the angels, and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection."—Luke 20:36.

Green is an emblem of nature's life and beauty. Martha, beside the grave of her beloved brother, Lazarus, avowed her trustful faith and hope of immortal life. In memory of those Sisters, who have claimed His promises, we place these green flowers to form the fourth point of our Star of Remembrance.

"I am the resurrection and the life, he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live, and whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die."

Red symbolizes fervency and zeal. The bravery and courage as beautifully exemplified by Electa, is convincing evidence of her self-sacrificing love for her Christian faith and for the Cross signifying Christ's supreme sacrifice. In memory of the mothers, who now receive the fulfillment of all God's blessedness, we place these red flowers to form the fifth point of our Star of Remembrance.

"In my Father's house are many mansions, if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you, and if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself."—John 14:2-3.

And now we have completed our Star of Remembrance—the symbol of our Beautiful Order and symbol of the glorious promises of God. As the stars which cover the heavens on a clear night and light the pathway of man on his journey through the labyrinth of life, so may our beautiful Star in the East, in all its splendor, always remain the glory of the Order of the Eastern Star and light the pathway of its members to that City Eternal.

You will please rise for the benediction.

Benediction: "Lord's Prayer".....Mr. R. L. (Dick) Fisher

The Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel, and the Worthy Grand Patron, Dr. James H. Goettee, other Floor Officers, and all General Grand Chapter Officers, and Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of Texas, were honored on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 24th, with an "Autumn Splendor Reception" in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Texas. The theme for the Reception was "Autumn Leaves." The scene in the Grand Ballroom of Hotel Texas was one of Autumn Splendor. The large central decoration was a 32 foot GARDEN HOUSE with a canopy of Autumn colors that rose high into the air. The five (5) terminal posts rested on 5 round tables representing the 5 Districts in Texas. Rising from the center of each table and extending high around the posts of the Garden House were large and lovely arrangements of Autumn flowers. The tables were covered with gold cloths that hung to the floor and were draped with swags of Autumn green. The trellis and frame work of the Garden House were lavishly decorated with Autumn Leaves. Refreshments were Lime Punch and dainty white Petitsfours decorated with miniature autumn leaves. The napkins were also ornamented with autumn leaves. Music for the Reception was played by Mrs. Helen John and Mrs. Irene Barclay.

Informal Opening

The Informal Opening was called to order by Mrs. Cynthia May Watts Past Grand Matron.

For the half hour preceding the Call to Order the members and friends as they were assembling were favored with musical selections by Mrs. Louise Glenn and Mrs. Helen Dobbins at the Grand Organ and Grand Piano.

CALL TO ORDER

MRS. CYNTHIA MAY WATTS: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

A Happy Good Evening to each of you!

The day is done,
The sun is set,
Yet light still tints the sky.
My heart stands still in reverence,
For God is passing by.

At the close of this gloriously beautiful day, when the shadows of evening, in all of their mystery and majesty, slip quietly into twilight, we see the silvery rays of the moon and stars fall gently and silently about us, we pause to be grateful for another day of life.

This is a night of exquisite beauty. A panorama of elegance and grandeur has set the stage for this important occasion. The golden moment has arrived to call to order the Informal Opening of the Eighty-third Session, the Autumn Enchantment Session, of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

It is a regret that our beloved Past Grand Matron, Sister Freda Bernhard, could not be with us because of illness. We love her and miss her. She presided over the Sunshine Session, and through her liveliness always radiates sunshine into the hearts of her friends and Sisters and Brothers. In her absence, the Worthy Grand Matron has asked me to preside. I am grateful for this honor and pleasure.

Sisters and Brothers, 365 days seem like a long time. They add up to one year. As every thread of gold is valuable, so is every minute of time.

Robert Browning said: "A man's value is not measured by the years he has lived or even the work he has done. A man's value is measured by the character he has molded."

Through the years our beloved Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Amy Goebel, has been using her valuable time molding a sterling character through Christian living. The whole record of her life has been that of unselfish generosity, as she seems to have an inexhaustible supply of affection and concern for others. She possesses lovable qualities and has the remarkable fine gift for making friends. Sister Amy has been a distributor of love in her church duties, in her teaching profession, and in fraternal fields of service.

It is said that perfection of outward loveliness is the soul shining through a crystal lining from a heart of gold. This in a small measure attempts to describe our most illustrious leader of the Grand Chapter of Texas, and it is with pride we salute her, our own Sister Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Texas. (Applause.)

Through his splendid leadership, our Worthy Grand Patron, Dr. James H. Goettee, has dispensed much pleasure by his friendly and delightful disposition. He is held in very high esteem by the members of Texas. Tonight it is a special privilege to salute our good friend from Houston, Dr. James H. Goettee, an exceptionally fine man, a great Christian, and our Worthy Grand Patron. (Applause.)

Now it is my pleasure to present to you our beloved Past Grand Matron, Sister Lois Burnett, who will serve as Master of Ceremonies. (Applause.)

Mrs. Lois Burnett, Past Grand Matron, was escorted to the East by Mr. Charles E. Bairfield, Past Grand Patron.

MRS. CYNTHIA MAY WATTS: Sisters and Brothers, it is with personal pride that I present to you Sister Lois Burnett, Past Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Texas. She is one of my loveliest friends, and I could never express my gratitude to her for all she has done for me.

Twenty-one years ago I presided over Grand Chapter in this friendly city of Fort Worth. It was a war year, and no one could say whether we would be able to hold Grand Chapter or not. It was Sister Lois who called me in Lufkin to assure me that the members of Fort Worth would open up their hearts and give us all we needed to have for a beautiful Grand Chapter Session. I told Sister Lois that her encouragement had given me much hope.

I am grateful to you, Sister Lois, for your friendship, for the love that binds us together, for your exceptional ability, for your sweet Christian life, and for just being you.

Sisters and Brothers, I present to you Sister Lois Burnett. (Applause.)

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Mrs. Cynthia May Watts, Past Grand Matron, thank you for your gracious words in calling this Informal Opening of the "Autumn Enchantment Session" to order. Happiness is a sunbeam which passes through thousands of hearts without losing a particle of its original ray. Your happiness through the years is reflected again and again in the hearts of your friends.

Music is well said to be the speech of angels. Mrs. Louise Glenn and Mrs. Helen Dobbins, your selection of "Leaves of Autumn," has made this "Some Enchanted Evening." Thank you both. (Applause.)

Distinguished members of the Order of the Eastern Star, the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Texas, A. F. & A. M., Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Texas, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, Order of DeMolay, Distinguished Officials representing our City of Fort Worth, all visitors and friends:

I stand before you at this twilight hour thrilled because of the signal honor the Worthy Grand Matron has given to me, that of serving as Master of Ceremonies for this auspicious occasion. To be standing in this very spot tonight awakens deep imprinted joys in my life which will ever be only mine. Though out of reach ever again, they will be hidden in the sacred treasures of the past with blest precious memories.

The very distinguished gentlemen at my side needs not the aid of any words of mine to tell you of the honor and esteem with which he is held all over the vast West Texas area of the Lone Star State and the Grand Chapter of Texas, for his life portrays the honor and esteem with which he is held. So I simply and proudly present to you my own Worthy Grand Patron of 1955-1956, Mr. Charles E. Bairfield, Past Grand Patron of Texas, who will bring you words of greeting.

Mr. Bairfield.

MR. CHARLES E. BAIRFIELD: Master of Ceremonies, Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished members of the General Grand Chapter, Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of other Grand Jurisdictions and of Texas, Right Worshipful Members of the Grand Lodge of Texas, other Exalted Members of the Masonic Fraternity, honored Officials of the fine All America City of Fort Worth and the great State of Texas, my Sisters, Brothers and friends:

Thank you Past Grand Matron, Sister Lois Burnett, for the opportunity to say a few words. We of the Order of the Eastern Star always look forward to coming to Fort Worth to a Grand Chapter Session with pleasurable anticipation. The City Officials are always profuse in their expressions of welcome and are courteous and considerate of us during our stay. For this we are grateful.

The Masonic Bodies greet us with hearty cordiality. For this we are deeply appreciative.

The local membership of our Order displays a spirit of fraternal love. For this we are truly thankful.

We are reminded that it was nine years ago when the Seventy-seventh, The Symphony Session, of our Grand Chapter was opened in this place. Sister Lois, you were Worthy Grand Matron, very beautiful, cool, calm and confident; while I, as Worthy Grand Patron, I do not know how I appeared, but I was anything but cool and calm. However, I was confident that you would conduct The Symphony with poise and produce a harmonious session. It seems that on that night we were all musicians carrying instruments, and with musical notes very much in evidence.

The scene has changed. Tonight we are enchanted with Autumn Splendor and Amy's Angels are very much in evidence.

When we speak of Angels we think of things divine, and are reminded of the bee that stung the preacher. Mrs. Bairfield in reporting on the meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service this past summer, said that when the bee stung the preacher the bee was heard to say, "Uh, uh, Divinity." Girls, it is fortunate that the bees are not active at this session, for you really appear to be divine this evening.

To our membership, let me say that we learn from the report of the Grand Secretary that we now number 130,603 members. This means that they are 130,603 windows through which the world views the Order of the Eastern Star in Texas. We are a large organization and do some very worth-while things; things of which we can well be proud. Our neighbors at home do not see the organization as a whole, and they may not know of these worth-while activities. They do see us as individuals and observe our actions, and from what they see in us they judge the Order as a whole. If our Order is to grow and prosper these neighbors must see something worth-while in us. Thus we each become Very Important People, important not only to ourselves but also to our Order.

Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Amy Goebel, I wish to commend you for the splendid manner in which you have conducted the high office to which the Grand Chapter of Texas in its wisdom saw fit to elect you. We like the gentle and genteel manner in which you conducted the Schools of Instruction. We like the respect that you have shown the members of the Masonic Fraternity and the love that you have exhibited towards the members of our Order. We just like you as a Worthy Grand Matron. Thank you sincerely for the privilege of having a part in this Informal Opening.

To my friend of long standing, Dr. Goettee, our Worthy Grand Patron, let me say congratulations on a task well done. You and your lovely wife, Edna, are the sort of team that is needed in your respective responsible positions. You have added dignity and confidence to the office which you hold. It is fitting that a man of your stature in your profession be our Worthy Grand Patron. This is true because Masons have been credited by historians with having exerted a great influence in the establishment and development of our Public School System in Texas. You as one of our leading educators are a credit to your profession and to Eastern Stars everywhere.

Past Grand Matron, we again stand in the East in this building, as we did nine years ago. Many things of joy and sorrow have happened to us, and I am tempted to reminisce. Time will not permit, and I will close by saying that Thelma and I have always respected you as an outstanding member of this great Order, and the years have caused us to appreciate more your fairness, your wisdom and your veracity, and above all to regard you as a lady with all the qualities that word envisions, and one we are glad to call our Sister. (Applause.)

PRESENTATION OF GRAND OFFICERS 1964-1965

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: The enchantment of Autumn is the most magnificent show on earth. The leaves in Autumn fall when the fruit is ripened, when their work is done and the time has come for harvest. The vivid coloring of the leaves is but their gracious and beautiful surrender of toil when they have finished their offering of service to God and to their fellow man.

Your Grand Officers have come to this Autumn Enchantment Session, graceful and beautiful, with the fruits of their labor gathered during the past year, and it is with great pride that I now present them to you.

May I ask if you will kindly cooperate with me in directing the greeting and applause. They will be introduced in couples, and after the second is introduced, then greet the two with your appreciation and enthusiasm for the service they have rendered.

Beginning on my left:

The Grand Sentinel, Mr. Allen J. Watts, escorted by Mrs. Jerry Sullivan. (Applause.)

The Grand Warder, Mrs. Aliene Houston, escorted by Mr. Tom Oxford. (Applause.)

I believe we have a Pro tem. for Mrs. Jettie Hinton, Grand Treasurer. Mrs. Lovena Grigg, escorted by Mr. C. F. Arbuckle. (Applause.)

The Grand Secretary, Mrs. Rebecca Miles, escorted by Mr. Ralph Peterson. (Applause.)

The Associate Grand Patron, Judge Marvin B. Simpson, Jr. (Applause.)

And the Associate Grand Matron, Mrs. Edna Earl Duke. (Applause.)

The Associate Grand Matron and Associate Grand Patron were seated in the East..

The Worthy Grand Patron, Dr. James H. Goettee. (Applause.)

And the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel. (Applause.)

PRESENTATION OF GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER OFFICERS

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: To these distinguished General Grand Chapter Officers in our midst tonight we would say: Your titles of honor add not to your distinction, but, in reverse, we want you to know that Texas feels that by your talents and service you honor the titles which you bear. The distinct honor is mine to invite you to your reserved places in the East. beginning:

Texas' Most Distinguished Member, Mrs. Mildred Haney Harris, Past Most Worthy Grand Matron of the General Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, escorted by Mr. John Tarter. (Applause.)

Mr. Frank R. Phillips, Educational Committee of General Grand Chapter, escorted by Mrs. Helen Durrance. (Applause.)

We sincerely regret that Mrs. Mabel Harle, Appeals and Grievances Committee of General Grand Chapter, could not be present this evening on account of the serious illness of her husband.

PRESENTATION OF DISTINGUISHED PERSONALITIES

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Great personalities are the commissioned guides of mankind, and either have been or at the present time are in places of responsibility and service because of their wise leadership. It is with pleasure that I invite these distinguished personalities to the East, beginning with:

Mrs. Lillian Barnard, Past Grand Matron of Texas, escorted by Mr. Marvin Justice. (Applause.)

Mr. Earl Bodiford, District Deputy Grand Master, 64th Masonic District, Grand Lodge of Texas, A. F. & A. M., escorted by Mrs. Doris Efrid. (Applause.)

Mr. Earl G. Manning, Past Grand Patron of Texas, escorted by Mrs. Abbie Jo McMahon. (Applause.)

Right Worshipful J. W. Chandler, Grand Junior Warden of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Texas, A. F. & A. M., escorted by Mrs. Merlyn DeVore.

Right Eminent Grand Commander J. T. Sanders, Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Texas, escorted by Mrs. Gertrude Webb. (Applause.)

Mrs. Mildred Garlitz, Past Grand Matron of Texas, escorted by Mr. Milton Mathews. (Applause.)

Mrs. Cheba Dewees, Past Grand Matron of Texas, escorted by Mr. Richard Corley. (Applause.)

Judge M. A. Childers, Past Grand Patron of Texas, escorted by Mrs. Laura Jane Jordan. (Applause.)

Mrs. Flora Besst Boone, Past Grand Matron of Texas, escorted by Mr. Vernon Barnes. (Applause.)

The Honorable Willard Barr, Mayor of the City of Fort Worth, escorted by Mrs. Cleatrice Bounds. (Applause.)

Mr. H. Malvern Marks, Past Grand Master and Executive Officer in Texas, International Supreme Council, Order of DeMolay, escorted by Miss Margaret Bradford and Honor Guard of Fort Worth DeMolay. (Applause.)

Mrs. Berenice House, Poet Laureate, escorted by Mr. George Wilson. (Applause.)

Mrs. Vivian Crouch, Member of Committee on Work, Grand Assembly of Texas, Order of Rainbow for Girls, escorted by Mr. Clark Tedman. (Applause.)

Miss Elizabeth Townsley, Artist Soloist, escorted by Mr. J. D. Gillespie. (Applause.)

Mr. R. E. Cox, Jr., President Elect of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, escorted by Mrs. Clevia Cross. (Applause.)

Mr. R. L. (Dick) Fisher, Past Grand Soloist, Grand Chapter of Michigan, Order of the Eastern Star, escorted by Mrs. Hulene Womack.

Grand Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Cloe Thomas, Grand Choir Director, and Mr. Ben Winder, Assistant Grand Choir Director.

ENTRANCE OF GRAND CHOIR

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: It has been said that a good countenance is the fairest of all sights, but the sweetest harmony in all the world is the sound of voices. So we will now have the entrance of the Grand Choir, Mrs. Cloe Thomas, Grand Choir Director, and Mr. Ben Winder, Assistant Grand Choir Director.

The Grand Choir entered the Grand Chapter Room.

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: We will be favored now by a solo by Mr. R. L. (Dick) Fisher, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Dobbins and Mrs. Louise Glenn.

SOLO

Mr. Dick Fisher sang "When There Is Love at Home."

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: It is my privilege now to present a man dedicated to public service, with imagination and courage to move forward to build a greater Fort Worth, ladies and gentlemen, the Honorable Willard Barr, Mayor of the "All America City," Fort Worth, Texas.

Mayor Barr.

MAYOR OF FORT WORTH

MR. WILLARD BARR: Thank you, Madam Chairman.

I ask your indulgence for appearing early on the program, but a matter of great importance to this community has arisen in the last forty-five minutes that will require my attention shortly, and I ask your forgiveness for appearing at this time.

As a matter of fact, I would like very much to remain and see the rest of the ceremonies. If these Informal Ceremonies are any indication of what is to follow I would like very much to see the Formal Ceremonies. (Applause.)

It has been a beautiful ceremony. I have enjoyed every moment of it. I am very privileged to be here.

It is a great privilege for me to welcome you to the City of Fort Worth, this "All America" City. We welcome you, and we hope you will enjoy your stay to the extent that you will want to come back.

Thank you very much for coming. (Applause.)

PRESENTATION OF HOLY BIBLE

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: The Bible is God's Word, is all pure, all sincere, nothing too much, and nothing wanting. How fitting to have one whose daily walk is guided by its teachings present it on this occasion.

The Holy Bible will now be presented upon our Holy Altar by Mrs. Marjory Wofford, Past Grand Matron of Texas.

PRESENTATION OF SQUARE AND COMPASSES

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: The Order of the Eastern Star has a very close relationship with the members of the distinguished Masonic Fraternity, though our Order is no part of that ancient institution. How fitting tonight that we have the very illustrious Past Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Texas, A. F. & A. M., to present the Square and Compasses, Mr. John R. Collard, Jr.

Mr. John R. Collard, Jr., Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas, presented the Square and Compasses, following the presentation of the Bible.

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: One whose life is lived with modesty, humility and calmness of spirit, always in tune with the Master, will come now and bring the invocation. Mrs. Lillian Barnard, Past Grand Matron of Texas.

INVOCATION

MRS. LILLIAN BARNARD: Our Father who art in heaven, whose mercies none can number, and whose grace is beyond measure, we raise to Thee our evening praise and at Thy Altar lift our voices in prayer.

We thank Thee for all the varied experiences of our lives.

Shadows as well as sunshine, tears as well as laughter, defeat as well as victory, we recognize as the stuff out of which our destiny is builded.

Give to us the grace to be sane about our successes and the courage to bear bravely our disappointments.

Cause Thy benediction and blessing to rest upon our beloved Order.

Give strength to our leaders who labor and pray for the success of their efforts to benefit mankind. Make them loyal to their heavenly visions, and passing through the world may they leave it a better, happier place.

Tomorrow when new ways open, and new duties call, may we be wise and steadfast, sure that Thou knowest the way we take. Give us the joy of going on, the rapture of the forward look, the gladness of the distant goal.

We ask Thy blessing on each home here represented, give wisdom, courage and strength to the mothers and fathers that they may lead the youth of our land in paths of righteousness, beauty and truth.

Forgive us our sins, and save us with an everlasting salvation. We ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

PRESENTATION OF FLAGS

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: And now, Sisters and Brothers, the presentation of the Flags:

The United States Flag, Dr. R. O. Fuqua

The Texas Flag, Mr. E. F. (Van) Plumlee

The Christian Flag, Mr. Paul C. Stoneman

The Eastern Star Flag, Mr. Ed. L. Sharpe

And following the presentation of the Flags, the pledge of allegiance to the flag of our country will be led by Mr. Earl Manning, Past Grand Patron.

All of these distinguished gentlemen are Past Grand Patrons of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

Following the pledge of allegiance to the flag of our country the Grand Choir will sing "God Bless America."

Informal Opening of the 83rd Session—"Autumn Enchantment" Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas, October 25th

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The pledge of allegiance was led by Mr. Earl G. Maanning, Past Grand Patron, following which the Grand Choir sang "God Bless America."

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Each of us acknowledges the beauty and influence of this hour, an hour of adoration for one whose service to the Order has been unexcelled, who is to bring a word of welcome, our esteemed Mrs. Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. Goebel. (Applause.)

WELCOME

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: The age old custom of welcoming guests into our midst is a privilege that all of us enjoy. I am delighted to have the pleasure and privilege of extending to each of you a very warm and sincere welcome to the Eighty-third Session, the "Autumn Enchantment" Session, of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

There is always an air of gladness and expectancy as we come to this hour. It is gratifying to have such a fine representation of members and friends, and I trust that our guests will enjoy our genial hospitality.

The enchanting beauty and loveliness of this Autumn scene is striking evidence of the preparation that has been made for your coming. I am delighted to welcome you, and I look forward to a great week of many accomplishments, as we work together.

The Grand Chapter of Texas was founded in 1884, when Texas was still a relatively young state. The Order has grown into a world wide organization that fosters international friendship and unity among all nations.

The modern history of our Order is the record of accomplishments of Christian men and women who have made temperly something abundantly worthwhile. We are grateful for the opportunity to unfurl throughout the world the banner of Christian Faith to free men everywhere, unfettered by sectarian creed, as broad as God's infinite grace, and deep as His infinite love. I am deeply grateful that long ago there was crystalized into the literature of a great religion the ideal that the other word for God is Love.

Again, may I extend to you a very personal welcome, and say to you that we are glad you are here. I am sure you will find the Fort Worth people warm and friendly, and that their hospitality is exceeded only by their friendly smile and warm handclasp.

It will be a pleasure to greet each of you personally, and I hope your visit here will be a memorable one. (Applause.)

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: That one who has served at the side of the Worthy Grand Matron, at all times exemplifying the high principles of the Order, and particularly the spirit of loyalty in its truest sense, will come now and make the dedication, Dr. James H. Goettee, Worthy Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of Texas.

Dr. Goettee. (Applause.)

DR. GOETTEE:

DEDICATION

Once in a while a friend is found
 Who's a friend right from the start,
 Once in a while a friendship's made
 That really warms the heart,
 Once in a while a friendship's formed
 To last a lifetime through,
 It really does happen,
 Just once in a while—
 For it happened to us and to you.

We are deeply grateful to the Junior Past Matrons and the Junior Past Patrons of Texas, who are affectionately referred to as the "Amy Goebel Girls" (Amy's Angels) and the "Jim Goettee Boys," for their loyalty, support, and encouragement, manifested by their friendly smile, and kindly actions. It was not difficult to discern that our hopes and desires were also theirs too, and whatever accomplishments were attained, we share with them.

Therefore it is with justifiable pride and pleasure that we lovingly dedicate—

"THE AUTUMN ENCHANTMENT SESSION"
 to the
 WORTHY MATRONS AND WORTHY PATRONS
 with whom we have served

Mrs. Amy Goebel
 Worthy Grand Matron

Dr. James H. Goettee
 Worthy Grand Patron

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: One of our very distinguished members of the Order, a composer of music and poetry, is a Past President of the Federated Clubs in Texas, distinguished for outstanding service in the American Red Cross, and is now Poet Laureate of the Grand Chapter of Texas. She will now introduce the Special Music, following which she will make the dedication of her poem, "Autumn Enchantment."

May I present to your Mrs. Berenice House, Poet Laureate of the Grand Chapter of Texas.

SOLOIST

Mrs. Berenice House, Poet Laureate, presented Miss Elizabeth Townsley in two vocal numbers, "Elsa's Dream" from "Lohengrin, Act I," and "Peace, Oh God."

Miss Townsley resides in Fort Worth and is a graduate of the University of Texas and has studied in New York and Europe. She taught in the University of Kansas for six years.

Mrs. Sue Smith accompanied Miss Townsley, and she is a graduate in Church Music at Texas Christian University at Fort Worth.

Mrs. House then read and dedicated the following poems, "Autumn Enchantment," "Our Leader," and "Our Year."

DEDICATION OF POEMS

MRS. BERENICE HOUSE: To the Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, and Members of Grand Chapter:

I dedicate the following poems to this Grand Chapter Session; Autumn Enchantment, and to our Worthy Grand Matron, I dedicate "Our Leader," and lastly, one is dedicated to this happy Eastern Star Year—"Our Year."

May God bless you and keep you, one and all.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. BERENICE HOUSE
Poet Laureate
1964-1965

AUTUMN ENCHANTMENT

Autumn is here again once more,
Leaves are turning by the score,
First the brown, then the gold,
Some are red before the cold.

I stand inspired and enchanted
By the beauty and love we hold
We are happy and contented
As the memories of our year unfold.

I picture for you enchantment
A day dream it may seem
A design for perfect happiness,
Stars throughout Texas gleam.

God planned the glorious seasons,
Our season is the fall
When Autumn blazes forth
And the Universe hears God's call.

In rapture, I sit and day dream,
See visions of beauty rare,
And feel God's undying love
As I revel in gardens fair.

We can see God in every flower
And in the stars above,
And every leaf and flower
Tell us that God is love.

I hear music, soothing and clear
Telling me always that God is near.
Instruments tuned away from strife
Guide us away from the storms of life.

I see mountains covered with dew,
Valleys of green, the sun shining, too,
I see beauty everywhere,
As I sit and day dream without fear.

We have no need of mountains of gold,
We have our Father and blessings untold,
He gives us joy and He gives us love,
He gives us blue skies up above.

BERENICE HOUSE
Poet Laureate

OUR LEADER

We've had the perfect leader,
 So gracious and so kind;
 We saw many a sacrifice
 As she went her way sublime.

Our leader, an enchantress, is charming,
 We love her for her true self;
 She has real magical powers,
 Just like a fairy or elf.

She wields a magical influence,
 She fascinates her loved ones and friends;
 We are all magically enraptured
 Before our O.E.S. year ends.

We're glad to do her bidding,
 We'll follow where she leads;
 We'll help her in her planning
 As her Father's voice she heeds.

She gave herself away
 In sacrifice and love,
 And she laid up rich treasures
 In God's kingdom up above.

We now look ahead in faith,
 Without a qualm or fear;
 You can't do a good deed without reward,
 It comes to you from the Lord.

BERENICE HOUSE
 Poet Laureate

OUR YEAR

A year ago we assembled
 To start our work anew.
 Our accomplishments have been many
 Our failures have been few.

We had many joys and blessings,
 A disappointment or two.
 We've had rewarding experiences
 As we, our work review.

Now is the time of reality,
 Fantasy will pass away.
 Look back on your life,
 And see what you did with each day.

Now we seek a place of rest
 After each has done his very best.
 A place of worship we will find
 Which brings to us a peaceful mind.

BERENICE HOUSE
 Poet Laureate

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Berenice House, Poet Laureate, for your contribution in beautiful words and thoughts to this year of service in Grand Chapter. They have been an inspiration to me, as well as to the membership of Texas.

Each of us needs in our heart's treasury the memory of a beautiful thought, as expressed so well by Sister Berenice House. And, indeed, almost as great as the ability to write a line of beautiful poetry is the ability to use the thought that it expresses to higher levels of emotion and achievement.

I am proud and honored, Berenice, to count you among my friends, and your beautiful words will always be an inspiration to me. (Applause.)

TRIBUTES TO FLAGS

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Many of you will remember the beauty, the luster and brilliance of the Jewel Session presided over in 1953 by Mrs. Mildred Garlitz, Past Grand Matron of Texas, who will come now and pay tribute to the flag of our country and to the Texas flag.

Mrs. Garlitz.

UNITED STATE FLAG

MRS. MILDRED GARLITZ: Lift up your eyes and let them behold the glory of a flag that depicts freedom to the entire world. It is an emblem of the hopes and aspirations, portraying the dreams and struggles, the joys and achievements of our homeland. As your eyes drink in the vivid colors of the red, the white and the blue let your mind turn back in history and recall the heroic deeds that made this symbol great. Linger for a few moments on the times that this flag was hauled down from its place in the Heavens by the hands of the enemy. Remember the ragged, dirty, tired defenders who rescued it, and be grateful.

Let your heart swell with pride when you recall that this symbol has the blessing of God, for no man or group of men have been able to force it into oblivion, although their acts would have made a lesser banner fall into decay and become lost in the dust of time.

Its honorable courageous past is rooted in the immortal deeds of patriots which justifies our pride and loyalty. We must remind ourselves that the freedoms which it gives: of worship, of assembly and of expression are given to all men over whom it flies as they pledge allegiance.

When you see it pass in a parade, when you see it proudly displayed from a mast or when you see it in any place, let your soul fill with rapture, let a silent tear fall from your eye and let your mind give thanks to God. This is your most precious personal treasure, your flag and my flag, the flag of the United States of America.

Star Spangled Banner, with pride we salute you. (Applause.)

TRIBUTE TO THE FLAG OF THE LONE STAR STATE

MRS. MILDRED GARLITZ: Glorious Lone Star of Texas: You are the sum total of Six Flags. Each of your component parts has contributed to the colorful history of our great state. You came out of a long struggle for freedom and right. You are a symbol of the sacrifices and hardships of the brave and hardy pioneers as they wended their way westward with dauntless courage to open new frontiers.

Just one hundred and twenty years ago your brilliance was added to twenty-seven other state flags to weld a union under God, inseparable, a symbol of Freedom Triumphant.

We salute you for your glorious past, but in remembering we realize our greatest hope lies in the future. We can not be saved by the valor and devotion of our ancestors at the Alamo or Goliad or San Jacinto. Each generation faces a patriotic challenge to sacrifice and endure, if needs be, to preserve the ideals and honor that are dearer than life.

Nothing more stirring is found in the annals of governments than the chivalry and fearlessness of Travis, Bowie, Bonham, Crockett and other defenders of the Alamo. Their gallant deeds will inspire men to loyalty and devotion as long as history is recorded.

Dear Flag of the Lone Star State, in humility we hail you. (Applause.)

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Every thought, every word and every deed for Christ lifts mankind from self and discouragement, and so it is fitting to have the one who presided over the "Good Shepherd" Session in 1952 to come and pay tribute to the Christian flag and to the Eastern Star flag.

Mrs. Flora Besst Boone, Past Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Texas.

CHRISTIAN FLAG

MRS. FLORA BESST BOONE: Tonight we come with deep reverence to pay loving tribute to the beautiful banner of our Christian Faith. In the folds of this glorious Flag we see the Cross, sacred emblem of our Saviour's death. We know that He went forth into the world where hardships, heart-aches, and triumphs awaited Him, even death, but after death everlasting life. He came that we might have the more abundant life. And so the Cross has become a precious emblem of His love.

May we never let this standard down. May we always be honest, just and true. May we ever hold fast a sweet and strong faith in Him. His hands are beckoning us to come within the circle of His faith and love, where are bright angels, and all goodness, truth and beauty.

"O! Come, let us adore Him."

With open hearts, and hope and joy we salute this beautiful flag as we pray for peace in our world, for unruffled calm and unbroken serenity within our hearts that no storms of life shall ever be able to take from us. May we stay with the Old Testament writer:

"Let the Heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice, and let man say among nations, 'The Lord Reigneth.'" I Chronicles 16:31.

EASTERN STAR FLAG

MRS. FLORA BESST BOONE: Holding a place of devotion in our hearts is the Eastern Star Flag. Pictured in its folds is the Star of the East. Each point in this Star is endowed with beauty and significance. There is something in the lessons which it portrays that probes the depths of the human soul. There is something of nobility in it which speaks to one of living a more worthy life. There is something of beauty in it that urges one on to a higher goal. Something that tells us of fidelity, constancy, loyalty, faith and love.

This flag speaks of the gifts of the Wise Men to the Christ Child, and of God's gracious gift to Mankind. It tells of the angel's song of "Peace on Earth, Good will to men."

"May this Bethlehem's Star
Still light the way,
And guide you to
The perfect peace
When every fear and doubt shall cease,
And may thy house
Such glory know
As did the stable
Long ago."—Edgar A. Guest.

(Applause.)

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Mrs. R. L. (Dick) Fisher will render a solo, "It Took a Miracle," accompanied by Mrs. Helen Dobbins and Mrs. Louise Glenn.

SONG

Mr. Dick Fisher sang "It Took a Miracle."

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: There is no welcome so warm and genuine in itself that it may be exceedingly more genuine and warm by the manner in which it is given. In such a manner, the one to represent our hostess Chapters, and who presided over the "Tie That Binds" Session in 1948, will come and extend the welcome.

Mrs. Cheba Dewees, Past Grand Matron of Texas.

WELCOME FROM HOSTESS CHAPTERS

MRS. CHEBA DEWEES: Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel, Dr. James H. Goettee, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters, Brothers and Friends:

I wish to thank the Worthy Grand Matron for this rare privilege to speak for the more than six thousand members of our Order living in this "All America City" of Fort Worth, Texas, to say Welcome.

Destiny is the purposes for which anything is designed, its ultimate end or goal. God never creates idly or aimlessly, but actively and specially. In our Order of the Eastern Star there is a symbol, the Star, with five points, glowing at this moment, that those of us who live here, and believe in this symbol and all that it has meant through the ages, want our symbol to say, Cordial Greetings, Welcome, with warm handclaps, and say: "We hope you like Fort Worth, and all of us know we like you."

So stay a while, won't you?

The membership of Fort Worth loves to have Grand Chapter, and to work on all the plans for your comfort and pleasure. Texas is proud of its Eastern Star Grand Chapter, and of you, its members. Most of all, Fort Worth is proud of you.

The adventure, the enjoyment, the art of "wearing well," is a wonderful thing. You have returned to our city again and again since the organization of Grand Chapter here in 1884, and we hope we have worn rather well. Bless you, the Founders of 1884, and also the Members of 1965.

You have come to see our Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron in the magnificent grandeur of Autumn Splendor and Enchantment that only the beauty of this Season presents in raiment of brown, gold, and bronze, with a lingering of green, reminding us of the days just past. Memory is kind to those that love.

On behalf of the more than six thousand members of our Order, members of the Fort Worth Chapters, I bid you a cordial welcome.

May you return again and again to our fold. (Applause.)

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Not so much what men do worthily, but what they do successfully, is what history hastens to record. Both of these virtues may be claimed and will be recorded by the distinguished Mr. R. E. Cox, Jr., Vice President of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Cox.

WELCOME—FORT WORTH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

MR. R. E. COX, JR.: Worthy Grand Matron, Master of Ceremonies, Officers of the Grand Chapter of Texas, and other Eastern Star members:

Fort Worth is honored that you have chosen our city for your meeting. It is a pleasure to extend you a cordial welcome to the All-America City on behalf of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce.

Many of you have been here before, and I am sure that others of you are here for the first time. Regardless of whether it is an old experience or a new adventure, you will find that a real Texas welcome awaits you at every turn.

Fort Worth has been called the most Texan of Texas cities. We are a combination of the many cultures and the many strengths that have blended into a city where progress is important, but where friendliness and hospitality have not been lost in the process of acquiring greatness.

Fort Worth's designation as an All-America City is an award we cherish—because it represents what a city can do to rise above mediocrity. Fort Worth is also known as the Action City of the southwest, because of the great things that are happening in our community.

Let me tell you something of what has happened in Fort Worth recently. Less than three years ago our community was aroused from its lethargy of indifference and has been accomplishing things which some of our citizens thought impossible.

This civic re-birth began under the administration of Mayor Bayard Friedman, and has been carried forward dramatically during the administration of Mayor Willard Barr.

New activity and aggressiveness developed within our business community about this time with the re-organization and re-juvenation of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber now has a competent professional and administrative staff whose members are anxious to serve on the voluntary Chamber of Commerce committees.

An industrial development corporation has been formed within the Chamber. A new industrial development manager, along with his staff, has been most active in bringing in new industry to Fort Worth. The land for a 1,200 acre industrial park is now under option and this industrial park will probably be in operation in the not too distant future.

Under the sponsorship of the re-juvenated city government and Chamber of Commerce, plus the Tarrant County Central Labor Council, a series of town hall meetings resulted in the passage of a $16½ million dollar County bond issue for a towntown convention center and a County sports stadium at Arlington. The schedule for completion of this 14 block downtown convention center is 1968. This County bond issue was passed in April, 1964.

Our citizens in December, 1964 approved a twenty-seven million dollar bond issue to improve our public schools facilities.

With all of this and many other prospects and projects in the works, we are really on the go and the future is bright.

Fort Worth today stands on the threshold of the greatest economic and industrial growth in its history.

So to you, the members of the Grand Chapter of Texas and other Eastern Star members, we welcome you to Fort Worth.

We hope that when your meeting is concluded, you will take back to your homes some happy memories of your time spent with us, and the desire to visit us as often as possible.

Thank you for permitting me to be here this evening. (Applause.)

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Duty is a shadow that cleaves to us, go wherever we will. The worthy fulfillment of the duties assigned will do honor to the Right Worshipful Earl H. Bodiford, District Deputy Grand Master of the Sixty-fourth Masonic District, who will now extend greetings.

WELCOME—64TH MASONIC DISTRICT

MR. EARL M. BODIFORD: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Friends:

It is a privilege and real pleasure, on behalf of the twenty thousand Master Masons of the 64th Masonic District, which comprises Tarrant County, that I bring you greetings and a most cordial welcome to our city.

The work and accomplishments of your great Order of the past eighty-three years, within this Grand Jurisdiction, have been welcomed and appreciated by our own Ancient Fraternity. As you know, Tarrant County is the home of three of the great institutions supported by our Fraternities. The Masonic Home and School of Texas, located in the southeast part of Fort Worth, where almost three hundred Masonic children live, worship, go to school, and grow up to be worthy citizens, is one of our cherished projects. And, although this Institution is an activity of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Texas, we feel sure you are interested in the program being carried out at the Home. Then there is the Home for Aged Masons, located in Arlington, where our aged Brethren, their wives, and the widows of deceased Masons make their home. Then last, but certainly not least, your own Eastern Star Home, of which I am sure you are familiar, also located at Arlington. I hope each of you will take advantage of the opportunity to visit these Institutions, and I believe it will make your visit to this city a much richer experience. May I suggest that you contact the Superintendents of these Homes and make arrangements for your visitations. You will be welcome.

We are very happy that you have chosen our city and district for your meeting, and we wish for you a most pleasant and productive session of your Grand Chapter. And should there be any service that we may render that would assist in any way, please feel free to call upon us.

On behalf of the twenty-nine Masonic Lodges of this district, and my associate, Right Worshipful Edgar C. Harris, I bid you welcome. May God's blessing be with you.

Thank you, and Good Evening. (Applause.)

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: These fleeting moments have been filled with gracious words of welcome and excitement is engraved upon the hearts of all, especially the one who is to bring the response in appreciation of all that has been said and done, Mrs. Edna Earl Duke, the Associate Grand Matron of Texas.

RESPONSE TO WELCOME

MRS. EDNA EARL DUKE, Associate Grand Matron: Mrs. Lois Burnett, Master of Ceremonies, Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, General Grand Chapter Officers, other Distinguished Members and Guests, Sisters, Brothers, friends:

There is a gladness in my heart tonight that I am the Associate Grand Matron, because of the special privilege which is mine at this moment of responding to all these welcomes, spoken so sincerely and graciously by these many Distinguished Guests and Members, representing their respective institutions.

To the members of the Order of the Eastern Star in Texas, there is always a special significance to attending a Grand Chapter Session in Fort Worth. The distinction which you hold of organizing the Grand Chapter of Texas on May 5, 1884, is appreciated by each one of us. Your contributions of devoted interest and loyal service to our Order is always recognized, and we feel that it is proper indeed that the Eighty-third Session, "Autumn Enchantment," should be held here, and our Eighty-fourth year begun.

Mayor Barr, as we approached your City of Fort Worth, there was an aura of anticipation, a feeling of genuine pleasure. You are known far and wide for your friendly cordiality—for your all-out effort to live up to your reputation of Western Hospitality.

Particularly were our hearts warmed by the welcome from Mrs. Cheba Dewees, representing the Hostess Chapters of this city and section. We do realize that entertaining the Grand Chapter of Texas is an undertaking of major proportions, and that it is possible to do this only where there is coordinated teamwork by many people. Our thanks to all the members of all the Hostess Chapters for the many hours spent in creating this setting of magnificent beauty.

For the eloquent words spoken so ably by Mr. R. E. Cox, Jr., and the Right Worshipful Earl H. Bodiford, have we been made aware of our welcome, not only at the local level as previously mentioned, but also of all these others who have spoken so well of the civil, fraternal and civic institutions. Thank you, one and all.

As we approach this Autumn Enchantment Session we would wish for our Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron only great pleasure and satisfaction as they legislate and deliberate with justice and merciful understanding and love for the future good of our beautiful Order.

Long after the enchantment of this setting is forgotten, we will remember these welcomes with a warm glow of autumn happiness. (Applause.)

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: There never has been a great institution or a great man who did not sooner or later receive reverence from mankind. Such has been the case with the great Masonic fraternity which we, the members of the Order of the Eastern Star, reverence tonight, and we feel signally honored to receive greetings from the Right Worshipful J. W. Chandler, Grand Junior Warden of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Texas, A. F. & A. M.

Mr. Chandler.

GREETINGS—GRAND LODGE OF TEXAS

MR. J. W. CHANDLER: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Friends of the Eastern Star and my Sisters and Brothers all:

It is, indeed, a great honor to have been asked by the Grand Master of Masons in Texas, Most Worshipful Brother J. Carroll Hinsley, to represent him and the Grand Lodge of Texas, at this, the opening session of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

Our Worthy Grand Matron told me that I could have twenty minutes to talk to you this evening . . . but I have already given her fifteen minutes back.

I am pleased and proud to bring to you the greetings of our Grand Master and the nearly 250,000 Master Masons in Texas.

We are proud of the close relationship that has existed, for so many years, between our two great fraternal organizations. We are confident that this relationship will be strengthened during the years to come.

The Order of the Eastern Star is an important part of our proud and illustrious Masonic family.

As our two great Orders grow together in strength, through a closer relationship . . . a mutual understanding . . . and of being of service to one another, we are confident that we will reach the ultimate goal of all mankind . . . the Universal Brotherhood of Man.

I know that you have much important work to do here, and so little time in which to do it. I wish for you a most successful Grand Chapter Session.

Last year, as Worthy Patron of Houston Heights Chapter No. 258, I had the opportunity of attending Grand Chapter for the first time. I must admit that I admire and respect the stamina and endurance of you ladies. How you could stay up all night, attending receptions and parties, and then attend business sessions all day was beyond me.

My Grand Chapter experiences of last year led me to dedicate a little poem to my Worthy Matron, Sister Olney Wright, that went something like this:

Mary had a little lamb,
It would have become a sheep,
But it joined the Eastern Star
And died for the want of sleep.

Thank you and God bless you. (Applause.)

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: The temple of honor is built on eminence. Thus this Informal Opening of the Autumn Enchantment Session is honored tonight with the presence of Mr. J. T. Sanders, Right Eminent Grand Commander, Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Texas.

Mr. Sanders.

GREETINGS GRAND COMMANDERY, KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

MR. J. T. SANDERS: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Past Grand Matrons, Past Grand Patrons, General Grand Chapter Officers, Grand Chapter Officers, Officers of Grand Chapter, Sisters, Brothers and Friends:

I am indeed honored to be granted the privilege of extending to this Grand Chapter, the greetings and felicitations of more than 30,000 Knights Templar in the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Texas.

The Order of Knights Templar and the Order of the Eastern Star, have much in common. To the uninitiated the Order of the Eastern Star may appear to be, due to the beautiful evening gowns worn by its lady members, and the tuxedos worn by its gentlemen members, a fashion show unfurled in a stream of pageantry. The Order of Knights Templar may appear to be, due to the chapeaux, uniforms and swords worn by its members, a band of warring Knights interested only in conflict.

But, the initiated realize that below the surface lie deep seated principles which when followed, form a basis for clean upright Christian living. The deep seated Moral Principles furnish a guide for the human intellect which is unexcelled in the history of man.

It was human intellect guided by the Moral Principles of our beautiful Orders that forged ahead and founded this great country of the United States of America.

It was human intellect guided by the Moral Principles of our beautiful Orders that built this great country of ours to its present state.

It is human intellect guided by the Moral Principles of our beautiful Orders that will keep our country great.

We must adhere to the principles inculcated in our Orders, if we are to be guided in the direction which will maintain Freedom for our posterity.

Worthy Grand Matron, I appreciate this opportunity of speaking in behalf of the Knights Templar of Texas, and any time we can be of service to you, be sure to call upon us. Thank you. (Applause.)

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: So shines the setting sun on adverse skies, and paints the rainbow on the storm. So shines the principles of the Order of Rainbow for Girls in the hearts of young womanhood and paints a rainbow, thus leading them to find the pot of gold for their lives. One whose time and energy is dedicated to this organization is Mrs. Vivian Crouch, member of the Grand Committee on Work, Grand Assembly of Texas, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, who will bring greetings.

Mrs. Crouch.

GREETINGS—ORDER OF RAINBOW FOR GIRLS

MRS. VIVIAN CROUCH: Thank you, Sister Lois Burnett, Master of Ceremonies.

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters, Brothers and Friends:

It is indeed a pleasure for me to bring greetings to this Grand Chapter Session in behalf of Sister Martha Marie Whitfield, Supreme Inspector and Supreme Service in Texas for some four thousand Rainbow Girls. I am sorry Mrs. Whitfield could not be here to bring this greeting herself, but she is on a Pacific tour at this time with the Supreme Advisor.

Sister Marie asked me to express to you her regrets at not being able to attend this session, and to give you her personal thanks for the many courtesies you have extended to Rainbow through the years.

The Rainbow Girls in Texas are very honored to be a part of this fraternal family. We are grateful for the sponsorship of the Order of the Eastern Star. We try in many ways to express our love and service for this privilege.

We also would like to express our appreciation to Master Masons for the privilege of being able to meet in so many of our beautiful Masonic Temples.

Again, I would like to say we are so very proud that you are our leaders. We look to you for guidance in the future, as we have done in the past.

Sister Amy and Dr. Goettee, the Grand Assembly of Texas wishes for you a most successful Eighty-third Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas.

Sister Edna Earl Duke, incoming Worthy Grand Matron, and Brother Marvin Simpson, incoming Worthy Grand Patron, the Rainbow Girls of Texas will give to you the same support and serve you as they have other leaders of our Order in the past.

Thank you. (Applause.)

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: The destiny of any nation at any given time depends on its young men under five-and-twenty years. The Order of DeMolay has helped to shape the lives of many young boys, and this Order is represented here today by one of its most distinguished leaders, Mr. H. Malvern Marks, Past Grand Master and Executive Officer in Texas, International Supreme Council, Order of DeMolay.

Mr. Marks.

GREETINGS—ORDER OF DeMOLAY

MR. H. MALVERN MARKS: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

It is a genuine pleasure to greet you in the name of the Order of DeMolay and to welcome you to Fort Worth for your Grand Chapter meeting.

The Order of DeMolay, now in its 46th year of character building for young men ages 14 to 21, has more than 10,800 members in Texas alone. Countless DeMolays have risen to positions of prominence in our Nation's government, many have become Governors, others dedicated ministers and bishops, and many are the leading professional and business leaders of our day.

We greet you and sincerely thank you for your warm reception and continued support in the building of men of tomorrow. We pray that the Star in the East may continue to shed its rays upon your activities and this meeting.

Welcome in the name of the Order of DeMolay. (Applause.)

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR DISPLAY DRILL

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: For the color and pleasure of this occasion tonight we will now have the Knights Templar Display Drill by Worth Commandery No. 19 of Fort Worth, under the direction of the distinguished Richard T. Porter, Team Captain, Captain General, Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Texas.

The Class A Drill Team of Worth Commandery No. 19, of Fort Worth, under the direction of Richard T. Porter, Grand Captain General, Grand Commandery Knights Templar of Texas, was presented in a drill. The Sir Knights, in full dress uniform, white plumes and glittering accoutrements, executed a spirited precision drill which brought continuous applause from the vast audience.

THEME OF GRAND CHAPTER SESSION

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: The theme of the Autumn Enchantment Session will now be given by the Grand Choir.

GRAND CHOIR

A most impressive musical rendition of "Love Is the Theme"—the Theme of this Grand Chapter Session, was then given by the Grand Choir.

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: We have all anticipated the "Autumn Splendor" Drill, which will be under the direction of the Grand Marshal, Mrs. Agnes J. Pollock. The narration was composed by Mrs. Ruth Dunn, of Lubbock.

"AUTUMN SPLENDOR" DRILL

Directed by Mrs. Agnes J. Pollock, Grand Marshal

Narrated by Mrs. Lois Burnett

(Soft music.)

NARRATOR:

Autumn in all its splendor
Does not happen over night,
Gods handiwork takes months to render
Such a glorious sight.
In this Autumn scene, you will behold
Months, even years, were in the making;
For step by step its growth unfolds
The changing of colors, its really breath-taking.

(The Assistant Grand Sentinels, the men Officers of Grand Chapter, and Grand Ushers enter and form the trunk and branches of a large tree.)

NARRATOR:

First, roots must be firmly in the ground,
To carry the load that they must bear;
Grand Sentinels, Grand Ushers and men of Grand Chapter abound,
Faithful, loyal, sincere—all qualities so rare.

(Men in black.)

NARRATOR:

Roots send up strength that they have stored,
Small green leaves turn toward the deep, blue sky;
These Grand Pages are privileged to adorn
The base the Grand Brothers form—our strong, strong ties.

(Green.)

(The District Deputies, Grand Examiners, Deputy Grand Matrons and Personal Pages appear in dresses in shades of cranberry red to take their places as branches, with leaves, on the trees.)

NARRATOR:

All Deputies, Grand Examiners and Personal Pages appear
 As the cool, crisp Autumn breezes begin to blow,
 Here and there—color changes are in the air
 As Mother Nature beckons—"Let's go."

(Red.)

(The Assistant Grand Warders enter to add another color to the changing tree—that of soft, warm beige tones.)

NARRATOR:

But the Autumn days are enchanted,
 Causing the red to gradually change
 As the Assistant Grand Warders enter
 To display colors of soft, warm beige.

(Beige.)

(The Ladies of Grand Chapter and Grand Representatives enter in tones of Gold to add the final branches and limbs to the tree.)

NARRATOR:

As time goes by, the colors change on the tree,
 The ladies of Grand Chapter and Grand Representatives will show,
 That the Enchantment of Autumn is beautiful to see
 As the tree has slowly turned to tones of gold.

(Gold.)

(The Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron and floor Officers are escorted to the West to enter through the center of the tree trunk. The Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron go to the Altar. The two lines of floor Officers follow the line of Brothers, the trunk of the tree, to the left and right of the Altar, on to the top of the tree.)

The Grand Officers were lovely in their formals of champagne color lace with beads on the bodices. The skirts had a slight fullness and train effect in the back. They wore colored slippers to match.

NARRATOR:

Strength is needed by those so dear,
 On their opinions we rely,
 Our Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron and floor Officers appear,
 To add luster to the marvelous sight.

(Champagne.)

Autumn is enchanted with many trees,
 Their beauty we would like to keep;
 So that other eyes might see
 Before winter puts them to sleep.
 The Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons dressed in white
 Will hold this great tree in place,
 So others may gaze at the enchanted sight,
 With awe and wonder on each face.

Informal Opening—"Autumn Splendor"—Grand Officers, Officers of Grand Chapter, Grand Representatives, Pages, Sentinels, and Warders of Grand Chapter.

(White.)

(Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons of Texas enter from the west, and go all the way around the room to make a square frame for the picture of "Autumn Splendor.")

NARRATOR:

May we ever remember that our Creator's hand
Molds Enchantments not made by man.
May we also remember—you and me,
That only God creates a tree.

SOLO

Mr. Dick Fisher sang "Trees," by Joyce Kilmer.

(The formation retired and the Grand Brothers were left on the floor.)

NARRATOR:

What is so rare as to behold,
What nature did with the leaves of gold
For there on the floor, we plainly see
Is the firm base for years to be.
Again and again they will be here
Faithful, loyal and sincere—
Our Grand Masonic Brothers.

(Prolonged applause.)

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Prayer at eventide is the key that shuts us up under God's protecting hand. Great men are those who rely upon truth, on virtue and on God. Thus it is fitting to have the benediction given by such a one, Judge M. A. Childers, Past Grand Patron, Grand Chapter of Texas.

Judge Childers.

BENEDICTION

JUDGE M. A. CHILDERS: We thank Thee, our gracious Heavenly Father, for this great Order, dedicated to charity, truth and loving kindness. We thank Thee for the spirit of Jesus which fills our hearts as we open the Autumn Enchantment Session of our Grand Chapter. We pray that as from day to day to give account for the service rendered and to make plans for the future that we may feel Thy presence.

Now dismiss us with Thy blessing. Watch over us from day to day, and keep us in Thy loving care.

We pray in the name of Jesus, our Lord. Amen.

The Informal Opening was closed at 9:45 p. m.

Formal Opening of the 83rd. Session of the Grand Chapter—Mrs. Thelma McReynolds and Bro. Hal Burnett presiding.

Formal Opening

10:00 P. M.

The Formal Opening of the Eighty-third Session, the Autumn Enchantment Session, of the Grand Chapter of Texas, was called to order at 10:00 p. m. by Mrs. Thelma McReynolds, Past Grand Matron, and Mr. Hal Burnett, Past Grand Patron.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Sister Grand Marshal, will you please escort Sister Thelma McReynolds and Brother Hal Burnett to the East?

CALL TO ORDER

MRS. THELMA McREYNOLDS: Greetings, my Sisters and Brothers. Had I been given the talent of singing, I would express the joy in my heart with song; but since my talent is to listen, then I will leave the singing to our chorus and other soloists and try to express my feelings in words.

Indeed, I have a beautiful song in my heart this evening as I am privileged again to share the courtesies of this Grand East with my Worthy Grand Patron, Mr. Hal Burnett, who is a fine Christian Mason and whose Masonic background is one of honor and distinction. Together we extend a friendly welcome to all in attendance at this Eighty-third Annual Session of this Grand Chapter of Texas.

Time has brought us almost to the close of another year and we have met this evening in this beautiful "Autumn Enchantment Setting" to formally open the Eighty-third Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas. These gorgeous colors no doubt express profound beauty for each of us. It is very appropriate that we meet at the harvest time of the year to garner the sheaves of our year's work together.

Sisters and Brothers, as we round the bend on another annual circuit, we feel a deep appreciation to our Father in Heaven for the pleasure of assembling here once more to receive the reports, advice and counsel of those among us who have been privileged to positions of leadership. Time has been loaned to us to be used in God's service and we cannot be too diligent in its use.

In the next few days, we will discuss the past, a past with many memories and experiences; to decide on the future, a wonderful God-given future, which will lie partly in our hands. I am sure that as true Eastern Stars, our thinking will be directed by the broad spirit of the future, for it is we who help make the future.

Our Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel, and our Worthy Grand Patron, Dr. James H. Goettee, have had a wonderful year—their every heartbeat and impulse have been for the good of the Order.

It is my pleasure to have your friend and my friend, Brother Hal Burnett, speak to us at this time. (Applause.)

MR. HAL BURNETT: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, General Grand Chapter Officers, Distinguished Guests, my Sisters and Brothers:

What a privilege it is to come here tonight and to share with Sister Amy Goebel and Brother Jim Goettee, Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, in the accomplishments of the year they have had here in the Grand Chapter of Texas. Truly it is a privilege to be a part of this program tonight. It is a privilege to be a part of this great organization.

A teacher asked her children in the class: "Why is it our language is called the mother tongue?" A little boy lifted his hand, and he said: "It is because father never gets to use it."

What a privilege it is to belong to an organization of this nature, that has for its purpose to keep the symbol of this life above me, the Star of our Order, and the symbol of liberty, this one over here, the Stars and Stripes. So long as these symbols stand and the Holy Bible remains on the Altar, and can be opened by such groups as this; so long as fraternal organizations of our country, including the beautiful Order of the Eastern Star and our churches, shall stand, we may be sure we are standing on firm ground and that the future of our country is secure.

It is a great privilege for our Order to have such leaders as Amy Goebel and Jim Goettee and their good officers.

Thanks so very much for the privilege of coming here tonight and sharing with you this beautiful evening. We will see you until.

Thank you. (Applause.)

MRS. THELMA McREYNOLDS: Thank you, Brother Hal.

"How Great Thou Art" truly expresses the character of our beloved friend, Brother Hal.

Thank you for your inspiring words of wisdom.

We will have the report of the Credentials Committee at this time.

Sisters and Brothers, I am pleased to present Brother Otto Steiner.

REPORT OF CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE

MR. OTTO STEINER: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Sisters and Brothers:

The Credentials Committee is pleased to report that there are more than 200 Chapters represented at this session. This, according to the Constitution, constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

This is a partial report.

MRS. THELMA McREYNOLDS: Thank you, Brother Otto, for this report. -

I know you are extremely anxious to see our Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron and their Grand Officers enter this Grand Chapter room.

We will now have the floor Officers and personal pages drill.

ENCHANTMENT OF LOVE DRILL

In the "Enchantment of Love" Drill, the Grand Floor Officers and their personal pages, to the tune of the Worthy Grand Matron's "Inspiration of Love" March executed a beautiful drill. After circling the Grand Star Point chairs and forming a heart around the Altar the Pages formed a court through which the floor Officers retired.

MRS. THELMA McREYNOLDS: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron to the East.

Sisters and Brothers, it is my distinct honor and pleasure to present to you Mrs. Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron, and Dr. James H. Goettee, Worthy Grand Patron.

You will join us in saluting them with the Grand Honors.

The Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron were presented in the East and saluted with Grand Honors.

MRS. THELMA McREYNOLDS: Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, may we take this opportunity to congratulate you both on a wonderful year of service to our beautiful Order, and may the blessings of our Heavenly Father be with you always.

Sister Amy, I know you are filled with enthusiasm and joy at this opening of your Grand Chapter. It is no more a dream, truly it is a reality. It is my sincere wish that harmony and happiness will prevail and that all your fondest wishes may be realized.

I have watched you step by step advance to the East with pride and pleasure. Your endearing personality and sincerity in our Order have made you an outstanding leader. You have served with a spirit of simplicity, and it has been said that this attitude serves as a great magician, in that it draws together hearts and hands.

May God bless you for every kindness
 You have shown to us along the way,
 Your every act has been one of friendliness
 And your tender sympathy increases each day.

Dr. Goettee, may I express our gratitude for the faithful service you have rendered this year. You have been ardent in your duties and faithful to the course set in this year of progress. The membership of Texas is very proud of you and feels that this Session will be in capable hands.

For all the joys you've scattered
 All along the way,
 Have really truly mattered
 Far more than words can say.

To my good friends, Sister Amy and Brother Goettee, it has been said that brows wrinkle and hair grows gray, but true friendship never knows decay.

Worthy Grand Matron, the gavel of your office.

Ritualistic Opening

The Eighty-third Session, the Autumn Enchantment Session, of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star, was opened in ritualistic form.

The opening ode, "A Closer Walk With Thee," was sung by the Grand Choir and Assembly.

The pledge of allegiance was led by the Worthy Grand Patron.

WELCOME

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: In Switzerland, there is a little church high up in the Alps. There is no light in the church, and at the time for the evening service one can see the villagers coming to the church, each carrying his own little light.

At first there is only a glimmer in the darkness, and then, when all have arrived for the service, the little church is fairly aglow with the combined lights.

So it is with our Autumn Enchantment Session. We have come with the combined lights of FAITH, HOPE, LOVE, SERVICE, and COURAGE. I hope that the combined lights of this Grand Chapter Session will shine on, and shine brightly, for the future of our Eastern Star.

I extend to each of you a very special welcome. (Applause.)

Worthy Grand Patron, I am sure you would like to add a word of welcome.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Amy Goebel; Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Mildred Haney Harris; General Grand Chapter Officers, Grand Chapter Officers, Other Distinguished Guests, my Sisters and Brothers:

I join the Worthy Grand Matron in extending to each of you a very cordial welcome to the Eighty-third Annual Session, "The Autumn Enchantment Session," of the Grand Chapter of Texas.

Your presence is a testimony of your devotion to the principles of our beautiful Order. We wish for you many pleasant and worthwhile experiences as you participate in the deliberations and activities of this session. We are pleased that you are here. (Applause.)

IMMEDIATE PAST MOST WORTHY GRAND MATRON

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present the Immediate Past Most Worthy Grand Matron at the Altar.

The Immediate Past Most Worthy Grand Matron was presented at the Altar.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I am delighted and honored to have the pleasure of extending to you a very special welcome to this "Autumn Enchantment" Session, the Eighty-third in your own Grand Jurisdiction. The members of Texas are glad to call you their own, and are pleased that you have returned safely home from your travels throughout the United States and abroad.

Because I wish so much for you
 That the joy of life can bring—
 The mystic beauty of the snow
 Or raindrops in the Spring,
 The joy of sleep, not restless nights
 Or agonizing pain,
 A Cardinal's call, a Robin's song,
 Or violets in the rain;
 A cheerful log upon the hearth,
 A knock upon the door,
 A friendly word, a cup of cheer,
 A new book to explore;
 Because these little things are all
 So wonderous good and true,
 I am wishing at this time
 The finest things for you.

And, most of all, that you will know the Peace of Heart that Passeth all Understanding.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort our Immediate Past Most Worthy Grand Matron to the East.

Mrs. Mildred Haney Harris, immediate Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, was escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

Worthy Grand Patron, do you have a word of welcome?

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Mildred Haney Harris, we welcome you to your home state Grand Chapter, the "Autumn Enchantment" Session. We are proud of your record of achievement. You honor us with your presence, and we sincerely trust you will enjoy this Session.

OTHER GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER OFFICERS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present our other General Grand Chapter Officers at the Altar.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pleasure that I present Mrs. Pearl Keeton, International Temple Committee of the General Grand Chapter and Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter of Arkansas; and Mr. Frank R. Phillips, Educational Committee of the General Grand Chapter; both of the Order of the Eastern Star.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is my special privilege to welcome you to this, the Eighty-third Session, the "Autumn Enchantment" Session, of the Grand Chapter of Texas. I am delighted and honored to extend to you a very warm and cordial welcome, and I trust that your visit here will be a memorable one.

May the love and service you have given
 Follow you wherever you go;
 May the lives you've cheered and inspired along the way
 Warm your hearts with a hallowed glow.

I could send you a wish
 That would be meant just for you,
 But here is one that we may share in too:
 For each of you I wish all the good things of life without end.
 For us, just the joy of being your friends.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Worthy Grand Patron.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Welcome is a little word, but when spoken sincerely it has a very deep and heartfelt meaning. It is in that spirit that we greet and welcome you.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort our General Grand Chapter Officers to the East.

Mrs. Pearl Keeton and Mr. Frank R. Phillips were escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

WORTHY GRAND MATRONS AND WORTHY GRAND PATRONS OF OTHER GRAND JURISDICTIONS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present the Worthy Grand Matrons and Worthy Grand Patrons of other Grand Jurisdictions at the Altar.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pleasure that I present:

Mrs. Ethel Robbins, Worthy Grand Matron, and Mr. Wesley E. Beale, Worthy Grand Patron, of the Grand Chapter of Louisiana, Order of the Eastern Star.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: How nice to have you with us tonight. It has been said that people are able to do their best when they are in the company of their best friends, and that is just how I feel about your being here tonight. I am delighted too that your travels have brought you to our state and to the "Autumn Enchantment" Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas.

Some wishes are just for a moment
 And some linger throughout the day,
 But the heart full of things that we wish for you
 Are blessings that linger and stay.

I wish for you, not just one day of gladness,
 But a lifetime of peace and good cheer,
 And I hope that you receive God's blessings
 On every day of the years before you.

Once again I welcome you, and I hope you will find the spirit of true hospitality in our midst. May you take with you the memory of many new friends, and fraternal fellowship.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Worthy Grand Patron.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: We are pleased and honored to have each of you present in our "Autumn Enchantment" Session. We are traveling the same busy road you are traveling and are sharing similar experiences. We welcome you to our Grand Chapter Session.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of Louisiana to the East.

Mrs. Ethel Robbins, Worthy Grand Matron, and Mr. Wesley E. Beadle, Worthy Grand Patron, of the Grand Chapter of Louisiana, were escorted to the East, introduced and given Grand Honors.

PAST GRAND MATRONS AND PAST GRAND PATRONS OF OTHER GRAND JURISDICTIONS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present the Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of other Grand Jurisdictions at the Altar.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pleasure that I present:

Mrs. Velma Richard, Past Grand Matron of Louisiana;

Mrs. Ada Helms, Past Grand Matron of Mississippi;

Mr. J. Shubel Robbins, Past Grand Patron of Louisiana.

Mr. W. J. Richards, Past Grand Patron of Louisiana.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is with special pride and pleasure that I greet a Past Grand Matron or a Past Grand Patron of any Grand Jurisdiction. It is with special pride and pleasure that I bid you welcome to this Grand Chapter Session.

Take all the loving greetings
That memory's hall will lend,
And they are but half the welcome
That I extend to you.
For you see, we want to make you happy,
And we want to bring you cheer;
Just to keep you smiling merrily
Every moment that you are here.

Now, Worthy Grand Patron, I know you would like to extend a special welcome to these Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of Other Grand Jurisdictions.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of other Grand Jurisdictions, we are pleased and honored to have each of you present at our Autumn Enchantment Session. We are traveling the same busy road that you have traveled and sharing similar experiences. We welcome you to our Grand Chapter Session.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort our Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of Other Grand Jurisdictions to the East.

The Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of Other Grand Jurisdictions who were presented at the Altar were escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

PAST GRAND MATRONS AND PAST GRAND PATRONS OF TEXAS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present the Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of Texas at the Altar.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with a deep sense of pride and devotion that I present our beloved Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of Texas:

Mrs. Norton B. Wellborn	Mrs. Agnes Lee Howard
Mrs. Margery Wofford	Mrs. Thelma McReynolds
Mrs. Birdie Jane Easterling	Mrs. Molly Goodpasture
Mrs. Mattie M. Mitchell	Mr. William G. Vollus

Mrs. Mildred Garlitz	Mr. Paul Stoneman
Mrs. Mary Ella Schoverling	Mr. Hal Burnett
Mrs. Eunice Connell	Mr. E. F. (Van) Plumlee
Mrs. Lois Burnett

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of our beloved state, throughout this wonderful year it has been my constant prayer that I might measure up in some degree to the examples of these who have gone before me.

In our Fraternal Order, all the works and thought of those who have served in Grand Chapter have left their mark on what we who follow after think and do.

I am deeply grateful for your presence, and I extend to each of you a very special welcome. The service you have rendered, the examples you have set, are indeed beneficial to those of us who look to you for counsel and guidance.

I want you to know that I shall be depending upon each of you for your continued support and guidance, and that I covet your prayers and added strength and wisdom to meet the task of each new day.

May God bless and enrich your lives with His everlasting love, as you have inspired and brought the light of love into the lives of countless thousands.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Worthy Grand Matron, let me add a very personal word of welcome to these distinguished Past Grands of our own Grand Jurisdiction.

We welcome you most sincerely. You have always been an inspiration to us, and especially during our year of service. We are happy to welcome you to our "Autumn Enchantment" Session.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort our Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of Texas to the East.

The Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of Texas who were presented at the Altar were escorted to the East, introduced and given Grand Honors.

GRAND OFFICERS OF OTHER GRAND JURISDICTIONS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present the Grand Officers of Other Grand Jurisdictions in the West.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pleasure that I present these Grand Officers of Other Grand Jurisdictions:

Mrs. Vivian S. Presley, Associate Grand Matron of Alabama;
Mrs. Alice Beadle, Grand Esther of Louisiana;
Mr. George W. Barker, Grand Sentinel of Louisiana.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I am happy and pleased to welcome you this evening to the "Autumn Enchantment" Session. In thinking of how I might address you, I can think of nothing nicer than "Our Lovely Friends." For without friends, life would be like a garden without flowers.

I never see a garden, with its beauty and its grace, but what I think of friendship, with its power to give a lift. And always I am reminded that a friend is God's own gift. It is in that spirit that I welcome you, and I hope that your visit here will be a memorable one.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort the Grand Officers of Other Grand Jurisdictions to the East.

The Grand Officers of other Grand Jurisdictions who were presented in the West were escorted to the East, introduced and given a hearty welcome.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES OF OTHER GRAND JURISDICTIONS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present the Grand Representatives from other Grand Jurisdictions at the Altar:

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pleasure that I present the Grand Representatives from other Grand Jurisdictions:

Mrs. Ora Neal McCasky, Texas in Alabama
Mrs. Cheerful Thornhill, Texas in District of Columbia
Mrs. Lillian Hubbard, Texas in Minnesota
Mrs. Gertrude F. Little, Texas in Mississippi
Mrs. Reta Cause, Texas in New York
Mrs. Wanda Garren, Texas in Illinois
Miss Barbara Haughn, Texas in Ontario
Mrs. Sue David, Texas in Oklahoma
Mrs. Fern Ramsey, Texas in Wyoming
Mrs. Catherine B. Emms, New Mexico in Utah.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I am delighted to have the privilege of extending a very special welcome to you. I am happy and pleased that you came to be with us during this Grand Chapter Session.

The service you have given has been without thought of self, but for the advancement of our beautiful Order.

Life is but a highway that we travel every day,
And we meet friends and say, "Hello,"
And nod in a friendly way;
And we are glad that every day,
All life's journey through,

That we can meet and say, "Hello,"
 And smile to lovely friends like you.
 May our Heavenly Father,
 Whose love we all know,
 Comfort and guard you
 Wherever you go.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort the Grand Representatives from Other Grand Jurisdictions to the East.

The Grand Representatives from Other Grand Jurisdictions who were presented at the Altar were escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

GREETINGS FROM OTHER GRAND JURISDICTIONS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I recognize Mrs. Sue David, Grand Representative of Texas in Oklahoma.

MRS. SUE DAVID: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Grand Officers, Sisters and Brothers:

On behalf of the Grand Chapter of Oklahoma I wish to thank the Worthy Grand Matron for giving me this honor.

Our Worthy Grand Matron could not come to this Grand Chapter Session because next Tuesday, a week from tomorrow, we will have our Grand Chapter Session.

Our Worthy Grand Matron sends her love, and extends to you a special invitation to come to Oklahoma. We would love to have each and every one of you.

This has been a wonderful experience in visiting this Grand Chapter. You can imagine what a beautiful thing it was tonight looking down at your Grand Officers, Grand Representatives, Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons marching in that impressive drill. It was something to remember.

This is my love gift to you from Oklahoma. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Sue David. Thank you so much for the gift of love. We appreciate your kind words and the gift, but most of all your being here.

We have another Grand Representative, the Grand Representative from the District of Columbia, Mrs. Cheerful Thornhill, who will be leaving tomorrow. Sister Thornhill.

MRS. CHEERFUL THORNHILL: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, my Sisters and Brothers:

I want to thank you very much for your kind invitation to be here. I am very happy to be here in Texas and to bring you greetings.

I bring you personal greetings from the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron of the District of Columbia, and in addition I also bring you personal greetings and regrets from the Most Worthy Grand Patron, Brother Walter L. Fowler, who is a Past Patron of our Chapter, Electa Chapter No. 2. His wife is very, very seriously ill.

Thank you again, and much success to all of you. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been such a pleasure to have you with us. We regret so much that you have to leave. (Applause.)

 Mrs. Eula Harrell, Wyoming.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is with special pride and love for each of you that I greet you and bid you welcome to this "Autumn Enchantment" Session. You are our goodwill ambassadors, and I trust that you will always exhibit the spirit of goodwill and fraternal love from the membership of Texas as you visit the other Grand Jurisdictions. It is in that spirit that I say:

There is nothing too good to wish for you,
 But this wish I hope may come true:
 That all the sunbeams you've scattered,
 Reflected, may shine on you
 Every hour of every day.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort the Grand Representatives of Other Grand Jurisdictions in Texas to the East.

The Grand Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions to Texas who were presented at the Altar were escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

OTHER GRAND OFFICERS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Are there other Grand Officers who have not been presented?

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present the other Grand Officers in the West.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pleasure that I present Mrs. Loraine Barker, ESTARL Chairman, of the Grand Chapter of Louisiana.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I am happy and pleased that you have come to be with us during our "Autumn Enchantment" Session. The service you have rendered has been one of love and for the advancement of our beautiful Order.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort our distinguished visitor to the East.

Mrs. Loraine Barker was escorted to the East, introduced, and given a hearty welcome.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress. (Applause.)

TELEGRAM COMMITTEE

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is my privilege now to appoint the following Telegram Committee:

Mrs. Lois Burnett, Chairman

Mrs. Birdie Jane Easterling

Mrs. Mattie Mitchell.

RESPONSE TO INTRODUCTIONS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: At this time I am happy to introduce to you Sister Velma Richard who will speak for our Distinguished Guests.

MRS. VELMA RICHARD: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished East, my Sisters and Brothers:

This is indeed an unexpected pleasure and one that I shall cherish for a long time because we, your Distinguished Guests, have been welcomed in words, in song, in deed, in the beauty of your setting and the beauty of this auditorium.

Your General Arrangements Committee has certainly been at work. Your musicians have given us much pleasure, and you, with your cordial welcome and friendly gestures, have certainly given us food for the spirit, as well as some of your friends have given us physical food.

It is indeed a pleasure to be with you in this auditorium again, and we shall expect a great many of you to spend part of the Spring with us down in the Cajun country of Louisiana, for our Grand Chapter next year will be in Lafayette.

But don't expect little Lafayette to be as interesting as Fort Worth. However, we want you to come, and we will put the coffee pot on, and we will see that you get a rousing welcome to the Cajun country.

Thank you so much for giving me this pleasure and this privilege. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Velma. It is indeed a pleasure to have you here, and I trust that you will be with us throughout the week.

PRESENTATION OF DISTINGUISHED MASONS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort:

The Right Worshipful J. W. Chandler, Grand Junior Warden of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Texas, A. F. & A. M., and

The Right Eminent Grand Commander, T. J. Sanders, Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Texas, to the East.

The two distinguished Masons were escorted to the East.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is with justifiable pride that we claim you as our members. We are indeed proud of the Masonic heritage that is ours. Historically, Masons played an important role in the evolution of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States. One cannot read them without being inspired by the simple charm and beauty of Freemasonry interwoven into the fabric and structure of these documents. I like to think of the galaxy of great men and Masons who drew up these documents of freedom.

This year was dedicated to all Master Masons, and, as members of the Order of the Eastern Star, we are proud of the intangible ties that bind us together. We are tremendously interested in your ideals and aspirations. As members of the Eastern Star, we hope to continue to benefit by your influence and noble teachings.

Worthy Grand Patron, it is my pleasure to give you the honor of introducing these distinguished Masons. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Thank you, Worthy Grand Matron.

It has been my privilege to know each of these distinguished gentlemen for many years. I know first hand of the work they have done and of their high standing as Masons. It is with a great deal of pleasure that I introduce them to you:

The Right Worshipful J. W. Chandler, Grand Junior Warden of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Texas, A. F. & A. M. (Applause.)

The Right Eminent Grand Commander, J. T. Sanders, Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Texas. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: At this time we will have the adoption of the ESTARL Report.

Sister Louise Jones, are you present?

REPORT OF ESTARL COMMITTEE

MRS. LOUISE JONES: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, my Sisters and Brothers:

To the Worthy Grand Matron, let me express my deepest gratitude for the privilege of serving as Chairman of ESTARL this year.

The heartwarming experiences will be a pleasant memory always.

It is my pleasure to present those who have served so faithfully on the Committee this year. They have given much of their time and efforts in assisting with Eastern Star Training Awards for Religious Leadership:

Mrs. Mae Powell, District 1, Irving, Texas.

Mrs. Hazel Lindsey, District 2, Lamesa, Texas, who is unable to be with us.

Mrs. Vena Hereford, District 3, Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. Judy Welch, District 5, San Antonio, Texas.

I would like to express a very special "thank you" to Mrs. Mary Moore, Chairman of Welfare, who supplied me with monthly reports and I in return sent copies to the Committee members, thus keeping all involved of the amount of ESTARL contributions by the month.

The Committee met just after our installation in Dallas and elected Mrs. Judy Welch, District 3, as treasurer.

Many letters were written and phone calls made. I was in close contact with each of the committee members at all times.

In compliance with the requirement of application forms supplied by Grand Chapter, we, the committee, gave preference to applicants having legal residence in Texas, who are attending Texas colleges and who have completed at least one year of college work. An exception to this rule would be to a Chapter giving a full scholarship. If the applicant met other requirements we approved the application. We gave thought and study to those who were in need of ESTARL financial assistance and were most worthy.

Each committee member made every effort to visit with the applicants from their District and when we met in Arlington at the Eastern Star Home on Friday, July 30, each applicant was discussed freely.

On our arrival at the Home Mrs. Nina Headrick graciously escorted the committee to the Board room. Behind closed doors a friendship circle was formed with joined hands, each committee member giving a short prayer for guidance in the selection of the students to receive the Awards.

There were 58 applications to be studied by the committee. Each committee member gave a grade to the applicants and their application from their District and told of the personality, the needs and ambition of each applicant, thus giving the other committee members an insight into the applications to be studied.

At noon we took time out to cut a birthday cake and sing "Happy Birthday" to my husband, Warren Jones. Coffee, cake and sandwiches were enjoyed. Our studies were resumed after a short recess. Eleven Chapters gave 13 full scholarships. I would like to name the eleven Chapters giving the 13 full scholarships:

District 1, Templar Chapter No. 374, gave two full scholarships.

District 2, can be proud of the two full scholarships given by Lubbock Chapter No. 76.

District 3, Tarrant Chapter No. 8, Fort Worth, and North Fort Worth Chapter No. 684.

District 4, Park Place No. 731, Andral Vann No. 741, Bethlehem No. 728, Bellaire No. 1021, Houston Heights No. 258.

District 5, John and Judy Welch, Harlandale No. 750.

Many of the smaller Chapters gave a half scholarship, and some gave more than a half, making their Chapter 100 per cent in the Welfare Program. We are grateful for each gift received this year. The following 29 Awards amounting to $400.00 each were given:

DISTRICT 1:

Richard Clark was given full scholarship by Templar No. 374, studying for the Ministry at Howard Payne College.

James Woodrow Fuller, Jr., Scholarship by Templar No. 374. Baptist Ministry, Baylor University.

Edward LeBorn Free, recommended by Love Field No. 875, studying for the Methodist Ministry, Perkins School, SMU.

James S. Hackney recommended by Naples Chapter No. 907. Studying for the Religious Education on Church Music at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Joe C. Hayes, III, recommended by Love Field Chapter No. 875, studying for the Methodist Ministry at Perkins School of Theology, SMU.

Henry H. Kinkeade, II, recommended by Irving Chapter No. 777, Baptist Ministry at the Dallas Baptist College.

James H. Looney, recommended by Mrs. Mary Ella Schoverling, Past Grand Matron, Pastoral Ministry, Texas Christian University.

Eldon Ray James, recommended by Flora Chapter No. 794, studying for the Ministry at Baylor University.

DISTRICT 2:

George E. Archer, recommended by Marfa Chapter No. 683, Christian Ministry at Brite Divinity School, T.C.U.

Miss Barbara Ann Baker, recommended by Lamesa No. 363, studying at Tarleton State for Missionary Teaching.

Wm. E. Golightly, recommended by Lubbock No. 76 and given a full scholarship by Lubbock Chapter. Baptist Ministry at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Roy Truman Bassett, recommended by Amarillo No. 787, studying for the Ministry at Brite Divinity School, T.C.U.

Michael P. Palmer, recommended by Pampa No. 65 and given scholarship by Andral Van Chapter No. 741 in Houston. Studying for Foreign Mission Service.

DISTRICT 3:

Richard Baggett, recommended and given full scholarship by North Fort Worth No. 684, Hardin-Simmons University, studying for the Baptist Ministry.

Joseph L. Bentley, recommended by Callahan No. 242, and studying for the Methodist Ministry. McMurry College, Abilene, Texas.

Robert Joseph Wyatt, recommended and given scholarship by Tarrant No. 8, Fort Worth. Studying for Religious Education at Texas Christian University.

DISTRICT 4:

Thomas Edward Carter, recommended by Houston Heights No. 258 and given their full scholarship. Studying for the Methodist Ministry at Texas Wesleyan, Fort Worth, Texas.

Clyde Cook, recommended by Spring Branch No. 984. Attending Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Ministry of Religious Education.

George Atkinson, recommended by Mrs. Lallah Mae Vollus, Past Grand Matron, given scholarship by Bellaire No. 1021. Methodist Ministry at Perkins School of Theology, SMU.

Jerry Lynn Harris, recommended by South Houston Chapter No. 915. Studying for the Pastoral Ministry at Perkins School of Theology, SMU.

Charles Edward Moore, III, recommended by Goose Creek No. 798. Studying for the Ministry at Texas Christian University.

Ronald Leigh Williams, recommended by Ransford Chapter No. 135. Studying for Methodist Ministry at Perkins School of Theology, SMU.

DISTRICT 5:

Donald Clyde Balmos, recommended and given scholarship by Harlandale No. 750. Studying for a degree in Church Music at Baylor.

Stanley William Huth, Jr., recommended and given the Welch Scholarship. Attending San Antonio College and studying for the Ministry of the Methodist Church.

Howard Glynn Guess, recommended by San Angelo Chapter No. 10 and given scholarship by Violet Chapter No. 158, Victoria. Studying for the Ministry at Brite Divinity School, TCU.

Patricia Ann McGuire, recommended by Woodsboro Chapter No. 678. Studying to become Director of Youth Leadership in Baptist Churches at Mary Hardin Baylor.

Lewis B. White, recommended by Bethany Chapter No. 912 in San Antonio. Attending Perkins School of Theology, SMU. Studying for the Ministry.

Many of you attended the Church service in the beautiful new First Baptist Church on Sunday morning at which time the Worthy Grand Matron presented the ESTARL Awards. Four of the young men receiving Awards took part in the morning worship service.

When we accepted Christian Discipleship we accepted the command of the Master: "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to the whole creation."

As individuals we can not all accept this charge literally; but as individuals and Chapters we can give of the blessings with which we have been endowed. Giving thus we make it possible for our dedicated youths to go as our representatives. As individuals and Chapters you have made possible this outstanding report.

Your committee feels privileged to have served you in this particular area for no other endeavor will contribute more to "Love and Understanding" in the world.

Fraternally submitted,

LOUISE JONES, Chairman
MAE POWELL
HAZEL LINDSEY
VENA HEREFORD
JUDY WELCH

Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the ESTARL Report be adopted.

The question was taken and the report was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Louise.

I am sure most of you were present at the ESTARL Service held in the First Baptist Church. It was beautifully presented and most impressive.

Thank you, Sister Louise, for that wonderful report, and thank you, the other members of the Committee, who have served so faithfully.

At this time we will have the adoption of the Memorial.

REPORT OF GRAND CHAPLAIN

MRS. ELNA MOSSHART: Worthy Grand Matron, first let me say thank you for appointing me to serve in this capacity this year. I assure you no one could serve in that capacity without being drawn closer to God.

At this time I would like to move the adoption of the Memorial Service and the Grand Chaplain's Report as presented last evening in the First Baptist Church.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the Memorial and Report of the Grand Chaplain be adopted.

The question was taken and the Memorial and the Report of the Grand Chaplain were adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Elna Mosshart, for one of the most beautiful Memorials I have ever had the privilege of witnessing.

Sister Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from labor to rest, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM LABOR TO REST

The Bible was closed, and at 11:50 P. M. Grand Chapter was called from labor to rest until 8:45 A. M. Tuesday.

BENEDICTION

The Benediction was sung by the Grand Choir.

Tuesday Morning, October 26, 1965

9:00 A. M.

The Tuesday Morning Session was called to order by Mrs. Eunice Connell, Past Grand Matron, and Mr. Chauncey E. Penix, Past Grand Patron.

Preceding the call to order musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Louise Glenn, Mrs. Irene Barclay and Mrs. Helen Dobbins.

CALL TO ORDER

MRS. EUNICE CONNELL: Sisters and Brothers, good morning.

No sweeter privilege or higher honor could be extended by our Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Amy Goebel, than that which she was extended in inviting Brother Chauncey E. Penix and me to call to order this Tuesday morning session of the "Autumn Enchantment" Session of this Grand Chapter.

When October smiles upon the land and the hillsides are in full dress parade in their colors of gold and jade, from the kiss of her breath, then our thoughts turn to Grand Chapter and our meeting and greeting our many friends. It is a pleasure to greet you this morning, and to look forward to these next few days with you.

By your applause, let us thank Sister Louise Glenn, Sister Irene Barclay and Sister Helen Dobbins for the beautiful music this morning. (Applause.)

I now call to order this Tuesday morning session of the Eighty-third Session, the "Autumn Enchantment" Session, of our Grand Chapter.

Enchantment of Love Drill—Floor Officers and Personal Pages

"ENCHANTMENT OF LOVE" DRILL

The Grand Officers and their personal Pages then entered and executed their beautiful "Enchantment of Love" Drill.

The Double "G" Drill, honoring the Worthy Grand Matron and the Worthy Grand Patron. Written and directed by the Grand Marshal, Mrs. Agnes J. Pollock.

THE DOUBLE G DRILL

Under the direction of Mrs. Agnes Pollock, Grand Marshal, the Double G Drill was then performed by the Grand Pages, Assistant Grand Warders, Grand Ushers and Assistant Grand Sentinels, concluding with the formation of a Double G, for Goebel and Goettee. The Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron were escorted into the formation.

Grand Warders

MRS. EUNICE CONNELL: Sister Grand Marshal, you will invite the Worthy Grand Matron, the Worthy Grand Patron and other Grand Officers to enter the Grand Chapter Room.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron to the East.

Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron,, behold your Sisters and Brothers.

Sisters and Brothers, behold your Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron and salute them with Grand Honors.

The Grand Pages—"Amy's Angels"

The Grand Officers will assume their stations.

Sister Grand Warder, you will see that the doors to our Grand Chapter are secure and inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from rest to labor, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM REST TO LABOR

Grand Chapter was proved, the Bible opened, and Grand Chapter was called from rest to labor at 9:30 a. m.

MRS. EUNICE CONNELL: I now declare this Tuesday Morning Session of the "Autumn Enchantment" Session called from rest to labor.

Sister Grand Warder, you will so inform the Grand Sentinel.

Jacob Boehme said: "Open your eyes and the whole world is full of God." Here in this beautiful Grand Chapter setting, with the exemplification of these beautiful drills and the gift of this glorious new day from the hands of God, we are so aware that truer words were never spoken.

Our Brother M. A. Childers will now bring the invocation.

INVOCATION

JUDGE M. A. CHILDERS: Our gracious Heavenly Father, in the opening of the second day of our "Autumn Enchantment" Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas we come to Thee with grateful hearts for Thy love, for Thy compassion and for Thy never failing goodness to Thy Children. We thank Thee, our Heavenly Father, for Thy everlasting love and the loving kindness that has brought us unto Thee.

We thank Thee for the inspiration that came to our Worthy Grand Matron when she named this the "Autumn Enchantment" Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas. We thank Thee for our Worthy Grand Matron, our Worthy Grand Patron and their corps of Officers. We thank Thee for the accomplishments of the year and for the spirit of good will and unity throughout our Grand Jurisdiction.

Bless this Grand Chapter in all of its endeavors, and keep us safely in Thy loving care.

These things we ask in Jesus name. Amen.

MRS. EUNICE CONNELL: Brother Chauncey Penix, let me say to you and to this wonderful group of Stars that it has been a real pleasure to preside in the East with you again. I know the membership would like to hear from you this morning before I turn the gavel over to the Worthy Grand Matron.

MR. CHAUNCEY PENIX: Past Grand Matron, Sister Eunice Connell, Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

Our Worthy Grand Matrons have called upon me on numerous occasions in past years to perform different tasks, some of them pleasant, and some of them not so pleasant, unfortunately. Some of them have been particularly nice. This morning it is a very nice courtesy she has offered to me.

I appreciate the privilege of assisting in opening this Grand Chapter and to have the privilege of serving in the East again with my own Worthy Grand Matron. It has been a real pleasure.

Thank you very much. (Applause.)

MRS. EUNICE CONNELL: Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, this morning my cup runneth over.

Autumn puts us in a reflective mood. Somewhere amidst the hustle and bustle of daily activity there drifts the leaf smoke of old memories. The memories I most treasure are the friendships I have gathered through the years, friendships that inspire, friendships where understanding and love abide. You have been such a friend.

A friend may well be reckoned as a masterpiece of God. I am grateful to our Heavenly Father for giving me two such fine friends. And thank you, Worthy Grand Matron, for extending to me this privilege. May peace and harmony prevail as you conduct the business of this Grand Chapter.

I now present to you the gavel. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Eunice Connell, our beloved Past Grand Matron, and Brother Chauncey Penix, one of our most highly esteemed and loved Past Grand Patrons, for calling this Tuesday morning session to order.

It was Ruskin who said: "Every noble life leaves its imprint upon the loom of life." The imprints and influence of your leadership is remembered today with special pride by the membership of Texas.

Thank you for calling this Tuesday Morning Session from Rest to Labor.

May the pleasures of today be added to the golden memories of your yesterdays.

We honor you for what you have done, and we love you for what you are. (Applause.)

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present those who were not here last evening or that were not introduced.

Will the Grand Officers who were not present last evening please rise?

Our Past Grand Patron, Dr. Rogers.

INTRODUCTION—PAST GRAND PATRON

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present our Past Grand Patron, Dr. T. G. Rogers, at the Altar.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, I am very pleased to present Dr. T. G. Rogers, Past Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Dr. Rogers, there is no sweeter word than the word welcome when spoken with sincerity. So it is a warm fraternal greeting that I extend to you, and a very special welcome. I have known and admired you for many, many years. Not only for your intellectual qualities, but for the great service that you have and are rendering to humanity as a physician. Surely no greater service could be more satisfying than that of healing the sick. You are one of our most highly respected and esteemed Past Grand Patrons, by the members in this Grand Jurisdiction. Your presence is an inspiration to all, and I am delighted and pleased that you can be with us.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort our Past Grand Patron to the East.

Dr. T. G. Rogers, Past Grand Patron, was escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present our Grand Representatives at the Altar.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is my pleasure to present:

Mrs. Odessa Turner, Grand Representative of Alberta to Texas.

Mrs. Willie Reed, Grand Representative of Florida to Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is with gratitude that we welcome you to our "Autumn Enchantment" Session. You have traveled many miles to be with us, and we are grateful for your coming. As you travel about you blaze trails of Fraternal good will and love. You plant seeds that we trust will grow and ripen into fruition in many fine friendships that will endure through the years and provide memories to bring untold happiness.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort these Grand Representatives to the East.

The Grand Representatives who were presented at the Altar were escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Are there other Grand Officers who have not been introduced?

MUSICAL SELECTION

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Cloe Thomas, our Grand Choir Director, I want you to know that I do appreciate the beautiful music in song that we enjoyed last evening and again this morning. (Applause.)

Now we will be favored with a selection by our Grand Choir.

GRAND CHOIR

The Grand Choir then sang "How Great Thou Art."

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: And now it is with much pride, esteem, admiration and love that I present to you one of our beloved Past Grand Matrons who will bring us our devotional, Mrs. Cynthia May Watts.

Sister Cynthia May will be followed by a vocal selection by Mr. Charles Wallace, who is the present Worthy Patron of Sunshine Chapter in Houston.

Sister Cynthia May, I appreciate your presence here this morning. I want you to know that it is always a privilege to have you with us and have you bring beautiful inspirational words.

Thank you for opening the Session last evening. Always it is wonderful to know that we have friends that we can call on at the last moment. When we learned that Sister Freda Bernhard, who is seriously ill, could not be here, Sister Cynthia May readily consented to open our Grand Chapter Session.

Thank you, Sister Cynthia May.

DEVOTIONAL

MRS. CYNTHIA MAY WATTS: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

I've heard some say that beauty lies
 In the radiant heart of a rose,
 Or the gentle rustle of leaves
 When a soft breeze blows.
 Others think that beauty lies
 In the flight of birds on wing,
 Or in the magic color schemes
 That changing seasons bring.
 Some see it in the Autumn Day,
 A storm, or the lightning's flare,
 But I find that beauty, like
 God's unchanging love, is everywhere.

In the quietness of this "Autumn Enchantment" morning, even at this early hour, we find the beauty of God in the golden sunshine of the new day before us. In reverence we pause to honor our Heavenly Father, for it is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, to sing praises unto His name, and to show forth His lovingkindness in the morning.

The greatest privilege in life is to honor God, and serve Him in love and happiness.

The greatest thing in life is Love, for Love is God, and God is Love.

The greatest sin in life is not to love.

In I John, 4th Chapter, we read:

Let us practice loving each other, for love comes from God, and those who are loving and kind show that they are the children of God. But if a person is not loving and kind, it shows that he does not know God. For God is Love.

God showed how much He loved us by sending His only Son down from Heaven to bring to us eternal life through His death. So now we know what real love is: It is not our love for God, but His love for us.

John 13:34, Jesus said: "A new commandment I give unto you, that you love one another as I have loved you."

No more important words are recorded in the New Testament. Jesus died on Calvary's cruel wooden cross to pay for our sins and to give us eternal life. He was all alone, He was not popular, but He knew He was right, and that God's love triumphed over all things. Greater love has no man than this, than to lay down his life for his friends.

This commandment of our Lord was a new commandment in its meaning and its motive. A new statement of love was now set up, loving after the manner of Jesus. Loving one's neighbor after the fashion of the Good Samaritan, or the love commanded in the Golden Rule, was not enough. Now we are to love one another in that higher sense, in the same manner and by precept and example as exemplified by Jesus, the Christ, the divine Son of God. To so love one another we must strive to know each other better.

Recently I heard a commentator make this statement: Our world is filled with heartaches, acts of injustice, unkindness, jealousy, selfishness, complacency. The greatest need for the moment is for people to act like Christians toward each other.

Last month in my church, the First Baptist Church, in Lufkin, we had a wonderful youth revival. The young preacher, a student of East Texas Baptist College, was handsome, an eloquent speaker with a brilliant mind, and possessing an unusual spiritual magnetism. We were deeply impressed by his great love for God. One night he invited one of his friends from the College to give the Benediction. He introduced him as a young man who was an alcoholic, a dope addict, an ex-convict, but now a child of God and my friend. Silence fell over the audience as the young man lifted his heart in gratitude to our Heavenly Father. I shall never forget this one statement he made in that prayer: "Dear God, I never dreamed you could go so far down into the depths of sin and give me your precious love."

The love of God is greater far
 Than tongues or pen can ever tell;
 It goes beyond the highest star,
 And reaches to the lowest hell.
 God gave His Son to win.
 His erring child He reconciled,
 And pardoned from his sin.
 When time shall pass away,
 And earthly thrones and kingdoms fall;
 When men who here refuse to pray,
 On rocks and hills and mountains call;
 God's love, so sure, shall still endure,
 All measureless and strong;
 Redeeming grace to Adam's race,
 The Saints' and Angels' song.
 O love of God,
 How rich and pure!
 How measureless and strong!
 It shall forevermore endure,
 The Saints' and Angels' song.

SONG

Mr. Charles Wallace, Worthy Patron of Sunshine Chapter No. 399, Houston, then sang "The Love of God." It was a beautiful rendition, and was generously applauded.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Cynthia May Watts, for that inspiring message on Love, the Theme for this Grand Chapter.

And thank you, Brother Charles Wallace, for the beautiful lesson in song.

As this new day begins, let us look at life and its incidents, not as separate experiences, but as an interrelated continuum. For if we could only fill the vacuum of our lives with love, it would not matter what the day would bring, for perfect love casts out all fear. If we give love to others, it manifests itself to God, and we receive a blessing. (Applause.)

DRAPING OF ALTAR

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: At this time we will pause and drape the Altar in loving tribute, in memory of all members who have passed to the life of complete understanding.

Sisters and Brothers, we have come to a Holy Hour in our Grand Chapter Session. This is an hour of memory, in which we dedicate a portion of the Morning Session to honoring the memory of our departed members, and to pay tribute to those who have lost members of their family who perhaps were not members of the Order. To all of these we dedicate our thoughts and our prayers at this time.

In this great family of ours, the sorrow of one is the sorrow of all. With submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, let us pause and gently drape our Altar.

Sisters Grand Conductress, Associate Grand Conductress and Grand Chaplain, you will assume positions for draping the Altar.

While the Assembly stood in quiet reverence, the Grand Chaplain, the Grand Conductress and the Associate Grand Conductress draped the Altar with a cloth of gold lace. During the draping of the Altar the Grand Choir sang softly "After."

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: As a token of love and remembrance to our departed loved ones, I would ask that we bow our heads in prayer.

PRAYER

GRAND CHAPLAIN: Bless, O Lord, this moment of remembrance for our Sisters and Brothers who have come to dwell with Thee. We ask that Thou wilt be very near to the sorrowing families, that they may be filled with Thy peace that passeth all understanding. Give us faith anew to look always to Thee for help and strength, and let us hold Thy hand and, like a child, walk with Thee down all our days, secure in Thy love and strength. Guide, guard and govern us even to the end that none of us may fail to lay hold upon the immortal life. Amen.

SPECIAL SELECTION

The Grand Choir, with Mrs. Kay Leonard as soloist, then sang "I Would Be True."

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Before we assume the responsibilities of this day, let us each and every one "Lift up our eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh our help," that we may be guided in our deliberations, making our tasks easier and our burdens lighter.

At this time it is my pleasure to invite the Worthy Grand Patron to preside, at which time I will give my report.

The Worthy Grand Patron assumed the Chair.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: At this time we will have the report of the Worthy Grand Matron.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON:

Report of Worthy Grand Matron

Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, and Members of the Grand Chapter of Texas:

The sands of time flow rapidly through the hourglass of destiny, and we stand at the close of the year which has given us a wonderful opportunity to prove to others, that our work means the building of a temple of service, charity, and loving kindness. As my year of service draws to a close, first, I would give thanks to God for guidance, strength, and courage, to carry out my duties throughout the year.

Sisters and Brothers, I feel that at the beginning of this year, that God set before us a BRIDGE. Humbly we crossed over it, grateful for the opportunity to serve Him and our fellow man. We were privileged to cross many BRIDGES OF SERVICE this year, and to go that last mile to render service through FAITH, HOPE, and everlasting LOVE—which were our watchwords for the year—remembering always that he who cannot forgive others, breaks the bridge over which he must pass himself, for every man has need to be forgiven.

There is no greater field for active thought and work than in our Order, which teaches us to be noble, true, and faithful. It opens to us avenues for a life of charity and good will to all.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THIS GRAND JURISDICTION—My expressions can only in part tell you my deep appreciation and gratitude for your cooperation, loyalty, and encouragement, all along the way. I shall miss you, and in the years to come I shall pause many times and recall this year, which has been an adventure in joy and happiness—and where I have found those things that neither age nor misfortune can snatch away. Always I shall be grateful to you, my beloved membership, for the privilege of serving you.

It was a wonderful journey to the East,
And now at the close of the year,
My thoughts take flight, as I ponder in sweet rever—
Of precious moments that thrilled me with delight.
My highest hopes and dreams were fulfilled—
A treasured gift of friends—
A joyful song within my heart that will never end.
As time speeds ever onward,
I shall always be thankful
For all the glory and honor,
You have bestowed upon me.

DEDICATION

“That in union there is strength,” could never be demonstrated more clearly than by the splendid achievement of the Order of the Eastern Star, and the Masonic Fraternity working in unison.

While we are mindful that the Order of the Eastern Star is no part of that ancient institution, we owe our inception as an Order to a Master Mason, and we are dependent to some extent upon the growth of his Fraternity for our growth. While we know nothing of the Craft that molds the lives of true Master Masons, but from what little we may observe, I sincerely believe that we as members of the Order of the Eastern Star, can glean much by merely observing that they build INFLUENTIALLY by building SILENTLY.

I therefore, lovingly dedicate this year of service to my husband, Lud T. Goebel, a Master Mason, and to all Master Masons throughout the world.

THEME:

LOVE AND UNDERSTANDING

"Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples."

"As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you; continue ye in my love."
—St. John 15:8-9.

To him who would have abundant life, Jesus tells simply of the source of strength. As the branch clings closely to the vine, so we are told to live close to Him. Again and again the admonition is repeated—"Abide in Me."

SCRIPTURE

"And now abideth FAITH, HOPE, LOVE, these three, but the greatest of these is LOVE."—I Corinthians 13:13.

WATCHWORDS: FAITH, HOPE, LOVE

FAITH—Mark 9:23.

Jesus said unto him, "If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth."

May the light of our FAITH so shine that it will illuminate the heart of another.

HOPE—Romans 8:28.

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose."

In Him nothing is hopeless . . .
And He is always near.
Beams of light from the halo of His loving head
Shall illumine our path to HOPE.

LOVE—Proverbs 15:1.

"A soft answer turneth away wrath, but grievous words stir up anger."

In His Magnanimous intelligence He left us the words, "Love thy neighbor as thyself." And He stressed it as the Second Greatest Commandment.

Try to believe that unkind hearts are often troubled souls. In their disagreement, they are only crying out to us not to leave them, but to draw closer to them in UNDERSTANDING.

It has taken authors hundreds of words to say what Jesus summed up in Three Words . . . "God Is Love."

Make LOVE your aim.

EMBLEMS:

THE BALANCE AND THE BIBLE

The Balance is used for weighing. It consists of a beam or lever supported in the middle, having two pans of equal weight suspended from its extremities.

Symbolically, it has a significant meaning. It is an emblem of Justice and symbolizes an honorable, just and upright life, dealing with our fellow man in a manner of honesty and equality. It represents the means by which human values are determined.

In a changing world, the Bible stands as the one thing that is not affected by the flight of time. It does not become obsolete; its beauty does not fade; its power does not wane. It is the living way that has endured the effacing power of centuries and still exists. It has survived in spite of man's efforts to destroy it, and it is still known and honored throughout the world.

COLORS:

SHADES OF AUTUMN

All of us are more or less aware of the inexorable advance of time, but as Fall or Autumn approaches, we are spectacularly aware of how swiftly the seasons pass.

Spring follows the Winter in slow subtle ways, and it is a gradual sort of thing with all the world attuned to its coming. However, the coming of Autumn is quick and decisive by comparison, and the mighty splash of Autumn Colors blazoned across the skies may symbolize many things to us. Therefore, I have chosen shades of Autumn as my colors.

When Autumn has thrown her variegated robe across the hills and fills the fields with shades of brown, nature paints the woodland in every beautiful hue, flanked by a glorious sunset of azure, gold, and crimson. One misses much who fails to see it. The bright rays of the sun in yellow shafts, shining through Crimson, Gold, Green, and Russet leaves, are re-assuring.

Just as the snow white clouds are to the God-trusting individual, a lovely reminder of the purity of His mercy and justice, so is Autumn in its vibrant splash of colors, more than life's last fling before the austerity of Winter. For there is scarcely an individual who can regard the actual cessation of mortal life without some regret. So for the individual, safe and secure in his spiritual understanding, the grandeur and glory of Autumn colors are but a fitting climax to a life well lived, and a fitting prelude to a greater life to come.

FLOWER:

Who created the flower to bloom
 Who designed a prayer,
 Who dreamed up the joy of love?
 Only the God we share.

I chose the CAMELLIA, my favorite flower, because it symbolizes FAITH, HOPE, and a yearning for PERFECTION. No one can watch the Camellia without being irresistibly drawn to it, because of its seemingly perfect design in every detail. Yet, drawing nearer, one realizes that it has failed to attain perfection for it sheds no fragrance.

Just as no person, however painstaking the outward grooming, can reach the goal of perfection without shedding forth an inner fragrance that is made by spiritual contact with the Divine, so no flower, regardless of its outward beauty could ever be considered perfect unless it shared a sweet fragrance.

It seems that the Master's words are audible, "One thing thou lackest." (Mark 10:21).

So beautiful Camellia, and admirable moral man, boast not of perfection. It cannot be found here. Every rose has its thorn; every day its night. The sun shows spots, and the skies have darkened clouds. But still striving for perfection is a worthy aspiration, and a goal which can be ultimately attained when one's hand is placed in the hand of the omnipotent, and one's heart beats in tune with the Divine.

The only wise course is to strive continually toward that perfection which Jesus spoke of in His Sermon on the Mount—for the more perfect the soul the more joys of heaven and the more glorious that glory.

Surely some day, as one walks through the Garden of God, he will hear again the voice of the Camellia, and will be drawn to it by its insistent tone. Before near enough to touch it, he will be thrilled by the realization that the yearning of this lovely flower for perfection has been fulfilled, and this fulfillment exceeds all earthly expectations—for a fragrance beyond compare will fill the Celestial Air.

IN MEMORIAM

During the year we have lost many of our beloved members, to their eternal home—that place not made by hands. Cards of condolence were sent to the loved ones.

The harvest of all unselfish deeds are gathered in Heaven, I know,
And day by day, as we walk our way, our flowers in Heaven grow.
Beyond the grave is Eternal Life, and Faith is the golden key—
That makes us know that our loved ones live through eternity.

In times of sorrow our hearts go out in loving sympathy to our Sisters and Brothers who have lost loved ones.

Somewhere back of the sunset, where loneliness never dies,
They live in the land of glory, mid the blue and gold of the skies.
And we who have known and loved them, whose passing has brought us tears,

Cherish their memory—for we have blessed assurance that we shall meet them in that beautiful Garden of Peace.

HONORARY MEMBERSHIPS

One of the finest expressions of FRIENDSHIP, GOODWILL, and BROTHERLY LOVE, that can come to a member is to be made an Honorary Member of a Subordinate Chapter.

I acknowledge with pride, and a very grateful heart, the Honorary Memberships that you have given me. I shall prize this expression of your love and esteem through the years, and feel that I have been admitted to the inner circles of your Chapter. My sincere thanks and appreciation to each of you for this courtesy that you have extended me. Following is the list of Chapters that accorded me this honor:

SCHOOL FOR DEPUTIES

On July 2-4, 1964, a conference was held with the Five District Deputy Grand Matrons, at the Texas Hotel, Fort Worth, Texas. The time was given to a detailed study of the Ritual, and the Constitution and Laws of the Order. The time that they had given in preparation for the year's work was much in evidence, and their enthusiasm and interest was an inspiration to me. I would like to give special recognition to each of these fine girls for the splendid job they did, not only in preparation for conducting the schools in their respective districts, but for the perfectly planned meetings made by each of them for the Deputies' School that was held in each district, for the purpose of instruction, practice, and demonstration of the work.

In compliance with our law, a School for Deputies was held on Friday, October 30, 1964, at 9:00 A. M. in the Gunter Hotel, San Antonio, Texas. All of the Grand Examiners, District Deputy Grand Matrons, and Deputy Grand Matrons, were in attendance. Supplies were distributed by our Grand Secretary, Sister Rebecca L. Miles, and a general discussion and study was made of the outline of the work for the year, as was presented in the Deputy Books.

We were privileged to have the Worthy Grand Patron with us at this meeting, as well as all the line officers of Grand Chapter, in addition to several Past Grand Matrons, Past Grand Patrons, and the Grand Officers.

The following instructions were given:

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE EXAMINERS

Glorious as the advancement of our Order, we have but begun to build. With the broadening of our scope comes the opportunity for still greater achievements. We plan not alone for the present, but we work for the future. As we have profited by the work of the founders, so shall they who follow us profit by our accomplishments and our organization will grow increasingly great.

Through the medium of the office of Grand Examiner, you have the opportunity to encourage the members to want to study and to become more familiar with the laws, rules, and regulations of our Order. The office of Grand Examiner is one of the most highly respected offices in Grand Chapter, and the opportunity to promote the growth and prosperity of our Order is unlimited.

The Constitution gives the Worthy Grand Matron the privilege of the supervision of all boards. Having served for six years as Grand Examiner, I am aware of your responsibilities, as well as your problems, and can appreciate your efforts and accomplishments.

You are to make yourself thoroughly familiar with the duties of this office, as set forth in the Constitution, page 72, Article 84.

Registration for the school will begin at 8:00 A. M. and the school will be called to order at 9:00 A. M. The School Officers will please be seated in the East at 8:45 A. M.

After you are presented, you are to give instructions for the examining room, and then give the Drill on the Secret Work. I suggest that you be very brief, giving only the necessary instructions concerning grade slips, certificates, and any other pertinent information given in the Constitution, page 72, Article 84.

The school will close at 4:00 P. M. and you will be expected to be in the schoolroom by 3:30 P. M. to give a partial report, and to express appreciation for all courtesies.

The examining room will close when the school closes. Please plan to open the examining room by 7:00 P. M. preceding the Fraternal Visit in the evening. Any certificates issued during this time will be added to the partial report, given to the Secretary of the Fraternal Visit, and she will give the final report under the Good of the Order.

It will be necessary in the large schools to have the examining room opened by you on the day preceding the school. Please leave an able assistant in charge at any time that you are out of the room, and make the necessary arrangements for examinations to be given to those who cannot come except during the noon hour, or in the evening.

I want you to enjoy the same courtesies extended the other school officers; therefore, I have instructed the Deputies to appoint one or more Pages to assist you during the school and the Fraternal Visit. The Deputy will see that you are notified shortly before the school closes at noon, and will see that transportation is provided for you throughout the school.

At your request, the Deputies will assist you in securing qualified, dependable members, holding "A" Certificates to work with you in the examining room. You may contact the Deputy of each Section prior to the school and request that she furnish you a list of names before your arrival. In the interest of conserving time, I prefer that these names NOT be read in the schoolroom.

I look forward to having you as one of my traveling companions on the school schedule in your district, and I anticipate many joys and pleasures from our association.

I shall welcome the opportunity to assist you in any way to make your duties more pleasant and enjoyable. Please remember that if you need my assistance, you need only to call on me.

We may not know where the seeds of kindness, we may sow with great care, might fall, and yet we hope that some day each one will grow and bring forth fruit—sometime, somewhere.

Sincerely and fraternally,

AMY GOEBEL,
Worthy Grand Matron

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MATRONS 1964-1965

Life holds no greater pleasure than that of mastering surmounting difficulties, passing from one step to another, forming new wishes and seeing them gratified. He that labors in any great or worth-while undertaking, has his efforts and fatigue supported by Faith, Hope, and afterwards rewarded by joy. Therefore, disce quod doceas. (Master the subject you would teach!)

In accepting the place of service in our Grand Chapter as District Deputy Grand Matron, you will find it to be a position of leadership, and great responsibility. My confidence in you is merited by the qualities of leadership and ability that you have displayed, as well as the interest shown in the work of our Order. So it was with much thought and careful consideration that you were chosen. Having faith in your ability and in your judgment, I look forward with much joy and interest to working with you.

Under your direction and guidance, all the schools in the state will be held. You will plan the itinerary of the Worthy Grand Matron for your District, and have supervision of the ten Deputy Grand Matrons. Keep in close contact with them, counseling and giving assistance and advice when necessary. Study carefully the "Instructions to the Deputy Grand Matrons." You will find them to be both informative and helpful to you.

CORRESPONDENCE

Immediately upon return from Grand Chapter, send a letter of greeting to the Chapters in your District. At the close of your year's work, write a letter of thanks and appreciation to them.

Your correspondence will constitute a great portion of your work. Study, and you will find that your knowledge of the work will be invaluable. Answer all correspondence promptly, and keep a carbon copy of each letter for your files. Answer questions by giving the page in the Ritual, or, the Article and page in the Constitution and Laws. Please do not give an opinion unless the Ritual or Constitution states the answer very clearly.

Never give an opinion when the law is silent, but forward the question to your Worthy Grand Matron.

If at any time you are in doubt or do not know the answer to a question, ask for time to check, and do not be afraid to say, "I do not know."

It is the desire of your Worthy Grand Matron to assist you when necessary, therefore, feel free to refer any questions to her. Please ask your Deputies to direct all questions to you, rather than to the Worthy Grand Matron.

REPORTS:

Forms are provided for all reports. Study carefully your duties on pages 96 and 97, in the Code of Laws. Use the typewriter, if possible, for all reports. Your Monthly Report must reach the Worthy Grand Matron and the Associate Grand Matron by the 10th of each month. Mail the original copy of your report to the Associate Grand Matron. Check carefully the weight of the reports for sufficient postage.

Read carefully the instructions for compiling your Annual Report, on page 96, Article 140, (4), Code of Laws. This report is due on or before the 31st day of August.

FUNDS:

Soon after Grand Chapter, you will receive an appropriation to defray the expenses incurred in carrying on the work in your District. You will immediately forward the pro rata to each of the ten Deputy Grand Matrons in your District.

The District Deputy Grand Matrons and the Deputy Grand Matrons will be allowed three (3) cents per mile for traveling on official business, except when riding with the Worthy Grand Matron in the Grand Chapter car.

Keep an accurate account of your expenses. Your financial report must balance. Refund any unused portion of the appropriation made by Grand Chapter, through the Grand Secretary's Office to the General Fund, on or before August 31st. (Should additional funds be needed for duties performed after the above date, a Supplemental Report must be filed.) Please urge the Deputies to be economical, and avoid long distance telephone calls, and to keep an accurate account of the funds.

MINUTE BOOK:

You will be furnished a Minute Book to keep a record of all Eastern Star Schools held in your District. This is to be forwarded to the Associate Grand Matron within thirty (30) days after the close of the last school.

SCHOOLS:

The Constitution and Laws give the District Deputy Grand Matron the privilege of presiding over the schools in her District. Prepare well and study so that your knowledge of the work will enable you to feel very sure and self-confident.

Work closely with the Deputies as you plan the school schedule, when completed submit it to the Worthy Grand Matron for her approval. Contact the Worthy Grand Patron and ascertain his wishes for including Institutions and/or Constitutions in the schedule.

After the schedule has been approved, send a copy to the Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Secretary, Grand Examiner of your District, and the Line Officers of Grand Chapter. Be sure to send the copy to the Grand Secretary before the 15th of the month preceding your schools, so that such notice may be printed in the Official Bulletin. Also send a complete itinerary, giving dates, time of arrival, departure, names and addresses of the buildings where Schools and Visits will be held, names and addresses of places that the School Officers will stay, and when possible, furnish telephone numbers, to the Grand Secretary so that she may contact the Worthy Grand Matron at any time. Have all hotel and motel reservations confirmed before the schedule is completed and sent to the Worthy Grand Matron.

Arrange accommodations for the Worthy Grand Matron, Grand Examiner, District Deputy Grand Matron, Deputy Grand Matron if necessary, and the District Secretary, when she is traveling with the Worthy Grand Matron. (The Deputy Grand Matron will assist you in making the necessary arrangements.)

Unless it is absolutely necessary, do not plan night driving or long drives early in the morning before the schools. The extra days between Schools and Visits are for traveling. Do not schedule more than four schools in one week, and try to arrange the schedule so that a Fraternal Visit is not planned for Wednesday night. This is church night for many, and we would not want a meeting to interfere with a church service if possible.

Please do not plan anything on Sunday that will conflict with the church hour. This is the Lord's day; let us set it aside to worship Him. When possible, I would like to attend church.

The Eastern Star School will be a closed meeting for the purpose of instruction and demonstration of the work. As such, a Charter and a Quorum are NOT required. The School will be opened with one blow of the gavel, and NOT in Ritualistic form. Schools will be in session from 9:00 A. M. to 12:00 Noon, and from 1:30 P. M. to 4:00 P. M.

All Grand Officers and Officers of Grand Chapter will be introduced during the Morning Session. When General Grand Chapter Officers, Past Grand Matrons, Past Grand Patrons, and Line Officers of Grand Chapter are present, invite them to share the East, and extend a special welcome to them.

The Worthy Grand Patron is a very busy person and in all probability will not be privileged to attend every School and Visit. But when he is present, extend him every courtesy to show him that we are appreciative of his efforts to attend.

FRATERNAL VISITS:

Schedule Fraternal Visits on the evening following the Eastern Star Schools. Charters and Quorums will be required for the Fraternal Visit, and the meeting will be opened in Ritualistic form.

A Joint Fraternal Visit is a meeting of two or more Chapters honoring the Worthy Grand Matron. Therefore, such a meeting would be termed "A Joint Fraternal Visit," of the Worthy Grand Matron.

Planning the itinerary for the Visits of the Worthy Grand Matron in your District, will be your responsibility. Encourage the participation of all the Chapters in the Section.

A Chapter may receive the Worthy Grand Matron for a Fraternal Visit either at a Stated or Special Meeting of the Chapter called for that purpose. If several Chapters wish to have a joint meeting, they may call a Special Meeting for the Fraternal Visit.

GRAND EXAMINER:

The Grand Examiner is a vital and important participant in the Schools in your District. She should be shown every courtesy and consideration. Inform her of all plans, and when selecting a building for the Schools, keep her work in mind and its demands for adequate space and comfort. Remind the Deputies to appoint Pages for her assistance, and to select competent, dependable members, holding "A" Certificates, to assist her in giving the examinations.

No other office in Grand Chapter affords a better opportunity for personal contact with the membership, and you will derive much pleasure and happiness from this association with them.

May many hours and days of happiness be joyfully combined to make this year a perfect year for you. And may you find the years ahead are just the perfect blending of treasured memories of pleasant times and happiness unending.

Sincerely and fraternally,

MRS. AMY GOEBEL,
Worthy Grand Matron.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE DEPUTY GRAND MATRONS
1964-1965

TWELVE THINGS TO REMEMBER

The value of time.
The success of perseverance.
The pleasure of working.
The dignity of simplicity.
The worth of character.
The power of kindness.
The influence of example.
The obligation of duty.
The wisdom of economy.
The virtue of patience.
The improvement of talent.
The joy of originating.

—Selected.

It is with a sense of pride and confidence that I greet you as my personal representative in your respective Sections. Your place of Service is one of great importance, not only to me, but the growth and accomplishments of our Order this year will depend, to a great extent, upon the manner in which you give your assistance.

Behind the expenditure of the precious energy of life, there must be exercised Faith, Hope and Love, for our fellow man, or otherwise, that energy which can never be recaptured is wasted.

It is the little things that we do and say that mean so much, as we go our way. A kindly deed, or a gentle word, can inspire and lift a load from weary shoulders. Never was a kind word wasted; never was one said in vain.

CORRESPONDENCE:

Your first Official Act, immediately after Grand Chapter, will be to write a letter of Fraternal Greetings to each Chapter in your Section, giving them a designated date for you to make your Official Visit of Inspection to the Chapter, and asking if it will be convenient with them for you to come at this time. If not, ask the Chapter for a date that you could come. Study the locations of the Chapters in your Section, and their meeting dates, and plan your visits in advance. The Chapters look forward to the visit of the Deputy Grand Matron. Study, so that you will know your work well. Then you will preside with assurance and self-confidence, and will be an inspiration to the members, as well as bringing information and knowledge of the work to them.

Your visits to the Chapters should be made as soon as possible after Grand Chapter, so that the members may have the benefit of the Instructions. Plan your Schedule, so that you will not have to cover the same territory twice, if possible.

Enclosed in your Deputy Book is a Directory of the Subordinate Chapters under the Jurisdiction of the Grand Chapter of Texas. It gives the date of the meeting of each Chapter, and the name and address of the Secretary. You will address your letter to the Chapter, in care of the Secretary. To avoid delay in a reply to your letter, be sure that your letter reaches the Secretary before their stated meeting.

I suggest that you keep a file for each Chapter, one for your District Deputy Grand Matron, and a Personal File—which will include plans for your school, etc. Please keep a carbon copy of all correspondence, and answer questions with reference to the work by referring to the page in the Ritual or Constitution. Do not give an opinion where there is not a definite law. Refer questions requiring an opinion or decision, to the District Deputy Grand Matron, who will send them to the Worthy Grand Matron for her decision.

CHAPTER INSPECTIONS:

You are authorized by the Constitution to make only one Official Visit of Inspection to each Chapter in your Section, unless directed to do so by the Worthy Grand Matron or the District Deputy Grand Matron.

Notify the Worthy Matron or the Secretary in advance, of the time of your arrival and departure; the books that you will want to see, such as the Secretary's Minute Book, Treasurer's Books, also the By-Laws, and other information needed to fill out the Chapter Inspection Report. The Secretary will then be prepared to give you the necessary information. I suggest that you go early so that you will have sufficient time to inspect the books.

You will check the minutes of each meeting since the visit of the previous Deputy Grand Matron. Place the date and your signature after the last minutes. It is not the duty of the Deputy Grand Matron to audit the Chapter books. You will only ascertain that the Chapter Records are being kept in proper order and on prescribed forms, and that an audit of the books was made in accordance with the Constitution and Laws, and By-Laws of the Chapter. After each visit, write a note of appreciation to the Chapter for all courtesies extended to you.

Give your instructions under "Good of the Order," and find out from the Worthy Matron prior to the meeting, the instructions that are most needed for that particular Chapter. Explain them, and demonstrate any phase of the work that they may ask you to. By careful observation during the meeting, you may see mistakes that you may correct during your instructions, but do it in a diplomatic way. Remember to always be kind and gentle in your instructions at all times.

REPORTS:

Study carefully the Constitution, page 97, Code of Laws, Article 144, concerning the duties of the Deputy Grand Matron.

It is IMPORTANT that your report to the District Deputy Grand Matron be PROMPT and ACCURATE. Her report, which is based on your report to her, must reach the Worthy Grand Matron by the 10th of each month. Use the typewriter when possible (otherwise use ink) and be careful to allow sufficient postage.

Make two (2) copies of the monthly "Report of the Deputy Grand Matron" on the FIRST day of each month. Mail one (1) copy to your District Deputy Grand Matron, retaining one (1) copy for your files. (A report is due on the FIRST day of each month, even though no visits were made.)

Make three (3) copies of "Report of Chapter Inspection." Mail two (2) copies to your District Deputy Grand Matron, retaining one (1) copy for your files.

Your Annual Report is due on August 1st. Any balance of your appropriation for expenses is to be attached to this report and mailed to your District Deputy Grand Matron.

YOUR INTRODUCTION:

The Constitution, page 148, Article 281, gives the proper time and method for your introduction at the time that you make your official Inspection Visit to a Chapter. On all other occasions, you are introduced in your proper place with all other Grand Officers, and Officers of Grand Chapter. Do not permit your Worthy Matron to introduce you in your own Chapter at each meeting, unless there are other Grand Officers visiting your Chapter, or on special occasions when the Chapter honors you. Be humble, considerate, kind, and diplomatic to everyone at all times.

EXPENSE AND MILEAGE:

Your District Deputy Grand Matron will mail a check to you soon after Grand Chapter for your expenses, necessary for the work in your Section. Itemized expense accounts will be sent by each Deputy Grand Matron, to her District Deputy Grand Matron each month. You receive three (3) cents per mile for travel expense, when making an Official Visit of Inspection to the Chapters in your Section, or when instructed to make other visits by the Worthy Grand Matron. You will also receive mileage to Grand Chapter. Please study "Special Duties" in the Constitution, page 98, Articles 146, 147, and 148.

MASONIC BUILDINGS:

The Masons observe two Saints John days, December 27th and June 24th. These two days hold special significance for the Masons, and it is their desire that NO meetings be held in the Masonic Lodge Rooms on either of these days. Stress the importance of these two dates to your members. If a meeting should fall on either of these days, a Special Dispensation will be secured from the Worthy Grand Matron to move the place of meeting.

All Chapters are urged to cooperate with the Masons in observance of Public Schools Week, which is the first week in March. (March 1st through 5th). No Eastern Star meetings will be held in the Masonic Lodge Rooms during this period of time, except for stated meetings prescribed by your By-Laws with no social functions or refreshments.

EASTERN STAR SCHOOLS AND FRATERNAL VISITS:

The Deputy Grand Matron makes all preparations for the School. Invitations for the Schools and Fraternal Visits of the Worthy Grand Matron, will be sent to the District Deputy Grand Matron. The time, place, and schedule for all schools and visits, must be approved by the Worthy Grand Matron. Therefore, send all tentative plans to the District Deputy Grand Matron, who will send them to the Worthy Grand Matron for approval. Keep in close contact with the District Deputy Grand Matron, concerning all plans for the school and visit in your Section.

An outline for your school program will be found in your Deputy Book. Please follow it carefully, and when plans are completed for your school, send a copy to your District Deputy Grand Matron for approval. Include the address of the place where the school and visit are to be held.

The school is for every Chapter in the Section. Therefore, make a careful estimate of the cost of the school and the visit, so that you will not have to ask for additional funds. After the school, send an ITEMIZED

STATEMENT of the Expenses to each Chapter as soon as possible. Such statement should accompany your expression of appreciation to each Chapter following the school and the visit.

I suggest that you ask the Secretary of your Chapter for a copy of the Itemized Statement of the Expenses of the last Eastern Star School held in your Section, to be used in making a proposed budget for the School and Visit. Each Chapter participating in the School and the Fraternal Visit will share in the Expense of same; therefore, plan the budget carefully, and concisely, so that you will not have to ask for additional funds, after you have asked for the specified amount from each Chapter.

Should the program activities of the Masonic Lodges prevent the use of their building for the school and/or Visit, any other building, Public School, Recreational or Church, that may be available may be used, if sufficient secrecy is provided.

You are the Chairman of the school. You may appoint a Co-chairman to assist you, if you feel that you need one.

Discuss all plans concerning the School and Visit with the Worthy Matrons. Call a meeting at a centrally located place for discussion and planning. If the Associate Matrons are participating, and I suggest that they do, include them in this meeting.

You will select the Registration Committee, naming a Chairman. I suggest that you appoint the Junior Past Matrons to serve on this Committee.

The Associate Matrons will compose the Invitation Committee. You will select the Chairman.

Select an efficient School Secretary, and an Assistant, to record the minutes of the School and Visit. These must be recorded in the School Minute Book by the close of the meeting in the evening, after the Fraternal Visit.

The Chapters will not be required to have their Charters or a Quorum present at the Eastern Star School, but must have both for the Fraternal Visit. Remember that only the Worthy Grand Matron makes a Fraternal Visit.

Please see that the Secretary is at her station at least thirty (30) minutes prior to the visit, so that the Worthy Matrons of the Hostess Chapters may report to her concerning their Charter and Quorum. You are to send a copy of the minutes of the School and Fraternal Visit to each participating Chapter.

Study carefully the Ceremony for Eastern Star Schools. You are the hostess in your Section. You will call the School to Order, and extend a brief welcome. (A response is not necessary at the school.) Please remain in the School Room except when your duties as hostess require you to be elsewhere.

The School Officers will not be required to wear their badges, and the Salutation Sign will not be given on entering or retiring from the Chapter Room.

If and when Special Courtesies are extended, please designate one person to present the HONORARY MEMBERSHIPS and one person to present the SCHOOL GIFTS. Use a Brother to present the HONORARY MEMBERSHIPS and the SCHOOL GIFT to the Worthy Grand Patron.

Should the School or Visit fall on the Stated Meeting of a participating Chapter, the Worthy Grand Matron cannot give permission for the Chapter to not have its meeting. If all requirements are met the meeting must be held.

THE GRAND EXAMINER:

Extend every courtesy to the Grand Examiner, and appoint at least two Pages to assist her. Select qualified and dependable members, holding "A" Certificates, to assist in giving the examinations in the Examining Room. Please stress that Line Officers of the Chapters not be used in the Examining Room to assist in any way, as they need to stay in the school room for instructions. Arrange for a comfortable and adequate place for your examiner to work, and assist her in whatever manner she requests.

RESERVATIONS:

It will be your duty to make reservations for the School Officers, the Worthy Grand Matron, Grand Examiner, District Deputy Grand Matron, and the District Secretary when she is traveling with the Worthy Grand Matron. Make reservations either in homes, hotels, or motels. If reservations are made in a motel or a hotel, please have confirmations sent to the District Deputy Grand Matron before the time for leaving on the Schedule in the District.

Please send an invitation to the Worthy Grand Patron and his wife, and see if they want you to secure reservations for them. I know that you will want to extend every courtesy to them while they are in your Section.

WELFARE PROGRAM:

Please mention the Welfare Program as outlined for the year, giving explanation and answering all questions pertaining to it. The membership is interested, and if it is presented to them properly, they will respond and will want to participate in the program.

CONCLUSION:

Thank you for accepting this place of responsibility. There is nothing too good to wish for you, but this wish I hope may come true: May all the sunbeams you've scattered, be reflected in your life, and may they shine in blessings on you every hour of every day.

Sincerely and fraternally,

MRS. AMY GOEBEL,
Worthy Grand Matron.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBORDINATE CHAPTERS

1964-1965

(One copy to be mailed to the Secretary of the Chapter in November, which is to be GIVEN TO THE WORTHY MATRON. The instructions will be effective upon receipt of same. The Deputy will supply one for the Associate Matron when she make her official visit.)

These instructions are given hoping to aid in uniformity of ritualistic work and are intended to be helpful wherever procedure is not clear. All references to ritualistic instructions and to the Constitution are given by page. Instructions given here are intended to be in conformity with our Ritual and Constitution, and to aid our members in exemplifying the ceremonies of our Order in an impressive manner. The fine print of the Ritual is to be followed as carefully as the large print, as this is specific instructions for carrying out the ceremonies in a uniform manner.

OPENING CEREMONY:

The furniture will be arranged according to the diagram on page 167 of the Ritual. Note that the Ritual does not permit any other chairs to be placed within the Labyrinth. The proper position of the Star upon the floor as established by the Ritual is with the white point toward the West. (Ritual, page 167, Constitution, page 147.) The proper way in which to place the emblems on the Star point pedestals is found in the Ritual, page 3.

Please start your meetings at the time designated by the Chapter By-Laws. DO NOT keep the membership waiting because an officer is late in arriving; appoint a Pro tem. Officer, and when the regular officer arrives, the Pro tem. Officer will relinquish her station. Pro tem. Officers are appointed for ONE meeting only.

PLAN SHORT MEETINGS but make them interesting. Many of our members are employed and do not wish to be up until a late hour. Remember that the plans and preparations for the meeting of a Chapter are the responsibilities of the Worthy Matron—even though certain duties and responsibilities may be delegated to certain officers, it is still the duty of the Worthy Matron to check and see if everything is ready for the meeting.

REQUIREMENTS FOR OPENING A CHAPTER (Constitution, page 146, Article 275):

A charter or valid dispensation for such Chapter must be present in the Chapter room. (Ritual, page 93.)

A quorum, which is seven (7) members of the Chapter, including one (1) of the first four officers.

The Holy Bible, opened at the Second Chapter of St. Matthew, must be on the Altar. The Square and Compasses must be placed upon the Bible.

The Flag of the United States shall be present in the Chapter room and the Pledge of Allegiance to be given at every meeting. The position of the Flag is in the East, at the right of, and on a level with the presiding officer. If the Flag is presented, it must be retired just preceding the closing ceremony. (Constitution, page 195, for presentation of the Flag.)

When balloting or when conferring the Degrees, a Brother in good standing in a Chapter of this Grand Jurisdiction, or some Grand Jurisdiction recognized by this Grand Jurisdiction and using the Ritual prescribed by General Grand Chapter, must be present. (Landmark No. 8, page 163 in the Ritual authorizing the exception.)

If the Worthy Matron and the Associate Matron are absent, it is the duty of the Worthy Patron to appoint a Past Matron to preside. If in such case no Past Matron is present, the Worthy Patron shall call upon any Sister to fill the station of Worthy Matron. In the absence of all of these officers, it will be the duty of the Associate Patron, as the presiding officer, to fill these stations with Pro tems.

Elective or appointive officers may relinquish their stations to others temporarily when authorized to do so by the Worthy Matron or other presiding officer, EXCEPT IN THE OPENING AND CLOSING of the Chapter. (Constitution, page 143, second paragraph.)

When ready for the opening ceremony the Officers, with the exception of the Worthy Patron, Associate Patron, Associate Conductress, and Organist, retire to the anteroom, and these four officers will assume their stations.

Since the Ritual does not provide the manner in which these officers assume their stations, they may do so in any impressive ceremony desired by the Worthy Matron, provided the Worthy Patron ascends the dais after the other three officers are in their stations. (Ritual, fine print—page 23.) As a suggestion, and if the Worthy Matron so desires, the Worthy Patron, Organist, Associate Conductress, and Associate Patron, may be escorted in by the Marshal, (in this order). Or, the Organist may assume her station first, so that she can play as the other three officers are being escorted to their stations. The Worthy Patron ascends the dais last and sounds the gavel, which begins the Opening of the Chapter. The Marshal retires immediately, and marches in with the other officer.

The Associate Conductress is instructed by the Worthy Patron to invite the Worthy Matron and other officers to enter the Chapter Room, after he has given one blow of the gavel and addressed those in the Chapter room as prescribed by the Ritual, fine print, on top of page 23.

When the Associate Conductress is instructed by the Worthy Patron to invite the Worthy Matron and other officers to enter the Chapter Room, she retires and in audible tone, gives the invitation. The Worthy Patron calls up the Chapter as the officers enter in two lines led by the Conductress and Associate Conductress.

The officers shall wear their badges during the drill, as it is a part of the opening. Any desired drill may be executed; provided, at the close of such drill, all officers are in proper position as prescribed by the Ritual on top of page 24. The lines may be formed either inside or outside ALL the chairs. The Worthy Matron shall decide which is most convenient.

The Conductress escorts the Worthy Matron to the East as instructed by the fine print of the Ritual, page 24. The Worthy Patron assists the Worthy Matron to the dais and presents her the gavel. At the same time the Conductress returns directly to her former position at the head of the South line.

The Worthy Matron instructs the officers to take their respective stations, after which she immediately seats the Chapter. (Ritual, top of page 25) (Constitution, page 157, Article 305), (1).

If the line is formed inside the chairs the officers will leave the Labyrinth between Adah and Electa and go directly to their stations. If the line is formed outside the chairs, they will walk to the line of march in the East and counter-march. In either instance they will go directly to their stations and be seated immediately.

PROVING THE CHAPTER:

Proving the Chapter is the responsibility of the Associate Matron, who will remain standing during the procedure. If the Associate Matron is able of her own knowledge to vouch for all present, she will respond at once; but if she is not, she will direct the Conductress and the Associate Conductress to assist her.

In proving a Chapter, the Conductress and the Associate Conductress will begin at the East, on the South and North, at the right of the Worthy Matron and the left of the Worthy Patron, respectively. The members will remain seated.

If either the Conductress or Associate Conductress finds a visitor for whom she cannot vouch, she will ask the person to rise and then report to the Associate Matron, who will proceed with the instructions given in the fine print of the Ritual, pages 26 and 27. If the person is properly vouched for, but does not possess a receipt for dues and claims membership in a Chapter in this Grand Jurisdiction, the Associate Matron will follow instructions on page 147 of the Constitution. If the person's name appears as a member in good standing in such Chapter in the latest published Roster, which should be on the Secretary's desk, the visitor may be seated. The Associate Matron would remain in her station and ask the Secretary to ascertain if the visitor's name appears on the list of members of her or his Chapter.

If the visitor has to be examined, the examination will be conducted as directed in the fine print of the Ritual on pages 26 and 27. A Bible should be available for the use of the Examining Committee. (It is suggested that a Bible be kept in the Preparation Room.)

EXAMINATION OF A VISITOR:

It is the duty of the Associate Matron, Conductress, and Associate Conductress to assist the Worthy Matron in extending welcomes and courtesies to all visitors upon arrival. This important duty, however, should not be confined to the officers named, but all officers and members should assist in welcoming.

The Conductress and Associate Conductress should find out before the beginning of the opening ceremony if visitors are present who cannot be vouched for. If so, then they will see that they are examined at once so that they may witness the opening of the Chapter.

The examining committee shall consist of three members, and one member of the committee should be a Brother. The examination of a visitor must take place in a room secure from interruption. Visitors must always be examined separately. The examination will be conducted as directed in fine print of the Ritual, pages 17, 26 and 27.

VISITORS FROM NEW YORK AND NEW JERSEY:

Before giving the Test Oath, if the member is from New York or New Jersey, the Chairman must ask the eligibility through whom the member attained membership, and if through an uncle or grandfather, the member is not eligible to visit Chapters or Grand Chapters under the Jurisdiction of General Grand Chapter.

Members vouching for visitors from other jurisdictions, in addition to having sat in Chapter with such visitor, must have seen the visitor's receipt for dues, or valid demit which must bear the seal of a regular Chapter, showing dues paid to a date within two years of the visit, and the demit must be dated within one year of the visit. (Constitution, page 147, Article 277.)

DEMITTS:

Members holding demits from a subordinate Chapter of this Grand Jurisdiction, or former members of demised Chapters of this Grand Jurisdiction who hold Grand Demits, may visit on such demit for one year from its date. After the expiration of the year period, such demit shall be valid for one visit only, and the holder of such demit shall be required to file therewith on such visitation a petition for affiliation. Should the petition for affiliation be rejected, the demit shall be returned to the petitioner, and such demit shall again be valid for one visit to a Chapter at a stated meeting for the purpose of petitioning for affiliation.

ALTAR SERVICES:

When the Conductress is directed to attend at the Altar during the opening and closing ceremonies, she leaves her station (if there is a pedestal at her station, she leaves on the East side of the pedestal) marches in a straight line West to a convenient point and turns right, and marches in a straight line (between Ruth and Esther) to the Altar. She makes a slight bow to the Worthy Matron, and proceeds according to the Ritual, page 41.

To open the Bible, the Conductress places her right hand firmly in the center of the front edges and places her left hand firmly on the back edge, just opposite her right hand. With her right hand she raises the front edges of the Bible to the center of the Altar, with her left hand she guides the back of the Bible to the center of the Altar. She then moves the left hand slowly up the front side of the Bible until it meets the right hand and opens the Bible with both hands, places Square and Compasses upon Bible, lowering both sides at the same time. She then draws both hands away giving the Salutation sign to the Bible. With face to the Altar, the Conductress then steps back in the circle of the officers midway between Ruth and Esther, where she remains until after the Warder reports to the Worthy Matron.

When the Chaplain goes to the Altar for prayer in the opening and closing ceremonies, or for any other occasion, she (or he) marches West in a straight line to a convenient point and turns left, and marches in a straight line (between Esther and Martha) to the Altar.

When she reaches the Altar, she stands until the music ceases and then should kneel to offer prayer. After completing the prayer, with face towards the Altar, she rises and steps back into the circle of officers midway between Esther and Martha.

Care should be taken to perfect the circular pattern, Ritual, Page 42. It is incorrect to form a straight line with Esther in a central position. The position of the Star Point officers, Chaplain and Conductress form an arc of the circle.

After the Warder reports to the Worthy Matron, the Conductress turns south and the Chaplain turns north and both march to their respective stations, having marched West far enough to reach the marching line on each side. Sacred or appropriate music may be played during the march to the Altar, and during the opening and closing of the Bible, but NOT during the prayer.

The same directions are to be observed by the Chaplain and the Conductress in the performance of their duties in the closing ceremony as stated for the opening ceremony. (Ritual, pages 46, 47.)

During the Altar Service, all officers and members face the Altar.

The Reverent Attitude (loosely clasped hands) is assumed in the devotionals in the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the Chapter and during all Obligations.

The Reverent Attitude is assumed when the Conductress or Chaplain enters the Labyrinth in the Opening and Closing Devotionals, and is held until they step back into the semicircle of the Star Point Officers. Note the difference between the edge of the Labyrinth and the circle of Star Points. (See Ritual, diagram, page 3.)

The Attitude of Prayer (bowed head) is assumed at the beginning of the prayer and is held until the response is given.

FLAG CEREMONY AND PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE:

If the Flag is presented, it should be presented immediately following the Opening Ceremony, after the Warder reports to the Worthy Matron, and the Conductress and Chaplain return to their stations (Ritual, page 43.)

Since the Flag Ceremony and Pledge of Allegiance are considered to be a part of the opening ceremony, the Warder and the Sentinel will not permit members to enter the Chapter room until this is completed, and the Worthy Matron seats the Chapter.

It is not compulsory that the flag be presented, but if it is, it must be retired just preceding the Closing Ceremony.

The Flag of the United States shall be present in the Chapter room and the Pledge of Allegiance shall be given at every meeting. (Constitution, page 146.) It should be placed in the East at the right of the presiding officer. (Ritual, page 43.)

The Pledge of Allegiance is given immediately after the Opening Ceremony, or if the flag is presented, then it should be given immediately following the flag presentation. (See Flag Ceremony, Constitution, page 195.)

OFFICERS:

The appointive officers of a Chapter, as listed in the Constitution, page 141, Article 252, (2), shall be appointed by the Worthy Matron-elect. The first eight (8) officers shall be elected annually, at the stated meeting next preceding the 30th day of April, or under a special dispensation from the Worthy Grand Matron, or at a later stated meeting.

All officers should MEMORIZE their work to make it more impressive, and should practice the ceremonies often, striving for perfection. The officers shall fill their stations during the OPENING and CLOSING ceremonies when present, and by permission of the presiding officer, they may relinquish their stations at other times. The Worthy Matron may request a visitor or another member to give the FAREWELL CHARGE, but she will not relinquish her gavel; it should be given from the East.

The Opening Ode is a part of the Opening Ceremony, and all should join in singing. It cannot be omitted. A familiar song should be chosen, and the title announced.

The wording of the Ritual except as provided, is never changed. The Worthy Matron completes the Opening, and in the event the meeting is a Special one, she then announces the purpose for which the meeting was called.

The officers are instructed where to stand (Ritual, fine print, page 27) and when they are called up by two blows of the gavel ALL officers will rise, including the SECRETARY, and will remain standing until seated by the gavel.

The Signs given by the Star Point Officers are held until after the Passes have been given.

THE WARDER AND SENTINEL:

The presiding officer only gives permission to the Warder to open the door. This is her exclusive duty and she must give the proper raps when so doing. After the directions of the Worthy Matron to the Warder, Ritual, page 25, and the Sentinel's response, the Warder closes the door without raps. The raps are never given by the Warder immediately after closing the door. She should not call attention of the Worthy Matron to raps given until the Chapter has been declared open and the Conductress and the Chaplain have returned to their stations.

After the Chapter has been declared open and the Worthy Matron directs the Warder to so inform the Sentinel, the Warder gives the raps which are responded to by the Sentinel and the Warder opens the door and continues according to the Ritual, page 43. The Sentinel never opens or closes the door.

After giving the proper raps, opening the door and ascertaining the cause of the alarm, if it is Sisters or Brothers, who have been properly vouched for, the members may be immediately admitted without further raps and the door closed.

If anyone wishing to enter cannot be vouched for by the Sentinel or Warder, the Warder should report to the Worthy Matron, giving the name, number and location of the Chapter of the member or visitor wishing to be admitted. If the Worthy Matron cannot vouch for the member, she should ask if there is anyone present who can vouch for the visitor. If there is, she asks them to retire, and they would return with the visitor. If no one can vouch for the visitor, the Worthy Matron would instruct the Examining Committee to retire and make the proper examination. After the examination is completed, the Warder will admit them when directed to do so by the Worthy Matron.

The Sentinel should pay close attention and not give raps during the opening ceremony, balloting, initiatory ceremony, closing ceremony, nor should he give repeated raps during an order of business.

The Warder will not respond until the order of business or ceremony is completed and she can call this to the attention of the Worthy Matron.

Remember, the solemnity of our ceremonies should not be interrupted by unnecessary or poorly timed alarms. Ritual, page 16, gives instructions on the proper way to give raps. The Warder never leaves her or his station during a meeting.

SECRETARY:

The Secretary has an important and responsible charge. In connection with her specified duties, (Constitution, page 143, Article 261) attention is called to the following:

She orders ALL supplies from the Grand Secretary's office with payment attached. (ALL checks and money orders are made payable to the Grand Chapter of Texas.)

She collects all money due the Chapter, and pays it to the Treasurer, but it is the TREASURER who pays the Chapter's debts.

She is the only person who writes for a SPECIAL DISPENSATION ATTACHING THE NECESSARY FEE, and such request which is made by the Chapter, MUST be made under the SEAL of the Chapter, on prescribed form.

She sends all THREE notices with references to dues to delinquent members (an additional form for statement of Masonic standing is attached for delinquent Brothers.)

She MUST read ALL CORRESPONDENCE to the Chapter. She will keep the Worthy Matron informed previous to the meeting time of any unfinished or new business and/or correspondence that will need attention.

INTRODUCTION OF DISTINGUISHED MEMBERS:

The instructions for presenting and introducing the distinguished members are set out in the Constitution, page 148, Article 281. Study carefully the manner and order in which the Introductions are made.

By practice ONLY, the Worthy Matron, Conductress and Associate Conductress, can present and introduce distinguished guests properly. Distinguished guests should be received graciously and this can be done ONLY by STUDYING and PRACTICING.

All distinguished guests should be introduced immediately after the Chapter is declared open, and the Flag Ceremony.

When directed to present distinguished members, the Conductress and Associate Conductress will meet in the West and bow to each other. The Associate Conductress takes the left arm of the Conductress, and if the Grand Officers to be presented are seated on the same side of the Chapter Room, they will go together. They will approach the Grand Officers, bow and escort them to the southwest, where they will take their proper position in line of presentation and introduction, then proceed to the Altar or behind Esther's station. (ONLY Grand Officers entitled to Grand Honors are presented at the ALTAR) Constitution, page 149, Article 281, paragraph (3).

They may walk in couples or single file. If entering in couples, the Conductress offers the Grand Officer her right arm, and the Associate Conductress offers her left arm to the Grand Officer. If in single file, the Conductress leads the line and the Associate Conductress is at the end of the line.

If there are Distinguished Guests on both sides of the room, each Conductress should pick up those on her respective side, and proceed as above to the southwest corner of the room.

If both Sisters and Brothers have been presented at the Altar, the Conductress will escort the Sisters by marching to the East on the North side of the Altar (through the Labyrinth) and the Associate Conductress will escort the Brothers to the East by marching on the South side of the Altar (through the Labyrinth). If both Sisters and Brothers have been presented behind Esther's station, the Conductress will escort the Sisters East along the North marching line, and the Associate Conductress will escort the Brothers East along the South marching line. In either instance, the Conductress bow to the distinguished members, face the East and remain there during the introductions by the Worthy Matron, join in giving Grand Honors and/or hearty welcome, and return to the West.

In presentations, the Conductress may give the names and titles of the distinguished members, or she may say, "Worthy Matron, I have the pleasure of presenting these Distinguished Members who will be introduced by you in the East."

After the introduction of Grand Officers in the East by the Worthy Matron, the Conductress and the Associate Conductress return to the West, and facing the East, with the Associate Conductress on the left of the Conductress, they wait for further instructions from the Worthy Matron—if other presentations are to be made at this time.

ORDER OF BUSINESS:

The Order of Business is that followed in the Chapter By-Laws. After the reading of the minutes, such Order may be suspended by unanimous consent or by two-thirds vote of the members present. (Constitution, page 149, Article 284.)

PETITIONS:

No person shall be invited or solicited to become a member of the Order. Petitions shall be presented ONLY at a stated meeting and on prescribed Form with the proper fee attached.

Members recommending petitioners should observe the following rules: First, the petitioner must be known. A signature upon the petition is, in effect, a recommendation of the good character of the petitioner. Second, the petitioner should be worthy to become a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. Third, the petitioner must have the required Masonic eligibility. Fourth, the petitioner must personally sign the petition, and meet all other qualifications.

No OFFICER or MEMBER of the Chapter may inform a petitioner of her or his acceptance or rejection by the ballot. This is the duty of the SECRETARY and ONLY the SECRETARY.

The appointment of an investigating committee must be made at a stated meeting in open Chapter in order that all members may have due notice thereof. The investigating committee can report only at a stated meeting of a Chapter. The report of the committee should be read in full to the Chapter, including the names of the committee. It is not permissible to discuss the report of the committee or the result of the ballot with any petitioner. Members of the investigating committee should be most conscientious in the performance of this very important duty.

It is the duty of the Brother on the committee to ascertain the Masonic standing or relationship of an applicant. This is the special duty of the Brother. It is desirable that the investigating committee make personal contact with the petitioner, and two of the members of the committee must visit with the applicant before making the report to the Chapter. (Constitution, page 127, Article 217 (2).)

THE BALLOT:

The ballot is our protection against those who would injuriously affect the welfare of our Order, and it is a solemn and sacred trust. No one who is worthy should be denied the privilege of membership in our Order.

Special study and attention should be given to Landmarks 7 and 11, page 163 of the Ritual, and the Constitution, pages 134-140, inclusive.

The ballot can be taken only at Stated Meetings, and a Brother must present and occupy the station of the Worthy Patron.

It is the duty of the Worthy Matron and the Worthy Patron to see that the ballot box is prepared legally and properly. The Associate Conductress is in charge of the ballot box, under the direction of the Worthy Matron, and is kept at her station when not in use.

We have two methods of balloting: Passing the Ballot and Balloting at the Altar. The method that is used is left to the discretion of the Worthy Matron. Study carefully pages 13, 14, and 15 in the Ritual.

Petitions can be disposed of only by ballot, unless the committee reports ineligible.

A request for a Demit may be withdrawn at any time by the applicant before the demit is automatically granted. Constitution, page 131, Article 233, (4).

PASSING THE BALLOT BOX:

After the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron have cast their ballots, if the Associate Conductress is directed by the Worthy Matron to bear the ballot box to all members present, she will cast her ballot while the ballot box is still on the Worthy Matron's stand, and then bear the ballot box to all members along the North, West, and South sides of the room, passing it to all members and officers as she reaches them.

In order to conform to Landmarks No. 7, members shall rise to deposit their ballots.

After all members present except the Sentinel have voted, the Associate Conductress with ballot box shall assume a position behind Esther's chair facing East, until the Sentinel is called in to vote. She shall then turn toward the Sentinel and hold the ballot box in a position so that he can cast his ballot. The Associate Conductress shall then face the East and remain in that position until the Worthy Matron declares the ballot closed.

The Sentinel is invited into the Chapter room after all others have voted as provided in the Ritual.

The Worthy Matron shall proceed according to the Ritual.

BALLOTING AT THE ALTAR:

After the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron have deposited their ballots, the Associate Conductress, unless otherwise directed by the Worthy Matron, shall bear the ballot box to the Organist and the Warder for their ballots. The Associate Conductress shall then approach the Altar from the West between Ruth and Esther, place the ballot box on the Altar, make the Sign of Salutation to the open Bible, deposit her ballot, step back out of the Labyrinth between Esther and Martha, and assume her position behind Ruth's chair, facing the Altar. She shall remain in that position until the Worthy Matron declares the ballot closed.

The Sentinel shall be invited into the Chapter room after all others have voted, as provided in the Ritual, page 7. The Worthy Matron shall then proceed according to Ritual, pages 7 and 8.

The proper procedure for balloting at the Altar will be found in the Constitution, page 138.

Particular attention is called to Paragraphs 2 and 3, on page 138. Officers please learn the order in which you are to ballot.

The Conductress should ascertain before the meeting, either from the Worthy Matron or the Secretary of the Chapter, if there is to be balloting. She shall then place the Bible on the Altar in a position so that there will be enough room at the left of the Bible for the Associate Conductress to place the ballot box when balloting at the Altar. Do not place the ballot box in front of the Bible.

A ballot cannot be reconsidered after it has been declared by the Presiding Officer, but shall be destroyed immediately after the Worthy Matron has announced the results.

INITIATION:

The Initiation Ceremony is the same for men and women, and the Officers should carefully change the wording for adaption to the circumstances. Ritual, page 49.

The Degrees may be conferred at either a stated or called meeting. The FINE PRINT in the Ritual and the DIAGRAM of the LABYRINTH provide the necessary instructions for the ceremony. The officers should MEMORIZE their lectures and PRACTICE the floor work to make favorable and lasting impressions on the new members.

The Candidates are NOT permitted to sit in the Chapter Room during the Opening March, as this is a part of the Opening Ceremony.

The ceremony beginning on page 49 of the Ritual should be accurately followed. No additions are permitted and nothing may be deleted from this ceremony. Certain permissions are granted, such as: the choice of using music or Scriptural quotations during the march from one station to another, and others, as given in the fine print.

Since Chapters are given the right to place pedestals in front, at the side or back of the Star Point chairs, the handling of the emblems will be guided by the position used.

If the pedestal is at the side of the chair, the officers should go back of the chairs to pick up the emblems, rather than reach across the vacant chair. If this is done, the officer should return to her former position before she starts to explain the emblem. Each officer waits until the Conductress has passed her station before she places the emblem back on her pedestal and is seated.

If the pedestal is at the back of the chair, she may turn and pick up the emblem without leaving her place beside the chair. If in front, the emblem can be easily reached.

It is more effective if the emblems are taken up with the right hand and rest on the palm of the left hand while the officer explains their significance. Adah takes the sword in the right hand and the veil with the left hand to illustrate how they are placed together and why. Esther will do likewise, by taking the scepter with the right hand and the crown with the left, she unites them. The head of the scepter is placed on top of the crown, and points toward the northeast, on the pedestal.

The Star Point Officers may use the emblems and the gestures when giving the work. The signs should be given in a natural, easy and graceful way, always striving for accuracy, and suiting the action to the words.

While the Associate Conductress is preparing the candidate, Adah will arrange her veil and Esther her Crown. The Conductress will check to see if there are a sufficient number of Bibles on the Altar (not New Testaments) and if the Signet is in proper position.

The lectures should be delivered in an impressive manner, but without affection, and with sincere interpretation. The important thing to remember is that the officer is teaching the lessons of the Order of the Eastern Star to others, and that the initiatory work should always remain a pleasant and permanent memory.

The Star Point Officers will remain standing by the side of their chair, holding the emblem, until the Conductress and the Associate Conductress (if the latter is assisting) have passed their stations with the new members.

They then place the emblems on the pedestals by going behind their chairs to do so.

There is only one proper way in which to place the emblems on the Star Point pedestals. (See Ritual, page 3.) The emblems are required to be used in the Chapter room.

The Worthy Patron should permit the Conductress to use a copy of the Diagram of the Labyrinth while she is studying the floor work. She may sign for the Diagram of the Labyrinth when taking it into her possession and upon returning it, the Worthy Patron should give her a receipt.

The proper preparation of a candidate by the Associate Conductress is to remove hat, gloves, and wraps of the candidate to be initiated; to answer necessary questions and to instruct the candidate to follow and to do as directed.

The Conductress and Associate Conductress should keep a straight line with the new members when the Star Point officers deliver their lectures so that there is a perfect triangle at the station of each officer. (See Diagram of Labyrinth.)

Attention Conductress! Read carefully, the Ritual page 58 (fine print) concerning the portion of the Secret Work that is given audibly to the candidates. Not all of No. 1 of our Secret Work is given, only the portion which instructs the candidates how to hold the Bible. As the Conductress audibly gives the instruction, she and the Associate Conductress demonstrate the manner of placing the hands on the Bible, then they place the Bibles in the candidates' hands in proper position, working in unison.

The Conductress with the new members will remain standing at the Altar at the close of the Obligation until the Worthy Patron seats the Chapter. The Worthy Patron is not required nor permitted to repeat aloud, as a part of the work during the initiation, (Secret Work 17.)

I suggest that the Worthy Matron appoint a committee to instruct the new members in the following:

- Not to wear hat and gloves during a Chapter meeting.
- How to enter and retire from a Chapter while in session.
- How to obey the gavel.
- Chapter Courtesy.
- How to give Grand Honors, and to whom they are given.
- How to ballot.
- To sign the Receipt for Dues Card.
- How to obtain Rituals and Constitutions.
- The Secret Work.
- When the Chapter meets, and to inform them of any other information they may want to know.

Remember that long programs are not conducive to good attendance, and the procedure of calling the Chapter from Labor to Rest prolongs any meeting. Should the need arise, however, the following procedure is suggested:

CALL FROM LABOR TO REST (Suggested Procedure)

Worthy Matron: ".....Warder."

Warder: "Worthy Matron."

Worthy Matron: "You will inform the Sentinel that we are about to callChapter No..... from labor to rest and directto permit no interruption while we are thus engaged."

Warder: ".....Sentinel, we are about to call..... Chapter No....., from labor to rest and you are directed to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged."

Sentinel: "There will be no interruption,.....Warder."

Warder: "Worthy Matron, your order has been obeyed."

Worthy Matron: "It is well. Sister Conductress, you will attend at the Altar."
(Calls up Chapter.)

(The Conductress attends at the Altar, and then steps back into position as when attending the Altar for the Opening of a Chapter. She remains in this position until the Worthy Matron makes the declaration and seats the Chapter. She then returns to her station.)

Worthy Matron: "I now declare.....Chapter No..... called from Labor to Rest. (Sounds gavel.).....Warder, you will so inform the Sentinel."

Warder: ".....Sentinel,Chapter No..... is called from labor to rest. Worthy Matron, your order has been obeyed."

Worthy Matron: "It is well." (Seats Chapter.) (The Chapter is called from Rest to Labor in like manner.)

PRAYER CIRCLE (Initiation):

When forming the Prayer Circle, the Star Point Officers always go behind the chairs. (Diagram of Labyrinth No. 9).

Officers, please study carefully the fine print in the Ritual, page 78, and learn where you are to stand during the prayer. When the officers have formed the circle around the Altar for the prayer, the Conductresses then move forward to complete the circle. As the Chaplain reaches the west side of the Altar, the officers join hands and the members assume the Reverent Attitude. When the Chaplain says the words, "golden chain thus lengthened," if there are two or more members, the Associate Conductress and the new member on her left join hands, then the new members join hands. The Conductress closes the circle by taking the hand of the new member on her right. The clasped hands are then raised and held in this position until the Chaplain says, "each link shall fall away in death." The hands are then lowered, beginning with the Worthy Matron's right hand, and the Attitude of Prayer is assumed until the prayer is finished.

After the prayer, the Chaplain rises and remains standing west of the Altar while an ode is sung.

Study carefully the fine print, page 80 of the Ritual, which explains how the Conductress and new members counter-march away from the Altar in single file back to the East.

The remaining officers return to their stations by stepping back to the line of March with face toward the Altar, and then going directly to their stations where they remain standing until the Worthy Patron seats them.

The Conductress does not counter-march with one candidate. (Study Diagram of the Labyrinth, No. 8, and No. 1.)

If the Optional Lecture (that portion in brackets) Ritual, pages 86-90, is to be used, then it must be given in its entirety.

DRAPING THE CHARTER OR ALTAR:

The Charter is draped for a deceased Chapter member, and the Altar is draped for a deceased Grand Officer (one of the 18 installed floor officers) who was serving as such at the time of her or his death, and deceased Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of this Grand Jurisdiction.

There is no reference whatsoever concerning the draping of the Charter or Altar, in either the Ritual or the Constitution. However, it is customary and appropriate to show this respect to our deceased members.

The following are suggestive ceremonies for draping the Altar and for draping the Charter.

CEREMONY FOR DRAPING CHARTER:

(Before the Chapter is opened, the Charter should be placed to the right of the Associate Matron's station, the drape for the Charter at the Marshal's station, and a spray of evergreen at the Chaplain's station. The Chaplain and Marshal, when directed to do so by the Worthy Matron, will advance to the West from their stations. The Chaplain, approaching the Altar in the same manner prescribed in the Opening and Closing prayers, will pause at the edge of the Labyrinth, and remain standing there until the Worthy Matron asks her to give the prayer. The Marshal will stand to the right of the Charter, facing East.)

Worthy Matron: (A Resolution of Respect is usually read at the meeting at this time, following the death of a Chapter member, and just before the Ceremony begins) and then the Worthy Matron says:

"In this great family of ours, the sorrow of one is the sorrow of all. With submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, let us pause and gently drape our Charter. Sisters Chaplain and Marshal, you will assume positions for the draping of the Charter." (The Chaplain stands at the edge of the Labyrinth; and the Marshal stands to the right of the Charter.)

Worthy Matron: (The Worthy Matron may either read a short tribute to the deceased, or have an appropriate song at this time. She will use her discretion.)

Worthy Matron: "Sister Marshal, you will arrange the drape on the Charter." (The Marshal is careful to arrange the drape over the frame of the Charter but not over the Charter itself.)

Worthy Matron: "As a token of love and remembrance to our departed loved one, I would ask that we bow our heads in prayer."

(The Worthy Matron calls up the Chapter. The Chaplain approaches the Altar, places a spray of evergreen on the ALTAR and then offers a prayer. At the conclusion of the prayer, the officers return to their stations. The Worthy Matron seats the Chapter when the Chaplain and Marshal reach their stations.)

(This concludes the Ceremony.)

CEREMONY FOR DRAPING ALTAR:

During the ceremony for draping the Altar, the Conductress, Associate Conductress, and the Chaplain, shall be the ones who participate, under the direction of the Worthy Matron.

When directed to assume positions for Draping the Altar, the Conductress, Associate Conductress, and Chaplain, will rise at the same time. The Chaplain leaves her station immediately, marches in a straight line West to a convenient point so that she can turn left and march in a straight line to the edge of the Labyrinth, between Esther and Martha, where she pauses. The Conductress and the Associate Conductress remain standing at their stations, on the East side, until the Chaplain reaches the position mentioned above, then all three will enter the Labyrinth at the same time. The Conductress marches in a straight line, in front of Ruth's station, to the South side of the Altar. (She carries the drape.) The Associate Conductress marches in a straight line, in front of Martha's station, to the North side of the Altar. (The Worthy Matron calls up the members.)

The Chaplain lifts the Bible, while the Conductress and the Associate Conductress place the drape upon the Altar. The Chaplain carefully places the Bible back in its place. The Conductresses remain in their positions, assuming reverent attitude, while the Chaplain kneels and offers a prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayer, all three slowly leave the Labyrinth, with faces toward the Altar. They step back to the edge of the Labyrinth, turn and go to their stations. (The Worthy Matron seats the Chapter when all three have reached their stations.)

When draping the Altar, the Worthy Matron may use the same outline given for Draping the Charter, except to substitute the correct wording.

Appropriate music should be played as the officers are leaving the Labyrinth and marching to their stations.

Should the Charter and the Altar be draped at the same meeting, the Charter should be draped first.

Whereas this is a solemn ceremony, it seems most appropriate that it be held after the regular order of business has been disposed of, or just before the closing ceremony of the Chapter.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS:

The election of officers of a Subordinate Chapter will be held under the heading of New Business, at a Stated Meeting, next preceding April 30th, or if at a later date, under Special Dispensation from the Worthy Grand Matron.

The Secretary, prior to the meeting, will see that there is sufficient paper, pencils, tally sheets, and forms for tellers' reports.

The Worthy Matron may ask the Worthy Patron to preside for the election of officers.

The Presiding Officer shall appoint the tellers, naming one as the Chairman. The Chairman will supervise the election, and report the following to the Presiding Officer:

- (1) Number of votes cast
- (2) Number necessary to elect
- (3) Number each candidate received.

The result is given by the Presiding Officer.

Usually three (3) tellers are sufficient. However, if the membership is large, I suggest that you appoint five. These tellers shall report to the Secretary's desk, where the ballots are counted.

The Presiding Officer should ask for a count of members present by having them to rise and number, beginning with the Worthy Matron and the Worthy Patron. Have them to be seated as each one numbers. If there are members who enter during the election, the Warder should report same to the Presiding Officer.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE MEMBERS (Please read aloud):

1. In nominating candidates, only the name of the person and the office for which they are nominated may be given.
2. Nominations need not be seconded.
3. Before a nomination is made, the member will rise, address the Presiding Officer, and wait for recognition. After allowing sufficient time for nominations, the Presiding Officer may declare the nominations closed and proceed to elect by acclamation, if there is only one candidate.
4. It is not necessary to move that nominations cease and the person be elected by acclamation.

After general instructions have been given, and the tellers are ready, the Presiding Officer says:

"Nominations are now in order for the office of Worthy Matron of this Chapter for the ensuing year."

A member rises (usually the Worthy Matron, addresses the Presiding Officer, waits for recognition and says):

"I take pleasure in nominating (or, I wish to nominate) Sister..... for the office of Worthy Matron of this Chapter for the ensuing year."

Presiding Officer: "Sister..... has been nominated for the office of Worthy Matron of this Chapter for the ensuing year. Are there other nominations?" (Allow a reasonable length of time for other nominations.)

Presiding Officer: "Hearing none, I declare the nominations closed, and we will proceed to elect by acclamation." (Viva voce—by the voice.)

"All in favor of electing Sister as Worthy Matron of this Chapter for the ensuing year, let it be known by saying 'Aye'. Those opposed 'No.'"

"Sister having received a majority of votes (or unanimous vote) I declare her elected Worthy Matron of this Chapter for the ensuing year."

The Worthy Patron and the Associate Matron are usually elected in like manner. However, since the office of Associate Patron sometimes has more than one nominee, let us take that office next for illustration.

Presiding Officer: "Nominations are now in order for the office of Associate Patron of this Chapter for the ensuing year."

A Member: (Arises, addresses the Presiding Officer, waits for recognition, and says): "I nominate Brother..... for the office of Associate Patron of this Chapter for the ensuing year."

Presiding Officer: "Brother..... has been nominated. Are there other nominations?" (Allow sufficient time for all nominations.)

Another Member: (Rises, addresses the Presiding Officer, waits for recognition and says): "I nominate Brother..... for the office of Associate Patron of this Chapter for the ensuing year."

Presiding Officer: "Brother..... has been nominated. Are there other nominations?" (Again allows sufficient time.) "Hearing none I declare the nominations closed, and we will proceed to elect by ballot."

The tellers will distribute and collect the ballots.

Presiding Officer: "Has each member cast his ballot?" (Pause for reply in case one or more has not.) "I now declare the ballot closed."

After the tellers have counted the ballots, the Chairman of tellers addresses the Presiding Officer and reads the report.

Number of votes cast.....
 Necessary to elect.....
 Bro. received.....
 Bro. received.....

The Chairman then hands the report to the Presiding Officer, who reads the report of the tellers and declares who is elected by saying:

"Brother..... having received a majority of all votes cast, is duly elected Associate Patron of this Chapter for the ensuing year."

If on any ballot, no candidate has received a majority vote, I refer you to page 141, Article 253 (1), of the Code of Laws.

Pro tems. can only be appointed to fill an office for one meeting at a time. They may not be appointed for a year in advance.

If the Worthy Matron appoints an officer who is present to fill another station Pro tem., the minutes must record the officer present in her or his station.

INSTALLATION:

All officers of Chartered Chapters shall be installed June 1st, or as soon thereafter as possible. They may be installed at a Stated Meeting.

An Open Installation of Officers may be held without a Special Dispensation from June 1st to June 15th, both days included, if same is held in regular meeting place.

A dispensation must be secured to install publicly on any date after June 15th, or outside the regular meeting place. Such dispensation shall be requested by vote of the Chapter at a stated meeting or CALLED meeting for that purpose, and the request for same shall be on prescribed form, under the seal of the Chapter, and shall be accompanied by the fee of $1.00, and sent to the Worthy Grand Matron by the Secretary. (Constitution, page 142, Article 254 (1)).

It shall be the prerogative of the Worthy Matron-elect to select all Installing Officers. The Installing Officer shall be a present or Past Matron, or a present or Past Patron. (Page 142, Article 254, Code of Laws.)

Study carefully the instructions set out in the Ritual, pages 93-98.

By action of the Chapter at a stated or special meeting, the Chapter may have an OPEN meeting for Installation of Officers. If the OPEN installation of Officers is to be held in a local Masonic Lodge Room, permission MUST be obtained from the Master of the Lodge.

All special courtesies are extended ONLY after the Installation of all Officers has been completed. The Ritual on page 93 provides that music, vocal or instrumental, may be introduced as seems best.

ONLY members may assist in the Installation Ceremony. Non-members may assist in the presentation of the Bible, lighting candles, etc., provided such preliminaries precede the time the Worthy Patron calls the meeting to order.

No officer can be installed by proxy.

No member shall be installed into office who has not paid Chapter dues for the year during which she, or he, shall serve in office.

Paragraph 2 of the fine print of the Ritual, page 97, stipulates that the Conductress "reverently opens the Bible without ceremony." It is suggested that the Conductress enter the Labyrinth directly from her station, entering in front of Ruth and retiring the same way.

It is suggested that the Installing Chaplain enter the Labyrinth in front of Martha's station to give the Installation Prayer. She will retire the same way.

The Installing Marshal approaches the Altar between Ruth and Esther to declare the officers installed. She places her left hand on the Bible and with the right hand uplifted makes the proclamation. She returns to her station by leaving the Labyrinth between Esther and Martha. (See Constitution, page 142, (3).)

The Worthy Matron-elect may appoint a Master of Ceremonies and a Secretary Pro tem.

When a Dispensation is necessary for the Installation, it is not necessary to have it read. The Worthy Matron will inquire at the proper time if same has been granted.

The Installing Marshal presents all officers at the Altar for installation, approaching between Adah and Ruth.

The Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron are conducted East through the Labyrinth to their stations and are accorded Grand Honors. All other officers leave the Labyrinth between Martha and Electa. Escorts are not permitted within the Labyrinth, Ritual, page 102.

Refer to figures number 15 and 16 of the Diagram of the Labyrinth for the method of conducting Star Point officers to their stations.

Attention is called to the wording of the instructions on page 93 of the Ritual. "The Electric Star may be lighted." You will note the word STAR, not electric SIGNET.

Extra chairs should be placed for the following:

Installing Organist (near instrument).

Secretary Pro tem. (near Secretary's station).

TITLES OF INSTALLING OFFICER:

If a Worthy Matron, Worthy Patron, or a Past Matron or Past Patron is the Installing Officer, she or he is addressed as such.

If an Officer of Grand Chapter is the Installing Officer—that is, Board Members, District Deputies, Deputies, Committee Members, or Grand Representatives, they shall be addressed by either their subordinate title or may be addressed as Installing Officer. (Examples—Past Matron, or Installing Officer.)

If a Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Past Grand Matron or Past Grand Patron presides at the Installation, she or he is addressed as such. If a Grand Officer (one of the 18 installed floor officers) presides at the Installation, she or he is addressed as Installing Grand Chapter Officer, or, may be addressed by her or his subordinate Chapter title.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE INSTALLING OFFICER:

Please take special note of the punctuation of the sentence on page 101 in the Ritual—the period is after the word OBLIGATION. The Installing Officer should say, "You will repeat after me the following OBLIGATION."

Examine and be satisfied that the in-coming Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron know the secret work. A Certificate of Proficiency cannot be accepted, because Code of Laws, page 142, Article 254, stipulates that the Installing Officer is satisfied by separate examination.

The Installing Officer calls up the Chapter and gives the Obligation in the East or it may be given from a position on the East Side of the Altar.

The Installing Officer shall examine and sign the Annual Report prepared by the retiring Secretary together with the certification of the names of the officers installed. ONLY the names of officers installed on that date shall appear on the certification.

This Annual Report should be mailed after installation by Secretary.

She should mention to the Secretary that the names of officers installed at a later date MUST be sent to the Grand Secretary immediately after their installation.

SUGGESTED OUTLINE FOR OPEN INSTALLATION:

Musical selections (if desired).

Candles may be lighted.

Bible presentation.

(Non-members may be used for the above preliminaries.)

Entrance of Worthy Patron, Associate Patron and Organist. (May be led in by Marshal.)

Call to Order by Worthy Patron.

(The officers enter and assume stations. If the Worthy Matron and Associate Matron will exchange sides in the march, it will be more convenient for the Worthy Matron to take her position in the East when she reaches her station.)

Worthy Matron calls up the members and visitors.

Bible is opened. (The Worthy Matron instructs the Conductress to open the Bible. She does so without ceremony. The Square and Compasses will be placed on the Bible.)

The Lord's Prayer is repeated in unison.

Worthy Matron strikes one blow of the gavel and declares the Chapter open for the Ceremony of Installation of Officers. (If a dispensation is required, the Worthy Matron will merely inquire of the Secretary if it has been granted. It is NOT necessary to have it read.)

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Singing of the National Anthem.

(Members and visitors are seated.)

Worthy Matron extends a welcome. Distinguished guests may be escorted to the East or may stand and be introduced from their seats. Grand Honors may be given to those entitled to receive them. It is suggested, however, that Grand Honors NOT be given at an Open Installation.

Presentation of INSTALLING OFFICER by WORTHY MATRON. (IF the Installing Officer has NOT been escorted to the East, as a DISTINGUISHED GUEST, then the Worthy Matron may instruct the Conductress to escort her (or him) to the East.)

Introduction of Assisting Installing Officers by Installing Officer. (They rise, acknowledge introduction and are seated.)

A recess is called by Installing Officer (to prepare for the Installation Ceremony.)

Outgoing officers retire.

(Installing Marshal placed badges on Altar. Chairs are placed in proper position in West.)

Installation Ceremony is called to order by the Installing Officer. (Installing Officers assisting assume their stations.)

Installing Chaplain enters the Labyrinth for the Installation Prayer by going in front of Martha's station. She leaves the same way.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS (See page 142, (3), Const.)

Immediately following the Proclamation:

Worthy Matron instructs the Conductress to close the Bible.

Closing Ode is sung.

Mizpah Benediction (Worthy Matron then seats the members and visitors, thus closing the Installation. A retiring march by the newly installed Officers may be given.)

PROGRAM:

A MASTER OF CEREMONIES, if desired, is permissible; she presents only the program. Non-members may be used on the program.

Greetings by Worthy Matron.

Greetings by Worthy Patron.

Presentation of Past Matron's Jewel.

Presentation of Past Patron's Jewel.

Benediction.

CLOSED INSTALLATION:

The officers of a Chapter may be installed in a Closed Installation, either at a Stated Meeting or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose. In either case, the Chapter shall be opened and closed in Ritualistic Form. If the Installation Ceremony is part of a closed meeting of a Chapter, it is performed either under "New Business" or "Good of the Order." The retiring officers will open the meeting and the new officers will close the meeting.

When ready for the Installation, the Worthy Matron introduces the Installing Officer, who names her assistants. They rise, acknowledge the introduction and are seated.

A recess shall be declared by the Installing Officer for members to arrange chairs in a semi-circle and for the Installing Marshal to secure the badges from the retiring officers. She then places them on the Altar in the proper order. The Installing Marshal then checks to see if all officers are in proper position in the Preparation Room, closes the Preparation Room door, and is seated in the Chapter Room.

In a Closed Installation, a simple march for the retiring officers is permissible. The Officers to be installed would go into the Preparation Room. The retiring officers who are not being installed as Officers for the ensuing year are seated somewhere in the Chapter Room.

After the necessary preparation, the Installing Officer calls the Chapter to order and the assisting officers assume their stations. This is done in the same manner described for Open Installation.

The Installation Ceremony proceeds according to Ritualistic form.

Pro tem. Officers are appointed to perform the duties of the Warder and Sentinel during the Installation. (If it is a Closed Installation.) When the Installation Ceremony has been concluded, a program may be presented at this time.

The Chapter is closed in Ritualistic form by the NEW OFFICERS.

ANNIVERSARY:

August 31st being the anniversary of the birth of our illustrious founder, Rob Morris, all subordinate Chapters shall, sometime during the month of August each year, observe the anniversary in such manner and form as they may deem appropriate.

CHAPTER OF SORROW:

Each Chapter shall, during the year, hold a Chapter of Sorrow (Memorial) in memory of the deceased Sisters and Brothers of such Chapter and of this Grand Jurisdiction. Constitution, page 156, Article 300 (2).

CHAPTER COURTESY:

Members are not allowed to enter the Labyrinth save as required by the Ritual, or in presenting the Flag of our Country, or in connection with the following programs: Rob Morris, Memorial, Draping the Altar, Obligation and in presenting Grand Officers. They shall not be allowed to pass between the Altar and the Worthy Matron's station save as required by the Ritual.

DIAGRAM OF THE LABYRINTH:

Two copies of the Diagram of the Labyrinth are furnished to each Chapter. These are for the use of the Worthy Patron, Associate Patron and the Conductress and must always be in charge of one of these officers and kept under lock and key when not in use.

The reproduction of all or any portion of the diagram in any way or manner is positively prohibited.

Check to see if your Chapter's two copies are the latest, dated September, 1955. If not, forward old copies to the Grand Secretary with a necessary fee for exchange.

SECRET WORK:

Two copies of the Secret Work are furnished to each Chapter, one for the use of the Worthy Patron and one for the use of the Associate Patron. These copies must be in charge of one of the first four officers of the Chapter and kept under lock and key when not in actual use, Code of Laws, page 140, Article 251 (2).

BULLETIN:

The Bulletin is the ONLY official publication of Grand Chapter. It is available to every member at the subscription rate of $1.50 plus tax per year from the Grand Secretary. The Bulletin is self-supporting, and increased circulation would provide even a greater media of information and interest. ALL members are URGED to subscribe.

SPECIAL OBSERVANCES:

A deep debt of gratitude and appreciation is due the Masonic Lodges for the many courtesies and the generosity extended the Eastern Stars in the use of their sacred Lodge Rooms. It should be the constant desire of the membership of our Order to be worthy of this consideration and merit this trust, ever striving in even greater measure to cooperate with ALL wishes, rules and regulations set out by this Grand Body in the use of their Masonic Lodge Building.

All Chapter paraphernalia when not in actual use should be stored AT ALL TIMES. I suggest that each subordinate Chapter in Texas who holds its meetings in a Masonic Lodge Building contact the Master of the local Masonic Lodge for any instructions concerning the customs and practices regarding use of their Lodge Rooms.

ONLY the following OPEN MEETINGS are allowed in Masonic Lodge Rooms subject to the conditions and restrictions that such meetings comply with the usual Masonic laws and customs:

1. Installation of Officers.
2. Memorial Services.
3. Observance of anniversaries of the Order.

I request that all Eastern Star Chapters in this Grand Jurisdiction obtain permission from the Masonic Lodges in whose room they meet to hold any of the above listed OPEN Meetings.

Attention is called to the two days which hold every special significance for the Masons, December 27th and June 24th, designated as Saints John Days. You MUST comply with their wish and custom that NO meetings be held on either date. If your meeting should fall on either of these dates, you will secure a Special Dispensation to move your place of meeting.

Public Schools Week will be observed March 1st through March 5th, and NO Eastern Star Meetings will be held in the Masonic Lodge Rooms during this period of time EXCEPT for the stated meeting prescribed by your By-Laws with no social functions or refreshments.

FUNERALS:

The Code of Laws, page 145, Article 271 (3) reads as follows:

“A subordinate Chapter may conduct a funeral ceremony for a member of the Order of this or another Grand Jurisdiction when requested to do so by the Chapter to which the deceased member belongs. The Chapter requesting the courtesy shall be notified of the compliance. (See Form for proper notification on page 183.)

“The Worthy Matron, or her proxy, shall conduct the funeral of a member in good standing. The ceremony may be given within the church or funeral home or at the grave. It is not necessary to open or close the Chapter for funeral ceremony, but the Secretary shall make a record of such meeting.”

The proxy of the Worthy Matron is the Associate Matron, or if the Associate Matron does not elect to preside, the Worthy Matron may appoint any member as her proxy. The Worthy Matron or Associate Matron and the regularly installed officers of a Chapter may relinquish their offices to allow another group of members to conduct the funeral ceremony. On page 153, the Ritual stipulates that the funeral ceremony SHOULD be committed to memory. Only by so doing will the ceremony be effective and impressive. We should remember that not only is an Eastern Star funeral a tribute to a deceased member given for family and friends, it is an occasion for performance before non-members where impressions are made.

SPECIAL COURTESIES

There are special occasions that stand out in everyone's life, and tower above the level of ordinary events. I acknowledge with pride and a very humble heart the many, many courtesies that have been mine to enjoy. To any and all who have in any way contributed to the happy, pleasant year which I have enjoyed as your presiding officer, accept my sincere thanks.

PROCLAMATIONS

In recognition of the high office of Worthy Grand Matron, Proclamations were issued by the Mayor, designating the day as "Amy Goebel Day," proclaiming me an Honorary Citizen, and presenting me with the Key to their City.

I found a Golden Key one day
 Upon the path I trod,
 And it unlocked a Golden Door to friends—
 For in their hands, God's Key of Love
 Will open every door.

The activities of our member should reflect our highest ideals, and this past year of high enthusiasm and interest has been an outstanding tribute to the things for which we stand. The growing approbation and recognition which is evidenced throughout our communities is likewise a tribute to each and every one of our members.

FRATERNAL VISITS

Like all journeys, the road has been rough at times with the tremendous responsibility of the office of the Worthy Grand Matron with me at all times. But loving friends have helped me on my way with deeds of kindness and expressions of their affection and confidence.

Visiting the various Chapters of our state brought many pleasures into my life, as I came to know the membership better. Your gracious and sincere welcomes warmed my heart with joy, and I was aware of the work and detailed planning that had been done for my pleasure, and because of the esteem that you hold for the high office, in which I was honored to serve. The memory of the beautiful decorations, and your very generous hospitality, and beautiful gifts, fill my heart with mixed emotions of appreciation and gratitude.

My first fraternal visit was made to my own Chapter, McLennan No. 639, and the other Waco Chapters—Waco No. 7, E. C. Canon No. 825, Centennial No. 842, Walter Baldwin No. 929, and Bellmead No. 980, on October 31, 1964. This was one of the most beautiful meetings that I have ever been privileged to attend. The warmth of your welcome and the love and kindness that you have extended to me will always be one of my happy memories.

Would that the world was filled with Camellias
And every Camellia filled with dew
And every dew drop filled with love
For each and every one of you—
My HOME FOLKS.

On December 2, 1964, the Worthy Grand Patron was honored by his own Chapter, Bethlehem Chapter No. 728, at which I was a guest. This was a lovely meeting, and many were the friends who came to honor, to pay tribute to one that they hold in such high esteem.

The Worthy Grand Patron and his wife, Edna, were with us at many of the schools and fraternal visits. Their presence meant much to me personally, and their friendly spirit of cooperation and goodwill endeared them to the hearts of the membership.

THE "AMY GOEBEL GIRLS"

You have scattered flowers along my pathway; you have radiated LOVE and KINDNESS always; and memory will hold no more treasured recollections than the wonderful association I have enjoyed with you. You have been more than a friend; you have been the dearest of comrades—smoothing my pathway, anticipating my every wish—painting my skies a rosy hue, giving of your time and strength to help me to carry on. I have sealed the remembrance of your friendship, and abiding faith in my heart, to bring me joy long after this wonderful year has ended. Your fine spirit of cooperation was my inspiration and joy.

CHAPTERS INSTITUTED

Five Chapters were instituted this year under the direction of the Worthy Grand Patron. It was my distinct privilege to be present at all the Instituting Ceremonies. It was my pleasure to bring Fraternal Greetings to each of the following new Chapters:

Hitchcock, U.D.
Lone Star, U.D.

Bogata, U.D.
University Heights, U.D.

Almeda, U.D.

SPECIAL DISPENSATIONS

DECISIONS

Question: Should the names of suspended charter members be read along with charter members in good standing at a special program for charter members?

Answer: A member who has been suspended is no longer a member of the Order, therefore, their names should not be read or included with the regular charter members in good standing.

Question: What is done with the property of a demised Chapter?

Answer: It is sent to the Grand Secretary. Page 123, Art. 202, Constitution.

Question: Is a woman eligible for membership in the Order who was a widow of a Master Mason, and married a man who was not a Mason, who also died?

Answer: After the death of her second husband she was no longer a widow of a Master Mason—therefore she is not eligible.

Question: Is a ballot rejecting a petitioner illegal if the result has not been declared by the presiding officer?

Answer: No, on the basis that the membership had been informed by the reply of the Associate Matron in the West, and also the Worthy Patron in the East. Even though the regular form or procedure of balloting was not conformed to, the ballot was legal in every respect.

Question: Who pays the per capita tax on members holding Life Membership in the Chapter?

Answer: It must be paid either by the member or the Chapter.

Question: What is the status of an applicant who has petitioned a Chapter for the degrees, but who moves from the jurisdiction of the Chapter before the investigation was made?

Answer: The petitioner would be ineligible. Applicants for initiation shall have resided 3 months immediately preceding application, and immediately preceding the balloting thereon.

Question: Is it permissible for an Eastern Star Chapter to sponsor a hat sale, held in the home of one of the members?

Answer: A Chapter may sponsor a hat sale provided you do not auction the hats or make bids on them.

Question: Can the office of Worthy Matron be declared vacant?

Answer: The office of Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron cannot be declared vacant after such officers have been installed. In case of their absence, their offices shall be filled respectively by the Associate Matron and Associate Patron. Article 255, Page 142, Constitution.

Question: May the Chaplain be given the privilege of giving a part of the Worthy Patron's lecture in the initiatory work, or the part that is given by the Associate Patron?

Answer: No, no provision is made in the Ritual for the Chaplain to give any part of the Worthy Patron's lecture. The duties of the Chaplain are stated very clearly in the Ritual. Please read them.

Question: Is it permissible for a Chapter to sell ads for the Shrine Bulletin?

Answer: I can see nothing wrong with your participating in this project and making money for your Welfare Project.

Question: Is it permissible to seat the candidate on the opposite side of the room from the signet, during the explanation of the signet?

Answer: No. The fine print of the Ritual on Page 80 explains that the new members march back to the East in the same position they were in before going to the Altar for the prayer. They stand in front of the Worthy Patron.

WAIVER OF PHYSICAL DISABILITIES

Disabilities Waived

Petitioner with little finger missing on the left hand.

Petitioner has third and little finger of right hand amputated at the first joint from the hand. The thumb and index finger and the middle finger are intact.

Petitioner with the third finger amputated just below the first joint.

Petitioner with hearing defect, but with hearing aid could receive and impart work.

Petitioner with the third finger amputated just below the first joint on the left hand.

Waivers Refused

Petitioner with severe handicap of the hands and legs who was a wheel chair patient.

Petitioner physically unable to walk without assistance, and cannot kneel, or participate in the ceremony of initiation. He also uses a cane and crutch to walk

IRREGULARITIES

A Chapter accepted a number of petitioners for the degrees, and balloted upon them without asking for a waiver of territorial jurisdiction from the Chapters that held jurisdiction over them. I called a meeting of the members of this Chapter and discussed the law concerning Territorial Jurisdiction of Chapters. Their sincere apologies and concern assured me that they would not make this mistake again.

A Secretary of a Chapter changed the wording of the minutes, and added her opinion thereto, after the minutes had been approved by the Chapter. I ordered her to expunge from the record the portion that she had added, and the minutes were read again to the Chapter as corrected. A Secretary should keep a record of the proceedings, stating what was done and not what was said, and never make criticism favorable or otherwise of anything said or done.

A Chapter voted that the Treasurer should give a quarterly report which she refused to do. I notified her to carry out the duties of her office as were outlined for her in the Ritual, and as the Chapter requested. She complied with my request and apologized to the Chapter. All of this I felt resulted from misunderstanding and personal differences that had happened in the past.

I am happy to report that the condition of the Chapters in general are exceptionally good throughout the state. However, unfortunately there are a few who are having internal dissensions which stems from personal differences.

Loyalty to the Order should be practiced. The business of a Chapter should be kept in strict confidence among its members. People who are not members of the Order are often too well informed of transactions which have taken place within a Chapter.

The misuse of the black ball, the malicious tongue, envy, spite, jealousy, untruth, and injustice, still prevail among the members—which destroy the good name of Eastern Star. All of these things lead to additional strife, which result in false charges, dishonesty, and unfraternalism. Remember that we are the windows through which the world views the Order of the Eastern Star.

The aims and purposes of every organization are measured by the quality of the members, and officers who are exposed to public view and scrutiny.

What is to be done? How many times a day that question is asked. Temporary measures are not enough. They do not solve the problem. Let us remember that the strength of our Order lies in its principles, and that its prosperity is measured by the character of our members. Guard well your doors, but keep no one out through spite or jealousy. Strive to place QUALITY above QUANTITY, thus paving the way for our Order to gain prestige and honor as a very worthwhile organization.

ORDER OF RAINBOW FOR GIRLS

The Order of the Eastern Star recognizes the urgency of constructive youth guidance. Youth organizations are sponsored by many Grand Chapters. One of the largest in the world is the Order of Rainbow for Girls in Texas, which is helping to shape and to mold the lives of our girls. I cherish the relationship existing between these two organizations, and I am always ready to assist the girls in the Order of Rainbow at any time.

At the "Autumn Splendor Installation," which was held in San Antonio, Texas, just one year ago, I was presented a beautiful Bible by the Grand Assembly of Texas, through the courtesy of Mrs. Martha Marie Whitfield, Supreme Service, Supreme Inspector in Texas, Order of the Rainbow for Girls. I shall treasure this beautiful Bible always.

GAVELS

The gavel which is symbolic of authority, also represents courage, patience, strength, and wisdom. I am mindful too that it represents the great membership of Texas, and is also a symbol of justice and injustice.

I received many beautiful gavels during the year, all of which I am justly proud. I wish to express appreciation to the following members who presented them to me.

To my home Chapter, McLennan Chapter No. 639, Waco, Texas, for the gavel that they had especially designed for me of 18 different rare woods, some of which are collector's items from 15 different countries. The Pink Ivory, considered to be sacred wood in Zulu Land, Africa, is used only by the chief or his sons, and is one of the rarest of woods, and very difficult to find. We are using this gavel at this Grand Chapter Session, and it was used at every Eastern Star School this year.

I considered it a signal honor for this specially designed gavel to have been presented to me by a Past Matron of my Chapter—Sister Nora Robertson (87 years young) is still active in the Chapter, loved and admired by all the members, and has given 44 years of service to the Order. Thank you Sister Nora. May our Heavenly Father, whose love we all know, protect and guide you wherever you may go.

Other gavels received were from the following friends:

Dr. James H. Goettee, Worthy Grand Patron, presented me with a gavel fashioned from the wood of a walnut tree.

Brother J. B. Brannam, Past Patron of Angleton Chapter No. 54, District 4, Section 10, Angleton, Texas—a gavel made from cedar, from the home of Anson Jones on the Brazos; mesquite from the battlefield of Goliad, and oak from the Masonic Oak of Brazoria.

Brother T. R. "Chuck" Bramlett, member of the Masonic Relations Committee, and a Past Patron of Lucinda Conner Chapter No. 1006, Dallas, Texas—made a beautiful gavel from a sill-log from an oak tree that was felled, hewn and prepared at the site for the original home of Mrs. Lucinda Conner, for whom his Chapter was named. The home was among the oldest landmarks of Dallas County and was located near the present site of Lucinda Conner Chapter, Pleasant Grove, Texas.

These gavels will always be among my most treasured possessions.

FRATERNAL VISITS TO OTHER GRAND JURISDICTIONS

Always it is a pleasure and a real inspiration to visit other Grand Jurisdictions.

March 21-23, 1965, I visited "The Harbor of Friendship" Session, which was held in the beautiful and interesting old city of New Orleans, Louisiana. It was presided over by Sister Helen F. Craft, Worthy Grand Matron, and Brother W. S. Smith, Worthy Grand Patron. It was a most interesting Session, and I was privileged to respond to the words of welcome on behalf of the Worthy Grand Matrons and Worthy Grand Patrons of other Grand Jurisdictions.

Twenty-two of the Grand Officers from Texas, and my husband, who accompanied me there, helped to make it a very wonderful and enjoyable trip.

On February 12, 1965, the School Officers of District 5, Grand Officers of Section 10, a large group of members from all parts of the state, accompanied by Sister Evelyn Conger, Deputy Grand Matron of this Section, crossed the border to Reynosa, Mexico. Here we were met by a Past Worshipful Master, Manuel Cantu Longoria, of Tolerancia Lodge No. 23, A. F. & A. M., Reynosa, Mexico, and the Secretary of this Lodge, Mr. Roberto Reyna Guerra. They conducted us through the Masonic Temple, after which Mr. Longoria spoke to us about the special work being done by the Masonic Fraternity in Mexico. Following this informative message, I was privileged to bring greetings to them from the Grand Chapter of Texas.

EUROPEAN TOUR

"Time changes and we with time, but not in the ways of friendship."

On June 4, 1965, I departed via Pan American Jet Flight No. 58 from Houston International Airport, Houston, Texas, for London, England—along with 31 wonderful traveling companions, including the Worthy Grand Patron, Dr. James H. Goettee, and his wife, Edna, and Sister Lallah Mae Vollus, our tour director, and Past Grand Matron of Texas. We spent 32 days in Europe, traveled over 5,000 miles on the continent, and saw places of excitement and interest in 10 countries—England, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Austria, Italy, France, Switzerland, Monaco, and Bavaria.

I could not begin to relate to you the many wonderful experiences that were ours to enjoy as we traveled by sea, land, and air, to the lands where we were privileged to see in reality those places that we have all read about, and seen so often in fanciful dream. Not to be forgotten are the incomparable memorials, the museums of all the ages, and everywhere one encounters some relic of the past, a ruined arch, the native lands of art, majestic basilicas, solemn churches, stately palaces, the noblest monuments of art, the majestic snow capped mountain peaks, the heavenly blue waters, and last but not least where the annals of the human race are written.

Into these monuments have passed all the tempest of human spirit, and in seeing them one feels in his heart and mind the immense effort it has cost the ages to create the modern spirit in which we breathe and live today, and one's faith is strengthened and renewed, and a special pride is felt toward America where each of us enjoy so many privileges and yet, take so much for granted.

On July 4th our wonderful journey drew to a close as we enjoyed a night tour of illuminated Paris, and a boat ride on the River Seine. We left Paris and flew via jetliner Air France to New York, and then to Houston, leaving behind another world, and its strange people, yet realizing too that in truth the world grows smaller day by day, but delighted and thankful to be back in the part of the world that we know and love best—America!

Always I shall be grateful to Sister Lallah Mae Vollus for this perfectly planned trip, and for the personal interest shown each one on the tour. Her fine spirit, consideration, genuine love and concern for each one endeared her to the hearts of all. Indeed the trip would not have been nearly as enjoyable without her, and I shall always treasure these hours and days spent with her.

MASONIC COURTESIES

I was privileged to enjoy many courtesies through the year, that were extended to me by the Masonic Fraternity. Masonry is felt today as one of the most potent social forces, and millions are benefited today by its influence which teaches them trust in their fellow men, and reverence for God. I am always grateful for any consideration or courtesy, from this great Fraternity.

Among the many invitations that I could not accept, because—very often of conflicting engagements, time, and distances, that I would mention—was the invitation from our own Brother Hal Burnett, Past Grand Patron, to the big Masonic Family Night which is held annually on the "Paisano Baptist Encampment Grounds." This is located high up in the cool Davis Mountains, between Alpine and Marfa, for all Masons, their families and friends. It was with much regret that I had to decline the invitation to speak at this impressive meeting, on behalf of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star. However, I am pleased to report that Sister Thelma McReynolds, Past Grand Matron, graciously consented to serve as my personal representative, and to bring greetings from the Grand Chapter. I have had many fine reports from those in attendance on Sister Thelma's talk, and I am deeply grateful to her for representing me in such a commendable manner.

GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER

Thirty-first Triennial Assembly

One of the highlights of this year was the meeting of the Thirty-first Triennial Assembly of the General Grand Chapter, "The Peace in Our Father's World" Session, in Dallas, Texas, November 22nd through the 26th, 1964. Texas' own Sister Mildred H. Harris, Most Worthy Grand Matron, presided over this Session, and the membership of Texas was indeed proud, as they visited with members from around the world who were in attendance.

I was indeed happy to have been given the privilege of extending greetings, as the Worthy Grand Matron of Texas, to this impressive audience. May the strong bonds that bind our hearts together as members of this Order, continue around the world until all mankind is surrounded in peace, love, and understanding.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES

It was my special pleasure and pride to recommend to the Worthy Grand Matrons of other Grand Jurisdictions the names of members to represent their Grand Jurisdictions in the State of Texas.

APPROPRIATION FOR GRAND MATRON'S OFFICE

I was given a check for $2,100 to help defray the expenses of the office of Worthy Grand Matron, and I was also given a check for $500 for secretarial expense for the year. The work of the office of Worthy Grand Matron requires a full time secretary to assist her.

CORRESPONDENCE

One of the most time consuming, important, and interesting responsibilities of the office of Worthy Grand Matron is the correspondence. It has been my pleasure to answer personally many thousands of letters, along with the assistance of the very fine Secretarial Committee.

The correspondence has given me the opportunity to assist to the best of my ability in the solution of many of your problems. Each day brought its quota of mail which included questions, personal problems—sorrows and gladness, good wishes, kind invitations to your Chapters as well as your homes, Christmas and Birthday Greetings, and other special messages and word of encouragement. This is the only media of keeping in touch with the many thousands of Eastern Stars in Texas, and I shall miss this personal communication with you.

To the Members of the Secretarial Committee:

Mrs. Gladys Ripley, District 1, Mrs. Erla Lee, District 2, Mrs. Violet Bruner, District 3, Mrs. Thelma Joyce Alsup, District 4, and Mrs. Lorraine Boyd, District 5—It was a pleasure to have each of you accompany me to many of the schools in your respective districts, and many times you met me in other districts, where you performed the duties of your office as Secretary to the Worthy Grand Matron, in a most efficient and willing manner. Many times I felt that I couldn't have gotten along without you, because the work was so heavy. My sincere thanks to each of you, and my very grateful appreciation always for your splendid cooperation and for your loyalty.

GRAND CHAPTER CAR

The following letter was presented to me after the installation in San Antonio, from the Board of Grand Trustees, of the Grand Chapter of Texas, which entitled me to the use of the beautiful new Buick which they purchased on behalf of the membership of Texas:

San Antonio, Texas
October 29, 1964

Mrs. Amy Goebel
Worthy Grand Matron
Grand Chapter of Texas
Order of the Eastern Star

Dear Mrs. Goebel:

This letter constitutes your authority to use the Grand Chapter car for the purpose of visiting in other Grand Jurisdictions.

Sincerely and fraternally,

BOARD OF GRAND TRUSTEES

MRS. MAURINE ARNOLD, Chairman

MR. PRESTON MILLER, Vice-Chairman

MRS. LOREE LIPSCOMB HARRISON, Secretary

MR. MORRIS LORD

MR. BILLY BIBLE

It has been my pleasure to travel in the lovely Buick, Four-Door Sedan, "Wildcat" Model, and to share it with the District Deputies, Grand Examiners, and Secretaries, as we conducted the Eastern Star Schools in each district. My sincere thanks and appreciation to each of the members on the Board of Grand Trustees for selecting such a safe and comfortable car for our use.

I have traveled over thirty-three thousand miles by car, and many miles by plane at my personal expense.

PODIUM

I was presented with a beautiful Podium which had been designed and carefully made by Mr. Odis Claxton, a Past Patron of Abilene Chapter No. 30, and member of the Masonic Relations Committee. It was used at many of the Eastern Star Schools and Fraternal Visits. It will always be a treasured gift, not only because of the beautiful wood that was used, and the design, but because of the convenience of always having it with us when it was needed on numerous occasions. My sincere thanks to a loyal friend for his thoughtfulness and kindness.

EASTERN STAR HOME COMMITTEES

Christmas:

On December 9, 1965, the Worthy Matrons of District Three, Section 1, entertained the ladies of the Home with a Christmas party.

Mrs. Gladys Downs served as Chairman and Mrs. Carolyn Minor, Co-Chairman. Others serving on the committee were: Mrs. Edna McDaniel, Mrs. Louise Wells, Mrs. Dorothy Thomason, Mrs. Hazel Wellman, Mrs. Irma Canon, Mrs. Marie Justice, Mrs. Tommie Bell, and Mrs. Mary Fails.

A delightful program was presented which was composed of several different groups. First, a Children's Choir from Colleyville Elementary School, under the direction of Mrs. Luanne Preasley, sang the "Drummer Boy," and other Christmas numbers. The Wesley Hand Bell Choir from Arlington Heights Methodist Church, under the direction of Mrs. Will Foster, presented Christmas Carol selections, and Mr. Michael Reynolds, accompanied by his wife, sang "One World." Mrs. Dorothy Thomason gave a beautiful Christmas reading on "Love and Understanding." The Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron brought Christmas Greetings to all, and presented each of the members in the Home with a gift. The program was closed with the Lord's Prayer in song by Mr. Reynolds.

Santa then appeared, brought greetings from the North Pole, and presented gifts to all the ladies in the Home, from the Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences on behalf of the Grand Chapter, and from many Chapters over the state. Delightful refreshments were served to the ladies in the hospital and guests.

Valentine

The Worthy Matrons of the twenty-three Fort Worth Chapters also had charge of the Valentine Party in the Home. And while I was not privileged to attend because of the Eastern Star Schools, I received the following report from the Home in regard to the party.

"Valentine Day" 1965, will long be remembered as truly a red letter day in the Eastern Star Calendar. The symbolic color of red was used throughout the Home, and residents there tell me that it excelled any program that had ever been witnessed in the Home." The minister in charge very appropriately used Love as his subject, which was inspirational. The Potentate's Quartette, Moslah Shrine Temple, gave a delightful program. During the social hour the hostesses served delightful refreshments.

Easter

The Worthy Matrons of District I, Section 5, were hostesses for the Annual Easter Program at the Home on Sunday, April 18, 1965, with Mrs. Bettye Sanderson, Worthy Matron of Irving Chapter, in charge.

A short program entitled, "What Will You Do With Him," was presented. Those participating in the program in addition to Mrs. Sanderson, were: Mrs. Guinn Casey, Worthy Matron, Farmers Branch Chapter No. 687; Ruth Gilbert, W.M., Duncanville No. 1014; Rita Skipper, W.M., Mesquite No. 887, and Patricia Johnson, W.M., Lancaster No. 943.

Mr. Eugene Gilbert, W.P. of Duncanville No. 1014, accompanied the group on the piano in singing two hymns. It was an inspirational program for all, and the hostesses served the evening meal to the residents of the Home and the guests who came. Mary Recer, W.M. of Garland Chapter No. 156, and Virginia Monoghan, W.M. of Flora Chapter, assisted in serving.

Home-coming

The 1965 Home-coming, held on April 25, 1965, was under the supervision of the Worthy Matrons of the Dallas Chapters, with Mrs. Ann Hyde, Chairman, and Mrs. Odessa Chambers, Co-Chairman. Over 400 guests registered, and the reception was held in the main dining room. The Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, the Associate Grand Matron, Associate Grand Patron, and members of the Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences greeted the guests who called, along with the hostesses. There was a brief program, and visitors were conducted on a tour of the Home. For many guests, it was their first opportunity to inspect the new wing.

Mother's Day

Mother's Day was observed at the Home with the Matrons of the Dallas Chapters again in charge, with Mrs. Billy Matthews serving as the Chairman, and Mrs. Billy Burney, Co-Chairman.

Following a program of song, music, and reading, each "Mother" in the Home was presented with a lovely but useful gift box of stationery, which also contained a book of stamps, a ball point pen, and three powder puffs. Delicious refreshments were served to all, and the ladies in the Home were delighted and happy over such a lovely courtesy being extended to them.

Founder's Day

On August 29, 1965, we were privileged to attend one of the most beautifully planned Founder's Day Silver Teas that I have ever attended, at our Eastern Star Home for the membership of Texas. The beautiful decorations and lovely tea table, the friendly, gay atmosphere, that prevailed—and the inspiring program, as recognition was given to the Worthy Matron of each 100% Chapter—will always be a bright page in my book of memories.

I would like to give special recognition to this committee for the outstanding work they did, and to the Chairman, Sister Ruby Cash, for her untiring effort and work. It is the accomplishments of members like these that makes our Order live on, and on in the hearts and minds of others. My sincere thanks and appreciation to Sister Ruby Cash and to each member of this wonderful committee for their outstanding work. All the money that was raised by them was contributed to the Worthy Grand Matron's No. 1 Welfare Project—The Home Fund.

As the Associate Grand Matron, I submitted my Welfare Program to the Purposes and Policies Committee several weeks before Grand Chapter for their consideration. I was pleased when the Committee approved the Welfare Program, and recommended that Grand Chapter adopt the program, the EASTERN STAR HOME FUND as the primary project for the year of 1964-1965.

Welfare Program

1964-1965

Happiness is never touched by the hand that reaches out for it too eagerly. It flies into some hand open to give, not stretched out to receive.

I have planted a garden,
So I know what FAITH is.
I have seen trees swaying,
So I know what GRACE is.
I have listened to birds carolling,

So I know what MUSIC is.
 I have seen the morning break,
 And I have seen mornings without clouds after showers,
 So I know what HOPE is.
 I have read a book beside a wood fire,
 So I know what CONTENTMENT is.
 I have seen the miracle of a sunset,
 So I know what GRANDEUR is.
 I have seen a Mother's smile,
 So I know what HEAVEN is.
 And because I have perceived all this,
 I know what CHARITY is.

I. EASTERN STAR HOME FUND

When we make LOVE, TRUTH, and CHARITY the keynote of our hearts, and strive to make the virtues that we teach become a living part, then the influence of our Order will send its radiance afar, and each member will reflect the glory of our beautiful Eastern Star.

Realizing that our ultimate purpose, aside from creating good will among our fellow men, and setting a personal example of initiative, courage, strong purpose, and right thinking, is the responsibility to our aged members, and the maintenance of the Eastern Star Home at Arlington. With this in mind, I am choosing the HOME as the primary project for the year of 1964 and 1965.

It is here that we may lend a helping hand to some of our members who have reached the sunset years of life, thereby enriching our lives with love, kindness, and consideration for others.

With the completion of the new addition to the Home, many more of our members will receive needed care. But only to us is given the privilege of fulfilling their needs. With additional members being added to the list who already occupy the Home, the expenses of operating the Home will be greater, and the needs more. Therefore, I am asking that each member contribute just one dollar ($1.00) to the Welfare Program this year. I earnestly hope that you will consider this request prayerfully and conscientiously, and that you will contribute generously to this worthy cause. Let us not be satisfied with anything less than the best for the Home, and may we work together in FAITH, HOPE, AND LOVE, for our fellow man, and for our future.

I suggest and encourage the Chapters to sponsor special projects, consistent with the regulations and laws of the Order, and the By-Laws of the Chapters, to supplement voluntary donations.

Every Chapter contributing one dollar per member will be given special recognition at Grand Chapter, as well as in the Grand Chapter Bulletin. I have FAITH that you will respond generously and willingly, so that we may point with pride and confidence to the Home that is supported and maintained ONLY by the members of the Eastern Stars of Texas.

II. ESTARL

The Eastern Star Training Awards for Religious Leadership was adopted by Grand Chapter at the 1956 Session as a permanent phase of Texas' Eastern Star Welfare Program.

The education and the cultural heritage that we receive from the community and nation in which we live—these we did not create—we inherited. We cannot repay those who have gone before us, but we can see to it that this heritage is enriched and passed on to others.

From the common possessions which God has given to man, we each have our portion. It is ours to use not for ourselves altogether, but for the common family of which each of us is a member.

Our contributions to the religious training of the youth of our land has been rewarding, as we have seen young men and women who have been helped to further their education, go forth into the world to bring religious inspiration to the people of all lands.

Through ESTARL Scholarships, we may give some young man or woman the opportunity to find the best in themselves, and to point the way by precept and example, to the path of high ideals and right living that was followed by the Master, the greatest teacher of all.

In what better way can we "cast our bread upon the waters," than to care enough to share with some deserving boy or girl of today. The program is worthy of our support.

Please send your contributions early to the members of the Welfare Committee in the respective districts. Remembering that the warm hand of true charity enriches all men it touches—rewarding those who give in still greater measure, than those who receive.

Sincerely and fraternally,

AMY GOEBEL,
Worthy Grand Matron.

APPRECIATION

Membership of Texas:

To all the members, the most vital and important part of any organization, I wish to applaud the interest and enthusiasm with which you have participated in my program for this year and other activities. There could be no greater reward for my efforts than your support and warm reception of every activity. Active fellowship is as important as active leadership. It will be as important to me to follow and assist our very fine new leaders, as it was to lead our Order this year.

Gratitude is a memory of past blessings. Life can hold no greater treasure than the love of friends which I have made throughout the state. I shall always recall with joy the scenes, the events, the places, and the associations which have contributed to the brightest pages in my life's history.

Memory's Lane is a dear little path
Where hearts are ever true,
A path that I will travel again and again
Because it will lead back to you.

General Grand Chapter Officers:

I am cognizant of the service that you have given our Order, as I look forward to greeting you at the "Autumn Enchantment" Grand Chapter Session, and as I anticipate the joy that I will experience in officially receiving you. My wish for each of you is that:

God's hand will guide you tenderly—
That His light will be your daily guide
And that His benediction fair,
Will rest upon your life;
That His love so tender so true,
Will bless your way—
This is my sincere and heartfelt wish
For each of you.

To our Worthy Grand Patron, Dr. James H. Goettee: It has been a pleasant experience to have served and worked with you and Edna, for I have felt that I had your loyal support and co-operation at all times. You are indeed eminently worthy of your official title, and I shall always be grateful that the privilege of presiding in the East with you has been mine. May your future years be blessed with good health, happiness, and prosperity.

To the Associate Grand Matron, Sister Edna Earl Duke, and the Associate Grand Patron, Judge Marvin B. Simpson: Very soon you will assume leadership of this Grand Jurisdiction. The responsibilities are great, but the rewards will be so much greater. You can look forward to a happy year, for you will at all times feel humble and greatly blessed, and you will realize as never before the full meaning of true friendship. May the Giver of all wisdom guide you through the year, and give you strength for your duties. May the love of friends surround you bringing you joy and comfort. And though the load may sometimes seem heavy, may all your dreams come true.

TO THE GRAND SECRETARY, Sister Rebecca L. Miles: I count it a rare privilege to have served with you as our Grand Secretary. Your ready understanding and correct interpretation of the duties and procedure of your office, your constant recognition of the fact that the finest results are obtained through team work, the able advice and assistance given me at all times,—all these indicate your fitness, your abundant qualifications for the office of Grand Secretary. Thank you for your kindness and consideration at all times.

To our Grand Treasurer, Sister Jettie Hinton—It has been a pleasure to work with you, and I have admired the quiet, efficient manner in which you perform your duties. Thank you for your cooperation.

To the Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress: I shall be thinking of you often as you continue on your journey of service to the East, wishing the best for you in every way. May He who watches over all, give you strength, wisdom, and vision, as you work and plan for the years ahead, and may love, peace and joy, be yours always to enjoy.

To the Grand Officers, Officers of Grand Chapter, and Grand Representatives: I am very sure that no presiding officer ever had more cooperation and genuine assistance than I have had from you during this year. Each of you holds a very special place in my heart. What a privilege was mine—that of sharing this year with you. I trust that this year has brought each of you much happiness, and that you have made many new friends. I prize your friendship, your devotion and your loyalty. I sincerely hope that as the years pass that our bond of friendship will grow even stronger. May God bless and bring happiness in abundance to your lives as you have to mine.

To the Poet Laureate, Sister Berenice House, I shall always be grateful to you for your contribution to this year, and for your untiring effort. Each of us needs in our heart's treasury the memory of a beautiful thought, as has been expressed by you in your beautiful poems from time to time, as they appeared in the Grand Chapter Bulletin. And indeed, almost as great is the ability to write a line of poetry is the ability to use that thought to higher levels of emotion and achievement. I am proud and honored to count you among my friends, and your beautiful thoughts expressed so well will always be an inspiration to me.

Friendship, pure, unselfish friendship,
All through life's allotted span,
Nurtures, strengthens, widens, lengthens,
Man's affinity with man.

To the Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons: Throughout this wonderful year, it has been my constant prayer that I might measure up in some degree to the example of those who have gone before me. Because of the examples that you have set and the service that you have rendered, we who follow after you find the road easier to travel. My grateful acknowledgment to you for this fine heritage.

To My Husband: My last tribute is to the one who has been my real inspiration—who has stood faithfully by my side, guiding and directing me with his wise counsel and advice. He has known better than anyone else the difficulties that were mine to encounter. He has appeared in numerous roles—chauffeur, secretary, but never too weary or too busy to accompany me whenever he could. He has traveled along uncomplainingly, and sacrificed much to make the year a success. To him goes much credit for any accomplishments. Always I shall be grateful for his patience, and for the silent service of love which he gave so willingly.

CONCLUSION

I do not know where fell the seeds
 I've tried to sow with greatest care;
 And yet, I hope each seed will grow
 And bring forth fruit, sometime, somewhere.
 So as another year dawns,
 May we walk close to Him,
 The dazzling glory of His Light
 Will shine and make our pathway bright.

Sincerely and fraternally,

MRS. AMY GOEBEL,
 Worthy Grand Matron.

FRATERNAL COURTESIES REQUESTED OF GRAND CHAPTER OF TEXAS BY OTHER GRAND JURISDICTIONS

Courtesy Investigations

On October 19, 1965, a request was made of Grand Chapter of Texas to conduct a courtesy investigation of Mrs. Helen Brunson Gaughen, of Cedar Bluffs, Nebraska.

On October 19, 1965, a request was made of Grand Chapter of Florida, to conduct a courtesy investigation for Mrs. Elsa Randall of Lake Worth, Florida.

SPECIAL DISPENSATIONS REFUSED

Refused request of Galena Park Chapter No. 884 to hold open installation June 17, 1966. I will not be Worthy Grand Matron then.

IRREGULARITIES

A Chapter balloted and had no black balls in sight; ballot box was "stuffed" with white balls. I declared ballot illegal and ordered another ballot be taken on petition at next stated meeting.

Sincerely and fraternally,

(MRS.) AMY GOEBEL,
Worthy Grand Matron.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Worthy Grand Patron, I move that this report be referred to the proper committee.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: It has been moved that the report of the Worthy Grand Matron be referred to the proper committee. We have a second.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I also have a supplemental report which I will file with the committee, and I move that it be referred to the proper committee.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: You have heard the motion, that this report be referred to the proper committee. We have a second.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Now, Worthy Grand Matron, it is with a great deal of pleasure that I return you the gavel.

The Worthy Grand Matron again assumed the Chair.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: We will now have the report of the Worthy Grand Patron.

Report of Worthy Grand Patron

To the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star:

The Eighty-Third Annual Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star, completes for me another year of service in our beautiful Order—a year which has been filled with many delightful experiences. It has been very pleasant to work with the officials of Grand Chapter and to meet and to know the membership of the Order in this Grand Jurisdiction. I shall always cherish the memory of the many worthwhile Eastern Star activities which it was my privilege to share and to experience during this year of service.

The work load of the Worthy Grand Patron was alleviated by the cooperation and assistance of the Grand Officers and the membership in general. This was particularly true of the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel, who developed schedules for the schools, fraternal visits, and other events that helped make it possible for the Worthy Grand Patron to attend many Eastern Star functions during the year. I have enjoyed and appreciated the privilege of serving in the Grand East with this fine and devoted leader.

NEW CHAPTERS INSTITUTED

Five new Chapters were Instituted during the 1964-1965 Grand Chapter year. I am indeed grateful to the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel, for concurring in the organization of these Chapters and for taking the time necessary to be present at each of the Institutings where she gave talks which encouraged and inspired the members. The Deputies of the Sections in which new Chapters were organized are to be commended for the effective leadership each one gave in assisting those who organized the new Chapters. The District Deputies, in each instance, gave help, encouragement, and support for which they deserve much credit.

SCHOOLS OF INSTRUCTIONS

I am pleased to report that it was my good fortune to be present at twenty-nine Schools of Instruction and twenty-eight Fraternal Visits of the Worthy Grand Matron held jointly with the Schools. The Worthy Grand Matron, the District Deputies, and the Deputies are to be commended on the fraternal climate of love and goodwill that was so apparent in all the Schools. The quality of instruction given in the Schools indicated that careful planning and much work had gone into the preparation for each one. The attendance of the membership and its participation in the Schools showed much interest and enthusiasm, which was most gratifying.

I attended and, with but few exceptions, was present for each session of instruction and other functions connected with the following Schools of Instruction:

District 1	District 2	District 3
Dallas	Abilene	Albany
Garland	Amarillo	Cleburne
Marshall	El Paso	Coleman
Texarkana	Lubbock	Fort Worth
	Vernon	Lampasas

GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER

Texas was honored by being host to the Thirty-First Triennial Assembly of the General Grand Chapter, which was held in Dallas, November 22-26, 1964. A most distinguished and gracious lady, Mrs. Mildred Haney Harris of Dallas, the Most Worthy Grand Matron, presided over this Session, which was entitled "Peace in Our Father's World." She gave me several assignments of honor in the General Grand Chapter Assembly for which I am sincerely grateful. Being present and participating in the activities of this Triennial Meeting of the General Grand Chapter was a delightful experience that I shall always cherish.

SPECIAL MEETINGS AND SOCIAL EVENTS ATTENDED

During the year, the special meetings and the social events at which I was present added much joy and happiness to my experiences as Worthy Grand Patron. Of the many functions in this general classification to which I was invited, I was privileged to attend the following meetings that were not included in other divisions of this report:

EUROPEAN TOUR

Most of the month of June and several days in July were given to a European tour, which was developed primarily for members of the Order of the Eastern Star. This tour was organized and directed by our Past Grand Matron, Sister Lallah Mae Vollus, in honor of the Worthy Grand Matron and the Worthy Grand Patron. Of the thirty-four persons in the group, twenty-eight were members of the Order. Besides the Worthy Grand Matron and the Worthy Grand Patron, the group included: Past Grand Matrons, two; Grand Officers, five; Past Matrons, ten; Past Patrons, three; and other members, six. Each of the non-members in the group was a relative or a close personal friend of some member of the Order on the tour.

The trip included all the countries of Central Europe and most of those of Southern Europe. Of approximately fifteen thousand miles traveled, more than four thousand miles were by bus, boat, and train on the Continent, and the remainder of the distance was by airplane.

The experience of this tour was a delightful one. All the countries through which we passed were scenic as well as historic. The people were friendly and helpful, but I believe that each one of us returned home with a deeper appreciation of our Country and Our American Way of Life.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Grand Chapter appropriated eleven hundred dollars to help defray the expenses of the Worthy Grand Patron in the discharge of official duties. During the year I have traveled over forty thousand miles in the interest of the Order. Some of the other expenses included were telephone calls, stamps, and miscellaneous items, which were necessary to the proper administration of the affairs of this office.

The privilege and honor of serving the Order in this capacity cannot be evaluated in terms of financial expense. It has been a privilege and a joy to underwrite the added expense not provided for in the budget. I feel that I have been more than adequately reimbursed many times with friends and many fine experiences gained by serving as Worthy Grand Patron.

THE EASTERN STAR HOME

The accommodations provided for the ladies in the Home speak out for the generosity of the membership in this Grand Jurisdiction. This same generous spirit was shown by their response to the Worthy Grand Matron's project, the Home. It has been my pleasure to visit the Home a number of times. Each time I have observed the happiness of the ladies, and the efficient manner in which it is operated. The Superintendent, Mrs. Nina Hendrick, and her staff are to be commended.

At the Home the functions that it was my privilege to attend were good ones. The Christmas Party held December 19, 1964, was well attended. It was an event of much joy for the ladies, and one of great satisfaction to those who helped make it possible. The interest shown by the attendance at Homecoming, April 25, 1965, and the Founder's Day Silver Tea, Sunday, August 25, 1965, was most gratifying.

MY HOME CHAPTER

The loyalty and support given me by the membership of my Home Chapter, Bethlehem Chapter No. 728, has been gratifying. Through the years, and especially during the time I have served Grand Chapter, the officers and members of this fine Chapter have done many nice things for Edna and me. We are grateful for the Honor Nights, teas, and other functions at which we were honored. The esteem, love, and friendship thus expressed will always be cherished.

I was presented a life membership in my home Chapter at the Stated Meeting held May 28, 1965. For this signal honor, I am sincerely grateful. It is my desire and hope always to merit the confidence and love thus expressed. I am very proud of my home Chapter, and I am honored to be identified with such a wonderful group of people.

IN APPRECIATION

This year of service to the membership of the Order of the Eastern Star in Texas has been one filled with many delightful experiences and worthwhile activities. The warmth and friendliness of those with whom I have worked have made fraternalism more meaningful to me. It is in the spirit of love and appreciation that I say "Thank you" to each one who has helped make this a good year for me in service to our beautiful Order.

I am deeply indebted and grateful to my wife, our Grand Esther, Edna, who has been constantly by my side as I have traveled this road of service. Her love, concern, and confidence have been beacons of inspiration to me. Without her cooperation, encouragement, and help I could not have served as Worthy Grand Patron. I shall always be indebted to you, Edna, for your loyalty, devotion, and untiring efforts. Thank you for everything.

To our Worthy Grand Matron, a devoted Christian lady and wonderful friend, Sister Amy Goebel, words are inadequate to express my deep and sincere appreciation for the many nice things you have done for Edna and me; and I especially thank you for your cooperation that has helped so much in the discharge of my official duties. You and your fine husband, Lud, shall always be very special to us.

To Sister Rebecca L. Miles, Grand Secretary, I am grateful for the time and assistance you have given me in the performance of my duties. Your knowledge and good judgment are attributes that I admire and respect. It has been a pleasure to be associated with you, and I thank you for all that you have done for me.

Our Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons have been a source of strength and inspiration to me in meeting my responsibilities to Grand Chapter. To each of you I pay tribute and thank you for the service you have so freely given to our beautiful Order. A very special thank you goes to our Past Grand Matron, Sister Lallah Mae Vollus, who made the European Tour possible. Sister Lallah Mae, your friendship and help through the year have meant much to Edna and me.

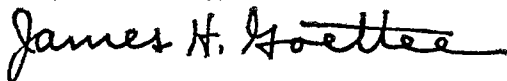

I wish to express thanks and appreciation to my associates in Grand Chapter for the many nice things they have done for Edna and me. The Grand Officers, Boards, Deputies, and Committees have extended to us many courtesies, much consideration, and fraternal love during this year of service to Grand Chapter. Each of you shall always have a special place in my memory of pleasant experiences.

I congratulate my successor, a competent and distinguished gentleman, Judge Marvin B. Simpson, Jr., on being elevated to Worthy Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of Texas for the ensuing year, and I wish you, Marvin, much happiness and joy in this great and laudable undertaking. To our incoming, devoted and lovely Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Edna Earl Duke, and her fine Worthy Grand Patron, Brother Marvin B. Simpson, Jr., goes my goodwill and best wishes for a very successful administration of the affairs of Grand Chapter during their tenure in office.

The members of the Subordinate Chapters of Texas are to be commended on the fine job they have done in promoting the welfare and prosperity of the Order through their examples for good in their Chapters and daily lives. To each member of the Order in this great state goes my fraternal love and best wishes. Thank each of you for all that you have done this year which has been in keeping with the good and beautiful principles of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Thus draws to a close another Chapter in the history of my life. As one of my last official acts as your Worthy Grand Patron, permit me to express appreciation for the privilege of having served in this station. With the help of our Heavenly Father, I will always strive to be worthy of the honor you have bestowed upon me by making it possible for me to serve as your Worthy Grand Patron.

Sincerely and fraternally,

WORTHY GRAND PATRON

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Worthy Grand Matron, I move that this report be referred to the proper committee.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report be referred to the proper committee.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: We are going to have to wait for the Grand Secretary's Report until this afternoon. We want her to have sufficient time. However, we will have time for the Auditor's report.

Mr. Upleger.

REPORT OF AUDITOR

MR. A. C. UPLEGER: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Sisters and Brothers:

If you have read over your advanced Reports you will see that the Grand Chapter of Texas is a big institution. It has total assets in all of about two and a half million dollars, and they increased this last year, the net worth, from two million three hundred and forty thousand dollars to two and a half million dollars, or a net increase of about $133,000.00.

This is due to the fact that we have officers who are dedicated to the work. Your Worthy Grand Matron, your Worthy Grand Patron, your efficient Secretary and your Treasurer are backed up by two excellent Boards, the Board of Grand Trustees and the Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences, and your affairs are well taken care of. Of course it is a shame that we cannot take advantage of the growth situation in the securities market. But your Board is circumscribed by your laws which say that you must invest in municipal or government bonds, or securities guaranteed by the United States Government. So you have reached this two and a half million figure without taking advantage of growth.

The Grand Chapter works on a basis of two different years. The proceedings we have here, as shown in the advanced reports, are for the fiscal year ending August 31. We have another year we work by, and that is from one Grand Chapter Session to the next.

During the past year we have lost in the General Fund, and that of course gives us concern. There is not sufficient in the General Fund to make up the difference.

Of course this last year that was due in a large measure to General Grand Chapter expense. You have a loss of about fifteen thousand dollars.

The Grand Trustees are working on the budget, and I believe they will come out all right next year.

I would like to ask the privilege, since we have not paid a great many of the bills, and, Worthy Grand Matron, I would like to move that the Auditor be instructed to complete the reports up to the end of the year, including the Welfare part of the program, and that it be printed in the proceedings.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: You have heard the motion that Mr. Upleger has just made. I have a second.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: If there are any questions concerning the motion, or any question concerning any of the work, Mr. Upleger will be with us this afternoon, and you may contact him in the Board of Grand Trustees Office.

Let me make this announcement: We will have recognition of 50-Year members this afternoon. You might be surprised at who will be included in this group. I think you will want to see the wonderful members who have been members of our Order that long, receive their Certificates.

Sister Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from labor to rest, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM LABOR TO REST

The Bible was closed, and the Grand Chapter was called from labor to rest at 11:55 A. M.

Tuesday Afternoon, October 26, 1965

2:00 P. M.

The Tuesday afternoon session was called to order by Mrs. Lois Burnett, Past Grand Matron, and Judge Dean Gauldin, Past Grand Patron.

Preceding the call to order musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Vivian Jaynes, Grand Organist, and by Mrs. Louise Glenn.

CALL TO ORDER

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: My Sisters and Brothers, this Tuesday afternoon "Autumn Enchantment" Session is now called to order.

Under the direction of the Grand Marshal, it is my pleasure to present the Assistant Grand Sentinels and Grand Ushers who will execute the Square and Compasses Drill.

SQUARE AND COMPASSES DRILL

The Assistant Grand Sentinels and Grand Ushers, under the capable direction of Mrs. Agnes Pollock, Grand Marshal, then executed the Square and Compasses Drill. It was an impressive performance, executed with marked precision, and was concluded by forming on the Grand Chapter floor the Square and Compasses.

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Sister Grand Marshal, you will escort the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron and the other Grand Officers into the Grand Chapter room.

ENTRANCE OF GRAND OFFICERS

The Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron and Floor Officers entered the Grand Chapter Room, and the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron were escorted to the East and given Grand Honors.

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Sister Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from rest to labor, and direct him to permit no interruptions while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM REST TO LABOR

Grand Chapter was proved and was called from rest to labor.

The Square and Compasses Drill

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Judge Dean Gauldin, in the absence of your own Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Mabel Harle, now a distinguished member of the General Grand Chapter, I want you to know the distinct honor I feel as I stand here with you this lovely afternoon. I have prized your friendship through the years.

This Grand Chapter I know would be so pleased to hear from you, one of our very distinguished Past Grand Patrons.

Sisters and Brothers, Judge Dean Gauldin. (Applause.)

JUDGE DEAN GAULDIN: Thank you, Sister Lois Burnett.

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, my Sisters and Brothers:

Naturally I am disappointed that my own Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Mabel Harle, could not be here for the afternoon session, because of the serious illness of her husband in Port Arthur. We miss her tremendously.

In her absence, I am particularly pleased to have the privilege of serving with Sister Lois. I have known Sister Lois many years, and she is one of my favorite people.

Worthy Grand Matron, I do appreciate your inviting me to assist and take part in this afternoon session.

Worthy Grand Patron, I think it is most gracious of you to surrender your place to me on this occasion. It is always a pleasure and a privilege to come back and participate in the affairs of this Grand Chapter.

And, Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, I give you my very best wishes for a successful Grand Chapter and for fond memories that I know you will carry with you through the rest of your lives of the associations you have had during the past year.

Thank you for this honor. (Applause.)

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, throughout this Grand Chapter year you have given much of yourselves in Love and Understanding and Love and Leadership to each person who is a member of our great Order. I know those in attendance here at this Grand Chapter Session will join with me in congratulating you on a splendid year of service. (Applause.)

In the absence of our beloved Sister Mabel Harle, now a member of Appeals and Grievances Committee of the General Grand Chapter, I want to thank you so much for extending to me the courtesy of joining Judge Dean Gauldin in calling this Tuesday Afternoon Session to order.

Now, Worthy Grand Matron, I extend to you your gavel to preside.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Lois Burnett, Past Grand Matron, and Judge Dean Gauldin, Past Grand Patron.

Sister Lois and Brother Dean, your friendship through the years has been a priceless thing of joy to me.

My heart is an old fashioned garden,
Where the flowers of memory bloom;
Fresh, fragrant, and rare,
With dainty, elusive perfume.

But the spot that I like best in the garden
 Is the bed of forget-me-nots blue,
 Whose hearts of gold hold treasures untold,
 And fond, happy memories of you.

Thank you sincerely for calling this Tuesday Afternoon Session from Rest to Labor.

RAINBOW AND DeMOLAY

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: The fairest flower in the Garden of Creation is a young mind offering and unfolding itself to the influence of Divine Wisdom. The joy and privilege of working with young minds, trying to instill high ideals, by setting the example to guide them into paths of service, is a responsibility, but it has the reward of seeing the transition from youth to maturity.

It is my privilege now to give recognition to two whose contributions have been very great in the direction and training, for God and country, of the youth of our land:

Mrs. Vivian Crouch, Member of the Grand Committee on Work, Grand Assembly of Texas, Order of the Rainbow for Girls. (Applause.)

Mr. H. Malvern Marks, Past Grand Master and Executive Officer in Texas, International Supreme Council, Order of DeMolay. (Applause.)

GRAND WORTHY ADVISOR, ORDER OF RAINBOW FOR GIRLS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I wish to recognize at this time Miss Sheila Frazier, Grand Worthy Advisor, Grand Assembly of Texas, Order of the Rainbow for Girls. She is doing a wonderful job.

Sheila, will you please stand. (Applause.)

We did not finish our reports this morning, and I am going to ask Sister Rebecca Miles, our Grand Secretary, to come to the microphone for her report.

Report of Grand Secretary

To the Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Officers and Members, Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star:

In 1921 I attended Grand Chapter Session in Fort Worth. It was held in the First Baptist Church, and Mrs. Margaret Hosey was Worthy Grand Matron. Brother Jesse Edmonston had dedicate a poem to Fort Worth and Mrs. Stella Vodrie read the poem at that session. I repeat it at this time when we are again in Fort Worth 44 years later.

“The hills and plains of Texas, from mountain top to sea,
 Are rich in lavish splendor, of flowers that bring to me,
 With violets and bluebonnets, and springs of crystal water,
 Sweet thoughts of the fidelity of Jephtha’s lovely daughter.

"When autumn turns to yellow, the fields of golden grain,
And sumac leaves and goldenrod are with us once again,
The marigold and cosmos, suggest our passing youth
And constancy of purpose of the humble gleaner Ruth.

"Upon the surface of the pond, and smiling in the light,
The pure and spotless lily in robe of snowy white,
There sits in royal splendor, among broad leaves of green,
And tells me of the loyalty of Persia's noble queen.

"The spirit of renewing life, the springtime gently stirs,
And on the fields and forests a mantle green confers,
The scene inspires within my soul, a hope of life to be,
As Martha's faith sustained her hope of immortality.

"I love to walk in garden paths, with flowers all around,
To see the dewdrops glisten and listen to the sound
Of humming bees. The roses red tell me of Heaven above,
And of the glowing fervency of every mother's love.

"The blending of the colors is such they do not mar
Our harmony in any way; but glorify our star.
The virtues of these heronies combine to make Fort Worth
The fairest among thousands, the city of our birth."

Again and again through the years we have met in this city to file our annual reports and propose plans for the incoming year.

I am happy today to render account of the affairs in the Grand Secretary's responsibility. The Installation charge gives some idea of the faith Grand Chapter has placed in me, and more than many of you know, I am fully aware of all the implications the charge carries with it, and appreciate beyond expression your continued trust.

IN MEMORIAM

It is with a sincere sense of thankfulness that I report that the ranks of the Past Grands remained unbroken during the year. However many of the "Old Time" members passed away, leaving a vacancy in their Chapter rooms.

"Because the singer rounds the bend
You cannot say the song is through:
Nor that the sun will never rise,
Because the mountain shields the view.
God made our mortal eyes too blind
To see the home across the bar:
But through the promise of His words
He left the door of hope ajar."

SECRET WORK AND DIAGRAM OF THE LABYRINTH

There seems to be even a growing unconcern in regard to copies of the Secret Work code and Diagram of the Labyrinth. It seems apparent that some members are deliberately holding on to the copies, since no one seems able to trace who received the copy last. Some record device should be adopted by Grand Chapter whereby the Chapters would be required to make record of the persons to whom the copies are passed. Extra copies were issued to the following:

Operating funds (office expense, Bulletin, Grand Matron's car, office building maintenance) are carried from Grand Chapter to Grand Chapter and will be shown in the auditor's final check on the budget at the close of Grand Chapter year. All special funds will be recorded in the table included in the Proceedings.

GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER FUNDS

All bills presented by Mr. Lee in connection with the entertainment of General Grand Chapter, last November, were met from the funds collected over a 5-year period for that purpose. To date an accounting of Texas part in those expenses has not been received, but I am sure Mr. Lee will give a full, final account during the session.

GRAND CHAPTER EXPENSE FUND

There was no refund from the Executive Committee of 1964 from the $12,500 appropriated for expenses of holding Grand Chapter. The registration fee remitted by Registration Committee was $9,202.00.

REMODELING OFFICE BUILDING

The Board of Benevolences, with the co-operation of the Trustees, undertook the task of remodeling the Grand Chapter Office Building this year. It was constructed in 1929 to accommodate the needs at that date. We have long ago outgrown the original facilities, but there never seemed an opportune time to undertaking remodeling and adding to. Even this year was not a very opportune time in so far as the office force was concerned, but we carried on in one small room during the January-April season of bad, cold, rainy weather. We survived the ordeal, and are now comfortably situated in the enlarged space. I am sure the Board will report on the financial part of this undertaking.

WILLS, SALES AND BEQUESTS

During the year our Home was the recipient of several bequests. All of these were settled by the legal council for the Trustees and I am sure will be reflected in Mr. Penix's report on same to the Trustees.

BOARD MEETINGS

I have attended all meetings of the Board of Benevolences, Board of Trustees, and Instituting of Chapters.

The growing co-operation between the two Boards is commendable, and foretells a better handling of Grand Chapter affairs. The interest manifested by the line officers in these joint meetings is also a token of better understanding of our aims and purposes.

APPRECIATION

It was almost worth the pain I suffered, with a broken ankle, to find out how many of you read the Bulletin. Thank you for your many cards and good wishes.

I have enjoyed my association with the officers and members during the year. It seems each year, the group affords more friends and a wider field of usefulness for all of us. Many thanks for the opportunity of serving.

Fraternally submitted,

REBECCA L. MILES,
Grand Secretary

MRS. REBECCA MILES, Grand Secretary: Worthy Grand Matron, I move that this report be referred to the proper committee.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report be referred to the proper committee.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Rebecca.

RESTORATION OF VOTES

MRS. REBECCA MILES, Grand Secretary: Worthy Grand Matron, three Chapters, Mt. Sylvian No. 595, Willis No. 1017, Winnie-Stowell No. 1076, were tardy with their reports. I move that their votes be restored, because they have turned in their reports.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: You have heard the motion that the votes be restored to the three Chapters that were tardy with their reports. The motion has been seconded.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

REMISSION OF REGISTRATION FEES

MRS. REBECCA MILES, Grand Secretary: Worthy Grand Matron, I have this recommendation that the registration fee of $2.00 be remitted to the following members of the Home, and that they be furnished with credentials to vote for this Grand Chapter Session:

Mrs. Nora Huckaby, Rotan Chapter No. 52
 Mrs. Claudie McCoy, Lometa Chapter No. 871
 Mrs. Glenn Adams, Marfa Chapter No. 344
 Mrs. Alpha Pruitt, Brady Chapter No. 176
 Mrs. Myrtle Coons, Morningside Chapter No. 756, Fort Worth

JUDGE DEAN GAULDIN: Worthy Grand Matron, I move that the request be granted and that they be furnished with credentials to vote.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the registration fee for these five members be remitted and that they be furnished with credentials to vote.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Grand Secretary, will you instruct the Credentials Committee to furnish these ladies with the proper credentials, and the Registration Committee to reimburse them for the fee of $2.00 that they have paid.

At this time we will have the report of the Grievances and Appeals Committee, Judge Dean Gauldin, Chairman.

JUDGE DEAN GAULDIN: Thank you, Worthy Grand Matron.

Sisters and Brothers, I have the pleasure and privilege of presenting the Committee:

Mr. James W. Anderson
 Mrs. Kathryn Bell.

You know it is customary that the Chairman of any committee do all the work, and then submit a report to the committee when he comes to Grand Chapter. That has not been done. I am happy to say that the members of the Committee have worked diligently together on this trying job we have had, and now we come together to present our report.

REPORT OF GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS COMMITTEE

To the Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Officers and Members of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star:

Your Committee wishes to thank the Worthy Grand Matron for her confidence in us and the honor she has given us in making us a part of her Grand Family.

We are happy to report that any grievances that may have arisen during the year seem to have been settled by the Chapters concerned or properly adjudicated by the Worthy Grand Matron, as nothing has been presented to us on appeal.

It is with sincere fraternal greetings we submit this report.

J. W. ANDERSON
KATHRYN BELL,
DEAN GAULDIN, Chairman

JUDGE DEAN GAULDIN: I move the adoption of this report, Worthy Grand Matron. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report of the Committee on Grievances and Appeals be adopted.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I express thanks and appreciation to Judge Gauldin and the members of this Committee for whatever service you always willingly render for us.

At this time I am going to call Grand Chapter from labor to rest. It is unbearably hot in the coliseum, and the air conditioning man wants to come in and turn on the air conditioning. We will let him come in after we have called Grand Chapter from labor to rest.

Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this meeting from labor to rest, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM LABOR TO REST

Grand Chapter was called from labor to rest at 2:55 P. M.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: At this time it is fitting that we pause, and I am going to instruct the Telegram Committee to send a message to our Past Grand Matron, Sister Mabel Harle. Brother Wylie is seriously ill. She will not be able to leave him to attend this Grand Chapter Session, and I think it only fitting that a message should be sent to her. I would like the Telegram Committee to please take care of that.

Sister Lois Burnett is Chairman, and serving with her are Sister Birdie Jane Easterling and Sister Mattie Mitchell.

Recognition of Fifty-Year Members

Among them were Judge M. A. Childers, Past Grand Patron, and Mrs. Rebecca L. Miles, Past Grand Matron and Grand Secretary.

RECOGNITION OF FIFTY-YEAR MEMBERS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: We have a special group with us this afternoon that I would not want to keep waiting.

Will all the Fifty-year Members who have received certificates this year, or plan to receive them at this Grand Chapter, please rise.

Grand Marshal, I would like for you to escort them to the East.

My heart is filled with joy and gladness as I pause in recognition of those who received Fifty-year Certificates this year.

It is my pleasure to present to you:

Mrs. Rebecca L. Miles, Past Grand Matron and Grand Secretary, and Past Matron of Athens Chapter No. 177.

Judge M. A. Childers, Past Grand Patron, and a member of Alamo Chapter No. 665.

Mrs. Ellen Berry, Past Matron, Burney Chapter No. 200.

Mrs. Lillian Renfrow, Bluebonnet Chapter No. 717.

Mrs. Maude Holland, Past Matron, Grand Prairie Chapter No. 219.

Today, you hold in memory a record of fifty years of service to our Order, a record inspired by noble purposes conscientiously rendered in service to humanity, and one which will enshrine you within the hearts of the membership.

I am delighted to be the one to have the privilege of recognizing the service rendered by these two outstanding members and leaders of our Order.

I am reminded of how swiftly the hands of the dial of time have registered the completion of these many years; and it is indeed a pleasure for those of us in attendance to pause and pay tribute to each of you.

As you enter upon a new milestone, I know that you meet the challenge of each day with trust in Him from whom cometh all wisdom and strength. I am confident that He will guide you along your way, as you continue to serve our Order.

And now we will be favored by a very appropriate song by our Grand Choir, in tribute to the Fifty-year Members.

SONG

The Grand Choir then sang "Memories."

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Cloe Thomas, and members of the Grand Choir.

Grand Marshal, you will conduct our distinguished members to their seats.

We will now have the report of the Fraternal Correspondent.

Will Sister Mildred Tarter please come to the East?

I present Mrs. Mildred Tarter, Fraternal Correspondent, for her report.

REPORT OF FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENT

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Members, Sisters and Brothers:

During the past year through the proceedings of other Grand Jurisdictions, I have taken a very pleasant journey throughout the Eastern Star World.

As I traveled from Maine to California, from Puerto Rico to British Columbia, with a little time out for a side trip to Scotland, I have been permitted to stand in magnificent churches, beautiful temples and auditoriums, decorated with nature's loveliest flowers, each setting bringing to light and life the teachings of our Order.

The Holy Bible rests on the Altar of all Grand Chapters and Prayer is a vital part of each Session.

Impressive memorials are given in loving tribute to those who have answered the "Good Shepherd's Call."

The magnitude of our Order has gone far and beyond any dream of Doctor Rob Morris who in 1850 wove the divine threads of "Charity, Truth and Loving Kindness" into a beautiful pattern and called it the Order of the Eastern Star.

It is with justifiable pride that we point to the fact that from an humble beginning our Order has grown into the largest Fraternal Organization in the world with membership open to both men and women. The Order is composed of our governing bodies: The General Grand Chapter, the Supreme Grand Chapter of Scotland, the Independent Grand Chapters of New York and New Jersey.

The General Grand Chapter was organized in Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1876, meets triennially, and has jurisdiction over 56 Grand Chapters and Subordinate Chapters in Alaska, Yukon Territory, Hawaii, China, Japan, Philippine Islands, Guam, Okinawa, Mexico, the Canal Zone, Cuba, Bermuda, and West Germany. The Ritual is translated into Spanish, Chinese, Italian, and German. The Supreme Grand Chapter of Scotland was organized in 1904, meets semi-annually for one day only, and has jurisdiction over Australia, and Chapters in England, Ireland, New Zealand, India and South Africa. The Independent Grand Chapter of New Jersey was organized in 1870. They use a Ritual formulated by themselves. The Independent Grand Chapter of New York was organized in 1869, and uses the McCoy Ritual, which admits to membership the granddaughters and nieces of Master Masons.

Our benevolent work is unsurpassed. Every Grand Jurisdiction is most generous in its response to charitable work, such as Cancer Research and Dressings Stations, Shriners' Hospitals, Blood Banks, Overseas Relief, and Youth Education. The Order of the Eastern Star recognizes the urgency of constructive Youth Guidance, and nearly all Grand Chapters sponsor youth organizations. Forty-five states sponsor Order of Rainbow for Girls, which is one of the largest youth organizations in the world; 29 sponsor Job's Daughters, and 19 have both. New York has "The Daughters of the Eastern Star," and Florida, "The Beautitudes." These organizations are helping to shape the lives of over 50,000 girls.

Our International Eastern Star Temple in Washington, D. C., is a pride of all members of the Order. It is the headquarters for the General Grand Chapter. Since our Order is international no flag flies over this beautiful building; but a large electric star in a pentagon surrounded by a circle sends forth its shining message of Charity, Truth, and Loving Kindness towards all.

The International Peace Garden is a tract of land situated between North Dakota and Canada, which was established in 1932 as a memorial to the friendship between the two countries. Plots in this garden have been allotted to the Order of the Eastern Star.

Our Grand Chapter, Texas, has the largest number of Chapters but ranks 6th in total membership:

Ohio	184,000 Members	559 Chapters
California	160,000 Members	530 Chapters
Illinois	148,000 Members	753 Chapters
New York	143,000 Members	758 Chapters
Indiana	138,000 Members	485 Chapters
Texas	130,000 Members	770 Chapters

The Grand Chapter of Dakota is about the size of our Fort Worth School of Instruction.

Many Jurisdictions support O.E.S. Homes: Pennsylvania 3, Illinois 2. Some Grand Chapters have combined Masonic and Eastern Star Homes. In some jurisdictions where no O.E.S. Homes exist the Eastern Star contributes to the support of the Masonic Homes.

Alberta, Canada, has Eastern Star cottages which rent for $10.00 per month.

Irregularities—Ontario Chapters were reprimanded for using "Regular" on notices of stated meetings.

In Canada, Grand Chapter usually opens with a Toast to the Queen.

In many states the Past Matrons and Past Patrons are not voting members of Grand Chapter—as in Indiana the Matrons, Patrons, Associate Matrons, and Associate Patrons, Committee members and Grand Officers only vote.

Worthy Grand Matron, it has indeed been a pleasure to serve as the Fraternal Correspondent. For this I thank you.

And now, Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, may I present to you the lovely Grand Representatives who are our links to other Grand Jurisdictions:

As the names of the Grand Representatives were called the following Grand Representatives entered from the Southeast and executed a drill, concluding it with two letters A:

Mrs. Odessa Turner, Alberta
 Mrs. Cecile Petit, Arizona
 Mrs. Florrie Pluenneke, Arkansas
 Mrs. Vera Trout, British Columbia
 Mrs. Mabel Rush Jenkins, California
 Mrs. Deta Blodgett, Colorado
 Mrs. Jacques Dowling, District of Columbia
 Mrs. Gertrude Standard, Idaho
 Mrs. Elizabeth Gholson, Illinois
 Mrs. Ann Stokes, Kentucky
 Mrs. Jackie Huffhines, Louisiana
 Mrs. Exa Lane, Maryland

Mrs. Mattie Bachus, Minnesota
 Mrs. Alma Chandler, Mississippi
 Mrs. Ada Burke, Missouri
 Mrs. Jarvis Boyd, New Brunswick
 Mrs. Clara Fuqua, New Hampshire
 Mrs. Nina Jones, New Mexico
 Mrs. Melba Marten, North Dakota

 Mrs. Doratha Burnett, Pennsylvania
 Mrs. Ruby Loving, Quebec
 Mrs. Nancy Bauerle, Rhode Island
 Mrs. Ione Allen, Saskatchewan
 Mrs. Margaret Murray, Scotland
 Mrs. Sally Bryant, Vermont
 Mrs. Ella Mae Adcock, Virginia
 Mrs. Eula Harrell, Wyoming

Mrs. Mildred Haney Harris, Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron were escorted into the formation.

FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENT: Sister Mildred Haney Harris, Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, your serving has strengthened the tie that binds Texas to these other Grand Jurisdictions.

Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, A is for Amy, our lovely Worthy Grand Matron, and

A is for all Grand Jurisdictions.

Mrs. Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron, and Dr. James H. Goettee, Worthy Grand Patron, may you both cherish the memories of extending the hand of friendship to those who came to General Grand Chapter in Texas. They knew that in your hearts abideth faith, hope and love, but the greatest of these was love.

Thank you.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

MILDRED TARTER, Fraternal Correspondent.

Mrs. Tarter was heartily applauded at the conclusion of her report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Mildred Tarter, for that very informative report and for the time I know you must have spent in gathering all that information for the membership.

When Grand Chapter has been called from rest to labor you may move the adoption of the report.

Our Grand Treasurer is ready with her report.

Sister Jettie has been somewhat ill, but has recovered sufficiently that she might come to our Grand Chapter, and I know you are as delighted as I am to see her. (Applause.)

In order to conserve her strength, I am going to let Sister Lovena Grigg read the report that Sister Jettie has prepared.

APPRECIATION

As this Grand Chapter year draws to a close, I find myself reminiscing and in so doing, I'm counting my many, many blessings. I am fully aware how fortunate I am to be able to serve the Grand Chapter of Texas as Grand Treasurer and I want to extend my sincere thanks to the entire membership for granting me this privilege. The co-operation of all those with whom I have worked this year has made this a most pleasant tenure of service.

Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron:

As you bring an accounting of your year in the East to this Grand Body, I know you do so with a great deal of pride and satisfaction. I am honored to have served under your leadership. Thank you for your many acts of kindness to me.

Grand Secretary:

I can't put into words the feelings I have for you! Your efficiency, understanding and loyalty have made my duties a pleasure. Thank you for all you have done to help me.

Grand Trustees:

I have enjoyed working with and for you. You have been most considerate and helpful in so many ways. I especially want to acknowledge the help which the Chairman of this board has given me—not only this year but ever since I have had the good fortune to know Preston Miller. He is a friend.

Goose Creek Chapter:

I shall always be grateful to the members of my Chapter for permitting me to be a member of one of the finest Chapters in the state. It is with these good friends that I share all honors which come my way because of the office I hold. For all the nice things the Chapter and the individual members have done for me, I sincerely thank you.

Every individual comes into the world invested with the responsibility of adding a bit to its progress, of leaving it a little better or more beautiful than he found it; of giving to life something of himself, that life may know he has a part in the grand scheme of things. I hope that through my service as your Grand Treasurer, I have been able to add something to the life and progress of our Order.

Sincerely and fraternally,

JETTIE HINTON,
Grand Treasurer

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Lovena Grigg, for reading the report for Sister Jettie, and for having served in the various drills of our Grand Chapter and for filling Sister Jettie's station up to now. Thank you so much.

When Grand Chapter is called from rest to labor you may move the adoption of the report.

We will have the report of the Time and Talent Committee.

I recognize Mrs. Sadie Ball.

REPORT OF TIME AND TALENT COMMITTEE

As a prelude to the Time and Talent Committee Report, an impressive program-drill was offered by the Pink Ladies, Pink Ties and members of the Time and Talent Committee. The objective of the drill was the formation of the outline of a house, symbolic of the Eastern Star Home, inside the labyrinth and encompassing the Altar which was surrounded by the design of a large heart; with the letters "O. E. S. Home." During the drill, a narrative was spoken by the Chairman.

MRS. SADIE BALL: This program is dedicated to the love and affection we have for our Eastern Star Home and the dear members who live in it. To portray this, Sister Hazel Campbell, Past Matron of Hillcrest Chapter No. 1000, a member of the Time and Talent Committee, who is also a Pink Lady, and who served as Grand Chaplain in 1962-1963 Grand Chapter year, has arranged a program which she has entitled "Our Heart Is In The Home."

The crown of the Home is Godliness; the beauty of the Home is order; the glory of the Home is hospitality; the blessing of the Home is contentment;

The heart of the Home is our hearts which symbolically we now unfold to encompass our sacred Altar upon which rests the Holy Bible, the guide to our faith and practices; and the vital force of our Order.

The solidity of the Home is based upon the firmness of its foundation;

The strength of the Home depends upon the stability of its walls;

The shelter of the Home depends upon the abundance of love with which we endow it;

The support of the Home rests within the hearts of the Sisters and Brothers of our Order.

Our complete design symbolizes that our heart is truly in the Eastern Star Home; and to it we lovingly dedicate our time and our unending devotions.

During the narration, marching lines of Pink Ties, Pink Ladies and Committee formed the outline, and upon its completion there was a song.

SOLO

Upon completion of the outline, Mr. Charles Wallace, Worthy Patron of Sunshine Chapter No. 399, Houston, sang "Bless This House."

MRS. SADIE BALL: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, Distinguished members, my Sisters and Brothers:

The Time and Talent Committee of our Grand Chapter of Texas has given you and me the greatest opportunity we ever had to tell the world what we, as members of the Eastern Star, stand for—that we are, in truth, a benevolent and charitable organization—practicing Love and Understanding.

We have brought to the attention of the world, words uttered by our Saviour, almost two thousand years ago:

“Jesus said, ‘For I was hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in . . . I was naked and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.’”

We know that Jesus went among the people, feeding the hungry, administering to the sick; people came from miles and miles away just to touch the hem of His garments; just to look into His face and thereby to receive blessings, untold!

Sisters and Brothers, Jesus’ disciples walk among us today, just as surely as they walked in that day so long ago, dedicated men and women who through the Time and Talent Committee, and under the leadership of their own Pink Lady and Pink Tie Chairman in their respective Chapters, all over our great state. In the largest city and in the most remote areas of the State of Texas, these disciples have gone about expressing, in word and deed, the precepts of our Star—aiding the underprivileged; caring for the sick and elderly; and perhaps not literally speaking, but visiting those whose hearts are imprisoned in walls of loneliness or estrangement!

God, in His merciful goodness, has given each of us a talent—not to be buried in fear, but to go out and make our talent grow and grow for the betterment of others. You may say, “What talent have I? I can’t sing; I can’t paint a picture; I can’t write; I am not a politician; I have no musical education; I never even finished college!” But in the recesses of our hearts, we all have the talent to be kind, Sisters and Brothers, loving and helpful! In our small communities or in our greatest cities, there’s room to practice and there’s time, too, if we will use it wisely—and you have the talent! Search your hearts, you know that I am right!

The hours of time spent in this work by those dedicated members reach a staggering total, 98,612 hours. Those within a fifty-mile radius of our Eastern Star Home, and you know the Home and Hospital is our “biggest concern, are as follows: 32,870 hours.

How many hearts have been gladdened by the knowledge that they are loved and appreciated, by the visits and gifts made to our dear little ladies by these members of our Pink Ladies and Pink Ties. What a blessing I, personally, have received, and how many deep and cherished friendships have I made as I have served as the Chairman of this wonderful Time and Talent Committee. I am deeply grateful for this opportunity.

And those who are farther away, Sisters and Brothers, remind me of a pebble dropped into a quiet lake—the rings reaching out and out until the largest encircles our great State, each as deeply beautiful as the first—these reach the stupendous sum of 65,742 hours.

I proudly tell you we have 2,038 Pink Ladies and Pink Ties. 110 Chapters represented. Loyal Chapter No. 648, Dallas, has the largest membership, which is 130.

The Time and Talent Committee want you to know where and how your dollars have been spent. We equipped a second Beauty Shop, this amounted to approximately $375.00, have bought supplies all through the year. We purchased six Bedside Commode Chairs, through the Time and Talent Committee, this amount was $147.00. Two dozen trays for the Hospital, which amounted to $25.00. We have also purchased a Bake Oven for our Eastern Star Home. This item alone was $750.00. For the ladies' enjoyment, we have a Bingo Game. Some of the Pink Ladies come to the Home and play Bingo with our little ladies. There are many other items, too numerous to mention.

In addition to the items just mentioned, many gifts—articles of usefulness—have been given by the Chapters participating in Time and Talent. Many visits have been made to the ladies in the Home. If time would permit, these gifts and visits and acts of kindness reach a tremendous total. A list of names is attached of those Pink Ladies and Pink Ties receiving awards for 200 hours or more of service, with 600 receiving emblems and 250 receiving caps, with 225 Brothers receiving Pink Ties.

The Pink Ladies and Pink Ties had two salad suppers for the ladies at the Home. Pink Ladies and Pink Ties from surrounding and distant subordinate Chapters joined the Committee members for both of these salad suppers. The surrounding Chapters took care of the birthdays for the ladies in the Home, having a party each month and presenting gifts to each one having a birthday that month.

The Pink Ladies and Pink Ties were present on Founder's Day, lending a helping hand to the Founder's Day Committee, by conducting tours throughout the O.E.S. Home.

Worthy Grand Matron, this has been a busy and rewarding year. I am grateful for this year of service, and for the privilege of working with this wonderful group of co-workers, new friendships have been made and cemented in bonds of love.

When we make Love, Truth, and Charity, the keynote of our hearts, we strive to make the virtues we teach become a living part, then the influence of our Order shall send its radiance afar and each member will reflect the glory of our beautiful Eastern Star!

“And the King shall answer and say unto them, ‘Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my Brethren, ye have done it unto me!’”

Lord, show me a way I can serve you,
Point out my talent to me,
Surely Thou hast given me something,—
To do that's pleasing to Thee!

Let my heart be full of compassion,
Even as Thine, to the end,
Let me walk with an humble spirit,—
Make every mortal a friend!

Please give me the courage to follow
The pattern You've set for me,
Surely I can do something,—
To deserve a Home with Thee!

*Poem by: Hazel Holler, P. M.
Toyah Chapter No. 579.*

I am pleased and delighted to present my co-workers on the Time and Talent Committee, who have helped make this year's work the success it has been. They join me in expressing their appreciation to you, Worthy Grand Matron, for the privilege of serving on this Committee:

After the report an orderly exit march concluded the program.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: We will have the adoption of the report after Grand Chapter has been called from rest to labor.

May I express our gratitude for the wonderful job you have done this year. You have exceeded all records this year in membership, in contributions, and in every other way, which shows that our interest is increasing.

It has been a beautiful program, and I am indebted to each one of you for the hours you have given this past year in service to our Home.

Thank you again. (Applause.)

I recognize Mr. Preston Miller for a report of the Board of Grand Trustees.

REPORT OF BOARD OF GRAND TRUSTEES
REPORT No. 1

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Officers and Members of Grand Chapter:

We, the Board of Grand Trustees herewith submit a brief report on our work for the year 1964-1965.

After the election of Mrs. Lois Bell, from District No. 5, the Board organized as follows: Preston Miller, Chairman; Morris Lord, Vice-Chairman; Mrs. Loree Harrison, Secretary; Billy Bible, Member, and Mrs. Lois Bell, Member.

Immediately following Installation of Mrs. Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron, the Board met and in a body presented the Worthy Grand Matron with a letter authorizing her to use the Grand Chapter car to visit other Grand Jurisdictions.

There have been four (4) called joint meetings with the Grand Chapter Board of Benevolence, after which each respective board met separately. The dates were January 23, 1965; April 24, 1965; August 28, 1965, and October 2, 1965.

The Board unanimously voted to retain A. C. Upleger and Co., C.P.A., to handle the auditing of all Grand Chapter finances.

The Board of Grand Trustees recommend to this Grand Chapter that all monies remaining in the General Grand Chapter Entertainment Fund be transferred to the General Fund.

This report consists of the minutes of the four called meetings on the dates listed above and, for brevity, they are attached for recording in the proceedings. Let us urge you to read them carefully, that you may fully understand the workings of your Board of Grand Trustees.

Respectfully submitted,

PRESTON MILLER, Chairman
MORRIS LORD, Vice-Chairman
LOREE HARRISON, Secretary
BILLY BIBLE, Member
LOIS BELL, Member

MR. PRESTON MILLER: Worthy Grand Matron, when Grand Chapter is again called from rest to labor I will move the adoption of the report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: We have a distinguished visitor who cannot be with us tomorrow, so we will call this Grand Chapter from rest to labor.

Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from rest to labor, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

The Bible was opened and Grand Chapter was called from rest to labor at 4:15 P. M.

INTRODUCTION—MRS. RACHEL SIMMONS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Will the Grand Officers who have not been presented or introduced at this Grand Chapter Session please rise.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present this Grand Officer at the Altar.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pleasure that I present Mrs. Rachel B. Simmons, Past Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Mississippi.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Simmons, it is with pride that I welcome you to this Grand Chapter, and we regret very much that it is necessary for you to leave. We trust that your visit has been a very pleasant one, and we invite you to return whenever you find it possible.

Thank you so much for taking time to visit us.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present Mrs. Rachel Simmons in the East.

Mrs. Rachel Simmons was escorted to the East.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I am going to ask Mrs. Rebecca Miles to preside.

MRS. REBECCA MILES: Sisters and Brothers, in 1936 Sister Simmons was Grand Matron in Mississippi when I was Grand Matron in Texas, and she visited us at our Grand Chapter Session.

It is my happy privilege at this time to present to you Mrs. Rachel Simmons, Past Grand Matron of Mississippi. You will join with me in giving her Grand Honors.

Mrs. Rachel Simmons, Past Grand Matron of Mississippi, was given Grand Honors.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Rebecca. That was interesting to all of us. I am glad that you remembered that she visited us when you served as Worthy Grand Matron.

Is Sister Sadie Ball still here?

Sister Sadie, do you want to move the adoption of your report?

ADOPTION OF TIME AND TALENT COMMITTEE REPORT

MRS. SADIE BALL: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of the report as given by the Time and Talent Committee.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report of the Time and Talent Committee be adopted.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: We will now have the adoption of the Treasurer's Report.

ADOPTION OF GRAND TREASURER'S REPORT

MRS. LOVENA CRIGG: Worthy Grand Matron, I move that the report of the Grand Treasurer be referred to the proper committee.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report of the Grand Treasurer be referred to the proper committee.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I recognize Mr. Preston Miller.

REPORT No. 1, BOARD OF GRAND TRUSTEES

MR. PRESTON MILLER: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of Report No. 1 of the Board of Grand Trustees.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that Report No. 1, Board of Grand Trustees, be adopted.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and the motion was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Is the Fraternal Correspondent present?

ADOPTION OF REPORT OF FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENT

MRS. MILDRED TARTER: Worthy Grand Matron, I move we adopt the report of the Fraternal Correspondent.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the Report of the Fraternal Correspondent be adopted.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from labor to rest, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM LABOR TO REST

At 4:30 P. M. the Bible was closed and Grand Chapter was called from labor to rest until 7:45 Tuesday Evening.

Tuesday Evening, October 26, 1965

8:00 P. M.

The Tuesday Evening Session was called to order by Mrs. Mildred Haney Harris, Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, General Grand Chapter, and Mr. Frank R. Phillips, Member of Educational Committee, General Grand Chapter.

Preceding the call to order musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Vivian Jaynes, Grand Organist, Mrs. Louise Glenn, Mrs. Irene Barclay and Mrs. Helen Dobbins.

The Floor Officers, Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons and General Grand Chapter Officers were seated in the East.

The Tuesday Evening Session was dedicated to Texas General Grand Chapter Officers.

CALL TO ORDER

MRS. MILDRED HANEY HARRIS: It is a privilege to call to order this Tuesday Evening Session of the Eighty-third Grand Chapter Session of Texas.

Greetings to each Sister and Brother of my greatly beloved membership of Texas, and to each guest whom we are privileged to have with us during these beautiful days of Autumn Enchantment here in the great city of Fort Worth, "The All America City." It is wonderful to greet you on this night as there is a close bond of friendship which binds us together.

Brother Frank R. Phillips, Past Grand Patron of Texas and a General Grand Chapter Committee Member, it is our privilege now to congratulate you for the honor and confidence Mrs. Josephine Browning expressed in you when she selected you to serve on the fine Committee on Education. The field is a great one and may your service be fruitful and a blessing to our Order and to you.

We have a deep regret and sadness in our hearts that Mrs. Mabel Harle, a beloved Past Grand Matron of Texas, and also a Committee Member of the General Grand Chapter, cannot be with us this evening. Her husband is seriously ill, and this, her honor night at Texas Grand Chapter, she is spending in Port Arthur at his bedside.

We are especially reminded at this hour of liberty and justice for all mankind. The agonizing cry of the ages, our hope for the unborn, our dedication of mind, heart and soul in this hour of distress around the world as we stand at the very feet, as it were, of this beautiful Goddess of Justice, who represents our souls desire of Justice, we bow to her, realizing therein we shall find our pathway of freedom. A freedom which means peace, "His Peace He left with us."

ENTRANCE OF GRAND OFFICERS

The Grand Officers entered with their personal pages and executed their beautiful "Enchantment of Love" drill and were then seated in the East.

MRS. MILDRED HANEY HARRIS: Brother Frank R. Phillips, do you have a word for our Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron?

MR. FRANK R. PHILLIPS: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers and Friends:

We Texans are pleased because we have at home again, we hope for good, our permanent General Grand Chapter Officer, our Junior Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Mildred Haney Harris.

Of all the kind acts she did for Texas, the most cherished was her declaration after receiving new advancements: "I accept the service for myself, but the honor for my Texas."

Though we have keenly missed her sincere fellowship often in the past few years we have had the consolation that she was building better service bridges for the Order and adding more honors for Texas.

The fact that she has recently purchased a lovely home in our midst, one with an interesting patio, especially when barbecue aroma is flowing, her neighbors predict her future trips will be of shorter duration.

When one has achieved international fame, one's public ask two questions: How and what qualification? Baily states that the answers to these questions cannot be found from figures on a dial, but from a heart throb. I know of no better description of those standards of conduct ever flowing from her heart throbs than that of the Kansas lady who said: "He has achieved success who has lived well; laughed often and loved much. Who gained the respect of intelligent men. The trust of good women and the love of little children, who has filled his niche and accomplished his task, who has left the world better than he found it whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem or rescued soul; who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; who has looked for the best in others and given the best he had. Whose life was an inspiration; whose memory is a benediction."

Only may we add that by living Electa's lesson we learn that her leadership became recognized around the world by honorable men and noble women. Should we apply the Masonic plumb line to her heart throbs we would discover it to be perpendicular and will cause her always like Rob Morris' poem "To meet upon the level and to part upon the square." So mote it be. Her life is an inspiration to all Eastern Star members and her memory will be a benediction to all who are privileged to say: "I know Sister Mildred."

Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, I want to thank you for the privilege in assisting to call to order this Tuesday Evening Session. I wish for both of you a most successful Grand Chapter.

Thank you. (Applause.)

MRS. MILDRED HANEY HARRIS: Sister Grand Marshal, you will conduct the members of Moslah Temple Shrine Chanters into the Grand Chapter room.

MOSLAH SHRINE CHANTERS

The members of the Moslah Shrine Chanters were heartily applauded as they were conducted to seats in the Grand Chapter room.

MRS. MILDRED HANEY HARRIS: Worthy Grand Matron, I am deeply appreciative of the courtesy and honor of calling this Tuesday Evening Session to order. You have been most gracious to this Past Grand Matron of Texas, your Most Worthy Grand Matron, as has our Worthy Grand Patron, Brother James Goettee, during this year of fine leadership in Texas.

You walked our highways and byways with our members and even toured with them abroad that your vision might be broader and your inspiration greater for the great work you were obligated to do in Texas. For that our membership is grateful, Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron.

A great artist in the beautiful land of Alaska whose paintings are more than works of art for the eye to see and appreciate, but reflect a part of her soul on canvas, signs each painting with a tear drop.

If she is painting a picture for sale the tear drop is closed.

If the painting is for a friend the tear drop is left open, that the divine beauty, purity and abiding love of her soul may flow freely from her to the beloved friend.

Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, all of Texas has painted a portrait for you as you walked among them, a portrait of love, a portrait for you to view in your Autumn Enchantment hour of truth, faith and hope in the future. That portrait has a place in each of your hearts. The tear drop which signs it is an open tear drop that the beauty of the souls of the membership in Texas may flow freely into yours for always, bringing a new love into your hearts, greater hope and pure faith to guide your pathway and enrich your lives.

May our Heavenly Father give you each His special blessing. (Applause.)

Worthy Grand Matron, I give you your gavel.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Immediate Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Mildred Haney Harris.

DEDICATION OF TUESDAY EVENING SESSION

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is with justifiable pride and appreciation that we recognize the service that has been rendered by each of our General Grand Chapter Officers to the Order of the Eastern Star. I therefore lovingly dedicate this Tuesday Evening, of the Autumn Enchantment Session, to Mrs. Mildred Haney Harris, Immediate Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Mabel Harle, Appeals and Grievances Committee, and, Mr. Frank R. Phillips, Member of Education Committee of the General Grand Chapter.

We are indeed sorry that one of Texas Own General Grand Chapter Officers could not be here to join with the others so that we might pay tribute to her personally. Sister Mabel Harle is absent because of the illness of her husband, and we regret very much that she could not come.

So it is with a heart full of love for our leaders who have meant so much to our Order that I dedicate this Tuesday Evening Session. (Applause.)

This is an Enchanting Evening that we are privileged to spend with many friends. I personally consider it very appropriate to begin the program with music that will thrill you as it has me on several occasions in the past.

Through the courtesy of Noble Roy J. Brooks, Potentate of Moslah Shrine Temple and his Divan, we are indeed honored and very pleased to have with us this evening the well known Moslah Shrine Temple Chanters of Fort Worth.

This Chanter group is one of the famous choral groups of the United States and the South. They have presented Enchanting Musical entertainment at many of Grand Chapter meetings, as well as for local Eastern Star meetings during the past many, many years.

Noble Jack W. Green, their President, advised me that his Music Committee had selected a special group of Enchanting Songs that we love to hear at this time of the year, for this Grand Chapter meeting.

We welcome Moslah Chanters and your ladies, many of whom are Eastern Stars.

It is with much pride and pleasure that I introduce Noble W. Allen Rubottom, Chanter Director, who will introduce the Chanter Officers and Accompanist and announce his program.

Noble Rubottom.

The Moslah Shrine Chanters

ENCHANTING CHORAL SELECTIONS

The Moslah Shrine Chanters, Noble Jack W. Green, President, directed by Noble W. Allen Rubottom, with Noble Robert R. Clark, accompanist, were presented in a group of choral selections, beginning with "Hello, Amy," to the tune of "Hello, Dolly."

Other selections rendered were:

- "This Is My Country."
- "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise."
- "You'll Never Walk Alone."
- "Moon River."
- "Look for the Silver Lining."
- "I Am Proud to Be a Shriner."
- "My Lord, What a Morning."
- "Soon I will Be Done."

The prolonged applause was evidence of the appreciation with which the renditions of this fine choral group were received.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: On behalf of the members of the Grand Chapter of Texas and the many friends here assembled, I wish to thank Noble Floyd H. Scott, Mr. Chanter U. S. A., for his wonderful cooperation and assistance with this program and for arranging for the Chanters appearance this evening. (Applause.)

It is now my pleasure to present the Assistant Grand Sentinels and the Grand Ushers in the Square and Compasses Drill, directed by our very efficient and beautiful Grand Marshal, Sister Agnes Pollock.

SQUARE AND COMPASSES DRILL

The very impressive Square and Compasses Drill was again performed by the Assistant Grand Sentinels and the Grand Ushers. The Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, Mr. Frank Phillips, Past Grand Patron, the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron were escorted into the formation, and Mr. Dick Fisher sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

As the Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, Past Grand Patron, the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron were returned to the East they were acclaimed with prolonged applause.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Assistant Grand Sentinels and Grand Ushers. You were wonderful.

And thank you, Grand Marshal, for the beautiful direction of the drill. (Applause.)

We have been very pleased to dedicate this year to our Masonic Brothers, and in so doing we formed a new committee this year known as the Masonic Relations Committee, composed of a group of men of high Masonic standing. I have been amazed at the accomplishments of this fine committee throughout this Grand Jurisdiction.

As members of the Order of the Eastern Star, we are proud of the intangible ties that bind us together. We are tremendously interested in your ideals and in your aspirations. As members of the Eastern Star we hope to continue to benefit by your influence and noble teachings.

And so to the members of this very fine committee, the Masonic Relations Committee, it is with justifiable pride that we claim you as our members. We are indeed proud of the Masonic Heritage that is ours. Historically, Masons played an important role in the evolution of the Declaration of Independence, and of the Constitution of the United States. One cannot read them without being inspired by the simple charm and beauty of Freemasonry that is interwoven into the fabric and structure of those documents. I like to think of the galaxy of great men and Masons who drew up these documents of freedom.

And now I proudly present to you the chairman of the Masonic Relations Committee, Dr. R. O. Fuqua. He will give his report at this time.

Dr. Fuqua.

REPORT OF MASONIC RELATIONS COMMITTEE

DR. R. O. FUQUA: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

Worthy Grand Matron, before bringing the report of this committee, I wish to personally thank you for the privilege of serving as chairman. I am grateful to you for the confidence you expressed in me when you asked me to serve in this capacity.

Worthy Grand Matron, I especially want to thank you for appointing these eighty-one fine Brother Masons on this Masonic Relations Committee that I have been privileged to serve with this past year. They have spent many, many hours in visiting Eastern Star Chapters and Masonic Lodges over this great State of Texas. In speaking to the members, at these meetings, of these two great fraternal organizations, they have created a better understanding between the two bodies and what we do for our fellow man.

Some members of this committee, according to their reports, have made at least fifty visits to Eastern Star Chapters and Masonic Lodges this past year.

In speaking to the members of these two great fraternities, they have tried to bring out our Grand Matron's desire to bring together the members of the Masonic Lodges and the members of the Eastern Star Chapters with a stronger basis of mutual respect, interest, and a better understanding between them.

The following are some of the "highlights" of the "talks" of the Masonic Relations Committee members to these organizations:

The Grand Lodge of Texas is located in Waco, Texas. This Grand Lodge owns and operates a Masonic Home and School for Children in Fort Worth, Texas. It rears and educates orphans of Master Masons, and accepts them from the ages of three to thirteen years. The records show that there never has been a boy or girl from this home that has not made a good citizen. We Master Masons are very proud of this record.

The R. A. M.—the Grand Royal Arch Chapter—and members own and operate at Arlington, Texas, a home for aged Masons, their wives and widows. A Master Mason and his wife may spend the twilight years of their lives in this Home. It was established in 1911 and now has 140 rooms. As far as we know, this is the only one of its kind in the world.

The Knights Templar built a hospital for this Home in 1915. The Knights Templar of Texas furnished a three-story annex to this hospital in 1951.

The Grand Commandery of Texas has donated a Library to this Masonic Home. There is also a Masonic cemetery at Arlington which can be used by the O. E. S. Home, and the Masonic Home and School.

One of the great works of the Knights Templar is the Eye Foundation. It provides eye care such as eye surgery, and fits glasses for those in need. In 1961 Texas Knights Templar alone cared for almost one thousand patients at an average of several hundred dollars for each one.

The Shrine operates seventeen Children's Hospital in North America.

Scottish Rite Masons of Texas operate a Crippled Children's Hospital in Dallas, Texas, where I did my dental interne when a senior student in Baylor Dental College.

The Order of the Eastern Star owns and operates a home at Arlington, Texas, for female members. There is a fully equipped hospital under the same roof. This all is supported and maintained only by Eastern Star members of Texas. There are now over one hundred resident members, and the average age of these members is above eighty years.

When Rob Morris recognized the need in the world for further promulgating of the tenets of his Masonic profession, he instigated and founded an organization based on Brotherly Love. This organization, which is the Order of the Eastern Star, made it possible for the wives, daughters, mothers, widows, and sisters of Master Masons to share with them the duties and privileges inculcated in those noble principles inherent in Masonry.

An appropriate Ritual has been written encompassing all these virtues. And even as our Ritual says, "Woman's heart beats responsive to the same principles that prompt man to noble deeds," so does her heart warm to that eager response by Master Masons everywhere to assist her in her charitable endeavors.

Without that ever-present willingness to put forth a helping hand, many of our plans would be fruitless; our hopes vanished.

We, the Masonic Fraternity, are proud of you and all you stand for. And again and again we will continue to call on you for aid and assistance, knowing that our pleas will not be in vain and that together we shall accomplish our mission,

Yes,

“Hand in hand these Orders go
 Along life’s toilsome road;
 Both lending aid to weary ones
 Who falter beneath their load.
 Both giving help to pilgrims weak
 When traveling from afar.
 One by Square and Compass led,
 The other following the Star instead.”

To you, Worthy Grand Matron, we, the Masonic Relations Committee, express our gratitude for giving us this avenue of service. We wish for you great happiness, and God Bless You.

Respectfully submitted,

R. O. FUQUA, Chairman

(Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Dr. Fuqua, and the members of the Masonic Relations Committee, for the wonderful report and the work that you did this year to promote a spirit of goodwill between a great Fraternity and the Order of the Eastern Star.

I am deeply grateful for the service this committee has rendered to our members and to the Masonic Fraternity as well.

Now it is my pleasure to present the Grand Historians, Mrs. Katherine Bozek, Chairman, and Mrs. Evelyn Kaiser, Co-Chairman.

REPORT OF GRAND HISTORIANS

DEDICATED TO

TEXAS GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER OFFICERS and the

PAST GRAND MATRONS AND PAST GRAND PATRONS OF TEXAS

“ENCHANTED MEMORIES”

“A MUSICAL INTERLUDE”

Mrs. Katherine Bozek, Chairman
 Mrs. Evelyn Kaiser, Co-Chairman

MRS. KATHERINE BOZEK: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Immediate Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, General Grand Chapter Officers, Past Grand Matrons, Past Grand Patrons, Sisters and Brothers:

The program to be presented tonight will be a special musical tribute honoring the builders of our Order, the beloved Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of Texas.

The gates of the past have closed and we can see through the mystic haze the gates of the future beckoning to new goals. As a salute to our special guests, we would start at the beginning of our great Order to the time of Mr. Rob Morris, the founder of the Order of the Eastern Star, and pay homage to this noble man who gave to women this fraternal bond with our Masonic Brothers.

Organist plays softly "Star of the East."

MRS. KATHERINE BOZEK: Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons, "Builders of Our Order," this musical is our tribute to you for your lofty ideals, your constructive efforts and for these sterling qualities that have builded for today and for future generations our Order whose strong foundation is God.

Mr. R. L. Fisher then sang "My God and I."

MRS. KATHERINE BOZEK: This beautiful song expresses the communion with God that has sustained each administration and strengthened the Fraternal ties that bound them together.

It would be impossible in so brief a time to recall the fine events that took place in each session, so only a few highlights of our Order will be touched.

To Past Grand Matron Sister Laura B. Hart and Past Grand Patron Dr. Alfred C. McDaniel goes credit for the creation of a fund to build a home for Old and Indigent Members of the Order of the Eastern Star.

1922 the permanent endowment was assured. The Eastern Star Home was established at Arlington, Texas.

Brother Samuel P. Cockran, Past Grand Patron, and his wife donated ten acres of land on which to build the Eastern Star Home. Later ten additional acres were purchased, with Past Grand Patron S. A. Penix serving as Chairman of the Board of Grand Trustees.

On April 11, 1924, the cornerstone was laid. On one side of the stone is inscribed:

"Eastern Star Home, erected to God, and dedicated for fraternal service by the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star."

Sister Norton B. Wellborn and Brother J. T. Holbrook participated in the laying of the cornerstone. The Home was furnished and completed in 1924 and officially dedicated October 26, 1924.

Each of you, "Builders of Our Order," have through your efforts and leadership contributed to this Home, making it today one of the finest of such homes in any jurisdiction.

"THE BUILDERS"

MRS. EVELYN KAISER:

All are architects of Fate,
Working in these walls of Time;
Some with massive deeds and great,
Some with ornaments of rhyme.

Nothing useless is, or low;
Each thing in its place is best;
And what seems but idle show
Strengthens and supports the rest.

For the structure that we raise,
 Time is with materials filled;
 Our to-days and yesterdays
 Are the blocks with which we build.

Truly shape and fashion these;
 Leave no yawning gaps between;
 Think not, because no man sees,
 Such things will remain unseen.

In the elder days of Art,
 Builders wrought with greatest care
 Each minute and unseen part;
 For the Gods see everywhere.

Let us do our work as well,
 Both the unseen and the seen;
 Make the house, where Gods may dwell,
 Beautiful, entire, and clean.

Else our lives are incomplete,
 Standing in these walls of Time,
 Broken stairways, where the feet
 Stumble as they seek to climb.

Build to-day, then, strong and sure,
 With a firm and ample base;
 And ascending and secure
 Shall to-morrow find its place.

Thus alone can we attain
 To those turrets, where the eye
 Sees the world as one vast plain,
 And one boundless reach of sky.

MRS. KATHERINE BOZEK: Thank you, Mrs. Kaiser.

The traditional homecoming that is celebrated today by the Grand Chapter was established in 1927.

The fourth birthday of the Home was celebrated by laying the cornerstone of the Grand Chapter Office Building, the second floor of which is now the home of the Grand Secretary.

1931-34 two new wings were added to the Home and the Golden Anniversary of the Order was celebrated.

The Board of Directors of the Eastern Star Home reported fifty-two ladies and seven children in the Home in 1939-40. The Educational Fund was made available to assist students at that time also.

Even though it was the war years of 1942-45, the first hospital wing was started and funds were set aside for children's quarters.

The Grand Organist played "Memories,"

MRS. KATHERINE BOZEK: Many, many projects for the Home and its future were accomplished in the years that followed; the fine hospital was enlarged and equipped to care for the ladies.

The combined efforts of these outstanding leaders and the membership have been centered in the Home and the welfare of our Sisters who live there. The prayer that rises from the hearts of each member is that God will "Bless our Home," and make it a haven of love and comfort for its occupants.

Mr. R. L. Fisher then sang "Starlight."

MRS. KATHERINE BOZEK: Past Worthy Grand Matrons and Past Worthy Grand Patrons:

On behalf of the Grand Chapter and as a token of the love and esteem by which you are held, it is our privilege to present to you this book, "Poems of Inspiration." May they always remind you of this lovely "Autumn Enchantment Session" and of our love for you.

Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Amy Goebel, and Worthy Grand Patron, Brother James Goettee, in closing may I say "Thank you" for this privilege of service with Sister Evelyn Kaiser. It has been a rewarding experience to read of the wonderful leadership given the Grand Chapter of Texas by these "Sweethearts of Our Order."

Will the audience please stand and join Mr. Fisher as he sings, "Always," to our honored guests to conclude the program.

SONG

The Assembly stood and sang with Mr. Dick Fisher "Always."

Prolonged applause followed the presentation of the report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Katherine Bozek and Sister Evelyn Kaiser, for your beautiful program. I know our General Grand Chapter Officers appreciated it, as did our Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons.

MRS. NORTON B. WELLBORN

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I have here by me Mrs. Norton B. Wellborn, one of our Past Grand Matrons, who told me very early in the year that she was going to be here. This happens to be, and I have permission to tell you, her ninetieth birthday. (Applause.) She assured me she was going to be here at this Eighty-third Session, and I know everyone of you want to join me in saying, happy ninety-first birthday, and we will see you at our next Grand Chapter Session. (Applause.)

Now I proudly present to you Sister Mildred Haney Harris, Immediate Past Most Worthy Grand Matron.

Sister Mildred.

MRS. MILDRED HANEY HARRIS

MRS. MILDRED HANEY HARRIS, Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, General Grand Chapter: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

I am privileged to be with you, my Texas Grand Chapter, for the first time as your immediate Past Most Worthy Grand Matron and to try to express my appreciation and my love to you, our gracious membership.

You had a Triennial Session in Dallas last November, which excelled all sessions of the past in the General Grand Chapter and other Fraternal Orders. Your reception on Sunday of that week, your two outstanding banquets and your honors paid to our dignitaries were in keeping with their positions.

You built a Temple symbolizing Peace in Our Father's World which was beyond the description of words in beauty, dignity and graciousness.

I have received messages from all over our Fraternal World expressing that feeling to me. The Imperial Potentate, our Governor, the Chamber of Commerce, our hotels and our great world wide membership say that Texas excelled in beauty in its setting, fraternalism in its spirit and a hospitality that has never been and cannot be surpassed. You satisfied our fondest dreams and made them a reality.

If you were one of those persons who gave your ALL, in time, talent, enthusiasm, loyalty and work for this beautiful Triennial Peace Session, then those words of appreciation from over the world for the Triennial are for you.

In 1949 in Toronto, Canada, you greatly surprised me by asking me to allow you, my Texas, to present my name to the General Grand Chapter for the Board of Right Worthy Grand Trustees, which is the open door of the fraternal pathway to the office of Most Worthy Grand Matron of our Order of more than three million members. I was elected, as you desired, to fill that position. I advanced in the line each Triennium because you were with me.

Then, in October 1954, you were beginning to think about entertaining the General Grand Chapter in Texas when your own Past Grand Matron would preside as Most Worthy Grand Matron and a Resolution was offered to that effect, and you paid 10c per member for five years, or 50c each, to entertain General Grand Chapter when Mildred Haney Harris would preside. You then approved the budget for the Triennial prepared by our General Chairman, Mr. James L. Lee.

However, you, my greatly beloved membership in Texas, did far more than pay your dime for five years. You gave of yourselves—the priceless intangible gift was your loyalty, your boundless energy, your sincere friendship and your true fraternal love that this Triennial would be the greatest.

I cannot possibly describe my feelings of love for you for all that you did for Eastern Star. You built a monument in the lives of all who were here which will serve as a Cathedral of beauty and peace in their hearts.

May our Heavenly Father bless you in the same great measure you worked for this Triennial Session and your own Most Worthy Grand Matron and our members around the world of stardom. These members where I was privileged to visit and instruct the membership in their far away Chapter rooms, also, visit their hospitals, their orphanages and their many charities. Members I found to be truly dedicated—members who shall never forget you.

To my Texas appointments who joined with me in these great fields of leadership, to each Past Grand Matron and Past Grand Patron of Texas, to the present line officers as well as the entire membership you gave me a glorious opportunity of service to mankind around the world. May our Heavenly Father bless you real good in the same great measure.

The Receipts and Disbursements for the Triennial have been audited and a report of the disbursement of all funds to Mr. James Lee, Past Grand Patron of Texas, our able General Chairman of the Triennial session, showing the unused balance, will be brought to you by the Finance Committee appointed by the Grand Chapter of Texas to handle these disbursements as directed by Mr. Lee.

With apologies to Helen Steiner Rice, may I say:

People everywhere in life
 From every walk and station,
 From every town and city
 And every state and nation
 Have given me so many things
 Intangible and dear,
 I couldn't begin to count them all
 Or even make them clear.

I only know I owe so much
 To people everywhere
 And when I put my thought in verse
 It's just a way to share
 The musings of a thankful heart,
 A heart much like your own,
 For nothing that I think or write
 Is mine and mine alone.

So, if you found some beauty
 In any word or line,
 It's just "Your Soul's Reflection"
 In "Proximity with Mine."

(Prolonged applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Mildred, for that very inspiring message. I know that the members of Texas have looked forward to hearing from you. We are pleased to have you as our honored guest this evening.

Now it is my privilege to present Brother Frank R. Phillips, member of the Educational Committee of General Grand Chapter.

MR. FRANK R. PHILLIPS

MR. FRANK R. PHILLIPS, Educational Committee, General Grand Chapter: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, other Grand Officers, Sisters and Brothers:

May I bring you greetings from the Educational Committee of General Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and ask your help in two Educational problems.

First, spread the knowledge of the Knights Templar Eye Foundation that is being sponsored by the Most Worthy Grand Matron.

Second, help awaken your neighbor's "drop out" tragedy of our public school system which seemingly is not sponsored by anyone.

It is great to give a blind person a seeing eye dog, but it is much better to give him seeing eyes. The Knights Templar Eye Foundation is furnishing free operations for the poverty of blind and therefore if in your neighborhood there is a blind person, please notify a member of the Knights Templar organization or any General Grand Chapter Officer so that an attempt may be made to bring him from darkness into the light.

The second problem is close to all our homes. It is agreed usually that the first step toward the Police Court, the County Court, the Divorce Court or the Slum District is that step taken by a public school student when he steps out of school before receiving his high school diploma.

May I liken our children's school activities as a great ocean voyage. A friendly ship comes into harbor and troupes of little children go on board. Soon the ship leaves the protected wharf and makes out to open sea slowly and smoothly at first, then faster and faster, and meets rough sailing. The Captain, Mates and most of the crew know the course and haven, but the little people have never crossed before. It is a long voyage. Rough seas are met. Clouds cast darkness, doubt and uneasiness over the little passengers. Great winds lash destructive waves against the ship; again and again they return. Many of the little ones are washed overboard, others become discouraged and venture into the unknown sea. Only two-thirds remain. They arrive at last to a new world, a world of great cities, broad fields, high mountains, beautiful meadows, attractive buildings, pleasant activities and delightful achievements unknown to the little people on the opposite side of the sea of education.

We are told that from one hundred students enrolled in the fifth grade thirty-one will have been swept off the ship of education before his high school graduation day arrives.

Would any commercial ship owner permit such a loss of cargo?

Unless needed help arrives we may expect one out of three fifth graders to slowly but gradually join former drop outs, adding to those groups in our lower social strata composed of unskilled, jobless anti-social lower moral standard individuals whose highest ambition is to be permanently on the public relief roll. It is from this youthful pool of misdirected humanity that our penal institutions are receiving the majority of their first-timers.

Too long have we stood idly by depending upon our over-worked and over-crowded classroom teachers and professionally untrained truant officers to stop this human waste.

Neither group action nor the iron hand of the law has stopped it. These little people need individual attention. Possibly only by volunteer workers who will take time to understand and help them with outside as well as inside problems can they be helped.

If our high school administration were furnished sufficient volunteer workers to constantly keep before the little people desirable pictures of that world of activities, ideals and social pleasures on the other side of the sea of education made possible by the possession of a high school diploma, then the thought of dropping out of school might become as unpopular as the thought of dropping the high school football team. Why not start an anti-drop out club in your home town?

In a most humble way I want to thank all of Texas' officers and members for the many courtesies that you have made possible for me to receive. Like Sister Harris, I will do my best to personally meet the responsibility of the office, but I sure do want Texas to receive the honor.

Worthy Grand Matron, once more may I thank you. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Brother Frank Phillips. We have enjoyed your message, and we are honored to have with us one who has rendered so much service to our Order. (Applause.)

BENEDICTION

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: We will now have the Benediction in song, after which we are dismissed until 8:45 in the morning.

The Benediction was sung by the Grand Choir, and the Session closed at 10:10 P. M.

Wednesday Morning, October 27, 1965

8:00 A. M.

The Wednesday morning session was called to order by Mrs. Rebecca Miles, Past Grand Matron, and Mr. C. D. Miller, Past Grand Patron.

Preceding the call to order musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Vivian Jaynes, Grand Organist, Mrs. Georgie Forke and Mrs. Irene Barclay.

CALL TO ORDER

MRS. REBECCA MILES: Through the courtesy of the Worthy Grand Matron, it will be our privilege to call to order this Wednesday morning session.

Grand Marshal, you will escort the Worthy Grand Matron, the Worthy Grand Patron and other Grand Officers into the Grand Chapter room.

ENTRANCE OF GRAND OFFICERS

The Grand Officers and their personal Pages entered and executed their "Enchantment of Love" Drill, forming a heart around the Altar, and then the Pages forming two lines to the west, through which the Grand Officers retired.

MRS. REBECCA MILES: Thank you, Grand Marshal and Grand Officers, for that drill.

We will now have the opening of Grand Chapter with the formation of the Grand Officers.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron to the East.

The Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron were escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

MRS. REBECCA MILES: The Grand Officers will assume their stations. Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from rest to labor, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM REST TO LABOR

MRS. REBECCA MILES: The Grand Chaplain will lead us in prayer.

PRAYER

MRS. ELNA MOSSHART: Our Father, we thank Thee for all Thy gifts and for Thy beauteous love and concern for us. Help us to be good stewards and to give a good accounting of all we do for Thee and for our fellow man. We do not ask that our tasks be made easy, but that our talents may be adequate to the tasks.

Give us insight to know the great teachings of our beautiful Order and to live up to its high ideals in every day that we live. Help us to know how frail we are and how soon we shall stand before Thee to give an account of the work we have done here. When that great day comes, grant that something we have done may make it possible for the Master of men to say of it, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joy of the Lord." Amen.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM REST TO LABOR

Grand Chapter was called from rest to labor at 9:30 A. M.

MRS. REBECCA MILES: Brother Miller and I deeply appreciate the honor the Worthy Grand Matron has bestowed upon us in permitting us to call to order this Wednesday Morning Session of this Grand Chapter.

I am sure you would like to hear a word from Brother Miller.

MR. C. D. MILLER: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished East, my Sisters and Brothers all:

It is a privilege, a pleasure and an honor to preside in the East with my own Worthy Grand Matron.

Brother Jim, I want to thank you for the privilege of having a part in your Grand Chapter. I will say this to you, that you have been a good ambassador. You have worked diligently, and I am sure that your year has been a good one. Peace and harmony have prevailed. I am sure when you go home, back to your usual vocation, you will carry with you many pleasant memories of your service to this Grand Chapter.

And now, Sister Amy, may I say to you, may God bless you and keep you, and guide you through all the years.

Thank you. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Rebecca Miles, our beloved friend and Grand Secretary, and Brother C. D. Miller, our distinguished Past Grand Patron, I am deeply appreciative of your calling this morning session to order.

Through the years I have loved and admired both of you as our outstanding leaders. I feel that I speak the sentiments of the membership of this Grand Jurisdiction when I say to you this morning that you are two of our leaders that we have looked to for example, for counsel and for guidance along the way. (Applause.)

And to both of you I would say:

May God and all His Angels
Watch over you each day,
And keep you safe from all harm
As you travel on life's way.

May you enjoy life every day, and may you have the time to do some of the things you plan to do. As the days pass may each one be happier than the day before.

All this, and even more, is just a part of the many blessings I wish for both of you. (Applause.)

MRS. REBECCA MILES: Dr. Goettee, Worthy Grand Patron, I think the Grand Secretary and the Grand Patron have more opportunity to know each other than any other two Officers in Grand Chapter. We have had a very happy association. You have been a good Grand Patron, and I have enjoyed working with you.

Sister Amy, our friendship goes back so far I am afraid some of them will think you are a fifty-year member. Thank you for your courtesy this morning. I have enjoyed our association this year. Our joys have been manifold, and this morning I was delighted to call this session to order for you.

I return your gavel. Thank you. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Rebecca.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Worthy Grand Matron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

I want to take this opportunity to express what is in my heart to Sister Rebecca Miles.

Sister Rebecca, you have been a source of inspiration, and I think as long as Grand Chapter continues you in your present position its affairs are in good hands.

May God bless you and keep you. I love you, and I respect you. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Grand Conductress, you will close the Bible.

"The Span of Hope" Drill

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM LABOR TO AT EASE
WITHIN CLOSED DOORS

Grand Chapter was called from labor to ease within closed doors at 9:40 A. M.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: We have much business to transact today, Sisters and Brothers, so I am going to ask your cooperation to remain seated unless you just have to get up and leave.

We will now have the "Span of Hope" Drill, by the Grand Pages and Assistant Grand Warders, directed by our Grand Marshal.

"SPAN OF HOPE" DRILL

The Grand Pages and Assistant Grand Warders were beautiful in their "Span of Hope" Drill, as they formed a Cross around the Altar as a symbol of hope.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Grand Marshal, for another lovely and beautiful drill.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters and Brothers, in magnifying our "Aims for Service," we cross bridges of opportunity daily, and the opportunities are unlimited. That more members of this Grand Jurisdiction may be given the joy and privilege of more abundantly serving others, I appointed a committee which was composed of members representing all parts of this great state, which is called the "Interchapter Goodwill" Committee.

A letter was given to each member of the committee on the night of installation, which listed their duties for the year. I feel that the work of the members of this committee has exceeded all expectations, and their influence for good has been felt throughout this Grand Jurisdiction.

I proudly present to you now, the Chairman of the Interchapter Goodwill Committee, Mrs. Mildred Miller, who will present her committee and her report.

REPORT OF INTERCHAPTER GOODWILL COMMITTEE

MRS. MILDRED MILLER: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

What an inspiration and a joy to serve as Chairman of the Interchapter Goodwill Committee with these one hundred four members comprising the Interchapter Goodwill Committee. Oh, for time to present each Committee member individually! To allow you to glimpse a portion of each loving heart that prompted such Christian deeds of service for others, these members will perform the Heart Drill, while each of you try to visualize how earnestly they heeded the call of their Chapter's community needs for deeds of loving service.

The members of the Committee, thirty-one ladies and one man, were then presented in the heart drill, forming a heart around the Altar, with the man at the point of the heart. The applause was generous indeed.

MRS. MILDRED MILLER: Remembering the words of the Psalmist, "Trust in the Lord and do good and verily thou shalt be fed." What a wonderful privilege ours to "Do good" by sharing another's sorrow and with our presence, thereby showing our love, our concern, our interest, our desire to be helpful in time of need.

“There is a destiny that makes us brothers,
None goes his way alone;
All that we send into the lives of others
Comes back into our own.”

According to an old Japanese saying, there are two kinds of opportunity: Those we chance upon and those we create. Realizing most opportunities are made, each Committee member was ever crossing the bridge of opportunity, seeking the only safe path to follow—that of starting to look for opportunities and to keep on looking until one is found. And to those who are constantly looking to find a heart longing for love, one is more likely to be found.

The Committee reached “forth unto those things which are before” by forgetting past kindness and benevolences because they were ever setting before themselves new goals and new ideals toward which they might strive.

“Give me the heart that devines, understands,
Flood me with knowledge, drench me in light.”

If these statements were not true, the statistical report that follows could not be compiled.

Visits to other Chapters	1,589
Visits to Eastern Star Schools	114
Visits to State Schools for Retarded Children	275
Visits to shut-ins and hospitals	7,562
Visits to Public Schools	6
Cards and letters written	5,149
Flowers and gifts	1,520
Telephone calls	2,252
Food for needy families	1,272
Clothes for needy families	90
Transportation furnished	134
Volunteer work in hospitals	443 hours
Hospital tray favors	200
Books given to hospitals	65
I Wheel chair given to a needy family.

Organized a children's choir, helped plan programs, substitute as Pro tems. and helped with many community projects.

In the latter portion of Scripture quoted earlier in this report, the Psalmist said, “and thou shalt be fed.” Yes, since we have tried to make “Do good” an important part of our lives, we shall be fed. We shall be fed with a feeling of peace and a satisfaction and a joy that this world cannot give. Thus, our lives and others have been nurtured by love and understanding and thoughtfulness.

Send forth love and it shall be
Love reflected back to thee.
Give out joy and thou shalt find
Joy returned by all mankind.
Radiate Truth's light divine
Back into thy soul 'twill shine.
Give and gain what thou hast given
Lose thyself—and find God's Heaven.

Finally, Worthy Grand Matron, may our lives be fed and may the bridges of opportunity extend beyond the limits we can see or trace for spreading faith, hope and love to our fellow man.

If we, as a Committee, have lighted a spark of courage, brightened some sad heart with a cheery word, given some hope or helped someone to smile—then we can be content at the end of this year, for Committee members,

“You have earned your rest.”

MILDRED O. MILLER, Chairman
Interchapter Goodwill Committee.

(Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Mildred Miller, and members of the Interchapter Goodwill Committee, for the outstanding service that you have rendered this Grand Chapter so unselfishly, and willingly, and for this very interesting report.

A good deed is never lost;
He who sows courtesy reaps friendship
And he who plants kindness, gathers love.

Sister Grand Conductress, you will open the Bible.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM AT EASE TO LABOR

Grand Chapter was called from at ease to labor at 10:10 A. M.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is my pleasure now to recognize Brother A. C. Upleger who has a report.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

MR. A. C. UPLEGER: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Sisters and Brothers:

There was handed to me by Sister Amy the records of the International Temple Fund.

We found there was received in cash $1,352.50, and to this was added a credit of $399.00. Therefore, our total contribution was $1,751.50, which brings us in fifth place in the nation. (Applause.)

I move that the report be received.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report be received.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: We had a beautiful report given last evening by Dr. Fuqua, Chairman of the Masonic Relations Committee. It was not adopted, so I would like for Dr. Fuqua to move the adoption of that report at this time.

ADOPTION OF REPORT OF MASONIC RELATIONS COMMITTEE

DR. R. O. FUQUA: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Sisters and Brothers:

Thank you for the privilege and honor of serving as chairman of this committee.

I move the adoption of this report.

The question was taken and the report was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Dr. Fuqua, for that splendid report.

I am proud of the accomplishments of the Masonic Relations Committee this year. As you know, this year was dedicated to all Master Masons.

I am now pleased to recognize the Chairman of our Jurisprudence Committee, Brother Chauncey Penix.

MR. CHAUNCEY PENIX: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

By way of explanation, I would like to tell you that we have no unfinished business from the last Grand Chapter, and we have no resolutions that have been printed in the 45-day pamphlet at this Grand Chapter.

This is the first time in the tenure of my service that this has happened.

I was talking to a very close and friendly Sister of this Order, one of our finest Past Grand Matrons, and I mentioned that fact, and she said: "I am going to tell you something, you and Rebecca have messed up the laws so we don't worry over them." (Applause.)

I would like to introduce the members of my committee at this time, for perhaps this is the only time this committee will be presented, because we will only make one more report, and it will be a final report.

I introduce to you:

Sister Myrtle Rogers
Sister Dorothy Bernhard
Brother George Newcomb
Brother Charles Bairfield

CHAUNCEY E. PENIX, Chairman

MR. CHAUNCEY PENIX: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report be adopted.

The question was taken and Jurisprudence Report No. 1 was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON Thank you, members of the Jurisprudence Committee. We are sorry you didn't have a little work to do, but we are glad you are with us. Thank you for serving, and thank you for that report.

Now we will have a report from the Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences.

Brother Herbert Arnold.

REPORT OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF GRAND CHAPTER
BENEVOLENCES

MR. HERBERT ARNOLD: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, Sisters and Brothers:

First I would like to present my committee:

Mrs. Lillie May Hurst, Secretary and Vice-Chairman
Mrs. Sudie Beth Hancock, Treasurer
Mr. Dave L. Reaney, Member
Mr. Jim Starnes, Member

Report of Board of Directors of Grand Chapter Benevolences

To the Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Officers and Members of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star:

We, the Board of Directors of Grand Chapter Benevolences, wish to submit our annual report for the fiscal year 1964-1965.

Following the election of Mr. James B. Starnes of District No. 4 to succeed the retiring member, Mrs. Marie Harrington, the Board convened to welcome Mr. Starnes and to elect the following officers for the ensuing year:

Mr. Herbert L. Arnold, Chairman
Mrs. Lillie May Hurst, Vice Chairman-Secretary
Mrs. Studie Beth Hancock, Treasurer
Mr. Dave L. Reaney, Member
Mr. James B. Starnes, Member

The Benevolent Board presented the Board of Grand Trustees an itemized budget for 1964-1965 fiscal year, in the amount of $159,810.00. An additional $35,000.00 for Benevolent Aid and $43,260.00 for remodeling and enlargement of the O. E. S. Office Building. This budget was presented in turn to the Worthy Grand Matron. We, the Board of Benevolences wish to not only thank the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel for her wholehearted approval but for the assistance she gave us all year by making the HOME her Number 1 project. Her knowledge and understanding of our problems in the operation of the Home has been more valuable than mere words will or can ever express.

The Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron and all Line Officers were extended invitations to each Board meeting. We have had the pleasure of their presence at several of the meetings. Their interest is always appreciated by the Board.

To date the Board has held 10 meetings including two joint meetings with the Board of Grand Trustees. The co-operation of the Board of Grand Trustees has been one of the highlights of this year. Their co-operation and assistance has made this year's expansion and completion of projects possible.

During the year the Board acted upon the following:

- 54 requests for applications
- 10 approved for admission to the Home
- 5 rejected
- 3 removed
- 39 requests for application did not return completed forms
- 5 Home members died
- 47 Chapters receiving Benevolent Aid for their members

Secured Surplus Commodities with the able assistance of our Associate Grand Patron, Judge Marvin B. Simpson, Jr. Our sincere appreciation to him for his active help all year.

106 lovely ladies in the Home at present time.

Our special thanks to the Grand Officers of Rainbow for Girls and their lovely and able leader, Mrs. Martha Marie Whitfield, for their contribution of $472.50 in honor of Mrs. Whitfield.

To the Eastwood Chapter No. 1077 and their Worthy Matron for their contribution of $275.00 to furnish a room when the original part of the Home is remodeled.

The Board had several meetings with Mr. Preston Geren and at a joint meeting of the Board of Benevolences and Board of Grand Trustees, in April, Mr. Geren was authorized to proceed with plans for renovations of the old part of the Home. In October at a joint meeting of the two Boards, the expenditure of approximately $185,000.00 was approved for the first phase of this work. The work will proceed as funds are available and as voted on at Grand Chapter in San Antonio.

The contract and completion of the expansion of the O. E. S. Office Building was let this year. Open House was held during Founders Day observance at the Home. We wish to thank the Grand Secretary, Mrs. Rebecca Miles, for her advice, her every willing and ready assistance in all matters pertaining to our Order. Her store of knowledge and spirit of co-operation is priceless to not only members of the Board but to all Grand Chapter. God bless and keep her.

Our Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel, authorized the Board to spend the $1,100.00 available in the Pearl Hall Garden fund. Sidewalks in the amount of $650.00 and the balance for shrubs were purchased. This amount is approximately $500.00 more than needed to complete as planned.

To you, Mrs. Mary Moore, and your co-workers may you know how proud we are of you for the "over-the-top" effort in the good work of our Welfare Committee. Your report to Grand Chapter will show how your untiring efforts have been rewarded.

We wish to thank Mrs. Sadie Ball and the Pink Ladies who have spent many hard working hours in the interest of the Home and its comforts. The salad suppers, the $1,113.00 for moving and furnishing the new Beauty Shop and the many other gifts of love.

The Founders Day Committee, with Mrs. Ruby Cash as Chairman, will be remembered for their contribution and interest in our Home. To them our thanks and appreciation.

For her devoted and dedicated service to the welfare of our Home and its Ladies, we shall always be indebted to Mrs. Nina Headrick. Her help and co-operation in all matters and for the good of the Home has been far beyond her strength and required duty. Nina, may you be blessed with God's watchful care.

The Board ever mindful of the extra duty put on the Superintendent due to the expansion of the Home and the increased cost of living within its budget, hired a part time dietician as required by our Constitution and also a business manager to share this extra load of now required work.

Extensive maintenance and new equipment have been purchased this year as reflected by the Superintendent's report.

To the membership of Texas and to my wonderful co-workers I shall always be grateful for the opportunity given me to serve our beloved Order on this the Board of Benevolences. No greater joy has been mine in any field of service than I have had in serving on this Board and with the members through the years. My fellow co-workers will have a special place in my heart for the rest of my life. May you know how much I appreciate you and Grand Chapter for making it possible to know and love you more. God bless you and be with you as you continue on in this field of service.

Fraternally submitted,

HERBERT L. ARNOLD, Chairman
LILLIE MAY HURST, Vice Chairman-Secy.
SUDIE BETH HANCOCK, Treasurer
DAVE L. REANEY, Member
JAMES B. STARNES, Member

MR. HERBERT ARNOLD: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of the report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that this partial report be adopted.

The question was taken and the report was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Brother Herbert, I want to express to you and to the members of the Board my sincere thanks for the very fine work you have done.

Sisters and Brothers, I ask that you be very quiet. This concerns our Home, and I want you to hear.

I cannot commend the members of the Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences enough for the fine work and the many accomplishments of this year. I hope you are aware of the many hours that they give in serving on this particular Board.

Brother Herb, it is with regret that I realize that this is your last year on the Board. I want you to know that it has been a joy always to work with you, because one needs only to talk with you a few moments to know where your interest lies, and that you were giving your untiring efforts for the betterment of your one and only concern, the Home.

My sincere appreciation to you for all that you and the members of this Board have accomplished this year and in previous years.

I know the members of this Grand Chapter will want to join with me in saying a special thank you to the members of the Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences. (Prolonged applause.)

MR. HERBERT ARNOLD: Thank you.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I believe we have the Chairman of the Registration Committee present, who will give us a partial report.

I think our membership is always interested in knowing something about the attendance at our Grand Chapter, so Mrs. Claribel Kendall, Chairman of that Committee, will give us a partial report.

I would like to say to you that I do not believe that many of the members really understand the responsibilities of the Registration Committee. It is an important committee, and, Sister Claribel, I want you to know how much I appreciate the efficiency with which you and your committee have handled the registration for this Grand Chapter.

PARTIAL REPORT OF REGISTRATION COMMITTEE

MRS. CLARIBEL KENDALL: Thank you, Worthy Grand Matron, for those kind remarks.

I would like to tell this Grand Chapter that I processed 3,012 pre-registrations. I had to have a truck to move me and all my staff to the hotel.

As of 10:15 this morning we have a total of 4,400 registered at this Grand Chapter. Isn't that wonderful? (Applause.)

Thank you.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Claribel Kendall.

Now it is my pleasure to present Sister Nina Headrick, Superintendent of our Home.

Now, Sisters and Brothers, I am going to ask again, please remain quiet and give your attention to the report of the Superintendent of our Home.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF EASTERN STAR HOME
OCTOBER 1965

MRS. NINA HEADRICK: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Officers and Members of Grand Chapter:

I am privileged to appear before Grand Chapter for the fifth year to review and report on the year's work for 1964-1965 as superintendent of the Eastern Star Home of Texas.

It has been a busy year and sometimes a hectic one. We have accomplished much during the year, and much has gone undone which we wished we might have done.

As the duties and problems became more difficult, too difficult for one person, the Board of Directors recognized the need for assistance to the superintendent. Several weeks ago they employed a Business Manager and a part-time dietician. This program has not been in effect sufficiently long to be of much visible benefit, but we do feel that as these two employees become more acquainted with the needs of the Home and its program that the superintendent will then be relieved of the almost overpowering duties of the previous years. She hopes that being relieved of so many duties in the operation of the Home that in the coming year she may be enabled to have a closer association with the residents of the Home, and give them more of her attention. As a child needs its mother, so we have come to realize that the older person needs love, understanding and someone with whom to counsel and who has the time to listen to their "troubles" or really visit with them.

No truer phrase has ever been written than "Do you know the world is dying for a little bit of love, everywhere we hear them sighing for a little bit of love." When the superintendent is relieved of much of the business details in the operation of the Home, it is my conviction that she can turn her attention more to the individual and seek to give the consideration and sympathetic understanding which is needful for the aging if we would have them spend their sunset years in peace and contentment.

Eleven new members have entered the Home since our last report:

Mrs. Nell Russell, Burleson Chapter No. 431, September 7, 1964

Mrs. Ardell Barnhill, Arlington Heights Chapter, Fort Worth, October 14, 1964

Miss Bob Fry, Irving Chapter No. 777, October 15, 1964

Mrs. Alpha Pruitt, Brady Chapter No. 167, October 15, 1964

Mrs. Ella Wierick South San Antonio Chapter No. 691, October 15, 1964

Mrs. Emma Williams, Marshall Chapter No. 356, November 9, 1964

Mrs. Myrtle Smith, Childress Chapter No. 101, January 29, 1965

Mrs. Jewel Lockhart, Sunshine Chapter No. 399, Houston, April 9, 1965

Mrs. Margery Matlock, Rankin Chapter No. 176, October 5, 1965

Mrs. Maggie Myrtle Smith, Keystone Chapter No. 9, Fort Worth, October 11, 1965

Mrs. Annis Goodale, Electra Chapter No. 539, October 22, 1965.

Since our last report to Grand Chapter, we have lost 9 members; six from death and three left the Home.

The following is a list of those who passed away: (In 1965)

Mrs. Bertha Smartt, Southside Chapter No. 673, Fort Worth, died February 5.

Mrs. Nellie Dullnig, Bexar Chapter No. 616, San Antonio, died May 25.

Mrs. Lily Kieve, Prospect Hill Chapter No. 817, San Antonio, died August 3.

Mrs. Nancy Earls, Borger Chapter No. 811, died August 14.

Mrs. Margaret Chandler, Fidelity Chapter No. 383, Dallas, died August 22.

Mrs. Artha Mae Rawlings, Arlington Chapter No. 249, died October 13.

It is these experiences which make the life of the superintendent most difficult. Close association through the years with such noble characters produces "a tie that binds." Losing three members of one's "family" within a month's time leaves an aching void.

"God keeps the aged.
With hearts of gold, and silver tinted hair,
And earnestness, and a greater faith in prayer:
He keeps them as a shepherd guards his sheep,
'Til in His fold they gently fall asleep."

The following members left the Home in 1965:

Mrs. Lula Bradshaw, Grand Prairie Chapter No. 219, January 29.

Mrs. Josephine Carter, Southside Chapter No. 673, Fort Worth, February 11.

Mrs. Ardell Barnhill, Arlington Heights Chapter No. 702, Fort Worth, June 17.

The present number in the Home is 106. The average age is 82 plus. We have nineteen residents whose ages range from ninty to ninety-eight.

"It is not how old you are, but how you are old that counts." This truth is definitely illustrated in the lives of our ladies.

In our hospital the average number of patients remains around thirty. The greater per cent of these are permanent patients, but many of them able to be up and around in the hospital.

I am making no attempt to go into a statistical report of Home Fund disbursements. They are listed in the Auditor's Report. But I do wish to call to your attention an item which I believe will be of interest to all: The cost of operation of the Home compared to the preceding year reflects an increase of $4,142.99, while the operating cost per member per month decreased from 118.16 last year to $110.77 this year due to the increase in membership in the Home.

Through the untiring efforts of the chairmen of the Pink Ladies for the past two years, two Beauty Shops have been arranged in the Home—a licensed shop where a paid operator is in attendance two days per week, and a larger shop operated by volunteer service, mostly by the Pink Ladies.

Too much credit cannot be given to the Pink Ladies for their services to the Home. They have spent many hours in helping the Home members. Through funds provided by this organization, a bake oven has been purchased for the main kitchen, and for the hospital serving trays, electric hair dryer, shampoo board and six bedside commodes have been provided. Linens, hospital gowns, draw sheets, cup towels and aprons have been sent from Chapters from over the State. The ladies and the superintendent are very grateful. Special mention goes to two members of Tarrant Chapter No. 8, Mrs. Countess Starr and Mrs. Lillie Hunnicutt, who have woven or crocheted with colorful wool thread seventeen small afghans to be used for lap robes for patients in the hospital.

Numerous other items, including money, have been sent to the Home throughout the year. These have been duly acknowledged and receipts sent to the contributing Chapters or individuals. A list of these contributions is herewith attached and will appear in the Proceedings of this Grand Chapter. The Board of Directors has seen that the Home has been provided with many labor saving devices, such as another typewriter for the office and for the kitchen such items as kitchen utensils, an electric meat slicer and the repainting of the kitchen. Perhaps there has never been a harder working Board nor one more interested in the welfare of the Home than our present Board. Not always have we agreed, but there has been a spirit of good comradeship and understanding and we are grateful for their untiring efforts to assist us in making the Home a better place in which to live.

To all Grand Officers, Committees and members of the Order who have shown by their actions that they love the Home and all that it stands for, we are grateful for your every interest. We are especially mindful of the splendid work rendered by Mrs. Sadie Ball, Chairman of the Time and Talent Committee, under whose supervision the Pink Ladies and Pink Ties function. Mrs. Ball has served far beyond the call of duty.

It takes many people behind the scenes to support the care being rendered by those in direct contact with the resident or patient. Even you listening to this report, remotely removed from the direct operation of the Home, have your part in the overall plan of providing service to the elderly people coming to us for assistance in the evening years of their lives.

We are deeply indebted to the nursing staff and all the loyal employees of the Home who have carried on many times under difficulties and through long hours. The Home is indeed fortunate to have such a staff.

To those of you who have visited the Home we hope you will come again—to those of you who have not may we extend a very warm invitation to make such a visit at your earliest opportunity.

Respectfully submitted,

NINA J. HEADRICK, Superintendent

As a concluding part of the report, I wish to present to you a group of ladies from the Home.

LADIES FROM THE HOME

A high point in the Grand Chapter Session then was the presentation of the group of ladies from the Home as they gathered around the piano and sang the theme song of the Home, "Church in the Wildwood," and a number of other popular songs. Their presence and performance elicited prolonged applause.

MRS. NINA HEADRICK: These ladies sing because they are happy, they sing because they are glad.

Worthy Grand Matron, I move that this report be referred to the proper committee.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report of the Superintendent of our Home be referred to the proper committee.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: We appreciate that splendid report, Sister Nina. We know that you have worked faithfully and given many, many long hours each day looking after the members in our Home.

We also realize that the proper management of our Eastern Star Home is a vital concern of every devoted member of our Order.

We appreciate this splendid report which you have brought to us this morning, and we thank you, Sister Headrick, for your consecrated effort to make the Home a desirable place for our members to live in. (Applause.)

We appreciated the songs from the members of the Home, and I need not tell you that the membership enjoyed them, because they told you so themselves.

Thank you again for coming. It is a pleasure to have you.

While we are speaking of the Home, you know our Welfare Committee has worked very faithfully this year trying to raise money for the Home, which is our No. 1 Project for the year. Very early in the year they secured my permission to sell music and various other items whereby they could raise additional funds that would go to the support of our Home. The Welfare Chairman, as you perhaps have noticed, and the other members of this committee have had a booth set up in this Coliseum since Monday. I am told that they have quite a number of the District Maps, with the State divided into the five districts, something that entails a lot of detailed work, and something that you will appreciate, Sisters and Brothers. So if you do not have a copy of this map then you may, if you so desire, secure one from the Welfare Committee.

I think you will appreciate having it, and I think it might be an education to many of you, because so often I am asked, how is the state divided; which counties are in District 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5?

So you see how valuable one of the maps could be to you as a member.

Now I am happy to recognize Mrs. Gladys Lawson, Chairman of the Educational Fund Committee.

Sister Gladys Lawson.

REPORT OF EDUCATIONAL FUND COMMITTEE

MRS. GLADYS LAWSON: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

First, I wish to present my co-workers, Mrs. Willie Mae Montgomery and Mrs. Mattie Lou Graves. It has been a pleasure to work with these two members, and although we were not able to meet as a Committee during the year, we have kept in touch by letter. They have given me, as Chairman, their sincere cooperation and assistance when required.

As a result of a message published in the Grand Chapter Official Bulletin, in which an appeal was made for contributions from the entire membership for at least $5.00 for each Chapter.

LOANS OF LONG STANDING:

Mrs. Nancy W. Westerfeld
5934 Doulton Drive, Houston, Texas
Loan dated Feb. 18, 1950	$200.00
Loan dated Sept. 19, 1950	200.00
	$400.00 still due, plus interest
Mrs. Mary Lynn Keepers Wisdom
Route 1, Box 93T, Cypress, Texas
Loan dated 8-17-56	$553.67 still due, plus interest
Mr. Tommie O. Keepers, III
116 12th Ave. North, Texas City, Texas
	$1,435.00 still due, plus interest

Mrs. Nancy Westerfeld is a practicing attorney in Houston, Texas. This chairman has made every attempt to contact Mrs. Westerfeld; by personal contacts in Houston on several occasions and by correspondence. She is very evasive and does not feel disposed to cooperate.

Mrs. Mary Lynn Keepers Wisdom married after obtaining the two loans from Grand Chapter's Educational Fund. Her husband refused to assume the obligation. Mary Lynn's father, T. O. Keepers, Jr., has paid one note and has agreed to pay the outstanding note in three payments as follows: Feb. 1966, August 1966, and Feb. 1967. This arrangement has been accepted by this Committee.

Mr. Tommie O. Keepers, III, has agreed to pay $25.00 monthly and to date he has kept his agreement.

Mrs. J. O. Boone has assumed payment of her daughter Mamie Mae Boone's loan. Mamie Mae has married and her husband refuses to pay the loan. The mother has agreed to pay on the note in February and August each year until the loan is paid.

There were no educational loans made this year.

There was one scholarship of $450.00 granted to Mr. Ernest Peter Gratzfeld who expects to receive his degree at North Texas State University, Denton, Texas, this Fall.

There were letters of inquiry concerning loans. These were answered promptly with the usual loan form enclosed. Some did not qualify and some did not complete the form.

To Mrs. Rebecca Miles, Grand Secretary, we wish to express our appreciation for her invaluable assistance.

To our Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, I wish to thank you for the privilege of serving as Chairman of this Committee. Words alone could never suffice, so I will rely on your ability to understand what my heart cannot say—thanks again!

Fraternally submitted,

MRS. GLADYS A. LAWSON, Chairman
MRS. MATTIE LOU GRAVES
MRS. WILLIE MAE MONTGOMERY

October 21, 1965

Grand Chapter of Texas,
Order of the Eastern Star:

I herewith submit the following expense incurred for the service of the Educational Fund Committee:

POSTAGE$12.60 (Receipts attached)

Fraternally,

MRS. GLADYS A. LAWSON,
Chairman

MRS. GLADYS LAWSON: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that we accept the report of the Educational Fund Committee, and that her expenses that were incurred in connection with the work be included.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I hope you were listening closely to the report that was given by Sister Gladys Lawson, Chairman of the Educational Fund Committee.

Sisters and Brothers, Sister Gladys has served in a most efficient way as Chairman of this committee.

I recognize her ability and the services that she has rendered to the Grand Chapter of Texas, and I am deeply appreciative of the accomplishments that she and her committee have made this year.

It is a difficult situation to cope with, and Sister Gladys has given untiringly of her efforts in attempting to collect the money that has been loaned to these people.

I would suggest that the members of the committee in the future be more careful and make a thorough investigation before you make a loan to anyone.

Thank you, Sister Gladys Lawson, for that splendid report. (Applause.)

We will now have a special selection from our Grand Choir.

SONG

Mrs. Kay Leonard, accompanied by the Grand Choir, sang "I Would Be True."

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you for that beautiful song.

Grand Choir, the beautiful music and heavenly messages in song, have given us much joy and pleasure.

Thank you, Sister Cloe, and members of the Choir for sharing your time and your talents with us.

We agree with Shakespeare when he said: "If music be the food of love, play on."

INJURIES

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I am sorry to report that we have had several injuries since our Grand Chapter has been opened. Some of our members fell as early as Sunday morning upon their arrival here in Fort Worth.

I would like to report to you now the members who have had this misfortune:

Mrs. Mamie Murphy, 509 Harris Memorial Hospital, with a broken shoulder.

Mrs. Nina Jones, Room 324 Memorial Hospital. She had a stroke here yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Mamie Warren, in St. Joseph's Hospital, with a broken leg.

There have been others who were not so badly injured.

Sisters and Brothers, please take it a little slower and be more careful and maybe we can get by without any more injuries.

ADOPTION OF INTERCHAPTER GOODWILL REPORT

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: At this time we will have the adoption of the Interchapter Goodwill Report.

Is Sister Mildred Miller in the room?

Sister Rebecca, will you move the adoption of this report?

MRS. REBECCA MILES: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the Report of the Interchapter Goodwill Committee be adopted.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

ADOPTION OF GRAND HISTORIAN'S REPORT

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Now our Grand Historians' Report.

Is Sister Katherine Bozek in the room?

MRS. REBECCA MILES: Worthy Grand Matron, I move that the report be accepted and filed with the proper committee.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Our Board of Grand Trustees will not be ready with their report until after lunch.

We have a rather busy afternoon, and if some of the committees that are listed to report this afternoon are ready, I am ready for you to report.

Is the Secretarial Committee ready to report?

I am happy to recognize Sister Violet Bruner, Secretary of District 3.

REPORT OF SECRETARIAL COMMITTEE

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

Everyone has special moments that are recalled with great delight. Some experiences are so dear to the individual that the moments of special significance are remembered again and again without losing any of their treasured happiness. Such delightful memories are really the highlights of one's life. Worthy Grand Matron, our year of serving on the Secretarial Committee has been filled with special moments and sweet experiences, it has been a year of precious memories for each of us to cherish forever.

In FAITH, HOPE and LOVE we accepted this assignment. We deem it a privilege and honor to serve our beautiful Order in any assignment, whether it be in our Subordinate Chapter or in Grand Chapter. The correspondence of the Worthy Grand Matron is tremendous. We appreciate the confidence you placed in us and if we have helped in a small way to lighten this task we are pleased and grateful and we sincerely hope we have fulfilled our duties to your satisfaction and approval.

The association with you, Worthy Grand Matron and Lud; with the Worthy Grand Patron and Edna, has been a wonderful and delightful experience. To know each of you is to love you. Traveling with you and the School Officers and meeting friends in the various Sections brought added joy and pleasure. Our sincere thanks for every courtesy extended to us at the Schools and on other occasions.

It is a pleasure for me to introduce to this "Autumn Enchantment" Grand Chapter Session, those who served on the Secretarial Committee for 1964-1965:

- Mrs. Gladys RipleyDistrict 1
- Mrs. Erla LeeDistrict 2
- Mrs. Violet "Cricket" BrunerDistrict 3
- Mrs. Thelma Joyce AlsupDistrict 4
- Mrs. Lorraine BoydDistrict 5.

Worthy Grand Matron, in love for you and our beautiful Order we have labored, today the fruits of our toil is ended; your patience, kindness and wisdom have been and will continue to be a real inspiration to each of us. Throughout the year we have seen your FAITH, your HOPE and your LOVE shining as bright as the STARS above.

Respectfully and sincerely submitted,

MRS. VIOLET "CRICKET" BRUNER,
Secretary, District 3

Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report of the Secretarial Committee be adopted.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: To the members of this Committee, I wish to express my appreciation and gratitude. Your service has been invaluable to me. There were times when I felt I couldn't get by without you.

I am sorry that the other member of the Committee is not here this morning so I could thank all of them for the service that they have rendered.

So to you, Sister Violet, and the other members of this Committee, my sincere thanks and appreciation. (Applause.)

Do we have Grand Officers present who have not been introduced at this Grand Chapter Session?

We do not mean to neglect our guests. Sometimes in the deliberations we are so concerned with what we are doing that we may forget to call for presentation of our Grand Officers.

If there are those who have not been introduced at this Grand Chapter, will you please rise?

We would like to get out a little early. (Applause.)

We have worked very fast this morning, and therefore have attended to all the business that is ready thus far.

Our Grand Trustees are not ready at this moment, but they will be ready with their report this afternoon.

The afternoon session will be a very busy one, and I advise each of you to be present for these reports that will be presented.

Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from labor to rest, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM LABOR TO REST

The Bible was closed, and Grand Chapter was called from labor to rest at 11:30 A. M.

BENEDICTION

The Benediction was in song by the Grand Choir.

Wednesday Afternoon Session, October 27, 1965

2:00 P. M.

The Wednesday afternoon session was called to order by Mrs. Mary Ella Schoverling, Past Grand Matron, and Mr. Charles Bairfield, Past Grand Patron.

Preceding the call to order musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Vivian Jaynes, Grand Organist, Mrs. Irene Barclay and Mrs. Helen Dobbins.

CALL TO ORDER

MRS. MARY ELLA SCHOVERLING: Sisters and Brothers, I am delighted to greet you, our beloved members, on this Wednesday afternoon of the "Autumn Enchantment" Session of our Grand Chapter.

It is truly an honor to have our esteemed Past Grand Patron, Brother Charles Bairfield, assist in calling to order this session.

Grand Marshal, you will invite the Worthy Grand Matron, the Worthy Grand Patron and the Grand Officers to enter the Grand Chapter room.

ENTRANCE OF GRAND OFFICERS

The Grand Officers entered the Grand Chapter room in regular form.

MRS. MARY ELLA SCHOVERLING: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort our Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron to the East.

The Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron were escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

MRS. MARY ELLA SCHOVERLING: The Grand Officers will take their respective places and prepare for the active duties of this Grand Chapter.

Grand Warder, you will see that the doors to our Grand Chapter are secure, and inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to engage in the ceremony of calling this Grand Chapter from rest to labor, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM REST TO LABOR

Grand Chapter was called from rest to labor at 2:20 P. M.

MRS. MARY ELLA SCHOVERLING: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, thank you for the joy and privilege of calling to order this session of your beautiful "Autumn Enchantment" Session.

In this lovely season our thoughts turn to the joy, beauty and satisfaction of the Harvest Season. As we journeyed to this Grand Chapter each of us saw the beauties of the Master Painter, the goldenrod, the wild asters, the crimson sumac, the red and gold leaves of the sweet gum trees, all nature adorning herself in the glorious colors of autumn. Surely we are enchanted by the beauty God has given to us, and grateful are we that again we come to bring our harvest of golden deeds and service for our Master. May our harvest always be acceptable to Him.

Worthy Grand Matron, many times this year my thoughts and prayers have journeyed with you as you traveled among our members painting for them rich and beautiful colors of harmony, peace and good will. Now as you come to the closing hours of your labor as our leader, your bountiful harvest bespeaks your dedication to our great Order. Surely for you this is Enchanted Autumn.

Worthy Grand Patron, Brother Jim, many are the ties which bind our hearts together. Not only am I grateful for the precious friendship which I have enjoyed through the years with you and Edna, but I am especially thankful for the close friendship which exists between you and my son, Dub.

I have been proud to call you my Worthy Grand Matron. As I view the canvas upon which you have painted your endeavors of this year I see a beautiful creation, shining with radiant colors that have been carefully blended with God's love. I see the brilliant colors of understanding, friendship and faith. Certainly the harmonious colors which you have generously used have produced a masterpiece of noble living, worthy of the approval of God and man.

I know Brother Bairfield has a message for us.

MR. CHARLES E. BAIRFIELD: Thank you, Past Grand Matron, Sister Mary Ella Schoverling.

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, Sisters and Brothers:

This is an honor and unexpected pleasure to again help open a session of this "Autumn Enchantment" Session of our Grand Chapter. I do not know just who is not here. Whoever he is, I hope nothing serious has happened to him.

It seems to me that things are moving along in such a fast clip in attending to the business of this Grand Chapter that you will be glad to see me sit down.

Thank you. (Applause.)

MRS. MARY ELLA SCHOVERLING: Worthy Grand Matron, with a humble and grateful heart I present to you the gavel, an emblem of your authority, and invite you to preside for the business of this afternoon.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Mary Ella Schoverling and Brother Charles Bairfield, how grateful I am to both of you for not only your splendid leadership in previous years, but also the fact you are two that I can call on almost at a moment's notice, and you are there to assist in whatever has to be done.

Sister Mary Ella, I am aware of the devotion and love that you have given to this Order and of your many accomplishments. I want you to know that always I have admired you for your courage in trying to do what was best for our Order.

I appreciate your calling from rest to labor this afternoon session of the "Autumn Enchantment" Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas.

I was reminded by you that Brother Charlie Bairfield was your Grand Sentinel. I was not aware of that until almost the last moment, when Brother Charlie was asked to serve.

Dr. Holt had recently been invited to assist in opening this afternoon session with Sister Mary Ella, but because of illness he could not be here. Then I asked Dr. Fuqua to assist, and when we were ready to march in Dr. Fuqua was not available, and Brother Charlie was and he consented to serve. (Applause.)

So that is the way it is in Eastern Star, isn't it? That is really what keeps our Order going.

Thank both of you for opening our session in a most commendable manner. I appreciate efficiency always, and I am grateful to both of you for your friendship and for the love you have for our beautiful Order.

Thank you so much.

Are there other Grand Officers present who have not been introduced at this Grand Chapter Session?

Sister Mary Katharine Smith.

INTRODUCTIONS—PAST GRAND MATRON

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present our Past Grand Matron at the Altar.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with much pleasure that I present Sister Mary Katharine Smith, Past Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Mary Katharine, I am delighted to have the opportunity of greeting you at our "Autumn Enchantment" Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas. I am deeply grateful for your presence, and I extend to you a very special welcome. The service you have rendered and the examples you have set have been guiding lights to those of us who look to you for counsel. You are indeed an inspiration.

I want you to know that I shall be depending on you for continued support and guidance, and that I covet your prayers for added strength and wisdom to meet the tasks of each new day.

May God bless and enrich your life with His everlasting love, as you have inspired and brought the light of love into the lives of countless thousands.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort our Past Grand Matron to the East.

Mrs. Mary Katharine Smith, Past Grand Matron, was escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVE—SCOTLAND TO TEXAS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Are there other Grand Officers who have not been presented?

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present our Grand Officers at the Altar.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pleasure that I present Sister Margaret Murray, Grand Representative of the Supreme Grand Jurisdiction of Scotland to Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Some words of welcome cannot express all that is in our hearts to you. But there is one word in our language which is often used to express the true spirit of hospitality that is in our minds, and may you take with you the memory of inspiring friendship and fraternal fellowship.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort our Grand Representative to the East.

Mrs. Margaret Murray was escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES TO TEXAS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present our other Grand Officers at the Altar.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pride and pleasure that I present Grand Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions in Texas:

Mrs. Ella Mae Adcock, Grand Representative of Vermont to Texas.

Mrs. Ruby Loving, Grand Representative of Quebec to Texas.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is with a deep satisfaction that I welcome both of you to this Grand Chapter. You are our goodwill ambassadors, and I trust that you will always exhibit the spirit of goodwill and fraternal love from the membership of Texas as you visit other Grand Jurisdictions.

May your stay with us be fruitful and pleasant, and may your experiences at this Grand Chapter be memorable ones that will remain with you always.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort our Grand Representatives to the East.

The Grand Representatives presented at the Altar were escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I am happy to present to you now a very special group, our District Deputy Grand Matrons and Deputy Grand Matrons for 1964-1965, for their report.

Sister Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from labor to at ease within closed doors, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM LABOR TO EASE
WITHIN CLOSED DOORS

The Grand Chapter was called from labor to ease within closed doors at 2:50 P. M.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I am now happy to present to you Sister Edith Orr, District Deputy Grand Matron, District 5.

REPORTS OF DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MATRONS

MRS. EDITH ORR: Worthy Grand Matron, I present Mrs. Lorraine Ford, District Deputy Grand Matron, District No. 1.

REPORT OF DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MATRON
DISTRICT No. 1

MRS. LORRAINE FORD: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

The Grand Chapter year of 1964-65 has ended with many happy thoughts to remind us of the high privilege that has been ours to serve our Order in the ten Sections of District One.

The rich experiences of my association with the Deputy Grand Matrons during this time will live and brighten my life in the days to come. To these girls, I would say:

"It has been my joy to find,
At every turn of the road,
The ready hands of ten Deputies kind
To help me onward with my load.
And since I have no gold to give,
My love alone must make amends.
My only prayer is that while I live
God make me worthy of these friends."

It is with pleasure that I present to you the Deputy Grand Matrons of District One:

- Section 1—Mrs. Juanita Spencer, Boyd
- Section 2—Mrs. Myrle Barnes, Frisco
- Section 3—Mrs. Mary Smart, Paris
- Section 4—Mrs. Marie Obluck, Dallas
- Section 5—Mrs. Jean Farndale, Garland
- Section 6—Mrs. Cosette Barnett, Malakoff
- Section 7—Mrs. Donnie Mullins, Tyler
- Section 8—Mrs. Cecile Haynes, Marshall
- Section 9—Mrs. Peggy Alexander, Maud
- Section 10—Mrs. Elsie Todd, Quitman

In my book of treasured memories of this year, the schools of Instruction in District One have a very special place. The Schools were planned for the months of December and January. Although the weather can be rather severe at times in this northeastern division of Texas during these months, we were fortunate and all ten Schools were held as scheduled. They were well attended and reflected the results of many hours of untiring labor, self-sacrifice and devotion to our Order. It was interesting to see the many different names for the Schools that could be planned from our Worthy Grand Matron's Theme—"Love and Understanding." For the many courtesies extended to us, and especially the Honorary Memberships, we shall always be grateful.

District Deputies, Deputies, Report

We looked forward to the Saturday Schools because we knew that we would be honored by the presence of our Worthy Grand Patron and his lovely wife, Edna, our Grand Esther. Our appreciation is expressed to Dr. Goettee for his encouragement and awareness of our efforts. The Deputies and I enjoyed having a part in the Instituting of two Chapters in District One, Lone Star and Bogata.

I would be remiss if I failed to express appreciation to our Grand Secretary, Mrs. Rebecca Miles, for her assistance to me. It was not always possible to contact our Worthy Grand Matron immediately and a few times, when I needed some answers I could not supply, I called Mrs. Miles. Usually, she answered the phone and always I received a prompt and courteous reply.

To Mrs. Pat Major, Grand Examiner, and Mrs. Gladys Ripley, District One Secretary, we would say "Thank you" for your every act of courtesy and assistance which you so generously gave.

And now, Worthy Grand Matron, for whatever reasons you may have had for entrusting to us these places of responsibility and honor, the Deputies and I are grateful and when we think of you in the future, which will be often, it will be with thanksgiving that, on this earth, your life touched ours. You selected many Scriptures from the Bible which you placed in the book you prepared and gave to us at the beginning of the year, but there is another Scripture we think very applicable to you. It is the 3rd verse in the 12th Chapter of the book of Daniel:

And they that be wise shall shine
As the brightness of the firmament;
And they that turn many to righteousness
As the stars for ever and ever.

We give to you the following report:

Fraternally submitted,

LORRAINE FORD,
District Deputy Grand Matron
District One.

MRS. EDITH ORR: Worthy Grand Matron, I present Mrs. Margaret Jackson, District Deputy Grand Matron, District No. 2.

DISTRICT No. 2

MRS. MARGARET JACKSON: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

It is with great pride and highest regard for the ten very efficient Deputy Grand Matrons of District 2, that I submit this report.

When appointed District Deputy of District Two,
Little did I dream such enchantment was in store;
Joys, pleasures, more courtesies than I ever knew,
Awaited us as we entered each School door.

Enchantment is not confined to Autumn alone,
Each Deputy proved this to be true;
Hard work and individuality, each had shown,
To make her school the best—one to remember, too.

Great is the pleasure that I hold so dear,
In introducing ten Deputies, all the best;
Who made possible an Enchanted year,
Faithful, loyal, hard working; they stood the test.

It gives me great pleasure to introduce:

- Section 1—Mrs. Viola Cobb
- Section 2—Mrs. Elnora Connell
- Section 3—Mrs. Laverne Long
- Section 4—Mrs. Billie Burtner
- Section 5—Mrs. Erma Lowrie
- Section 6—Mrs. Anel McDaniel
- Section 7—Mrs. Jessie Buckner
- Section 8—Mrs. Dorothy Pettit
- Section 9—Mrs. Charlesie King
- Section 10—Mrs. Kitty Allen

It was a joy to be closely associated with the Grand Examiner of District 2, Sister Katherine Harbour. Her graciousness and charm, as well as efficiency in this capacity, will not soon be forgotten. Thank you, Sister Katherine.

Sister Erla Lee, member of the Secretarial Committee, will never know how much she was appreciated for her readiness to assist our group, in addition to other duties. Our thanks to you, Sister Erla.

The following is a Summary of the Annual Report:

Worthy Grand Matron, I shall always be indebted to you for choosing so carefully these wonderful girls to serve with me as Deputies. Their fine spirit of cooperation, thoughtfulness, and acts of kindness have created close relationships and endearments that will be everlasting. Thank you for the honor of serving as District Deputy. My life has been made richer, broader and happier by having had this experience. My association with you has been an experience that will always remain with me as "PRECIOUS MEMORIES."

Worthy Grand Patron, to have had the privilege of serving with you, and to know your lovely wife, Edna, has filled a very important place in our lives this year. One so dedicated, capable, and understanding, inspired us to hold high the standards expected of true Eastern Star members. Thank you for allowing the Deputies and me to participate in the Instituting of University Chapter U. D. at Lubbock. on April 20, 1965.

District 2 is very dear to our hearts. Many pleasant memories were brought to mind as we covered that vast area. In going to Chapters both large and small, we found each carrying on the work of our beautiful Order. As a member of a small Chapter, memories of one who Instituted, and remained a staunch supporter and friend to our little Chapter, came to mind many times—that of Brother Pat Boone, who would have been delighted in knowing such an honor had come to Anton Chapter, one he had worked with and helped get started. Our only hope is that the combined efforts of all involved have not been in vain and that our District will profit and continue to grow.

Thank you again, Worthy Grand Matron, for the opportunity to work with and acquire the friendship and good will of all with whom we came in contact.

Fraternally submitted,

MARGARET JACKSON
District Deputy Grand Matron
District 2

MRS. EDITH ORR: Worthy Grand Matron, I present Mrs. Oleta Domes, District Deputy Grand Matron, District No. 3.

REPORT OF DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MATRON DISTRICT No. 3

MRS. OLETA DOMES: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Members, Sisters and Brothers:

Autumn, with all of its Splendor and Beauty, has brought us much too swiftly to the final report of this year's work.

There have been many Bridges of Opportunity for Service to cross during this year, bringing many joys. One of the most rewarding for me has been the privilege of serving with the Deputy Grand Matrons of District 3, the personal representatives of our Worthy Grand Matron, in their respective Sections. It is with a great deal of pleasure and much pride in their accomplishments, that I present them to this assembly:

Section 1—Mrs. Viola Edwards
Section 2—Mrs. Bonnie Strickland
Section 3—Mrs. Mae Mills
Section 4—Mrs. Bernice Suther
Section 5—Mrs. Pauline Polley
Section 6—Mrs. Louise Rasmussen
Section 7—Mrs. Fannie Gent
Section 8—Mrs. Martha Jane Puett
Section 9—Mrs. Betty Tims
Section 10—Mrs. Evelyn Steellhammer

The Deputy Grand Matrons join with me in submitting the following written record of our year's work, although written records never quite reveal the finer points of accomplishments:

Chapters Assigned	131	Expense Mileage	$351.87
Chapters Inspected	131	Hotel and Meals	43.58
Schools Attended	67	Postage	129.55
Letters Written	2,114	Telegrams and Telephone	80.20
Miles Traveled	11,729	Other Expense	11.45
		Total expense for year	$616.65
		Money Received	760.00
		Money Refunded	143.35
		Balance on hand	$000.00

Worthy Grand Matron, your theme of LOVE and UNDERSTANDING was exemplified by you in every undertaking, especially in our association together. Your Watchwords of FAITH, HOPE and LOVE have been an inspiration to me and the Deputies. We are grateful for your FAITH in allowing us to represent you in your Home District. It is our sincere HOPE that we have merited the confidence you placed in us. Our LOVE for you and the joy we have had in serving with you will always be a pleasant memory.

Worthy Grand Patron, we wish to express our gratitude and appreciation for your attendance at seven of the Schools in District 3. Your presence and that of your lovely wife, Edna, was always a delight. We admire your high ideals, your consideration of others and most of all your devotion to our Order. It has been a pleasure to share many happy experiences with you.

To Mrs. Margaret Hampton, our very efficient Grand Examiner of District 3, we cannot adequately express our esteem for you. Your dignity and consideration in the Examining Room added distinction to our Schools and endeared you to the members in our District. We are grateful for the fellowship we have had with you this year.

To the Members of District 3, our sincere appreciation and thanks for your understanding and loyal co-operation. The many new friendships which have been formed, the fond memories of the Schools and visits to the Chapters are priceless. We shall cherish them always.

It has been an honor for me to serve as the District Deputy Grand Matron of District 3. It is with a deep sense of regret that I submit this report in writing and not in person. It was necessary for my husband and me to move to California prior to the date of this Grand Chapter Session. Worthy Grand Matron, there are not words enough to express to you my deep regret in not being able to attend this "Autumn Enchantment" Session. It is not only because I am your District Deputy, but more especially because of our friendship of many years. I have looked forward to seeing you preside as the Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Texas. My very best wishes for a most successful Grand Chapter and the fulfillment of all your dreams.

Faternally submitted,

OLETA DOMES
 District Deputy Grand Matron
 District 3

MRS. EDITH ORR: Worthy Grand Matron, I present Mrs. Mary Brown, District Deputy Grand Matron, District No. 4.

DISTRICT No. 4

MRS. MARY BROWN: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, other Distinguished Members, My Sisters and Brothers:

As I stand gazing upon this great assembly of Eastern Stars, I again marvel that I was selected to serve in this responsible and rewarding office. If my efforts have met with any degree of success, it is due to the love, co-operation, and hard work of those persons our Worthy Grand Matron so thoughtfully selected to serve with me—those whom I fondly like to refer to as “my girls”—the ten Deputy Grand Matrons of District Four. May I share with you:

Section 1—Mrs. Myrtle Smith whose Eastern Star School was held in Nacogdoches on February 25 with 231 members present.

Section 2—Mrs. Eunice Stansbury Moore whose Eastern Star School was held in Port Arthur on March 20 with 567 members present.

Section 3—Mrs. Nell Clonts whose Eastern Star School was held in Crockett on February 22 with 230 members present.

Section 4—Mrs. Martha Jones whose Eastern Star School was held in Baytown on March 6 with 488 members present.

Section 5—Mrs. Allene Walker whose Eastern Star School was held in Houston on March 13 with 1,103 members present.

Section 6—Mrs. Doris Maddox whose Eastern Star School was held in Bryan on February 27 with 294 members present.

Section 7—Mrs. Leona Jennings whose Eastern Star School was held in Bellville on February 18 with 126 members present.

Section 8—Mrs. Frances Schiller whose Eastern Star School was held in Caldwell on February 20 with 186 members present.

Section 9—Mrs. Wilma Franke whose Eastern Star School was held in El Campo on March 9 with 198 members present.

Section 10—Mrs. Nellie Warren whose Eastern Star School was held in La Marque on March 16 with 312 members present.

With a total attendance of 3,735 at District Four Schools.

The following statistical report gives you a brief glimpse of the outstanding work of these girls:

Chapters Assigned and Inspected	151
Chapters Demised or Consolidated	0
Chapters Instituted	2
Schools Conducted	10
Schools Attended Officially	10
Schools Attended Unofficially	33
Letters Written	2,083
Miles Traveled	13,651
Mileage Expense	$409.53
Hotels and Meals	41.50
Postage	111.08
Telegrams and Telephone	142.14
Other Expense	69.36
Total Expense for Year	773.61
Money Received	773.61

On behalf of these ten co-workers—and myself, I offer a heartfelt and humble thanks for this opportunity to serve.

To our Worthy Grand Matron and her dear husband, Lud; to our Worthy Grand Patron and his sweet wife, Edna; to our District Four Grand Examiner, Earline Frazier, and Secretary Thelma Joyce Alsup; to the Past Grands, Grand Officers, and “generally grand” persons who offered words of recommendation and commendation; to the membership as a whole who made us honorary members, greeted us on all sides with shining hospitality, and led us across countless “Bridges of Love and Understanding”—we say,

GOD BLESS!! And each night we will whisper a prayer that HIS tender LOVE will enfold you and fill your hearts with a PEACE that knows no end!

MARY M. BROWN,
D.D.G.M. District Four

I shall not read the statistical report, which will be printed in the official Proceedings; however, I would like to call your attention to a few figures that will give you a brief glimpse of the outstanding work of these girls: They wrote 2,083 letters, traveled 13,651 miles, inspected 151 Chapters, and assisted the Worthy Grand Patron in the Instituting of two new Chapters.

MRS. EDITH ORR: And I am Edith Orr, District Deputy Grand Matron, District No. 5.

REPORT OF DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MATRON DISTRICT No. 5

MRS. EDITH ORR: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Members, my Sisters and Brothers:

One year ago there was set before me an Avenue of Service, for down that pathway I began a journey into our Eastern Star world I had not known before. The pathway led me to the ten Schools of District Five as their Instructing Officer. It was in the spirit of Faith and Love and desire to give my best in service to our beloved Order that I set out upon my duties. I trust that my record meets with the approval of our District and with the approval of our Worthy Grand Matron. I appreciate the faith that our Worthy Grand Matron had in me to appoint me to this position of honor. I also appreciate these lovely Stars who have served our Sections so graciously and efficiently this year. I would like to present them at this time:

Section 1—Marie Kittle	Section 6—Roma Crain
Section 2—Joalice Poehler	Section 7—Mary Ella Morris
Section 3—Shirley Brewster	Section 8—Marjorie Hart
Section 4—Alleen Richter	Section 9—Iona Ross
Section 5—Dovie Davidson	Section 10—Evelyn Conger

We all strive toward perfection, but it takes practice, interest, and willingness on the part of all to succeed. To have valuable meetings, we must have officers' chairs filled, members and visitors on the side lines, then hearts full of earnest devotion, faith and enthusiasm. I found the membership of District Five at the Schools of Instruction interested and cooperative and from the report of our Deputies that the Chapters are working in peace and harmony, striving to attain the ideals of our beautiful Order.

We present the following report of our year's work together in District V:

Chapters Assigned	142	Mileage	$522.30
Chapters Inspected	142	Hotels and Meals	105.60
Schools Conducted	10	Postage	90.12
Schools Attended Officially.....	10	Telegrams and Telephones	32.60
Schools Attended Unofficially....	30	Other Expense	16.85

It was a pleasure to have Dr. James H. Goettee and his lovely wife, Edna, with us in many of our Schools. We are grateful for his faithfulness, his inspiration and for his splendid accomplishments as our Worthy Grand Patron.

Worthy Grand Matron, as you complete your wonderful year, your Deputies in District Five wish for you all the good things of life and hope that your memories of your visits and Schools in our District are and always will be, pleasant ones.

Fraternally submitted,

EDITH ORR
District Deputy Grand Matron

PROGRAM FOR DEPUTIES REPORTS

As the Districts were announced each District Deputy and her Deputies appeared in the East, wearing their Grand Chapter dresses and carrying hand arrangements of clusters of purple grapes. As each District finished the report the Grand Marshal led the group to their place in a formation making an outline of the State of Texas, with the District Deputy Grand Matron standing in the center of her District. At the close of the last report the program began.

MRS. EDITH ORR: Time is defined in the dictionary by many definitions, but the definition most appropriate here is the "period between two events or during which something happens or is measured." At 9:00 o'clock on Tuesday, November 3, in Vernon, Texas, the school bell rang and our Eastern Star Schools of Instruction began.

The organ chimed nine.

MRS. EDITH ORR: Texas, the land of hospitality, encompasses 171,096,960 sprawling acres which offer a variety of scenic wonders. The nearly 10 million people inhabiting the Lone Star State lay claim to many firsts, bests, mosts, and biggest; however, their greatest virtue lies in their genuine friendliness. This trait has become somewhat symbolic of the State and is known the world over.

The colorful and romantic history of Texas reflects the story of a group of pioneers who possessed courage, determination, and vision. Recorded indelibly on the annals of Texas history are the heroic and gallant deeds performed by Texans. There are numerous factors which make Texas a unique and great State. Its size, its wealth, its natural resources, its history and cultural environment all contribute; but its greatest asset is its people—they make Texas the land of hospitality.

And so through this great State, proud of its distinct heritage, our Worthy Grand Matron has traveled. From the beautiful wind-swept plains of West Texas our Worthy Grand Matron traveled through the tall majestic pine trees of East Texas—down through the heart of Texas where the purple hills in all their regal splendor are reflected in the sparkling azure waters of jewel lakes—on down to the land of soft sea breeze and white tipped waves. She continued her journey down into the rich, fertile Valley of the Rio Grande to see the rich harvest of delightful fruits.

Our Worthy Grand Matron traveled far
 On her journey of love.
 She traveled to the fifty Sections of our Eastern Star
 Like a gentle and beautiful dove.
 No matter where our Worthy Grand Matron roamed—
 No matter how different the scenery—
 No matter how changeable the weather—the warm hearts of Eastern Stars
 Greeted her with friendly smiles and open hands.

Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, our Grand Marshal will escort you to your places in the "Heart of Texas."

The Grand Marshal escorted the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron to the center of the map of Texas formed by the Deputies of the five Districts.

MRS. EDITH ORR: The words of the poem, "Noble Lives," will serve as a tribute from the Deputies to our Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron.

"NOBLE LIVES"

(Author unknown)

"There are hearts which never falter
 In the battle for the right;
 There are ranks which never alter
 Watching through the darkest night.
 And the agony of sharing
 In the fiercest of the strife
 Only gives a nobler daring,
 Only makes a grander life.
 "There are those who never weary
 Bearing suffering and wrong;
 Though the way is long and dreary
 It is vocal with their song,
 While their spirits in God's furnace,
 Bending to His gracious will,
 Are fashioned in a purer mold
 By His loving, matchless skill.
 "There are those whose loving mission
 'Tis to bind the bleeding heart;
 And to teach a calm submission
 When the pain and sorrow smart.
 They are angels, bearing to us
 Love's rich ministry of peace,
 While the night is nearing to us
 When life's bitter trials cease.

"There are those who battle slander,
 Envy, jealousy and hate;
 Who would rather die than pander
 To the passions of earth's great;
 No earthly power can ever crush them.
 They dread not the tyrant's frown;
 Fear or favor cannot hush them
 Nothing bind their spirits down.
 "These, these alone are truly great;
 These are the conquerors of fate;
 These truly live, they never die;
 But clothed with immortality
 Shall shed their greatness near and far,
 Reflecting Light from our Eastern Star."

The Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, escorted by the Grand Marshal, returned to the East.

MRS. EDITH ORR: "There is a time to be born and a time to die," says Solomon, but there is an interval between these two times of infinite importance, and there must be a time for planting, a time for growing, and a time for Harvest.

The Deputies were led into a clock formation by the Grand Marshal, with the hands of the clock at 9:00 o'clock.

MRS. EDITH ORR: The seeds of obedience, constancy, purity, hope and love have been planted by our Deputies this year at their Official Visits. With direction from our Worthy Grand Matron, the District Deputy Grand Matrons sought through instruction, understanding, and harmony to aid the membership in their growth. And then came the time for the Harvest. Through faithfulness and cooperation of the membership we hope that our planting time and time of growing will yield a rich and plentiful Harvest. It is with Faith in our hearts that we look forward to an even greater tomorrow! Colton has said: "Time is the most undefinable yet paradoxical of things; the past is gone, the future is not yet come, and the present becomes the past even while we attempt to define it, and like a flash of lightning, at once exists and expires."

The clock moved to 4:00 o'clock and the organ chimed four.

MRS. EDITH ORR: The sands of time have flowed silently, yet rapidly, through the hour glass of destiny and for us "Time is no more." The School bell has rung for the last time and the teachers have closed their books and written the last page.

And so the book of this year is ended;
 Its pages more precious than gold,
 Are full of our dreams and our plantings;
 May it yield a harvest untold!

SONG

"Now Is the Hour" was then sung by the Grand Choir:

"Now is the hour when we must say good-bye;
 Our work is done now; and all our plantings o'er.
 We leave with you our hopes, our love, our dreams.
 May God be with you 'til we meet once more."

While the organ continued playing the Deputies retired in two lines.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you for one of the most beautiful and meaningful reports that I have ever seen. Indeed you did take me back over memory's lane to the many wonderful accomplishments that were ours. I shall always remember the beautiful associations with you girls, and will treasure always your service to this Grand Chapter. All your schools were the very best.

Thank you so much, Sister Edith Orr, and the other District Deputies, for planning and presenting this report.

And for the assistance our very efficient and beautiful Grand Marshal has given us I am grateful. (Applause.)

And I would not forget this wonderful choir to my right. They are not large in number, but their voices are beautiful. (Applause.)

Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from ease to labor, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM EASE TO LABOR

Grand Chapter was called from ease to labor at 3:50 P. M.

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE BOARD OF GRAND TRUSTEES
 ORDER OF THE EASTERN STAR

The Board of Grand Trustees met in called meeting at 9:00 A. M. on January 23rd, 1965, in the Board Room at the Eastern Star Home.

Four members and invited guests were as follows:

Mr. Preston Miller Chairman
 Mr. Morris Lord Vice-Chairman
 Mrs. Loree Harrison Secretary
 Mrs. Lois Bell Member

Mrs. Edna Earle Duke, Associate Grand Matron; Mr. Marvin Simpson, Jr., Associate Grand Patron; Sister Rebecca Miles, Grand Secretary; Mrs. Jettie Hinton, Grand Treasurer; Mr. Herbert Arnold, Chairman, Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences.

Meeting was opened with prayer, led by Mr. Preston Miller, Chairman. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Mr. Miller brought to the attention of the Board the $100.00 that Mrs. Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron, had paid for her lighting equipment from her own funds that she had requested for her installation. Since this item was not allowed by the retiring Worthy Grand Matron from the $12,500.00 allowed for Grand Chapter expenses, motion to reimburse Mrs. Goebel was made by Mr. Morris Lord, and seconded by Mrs. Lois Bell. Motion carried.

The Board discussed and concurred that the Executive Chairman for the presiding Grand Matron and the Executive Chairman selected by the Associate Grand Matron, be asked to meet with the Board for the purpose of reaching an understanding that any expenses incurred over and above the $750.00 allowed the Associate Grand Matron for Installation, be paid from the $12,500.00 allowed by Grand Chapter for Grand Chapter expenses.

The Board agreed that they would ask Mr. John Tarter, Executive Chairman of the 1965 Grand Chapter Session, be asked to meet with the Board at their next meeting to look into the matter of insurance coverage. The type of insurance secured to cover any accident connected with Grand Chapter.

Motion was made to reimburse Mrs. Ernestine Ferguson, Registration Chairman for the 1964 Session, $1.19 for expenses that she paid from her own funds. Motion by Mr. Morris Lord, seconded by Mrs. Lois Bell. Motion carried.

Motion was made by Mrs. Lois Bell, seconded by Mr. Morris Lord, to purchase a brief case for the use of the Secretary of the Board. Motion carried.

Mrs. Rebecca Miles, Grand Secretary, brought up for discussion payment on Mrs. Emma Heed, inmate of the Home, the cancer policy that she had paid for a number of years. Motion by Mrs. Loree Harrison, seconded by Mrs. Lois Bell, to pay the $10.00 premium for this year. Motion carried.

Sister Edna Earle Duke discussed with the group the recent ruling by Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M., on money-making projects by all affiliated organizations. Mrs. Duke stated that the ruling had been deferred to the next Session of Grand Lodge.

After further discussion regarding finances of Grand Chapter, meeting closed at 12:30. Benediction by Mr. Preston Miller.

JOINT MEETING OF THE BOARD OF GRAND TRUSTEES
AND
BOARD OF GRAND CHAPTER BENEVOLENCES
APRIL 24TH, 1965

Meeting called to order at 9:00 A. M. by Mr. Preston Miller, Chairman of Grand Trustees. Those present:

Preston Miller, Chairman, Board of Grand Trustees
Morris Lord, Vice-Chairman, Board of Grand Trustees

Mrs. Loree Harrison, Secretary
 Mrs. Lois Bell, Member
 Billy Bible Member
 Mrs. Rebecca Miles, Grand Secretary
 Mr. Herbert Arnold, Chairman, Board of Grand Chapter
 Benevolences
 Mrs. Lillie Mae Hurst, Secretary
 Mrs. Sudie Beth Hancock, Treasurer
 Dave Ramey, Member
 Mrs. Jettie Hinton, Grand Treasurer
 James Stames, Member

Mr. Preston Geren, Architect for Building Program, also present.

Meeting opened with prayer, led by Mr. Preston Miller. Mr. Preston Miller presiding, asked Mr. Herbert Arnold to bring up for discussion the matter of plumbing repairs and air conditioning work in the old building. After discussion, Mrs. Rebecca Miles, Grand Secretary, advised that we had $67,000.00 that could be used toward this much needed work.

Mr. Morris Lord made motion that this $67,000.00 be allowed to proceed with the work as far as it would go. Seconded by Billy Bible. Motion carried.

Mr. Arnold asked Mr. Geren what information he could give us regarding the proposed work. Mr. Geren stated that it would, of course, be much cheaper if the plumbing and air conditioning could all be covered under one job. But that there should not be too much overlapping, as pipes to carry the water for the air conditioning could be installed at the time the plumbing repairs and replacements of plumbing are made.

Sister Rebecca Miles advised the Boards that there was some $28,000.00 left in the General Grand Chapter Fund, and that she and Sister Jettie Hinton had placed this money in savings accounts. Grand Chapter to decide which fund this money should be placed in.

Mr. Herbert Arnold called attention to the need of additional filing cabinets needed in the Grand Secretary's office. Motion by Mrs. Loree Harrison to allow purchase of these cabinets from the fund allowed as furnishings to the Grand Secretary. Seconded by Mrs. Lois Bell. Motion carried.

Joint Meeting Adjourned

After a tour of the new office space and the Grand Secretary's office and living quarters, Board of Grand Trustees convened in meeting in Worthy Grand Matron's Office at 10:30 A. M.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved. Mr. Preston Miller asked that Morris Lord and Loree Harrison investigate the matter of insurance coverage of the Grand Chapter Session to be held in Will Rogers Coliseum, against all types of accidents during the Grand Chapter Session. At least estimates of two companies to be considered at the next meeting of the Board.

The Group discussed getting out a letter to Mr. John Tartar, Executive Chairman of the 1965 Grand Chapter Session, and to the Executive Chairman to be appointed by the Associate Grand Matron, Sister Edna Earle Duke. Invitations to the Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Amy Goebel, and to the Associate Grand Matron, Sister Edna Earle Duke, to attend this meeting also. Motion to write such letters of invitation made by Billy Bible, seconded by Mrs. Lois Bell. Motion carried.

Mr. Lord reported that there is a balance of $1,912.10 in the Fannie V. Ward Educational Fund. Motion by Mr. Lord to allow (2) two $500.00 scholarships. Seconded by Mrs. Lois Bell. Motion carried.

One scholarship to be given to Cecil Perdue, upon the recommendation of Mr. Herbert Arnold. Mrs. Lois Bell made motion that check for scholarship be sent direct to the recipient, seconded by Mrs. Loree Harrison. Carbon copies of letter addressed to the recipient to go to Mrs. Gladys Lawson, Chairman of Educational Fund. Mrs. Rebecca Miles, Grand Secretary, and Mr. Preston Miller, Chairman of Board of Grand Trustees. Motion carried.

Mr. Perdue to be advised that he is a recipient of the scholarship in order that he might know that this money is available to him at any time to assist in his enrollment in college.

Meeting adjourned at 12:00 P. M. Closed in prayer, led by Mr. Preston Miller.

JOINT MEETING OF THE BOARD OF GRAND TRUSTEES
AND
BOARD OF GRAND CHAPTER BENEVOLENCES

Arlington, Texas, August 28th, 1965

Meeting called to order at 9:00 A. M. by Mr. Preston Miller, opened with prayer led by Mr. Preston Miller, Chairman of Board of Grand Trustees. The following were present:

Board of Grand Trustee Members

Mr. Preston Miller, Chairman
Mr. Morris Lord, Vice-Chairman
Mrs. Loree Harrison, Secretary
Mr. Billy Bible, Member
Mrs. Lois Bell, Member

Benevolent Board Members

Mr. Herbert Arnold, Chairman
Mrs. Lillie Mae Hurst, Secretary
Mrs. Sudie Beth Hancock
Mr. Dave Raney, Member
Mr. James Starnes

Mrs. Rebecca Miles, Grand Secretary; Mrs. Jettie Hinton, Grand Treasurer; Mrs. Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron; Mr. Jas. Goettee, Worthy Grand Patron; Mrs. Edna Earle Duke, Associate Grand Matron; Marvin Simpson, Jr., Associate Grand Patron; Mr. Preston Geren, Architect.

Mr. Geren presented plans for the renovation of all plumbing and air conditioning of the old building. After much discussion of the cost, etc., the Boards adjourned to separate meetings.

The Board of Grand Trustees met in the office of the Worthy Grand Matron. After discussion of the cost of the renovation program, it was agreed that Mrs. Miles would secure the cost of placing all complete plumbing and air conditioning in the center building, from Mr. Geren. Since we do not have the finances to renovate the entire building, when the cost is received by Mrs. Miles, keeping in mind that the figure will not be over $180,000.00, to do the main building, we will vote by round robin letter.

Mr. Paul Smith, of the Smith Insurance Agency, of Lewisville, Texas, met with the group to present a plan of complete coverage for our membership at Grand Chapter. Mr. Smith stated that his plan of 60c per person would give complete coverage from the time they left their homes, during Grand Chapter in the Coliseum, on the parking lot, and on the streets of Fort Worth, and on the return home. Since the cost would be prohibitive for Grand Chapter, and after much discussion, the group agreed to have Mr. Smith work up a proposal, send to the Grand Secretary. She in turn would refer the plan to Mr. Chauncey Penix, our Legal Advisor. If Mr. Penix finds the plan to be a good one, Mrs. Miles is to send this information to each Chapter. Grand Chapter is not to be liable in any way. Each member is to purchase his own protection. Motion by Mr. Morris Lord to refer to Mr. Penix, seconded by Mrs. Lois Bell. Motion carried.

Mr. Lord reported that he has $1,169.51, remaining in the Fannie V. Ward Scholarship Fund. The second scholarship which was voted at our meeting on April 24th, 1965, to be awarded to Mrs. Dorothy Atkins, of Lewisville, Texas, to help her complete her schooling and to receive her degree. Motion to award this scholarship by Mrs. Loree Harrison, seconded by Mrs. Lois Bell. Motion carried.

Meeting reconvened after lunch at 1:30 P. M.

It was agreed that the Board of Grand Trustees would re-hire Mr. Chauncey Penix to handle all legal matters pertaining to Grand Chapter for the year 1965-66. Motion to retain by Mr. Morris Lord, seconded by Mr. Billy Bible, motion carried.

Motion made by Mr. Billy Bible, seconded by Morris Lord, to have the Secretary write the Executive Chairman of last Grand Chapter Session, Mrs. Mildred Basinger to furnish the Board of Grand Chapter an itemized statement of the expenditure of the $12,500, allowed for Grand Chapter expenses. Motion carried. (The 1964 Grand Chapter Session.)

Preston Miller stated that he had received a diamond ring that was left by one of the members of the Home. Motion made by Mrs. Lois Bell to sell the ring to the highest bidder, seconded by Billy Bible. Motion carried.

Motion to adjourn at 3:30 P. M. Meeting closed with prayer, led by Mr. Preston Miller.

Called Meeting of the Board of Grand Trustees Meeting Jointly with the Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences, October 2nd, 1965.

Meeting called at 9:00 A. M.

In Attendance:

Herbert Arnold, Chairman, Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences
Lillie Mae Hurst, Co-Chairman, Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences.
Sudie Beth Hancock, Secretary, Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences
Dave Raney, Member, Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences
James Starnes, Member, Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences
Preston Miller, Chairman, Board of Grand Trustees
Morris Lord, Co-Chairman, Board of Grand Trustees
Loree Harrison, Secretary, Board of Grand Trustees
Billy Bible, Member, Board of Grand Trustees
Lois Bell, Member, Board of Grand Trustees
Mrs. Rebecca Miles, Grand Secretary, Jettie Hinton, Grand Treasurer.

Purpose of joint meeting to discuss the renovation of main part of old building, installing new light fixtures, new plumbing and installation of central heating and air-conditioning. Cost to be approximately $180,000.00. Sister Rebecca Miles, Grand Secretary, stated that we would have this much to spend for this purpose during the year 1965-1966. Motion by Mr. Preston Miller, seconded by Morris Lord, to allow this expenditure as the money was available. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned for separate meetings of each board.

After adjournment to the Worthy Grand Matron's office, Board of Grand Trustees called to order by Mr. Preston Miller. The bill for $294.34, from Mrs. Chauncey Penix, for legal services for the year for Grand Chapter presented. Motion to pay this bill by Morris Lord, seconded by Lois Bell. Motion carried.

Mr. Preston Miller had received the Budget for the year 1965-66, received from Mrs. Edna Earl Duke. After carefully reviewing and discussing this budget by consensus the Board agreed to present same at Grand Chapter for their passing or rejection.

Budget for the year for the Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences, received from Mrs. Lillie Mae Hurst, the incoming Chairman. This budget also was carefully studied and the decision to have further discussion with Mrs. Hurst at Grand Chapter, then present same to Grand Chapter for action.

Meeting adjourned for lunch at 12:00 P. M. Reconvened at 1:30 P. M.

Mr. Miller brought up again the matter of the small diamond ring that was left by one of the members of the Home at her death. The entire group agreed that the price of $50.00 that had been bid was acceptable. Mr. Miller to sell the ring for that price.

Meeting adjourned at 2:30 P. M. Closed in prayer by Mr. Preston Miller.

MR. MORRIS LORD: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that we adopt Report No. 3 of the Board of Grand Trustees as presented just now by Brother Lord.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and Report No. 3 of the Board of Grand Trustees was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I now recognize Sister Lois Bell, member of the Board of Grand Trustees.

MRS. LOIS BELL: Worthy Grand Matron, this is Report No. 4.

REPORT OF GRAND TRUSTEES
REPORT No. 4

MRS. LOIS BELL: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Grand Officers and Members:

The Board of Grand Trustees met in session at 9:00 A. M. with all members present. Meeting opened with prayer led by Loree Harrison.

Brother Preston Miller reported that an Oldsmobile (Jester) had been purchased for the use of the Worthy Grand Matron. The 1965 Buick was traded for the Oldsmobile with a difference of approximately $1,150.00, purchased from the Coleman Motor Company of Port Arthur. This cost includes the title, tax and license.

The Board had previously voted unanimously to retain Chauncey Penix for all legal matters pertaining to Grand Chapter.

Motion was made by Billy Bible and seconded by Morris Lord that the Grand Secretary be authorized to re-invest the U. S. Treasury Bonds Series "K" for $25,000.00 that mature January 1, 1966, same drawing the rate of interest of 2.76, at the highest rate of interest possible.

Mr. A. C. Upleger met with the Board of Grand Trustees regarding the Audit on our finances and an Audit Report was furnished each member of the Board.

The Board adjourned for lunch and reconvened at 2:00 P. M. The afternoon session was spent in discussion of handling of general matters pertinent to the Board.

Respectfully submitted,

LOREE HARRISON, Secretary

MRS. LOIS BELL: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Do I hear a second?

It has been moved and seconded that we adopt Report No. 4 of the Board of Grand Trustees.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and Report No. 4 of the Board of Grand Trustees was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I would like to say to the members of the Board of Grand Trustees what a joy it has been to work with them this year. The welfare of our Home has certainly been uppermost in their minds, and one only has to attend a Board Meeting to be convinced of that.

I congratulate each one of them on a wonderful job well done this last year.

It is my pleasure to present to you now Mr. Earl Chitwood, Chairman of the Committee on Chapters Under Dispensation.

REPORT OF CHAPTERS UNDER DISPENSATION COMMITTEE

MR. EARL CHITWOOD: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers and Members of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

The Committee on Chapters Under Dispensation makes the following report:

We have thoroughly examined the minutes and records of:

Bogata Chapter U. D., Bogata, Texas,
University Chapter U. D., Lubbock, Texas,
Lone Star Chapter U. D., Lone Star, Texas,
Hitchcock Chapter U. D., Hitchcock, Texas,
and Almeda Chapter U. D., Houston, Texas.

Officers of each Chapter met in conference with the U. D. Committee.

We therefore submit the following recommendations:

That Bogata Chapter, U. D., Bogata, Texas,
University Chapter U. D., Lubbock, Texas,
Lone Star Chapter U. D., Lone Star, Texas,
Hitchcock Chapter U. D., Hitchcock, Texas,
and Almeda Chapter U. D., Houston, Texas,

be granted Charters at this Grand Chapter Session.

We wish to express an appreciation to the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel, for the privilege of serving Grand Chapter on this Committee, to the Worthy Grand Patron, Dr. James Goettee, and the Grand Secretary, Mrs. Rebecca Miles, for their assistance.

Respectfully submitted,

EARL R. CHITWOOD, Chairman
MRS. DOROTHY EAKIN
MRS. MARGIE GREENWOOD

MR. EARL CHITWOOD: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: You have heard the report of the U. D. Committee, recommending that the Chapters named be granted Charters, and the motion is for approval.

Do I hear a second?

It has been moved and seconded that the report be adopted.

The question was taken and the report was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Thank you, Brother Chitwood.

GRAND SECRETARY: Worthy Grand Patron, will you please ask the representatives of the U. D. Chapters to meet me at the Credentials desk?

"The Autumn Roundup Banquet," held in the Roundup Inn on Wednesday Evening, honoring the Worthy Grand Matron and the Worthy Grand Patron.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Representatives of the U. D. Chapters meet Mrs. Miles at the Credentials desk.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter Session from labor to rest until 7:45 P. M., and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM LABOR TO REST

The Bible was closed, and Grand Chapter was called from labor to rest at 4:15 P. M.

BENEDICTION

The Benediction was in song by the Grand Choir.

Wednesday Evening, October 27, 1965

8:00 P. M.

The Wednesday Evening Session was called to order by Mrs. Lallah Mae Vollus, Past Grand Matron, and Mr. William G. Vollus, Past Grand Patron.

Preceding the call to order musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Helen Dobbins and Mrs. Irene Barclay.

CALL TO ORDER

MRS. LALLAH MAE VOLLUS: Good evening, Sisters and Brothers:

"Now the day is over, night is drawing nigh;
Shadows of the evening steal across the sky."

We have been brought to the Wednesday evening Session of the "Autumn Enchantment" Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas. It is a great pleasure to welcome you.

This year as we have watched our leaders walk across the Bridge of Love and Understanding we have been reminded of the Bridge that the Master gave us to span the Highway of Time: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy soul, with all thy strength and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself." Herein lies Love and Understanding.

In this city more than eighty years ago a small band of people lifted their eyes to behold the Star to which they pledged their love, their faith and their hope. Thus was born our Grand Chapter. Through the following years thousands of us have joined that band and walk the fraternal way together, looking to that Star. It has brought us unto this hour. May it continue to illumine our way that our beloved Order may fulfill its destiny in a world that hungers for Love and Understanding.

I am please to be sharing the East tonight with Brother William G. Vollus. I present him to you now.

MR. WM. G. VOLLUS: Thank you, Past Grand Matron.

I stand before you humble and deeply appreciative, for the Eastern Star has been a great part of my life. It was thirty-one years ago, or thirty-four years ago, I should say, that I presided over this Grand Chapter and had station in the East. Seated on my left at that time was a very gracious and beautiful girl who was my Page. Time has moved on, and that Page is now a Past Grand Matron of this Grand Chapter. It was a few weeks ago that we celebrated our thirtieth anniversary.

Tonight she is seated on my right, and I have had to move down. She is also the Chairman of the Board in my home. For all these things I am very, very grateful.

I appreciate the friendships I have enjoyed with the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron for these many years, and I am proud of the fine leadership that they have given to us. Through their kindness, I stand before you humble and very grateful.

Thank you very much. (Applause.)

MRS. LALLAH MAE VOLLUS: Grand Marshal, you will invite the Worthy Grand Matron, the Worthy Grand Patron and Grand Officers to enter the Grand Chapter room.

The Grand Officers entered in their regular drill.

MRS. LALLAH MAE VOLLUS: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron to the East.

The Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron were escorted to the East, introduced and given Grand Honors.

MRS. LALLAH MAE VOLLUS: The Grand Officers will assume their respective stations.

Grand Marshal, you will escort the Worthy Grand Matron to the West and prepare for the entrance of the Moslah Temple Shrine Band.

CONCERT

The Worthy Grand Matron, escorted by Mr. Bill Gamblin, then led the Moslah Temple Shrine Band into the Grand Chapter room.

MRS. LALLAH MAE VOLLUS: Sisters and Brothers, I need not tell you who have been listening to the strains of our Worthy Grand Matron's lovely march, the "Inspiration of Love" March, that she is being presented to the officers of the Moslah Temple Shrine Band.

She has been escorted by Noble Bill Gamblin, our Brother Gamblin.

How pleased I am to present to you, Sisters and Brothers, Mr. Kenneth Vaughan, Director of the Band.

Mr. Vaughan, will you turn around and take a bow and receive the applause of this audience. (Applause.)

Now, Mr. Vaughan, will you announce your program?

MR. KENNETH VAUGHAN: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, Sisters and Brothers of the Order of the Eastern Star:

Moslah Temple Shrine Band takes great pleasure in being with you tonight, and we have considered it a special privilege to play our own arrangement of the Worthy Grand Matron's "Inspiration of Love" March.

Additional numbers played by the Band were "Thundercrest," "Cathedral Canyon," "Three Jacks," "Sound of Music," "Jada," "Arkansasba," "Zaragoza," "Shapaoadic Essay," and "Pink Panther."

The Band Members were striking in their gala uniforms and their renditions were heartily applauded.

MRS. LALLAH MAE VOLLUS: Thank you, Mr. Vaughan.

Our Worthy Grand Matron I am sure would like to express to you her word of thanks.

Mrs. Goebel.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Noble Vaughan, on behalf of the Grand Chapter of Texas I wish to express to you our sincere appreciation for the beautiful concert you have presented here this evening. I want you to know that the special arrangement of the "Inspiration of Love" March was the most beautiful arrangement I have ever heard.

I am sorry that the composer was not present to hear you play it as you did this evening.

Thank you so much.

We deeply appreciate this courtesy on the part of Noble Bill Gamblin.

Thank you, Bill, for making arrangements for the Band to appear this evening. We appreciate all the courtesies you personally have extended to us while we have been in your city. You have made everything just right for us. We have enjoyed the concert this evening.

Thank you so much.

Grand Marshal, you will conduct the Band from the Grand Chapter room whenever they are through with the concert.

Sisters and Brothers, would you like to stand up for a seventh inning stretch while the boys are retiring? (Applause.)

Will all who are not members please retire?

Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to engage in the ceremony of calling this Grand Chapter from rest to labor, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM REST TO LABOR

Grand Chapter was called from rest to labor at 9:35 P. M.

MRS. LALLAH MAE VOLLUS: Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron: One of the most precious gifts of God is the gift of life. To maintain this life, the Creator endowed man with a heart. The sustaining of life is just one of the functions of the human heart. From it too comes love, love of God and understanding of our fellow man. These virtues you have reflected in every phase of your year of service.

Both of you are very dear to my heart, friends of over twenty-five years. Tonight my heart pours forth upon you pride in bountiful measure. You have been leaders of humility and great devotion. Your lives, I am sure, will be blest in all the years that lie ahead through the enrichment of this wonderful year. The history of the Grand Chapter of Texas will be brighter by the golden records you have written, and richer by the bountiful harvest that you bring.

Thank you for the privilege of standing with you and with Bill in opening this, your last evening session, of your "Autumn Enchantment" Session. I shall treasure this compliment and the innumerable courtesies that you have extended to me throughout all my years.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Lallah Mae Vollus and Brother William G. Vollus, Texas' beloved Past Grand Matron and Past Grand Patron, I deeply appreciate your calling to order this Wednesday evening of the Eighty-third Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas, "The Autumn Enchantment" Session. This has truly been an inspiring moment for me, and will always be a cherished privilege to have had you both here in the East with me.

To some who may not know it, I was Worthy Matron of my Chapter, McLennan Chapter in Waco, when this gracious and beautiful lady was Worthy Grand Matron.

I have admired, respected and loved you both for your wisdom, your ability and for your deep sense of humility as you have served in our Grand Chapter.

The true values of life are found in every-day living, the seeds of which are found in friendship, and whose fruits are love, kindness, compassion and consideration of others. Thus out of the world comes true friendships, that brighten the day at its close. Out of time come gently our days, our weeks, our years. Out of the boundless universe comes divine love without end. All of these treasures are blended in the faithful hearts of friends like you.

Worthy Grand Patron I am sure that you would like to speak at this time.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Worthy Grand Matron, thank you for this privilege.

It is with a great deal of humility and a feeling of pride that I have witnessed this evening two of the dearest friends I have presiding in the Grand East.

Worthy Grand Matron, I appreciate the fact that you asked these two very fine and distinguished Eastern Stars and highly respected citizens of our City of Houston to do the honor tonight.

Lallah Mae and Bill, you know both of you have meant a great deal to me across the years. Both of you have been instrumental in giving me encouragement along the way. This has meant a great deal to me, both in this Order of the Eastern Star and in Masonry. Both of you are wonderful people.

May God bless you and keep and make your years be such that you will enjoy happy reflections upon the many nice things you have done for many, many fine people.

Thank you. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is my happy privilege now, and I do so with much pride, to present to you the Chairman of our Welfare

The Welfare Report—Worthy Matrons and Jr. Past Matrons of Texas, 1964-1965

Committee, Mrs. Mary B. Moore, who will present her Welfare Report, "The Fruits of Our Labor of Love."

Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from labor to ease within closed doors, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER WAS CALLED FROM LABOR TO EASE WITHIN CLOSED DOORS

Grand Chapter was called from labor to ease within closed doors at 9:40 P. M.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I now present Sister Mary B. Brown for the Welfare Report.

Sister Mary B. Brown.

REPORT OF WELFARE COMMITTEE

FRUITS OF OUR LABOR OF LOVE

A small replica of the Home was placed in the East on one side of the podium with a small figure standing by the door and next to the Home was a pair of scales. They were in balance, symbolizing that the Harvest had been gathered and the scales were in balance.

MRS. MARY B. MOORE: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished East, Sisters, Brothers and Friends:

We, your Welfare Committee for 1964-1965, are privileged and very proud to present to you our report, also, happy to present the Worthy Matrons and Junior Past Matrons of the 100 per cent Chapters of Texas, who have helped to Balance with Love and a rich Harvest for our Eastern Star Home Fund, as well as other Welfare Projects for the year.

Worthy Grand Matron, we are grateful for this golden opportunity you have granted us by placing our names on the Welfare Committee, a service we have reaped much pleasure from. Now comes the Harvest Time and the gathering of the Fruits of Our Labor of Love. With our Golden Keys of Service, we have helped to open the hearts and minds of our beloved members so that they have become more aware of the tremendous needs in the supporting of our Eastern Star Home, and that we are all privileged to be stockholders in such a worth-while program.

We have walked by Faith that the Membership of Texas would supply our needs. Our Worthy Grand Matron set our goal high because the needs were great. Your Welfare Committee has worked hard to reach this goal, and we have the Faith that before the close of this Eighty-third Session of Grand Chapter that we will go over that goal.

No one can achieve success alone, and were it not for the members of the subordinate Chapters this report would not be possible. We wish to express our sincere appreciation to each who had a part in helping to guide the destiny of our Welfare Program. May we add a gracious "thank you" in behalf of each who will benefit from your liberal contributions.

Our special thanks to our Grand Secretary, Sister Rebecca Miles, for her advice, her patience and always understanding our every need. We are grateful to you, Sister Rebecca.

The service worth-while is the service we give
 So that others in sunshine and happiness live.
 For we must share if we would keep that blessing from above
 Ceasing to give, we cease to have,
 Such is the law of Love.

At this Harvest Time, we wish to report that our Scales are Balanced with $80,006.30 in our Eastern Star Home Fund, which includes $10,210.70 from Founder's Day; $775.00 from the Welfare Committee Special Projects; $656.00 from the sale of the Worthy Grand Matron's March, "The Inspiration of Love." We have $11,479.35 for ESTARL Scholarships, and $805.50 for other Welfare Projects. A total of $93,292.15 for the Welfare Program.

It is with much pride that I report 340 one hundred per cent Chapters who have reached the goal of one dollar a member. The 100 per cent Welfare Certificate Awards have been mailed to each of these Chapters accompanied by a letter of congratulations and expressing our thanks. I have the pleasure to report that each member of the Welfare Committee has their Chapter listed among these Chapters.

It is my happy privilege to present the members of the Welfare Committee with whom I have enjoyed a close association for the past year, a year I shall not soon forget. These members will recognize the 100 per cent Chapters in each of their Districts.

Mrs. Ann Strobl, District 1
 Mrs. Allene Young, District 2, not present, with Mrs. Louise York serving as Pro tem.
 Mrs. Floy Parish, District 3
 Mrs. Nellie Sowell, District 4
 Mrs. Saphrona Krause, District 5.

Our Stars in Texas shine forth to all
 As this year's report we wish to recall.
 Our Stars shine with their lights sincere and true
 And with Love comes to Balance our Scales just for you.

Sister Grand Marshal, will you present the representatives of the 100 per cent Chapters who have given of the Fruits of their Labor of Love?

100 PER CENT CHAPTERS

As the names of the 100 per cent Chapters were called the Worthy Matrons and Junior Past Matrons of those Chapters were presented in the formation of a star.

MRS. MARY B. MOORE: Since the Stars have shown you their expression of Love, we would like to express our thanks to the one who made it all possible. I present Mr. R. L. Fisher who will bring our thoughts in a message of song.

SONG

Mr. R. L. Fisher, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Dobbins, then sang "I Asked the Lord."

MRS. MARY B. MOORE: Thank you, Mr. Fisher and Mrs. Dobbins, for the beautiful music. And thank you, Worthy Grand Matron, for the joy that has been ours in this place of service. Each member of this Committee joins me in voicing appreciation for life's sweetest blessings, the opportunity to serve our Grand Chapter in a work so noble and fine. We are happy to have our names recorded as your Welfare Committee and along with our gratitude is a sincere prayer that you will never regret that our names were written there.

This concludes the Welfare Program.

Respectfully submitted,

1964-1965 Welfare Committee
 MARY B. MOORE, Chairman

The Representatives of the 100 per cent Chapters were loudly applauded as they retired from the Grand Chapter floor.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Mary B. Moore and members of this Committee, I want to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to each of you for the wonderful job you have done this year in our Welfare Program. (Applause.)

I feel that the members of this Grand Chapter, as well as the State of Texas, would like to join with me in saying a special thank you to Sister Mary B. Moore and her committee for this $93,589.71 for our Welfare this year. (Applause.)

Sister Daisy James, will you come to the East.

Sisters and Brothers, I proudly present to you Sister Daisy James, Chairman of the International Temple Committee.

REPORT OF INTERNATIONAL TEMPLE COMMITTEE

LOVE IS THE THEME

MRS. DAISY JAMES: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Past Grand Matrons, Past Grand Patrons, Distinguished Guests, my Sisters and Brothers:

Thank you, Worthy Grand Matron, for allowing me this honor of serving as Chairman of the International Temple Committee this year. My contact with the subordinate Chapters has been most pleasant and rewarding. We have chosen as the title of this program tonight "Love Is the Theme." For we know that

Where there is love the heart is light,
 Where there is love the day is bright,
 Where there is love, there is a song
 To help when things go wrong.
 Oh, blest are they who walk in love,
 They also walk with God above,
 And when man walks with God again,
 There shall be peace on earth for men.

Grand Marshal, you will present the Worthy Matrons of the 100 per cent Chapters in their "Love is the Theme" International Temple Drill.

International Temple Report

DRILL

The Worthy Matrons of the 100 per cent Chapters were presented in their "Love is the Theme" International Temple Drill. As the name and number of each Chapter was read the Worthy Matron entered and the spotlight was thrown upon her. When the formation was complete it spelled out the word "Love."

MRS. DAISY JAMES: Before I begin my report I would like to introduce the four girls, Worthy Grand Matron, that served with me on this committee. You could not have looked this huge State of Texas over and among all the wonderful people that we have have chosen four that could have been more loyal than these four.

District No. 2, Sister Robbie Yates.

District No. 3, Sister Monteen Johnston, but due to the death of her mother-in-law, could not be here, and Sister Mildred Barnes of Sister Monteen's District is standing in for her.

District No. 4, Sister Evelyn Perrigan.

District No. 5, Sister Alene Wilkinson.

And from my own District No. 1, I serve in that capacity.

Thank you, Robbie, Monteen, Evelyn and Alene, for the good, good work that you have done. Indeed you are true Eastern Stars.

May I say to the subordinate Chapters in answer to the many questions that came to me this year, once you become 100 per cent you always maintain that. As you add new members it is desired that you add one dollar to the fund for that member. This is not a year by year project. And it is for the maintenance of our Temple located in Washington, D. C. This Temple is not for our State alone but represents the Eastern Stars of the world. When a Chapter gives $18.00 to the fund in what we call the Bond Plan, that Chapter receives credit for $25.00 or twenty-five members.

Sisters and Brothers, remember this as I have learned this year that a Chapter could have gained more credit to their Chapter status if they had known this.

I now submit to you a partial report.

INTERNATIONAL TEMPLE COMMITTEE

PARTIAL REPORT

Sept. 1, 1965

Total Bond dollars received from Chapters	1,751.50
Chapters showing International Temple slides	12
No. of letters written by the Chairman of International Temple.....	393

As I mentioned in my report there were ten Chapters that reached their goal of 100 per cent.

Grand Marshal, you will escort Sister Amy, Worthy Grand Matron, and Sister Pearl Keeton, Grand Secretary of the State of Arkansas and member of International Temple Committee of General Grand Chapter, to the Grand Chapter floor in front of the East to present the 100 Per Cent Certificates to the Worthy Matrons of these deserving Chapters.

100 PER CENT CERTIFICATES

The Worthy Grand Matron and Mrs. Pearl Keeton, Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter of Arkansas and member of the International Temple Committee of General Grand Chapter, were escorted to the Grand Chapter floor in the East, and as the names of the ten new 100 per cent Chapters were called the Worthy Matrons of those Chapters stepped forward and received their 100 Per Cent Certificates from the Worthy Grand Matron and Mrs. Keeton.

The following Chapters were 100 per cent:

Army Chapter No. 664, Juanita Watkins, Worthy Matron
 Carpenters Chapter No. 183, Virginia Wainwright, Worthy Matron
 Everman Chapter No. 624, Marian Hammond, Worthy Matron
 La Feria Chapter No. 732, Hazel Marshall, Worthy Matron
 Nederland Chapter No. 1079, Roxey Thornell, Worthy Matron
 Port Acres Chapter No. 1073, Mrs. Faye Smith, Worthy Matron
 Rock Springs Chapter No. 51, Gladys Tobin, Worthy Matron
 San Benito Chapter No. 565, Olive Ridgway, Worthy Matron
 Winnie-Stowell Chapter No. 1076, Ann Potter, Worthy Matron
 Yorktown Chapter No. 945, Miss Lena Brownreig, Worthy Matron.

MRS. DAISY JAMES: Thank you, Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons of these Chapters and also the members for a job well done. Let's give these Chapters a great big hand for this. We are proud of them and I know they will be too. Just a suggestion here, girls, to you with these certificates that if you could place them in a place so that all would know that you are 100 per cent and then in later years the little Worthy Matrons would know that you are. Many letters have come to me asking me if their Chapters were 100 per cent.

SOLO

Mrs. Mildred Glenn, Worthy Matron of Mt. Auburn Chapter, Dallas, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Dobbins, sang "Love is the Theme."

MRS. DAISY JAMES: Thank you, Sister Mildred, for that beautiful song. It is truly one of my favorites.

Grand Marshal, you will escort Sister Amy and Sister Pearl to their respective places.

Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, this completes the report of the International Temple Program. We on this committee want to thank you for allowing us to be a part of your Grand family this year. It was nice and it was enjoyable to work with you and more than anything a Love has been consummated among us that will always exist. You are our friends. Worthy Grand Patron, may I say I truly enjoyed serving as your Grand Chaplain Pro tem. at the Instituting of one of your Chapters.

Sister Pearl Keeton, my, how nice it has been to get to know you! The association that I have had with you has been so pleasant, and to learn what kind, considerate, lovable person you are has made me so happy.

May I say this, I still believe we are kinfolks for I was a Keeton, too. I have enjoyed you all the way and, gee, how proud I am that you chose this year to make your first trip to the Texas Grand Chapter.

This last thought I would like to leave with you, Worthy Grand Matron:

I have come to the end of the road,
 I like to look back and see,
 That I have done my very best
 With the trust you placed in me.
 I like to know that I never have,
 By action, word or deed,
 Betrayed a given confidence or
 Forsaken a friend in need.
 I should like to have the consolation
 When I've traveled the very last mile
 To know I've meant something to someone
 And caused those in sorrow to smile.
 I know that I shall be happy,
 If in the heart of just one,
 I can leave one lingering memory
 Of just some little something good I have done.

Grand Marshal, you will retire the drill. (Applause.)

The Grand Marshal then led the drill from the Grand Chapter room.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Daisy, for this wonderful report.

Sister Ruby.

REPORT OF FOUNDER'S DAY COMMITTEE

MRS. RUBY CASH: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

It is with pleasure that I present the report of the Founder's Day Committee for 1964.

However, before I present my report I would like to introduce my co-workers here with me, and also to recognize those who could not be with us tonight.

Mrs. Mildred Barnes	Mrs. Mary McReynolds
Mrs. Evelyn Beck	Mrs. Elizabeth Morris
Mrs. Vivian Burdick	Mrs. Elizabeth Osburn
Mrs. Mildred Cates	Mrs. Ruth Palmer
Miss Milla Crotty	Mrs. Ina Pope
Mrs. Katie Crumbie	Mrs. Ama Powers
Mrs. Emma Davis	Mrs. Johnnie Lee Richards
Mrs. Marie Dowis	Mrs. Era Sasser
Mrs. Mildred Fuller	Mrs. Anita Slusher
Mrs. Willie Hammer	Mrs. Alice Smith
Miss Stella Kirby	Mrs. Mildred Smith
Mrs. Margaret Landrum	Mrs. Rowena Walker
Mrs. Loyce Loper	Mrs. Mildred Williams
Mrs. Willie Mae Martin	Mrs. Ruth Williams
Mrs. Ruby McClure

Worthy Grand Matron, I would like to thank you for this fine cooperative committee which you appointed to serve with me. If I had selected each one myself I could not have been more pleased than I have with this fine group. On behalf of each one, and myself, I want to thank you for the distinct pleasure you have given each of us in making it possible to be of service to you, in this, your own committee and to the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

It has been most gratifying to have been a part in making life more pleasant in so many ways for the lovely ladies, our very own Eastern Star Sisters, who are residents of our Home in Arlington.

It is in doing for others that we receive our greatest blessings and there is no part of our Eastern Star work that is entwined more closely around the hearts of our members than that relative to our Eastern Star Home.

This has been proven by the tremendous response we have had from 462 100 per cent Chapters and special contributions from many Chapters in this Grand Jurisdiction.

Worthy Grand Matron, each 100 per cent Chapter is represented here on our poster and the membership in Texas has balanced the scale of love and understanding by filling each cup with purple grapes, our theme for this year.

To the members of all Chapters we sincerely appreciate your cooperation and support of our program, and are deeply grateful to you for making it possible to reach our goal.

It has been a genuine pleasure to have met and corresponded with some of the finest people in the world, and I have formed friendships that I shall cherish the rest of my life.

The duties this committee has performed this year and the joys we received from this service were worth much more than our time alone.

The heart of each member of this committee is warmed with appreciation and affection for our illustrious founder and builder, Dr. Rob Morris, and we are especially grateful to him for our beautiful Order, thereby making our service to the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star, possible by service on this committee which by its very own name is a memorial to him.

Founder's Day was observed this year with a silver tea August 29, in the Eastern Star Home. I do not have the exact count on our guests attending this affair, but I can safely say it was at least a thousand. I am happy to report there was no expense deducted from the offerings that day, as all refreshments and decorations were donated by loyal members of the Dallas and Fort Worth Chapters plus many others throughout the State. We are grateful to Sister Nina Headrick, Superintendent of the Home, for her very cordial hospitality and cooperation, not only on this day but for many weeks as our preparations were being made.

We wish also to thank the Pink Ladies and Pink Ties for the fine assistance they gave in making the afternoon a very enjoyable one for our guests.

Worthy Grand Matron, time does not allow me to go on and on in expressing the many wonderful hours we have spent serving on this committee. Therefore it is with pleasure and my very happy privilege to give the financial report of our year.

Each contributing Chapter and individual member was sent a receipt for their contributions. As there is no expense account set up for the operation of this committee, we were most fortunate to have had the stationery, including the printing, donated to us. The committee furnished the stamps. We are grateful for all donations made for the operation of this committee.

Checks received from 462 100 per cent Chapters.....	$ 8,054.10
Special contributions and love gifts from other Chapters and members	1,273.30
Proceeds from the Silver Tea	910.40
Making a Total of	$10,237.80

At this time in appreciation of everyone who had any part in making it possible for us to reach and exceed our goal of $10,000.00, Mr. Dick Fisher will honor you with a beautiful number, "Prayer Is the Key to Heaven, Faith Unlocks the Door."

SOLO

Mr. Dick Fisher then sang "Prayer Is the Key to Heaven, Faith Unlocks the Door."

MRS. RUBY CASH: Thank you, Mr. Dick Fisher.

Worthy Grand Matron, these are truly our sentiments as we have prayed for guidance and faith that the fine membership of Texas would support us in our effort. This report proves that our prayers have truly been answered. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Ruby Cash. (Applause.)

Thank you so much for your wonderful contribution.

I am going to ask Sister Pearl now to speak.

MRS. PEARL KEETON

MRS. PEARL KEETON: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Grand Officers, Sisters and Brothers:

Since I am leaving in the morning at 5:20, I am delighted to express my appreciation tonight to the good folks in Texas for every courtesy you have extended to me.

Your decorations and the beautiful marches have been outstanding. It has been a delight to be here in your city. In fact, it has inspired me to go back to Arkansas and attempt to emulate so many of the fine things I have experienced here. And on December 1, when we open our own Session, I would like to take every one of you Texans with me.

Thank you from the depths of my heart for your kindness. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Pearl. We are sorry you could not stay with us another day.

MR. R. L. (DICK) FISHER

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I have told Brother Dick Fisher so many times how much he means to all Eastern Stars really, because at each of our Grand Chapter Sessions he makes such a contribution for our pleasure and our enjoyment. I know you want to join with me now in saying a great big thank you to Dick. (Applause.)

Now, Dick has something very special to say to you.

MR. DICK FISHER: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Sisters and Brothers:

A year ago in San Antonio I had the privilege and pleasure, immediately following your installation, as you launched your journey on your outstanding year of service, to sing: "I Walked With God." You have done that all year.

I am not going to be able to come back tomorrow to see Sister Edna Earl and Brother Marvin launched in the Grand East.

I wish you God's speed. As you have honored all these lovely people this week I have deeply appreciated the kind remarks that have been made.

I would like to dedicate this song to you.

And before I sing I want to express my thanks and deep appreciation, to Sister Dobbins, Sister Jaynes, Sister Cunningham and Sister Louise Glenn, because without them I could do nothing.

Mr. Fisher then sang "May I Walk With God."

Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Dick, for sharing your God given talent with us. It is always a joy to listen to you sing.

Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from ease within closed doors to labor, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM EASE WITHIN CLOSED DOORS TO LABOR

Grand Chapter was called from ease within closed doors to labor at 10:50 P. M.

INTRODUCTIONS—MRS. MABEL HARLE

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present Sister Mabel Harle at the Altar.

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pride that I present Mrs. Mabel Harle, Appeals and Grievances Committee, General Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Mabel Harle, member of the Appeals and Grievances Committee of General Grand Chapter, we greet you on this Enchanted Evening with a heart full of love and we are delighted that your husband has improved to the extent that you could leave him for just a little while so that you might attend the "Autumn Enchantment" Session.

We think of you as one
Who greets the morning with a smile,
And when the day is done,
Who seeks her friends in gratitude

That God is Love and Love is God.
 I do not have the words to half express
 Our deep affection for the work you do—
 Your sincere efforts, your deeds of kindness,
 Your daily actions only tend to prove
 That all your service has been done with Love.
 Life is giving and sharing with somebody else.
 But if nobody smiled and cared for us,
 If nobody helped you and me—
 If we all walked alone on the pathway of life,
 What an unhappy world this would be.
 For all of life's pleasures depend
 On that wonderful feeling of comfort and warmth
 That can only be found in a friend.

It is my personal pleasure to extend to you a very warm and personal welcome to this Eighty-third, "Autumn Enchantment" Session.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort Sister Mabel Harle to the East.

Mrs. Mabel Harle was escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Are there other Grand Officers who have not been introduced?

If so, will you present them, Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress?

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES

GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, I am very pleased to present these Grand Representatives of other Jurisdictions in Texas:

Mrs. Letha Carroll, Grand Representative from Iowa in Texas.

Mrs. Jarvis Boyd, Grand Representative of New Brunswick in Texas.

Mrs. Mignonne McMahon, Grand Representative of Maine in Texas.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: We are always delighted to welcome ambassadors of goodwill to our Grand Chapter Session.

It is with pride and pleasure that I welcome you to this "Autumn Enchantment" Session.

Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort our Grand Representatives to the East.

The Grand Representatives who were presented at the Altar were escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Are there other Grand Officers who have not been presented?

Thank you, Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress.

WORTHY MATRONS AND WORTHY PATRONS OF HOSTESS CHAPTERS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I would like for the Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons of the Hostess Chapters to please rise.

Grand Marshal, you will present the Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons behind Esther's Station, please.

I would like for you to assemble in the West, please, to be presented behind Esther's Station. (Applause.)

Sisters and Brothers, it is now my happy privilege to present to you the Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons of the Hostess Chapters of Section I, District 3:

PRESENTATION OF EXECUTIVE AND ARRANGEMENT COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I would like the members of the Executive Committee and the Chairmen of the Arrangements Committee to please rise.

Sister Grand Marshal, you will present the members of the Executive Committee and the Chairmen of the Arrangements Committee behind Esther's Station. (Applause.)

Sisters and Brothers, I proudly present to you the members of the Executive Committee and the Chairmen of the Arrangements Committee.

It is with much gratitude and sincere appreciation that I say thank you to each member of these committees for your fine support, loyalty, and cooperation. All of you have worked long hours and many, many months in preparing for this Eighty-third Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas. I deeply appreciate all you have done and the unselfish service that each of you has rendered.

The other members of the Arrangements Committee have worked untiringly, and I will not take the time to call each of their names. They are listed in the back of the program along with the various committees, and with many other faithful members who have volunteered to help.

I am going to call the names of the ones present, and those who are not here as well:

Executive Committee:

Mr. John Tarter, Chairman
Mr. Vernon N. Barnes, Vice-Chairman
Mrs. Cleatrice Bounds, Social Chairman and Publicity
Mrs. Merlyn Devore, Consultant
Mrs. Clevia Cross, Housing Chairman
Mrs. Doris Efird, Secretary-Treasurer.

Arrangements Committee:

Mr. Marvin L. Justice, Chairman
Mr. Milton Mathews, Vice-Chairman.

And now, members of the Grand Chapter of Texas. I know you will want to join with me in saying a special thank you, in appreciation for all the work these wonderful committees have done. (Prolonged applause.)

Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from labor to rest until 8:45 in the morning, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM LABOR TO REST

The Bible was closed, and Grand Chapter was called from labor to rest at 11:35 P. M.

Thursday Morning, October 28, 1965

8:45 A. M.

The Thursday Morning Session was called to order by Mrs. Agnes Lee Howard, Past Grand Matron, and Mr. Gerald C. Allen, Past Grand Patron.

Preceding the call to order musical selections were rendered by the Grand Choir, Mrs. Vivian Jaynes, Grand Organist, and Mrs. Helen Dobbins.

CALL TO ORDER

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Hello and good morning.

Thomas May has written: "Night's silent reign has robbed the world of light, to lend, in lieu, a greater benefit, repose and sleep, when every mortal takes his rest." I do not believe, Sisters and Brothers, that Mr. May was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, but if such were the case, I am certain that he never attended a Texas Grand Chapter Session.

This Thursday morning "Autumn Enchantment" Session is now called to order.

Sister Grand Marshal, you will invite the Worthy Grand Matron, the Worthy Grand Patron and other Grand Officers to enter the Grand Chapter room.

The Grand Officers entered in their regular drill.

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron to the East.

The Worthy Grand Matron and the Worthy Grand Patron were escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: The Grand Officers will assume their stations.

Sister Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from rest to labor, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM REST TO LABOR

Grand Chapter was called from rest to labor at 9:30 A. M.

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Sisters and Brothers, the Worthy Grand Matron would like to make an announcement.

SEATING OF VOTING DELEGATES

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: The voting delegates will be seated on the floor level and in the first balcony. We will have a report from the Credentials Committee later.

The Grand Pages will see that the voting delegates are seated on the floor level, the first balcony, and the four sections in the upper balcony.

Sisters and Brothers, I want to thank you for your cooperation.

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Autumn is designed for man's enjoyment and appreciation. Autumn with its days of splendor is a perfect time to make evaluations. Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, this inspirational setting and Session which is so rapidly passing into the history of our Texas Grand Chapter has reminded us again that our every action touches some chord that will vibrate into eternity. Unless a tree has borne blossoms in the Spring, you will vainly look for fruit on it in the Autumn. Your hearts must be filled with the emotions of gladness and joy, even satisfaction, as you approach this hour, the harvest, your final bridge of service.

It is a distinct honor to me to present the last Worthy Grand Patron to have presided over a Grand Chapter here in Fort Worth, Mr. Gerald C. Allen.

MR. GERALD C. ALLEN: Thank you, Mrs. Howard.

Good morning, all.

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

It is certainly a great privilege for me to be here this morning.

Worthy Grand Matron, I appreciate the privilege that is mine in escorting my own Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Howard, at the opening of this Thursday Morning Session of your "Autumn Enchantment" Session. It was four years ago that we presided over this Grand Chapter in this Auditorium. It brings back most pleasant memories, and it is always a pleasure to be in Fort Worth and have the opportunity to be with our many Eastern Star friends.

Thank you. (Applause.)

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Worthy Grand Matron, the fourth equipment that man has like God is memory. And surely one of the greatest blessings bestowed upon man by God is the ability to remember. I find myself enjoying that particular blessing just now. As I stand here this morning I am remembering another Session of Grand Chapter here in Fort Worth. I feel a keen kinship with your Worthy Grand Matron this morning. Both of us, you and I, have been adopted by this wonderful Section One, of District Three. Such a real honor to be adopted. In life, children do not select their parents, nor do parents select their children. But by adoption each is chosen. I know you share the same humble gratitude for the love and loyalty of these devoted members here in this particular Section.

All week as I have listened to you express appreciation it has seemed that you have found words to be inadequate at times to express your true emotions to all of these members who have assisted you, and I know then that you, too, are remembering.

I congratulate the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron on their fine service to our Order. Their hearts must be filled with emotions of gladness, joy and satisfaction.

Worthy Grand Patron, if it is true that every day is a little life, and our whole life is but a day repeated, I shall consider the hours enriched in my life's day by the opportunity of knowing you and having the association with you that your splendid service has afforded.

Worthy Grand Matron, thank you for the privilege of calling this Session to order and again sharing the East with my own Worthy Grand

Patron. May the coming years bring you and the Worthy Grand Patron happiness, health and joy, because you both so richly deserve these blessings. (Applause.)

Worthy Grand Matron, I present to you your gavel.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Agnes Lee Howard, and Brother Gerald C. Allen, our Distinguished and beloved Past Grand Matron and Past Grand Patron, for calling to order this Thursday morning session, the Eighty-third, "Autumn Enchantment" Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas, in a most commendable manner.

I recognize you both for the outstanding service that you have rendered to Grand Chapter, and always I have felt that you are my very special friends. I am grateful for this association in the past and for your continued interest in our Order.

May God bless you both in a very special way.

Always it is a privilege to pause in our every day life, and listen as God speaks to us through others. Such an opportunity is ours this morning as we come to the next part of our program.

It is with special pride and admiration that I present to you at this time one who is remember for, not only her faith and love for her fellow man, but for her high Christian ideals, and for the fine example that she exemplifies in everyday living.

I proudly present Mrs. Viva Huffman, one of our beloved Past Grand Matrons, who will bring our Devotional at this time.

Sisters and Brothers, I know you are going to remain quiet, and that those of you who are walking around will find a place and be seated.

DEVOTIONAL

"THE WORD"

MRS. VIVA S. HUFFMAN: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.—John 1:1.

As we assemble here this beautiful morning, another day of opportunity to love, understand and serve our fellow man always presents a challenge to the best and highest within each of us. How meaningful and appropriate that we pause to meditate upon God's Holy Word. May Love open our Holy Bible and Faith guide us through its pages. He left us the word—"He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is Love."—1 John 4:8.

The Holy Word begins with the beautiful story of creation and from the first shows His great and timeless love for us, the Ten Commandments, a guide and law to the better way of life. The Apostle John said: "If you keep my commandments ye shall abide in my love."—John 15:10.

The "Word of God" was expressed through oracles, revealed laws, visions, spoken and written prophecies and teachings, and events in history. The Bible discloses how the "Word of God" operated during more than a thousand years of Israel's history.

We have only to inquire into these loving scriptures to find the "Way." While the Old Testament contains many examples of great prayers and the Psalms especially are full of them, yet the New Testament prayer differs from that of the Old Testament because of the influence of Jesus Christ. Prayer changes when religion changes.

"He left us the Word . . ." In the beautiful church of the Pater Noster on the Mount of Olives where Constantine the Great had erected a basilica to mark the traditional spot at which Jesus taught His disciples to pray, we find the Lord's Prayer reproduced in 35 languages in the court. The disciples said, "Lord, teach us to pray." The power of the Lord's Prayer is not in the words, but rather in the pattern of thinking in which our minds are formed. The Bible tells us, "Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind." (Romans 12:2), When our thoughts begin to flow in the channels of the Lord's Prayer our minds do become new, and we are transformed.

Each of us has some particular passages in the Bible that give us Faith, Hope, Joy, Peace, Comfort and Love. The Lord's Prayer is universally used since all these thoughts are combined in this great Prayer.

On the Mount of Beatitudes overlooking the beautiful blue sea of Galilee, the Lord spoke Blessed Words that give faith and comfort to all mankind, all stepping stones to God.

He left us the Word, Faith. Have Faith in the Master. May our Faith illuminate the hearts of others.

He left us the word, "Hope":

"In Him nothing is hopeless . . .
And He is always near.
Beams of light from the halo of His loving head
Shall illuminate our path to Hope."

He left us the Word, Love. "Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things, Love never ends."

"For Hope that waits, for Faith that dares;
For patience that still smiles and bears;
For love that fails not nor withstands,
For healing touch of children's hands;
For happy labor, high intent,
For all life's blessed sacrament—
O comrade of our nights and days,
Thou givest all things, take our praise."

How fitting that our Grand Choir now sings "Keep on Praying."

SPECIAL SELECTION

The Grand Choir then sang "Keep on Praying."

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Viva Huffman, for those inspirational thoughts. It is always an inspiration to be with you, and I deeply appreciate your bringing this message to us this morning.

And then I would like to say to our Grand Choir how much we have enjoyed your beautiful songs, and the beautiful music you have furnished this "Autumn Enchantment" Session. (Applause.)

Thank you, Sister Cloe Thomas, and Brother Ben Winder, and the members of the Grand Choir, for the beautiful words in song. Your beautiful music and lovely messages in song have given us much joy and pleasure during the entire session of Grand Chapter. Thank you for sharing your time and talent with us. We agree with Shakespeare when he said of music, "If music be the food of love, play on." (Applause.)

I believe before we have the report of the Credentials Committee I will have the voting delegates raise your hands.

Haven't these "Angels" done a marvelous job in seating the delegates. (Applause.)

I think you have earned the title of "Amys Angels." You, in fact, are my Angels.

It is my pleasure now to present Brother Otto Steiner, Chairman of the Credentials Committee.

FINAL REPORT OF CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE

MR. OTTO STEINER: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pleasure that I introduce the members of the Credentials Committee:

Mrs. Melba Brock, Kilgore
Mrs. Ruth Damron, Hale Center
Mr. Martin H. Crist, Waco
Mr. Joe L. Ryals, Orange.

Worthy Grand Matron, your Committee on Credentials herewith submits its final report. The members of this committee wish to express their appreciation for the pleasure of serving you and Grand Chapter. We hope that we have served in a manner pleasing to you and to every member in attendance.

We also want to express our appreciation to the members of the Registration and Transportation and Mileage Committees who have worked so closely with us during this past week.

Our final report is as follows:

Total Chapters Represented	671
Total Number of Voting Delegates	3,313
Total Number of Single Vote Ballots Issued	2,918

OTTO S. STEINER, Chairman
JOE L. RYAL, Member
RUTH DAMRON, Member
MELBA BROCK, Member
M. H. CRIST, Member

Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the final report of the Credentials Committee be adopted.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and the final report of the Credentials Committee was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Brother Otto Steiner, and my sincere thanks and appreciation go to you and all the members of this fine committee who have worked so faithfully and efficiently to bring us this splendid report.

The Worthy Grand Patron and I appreciate the wonderful job that you have done, and I feel that the members would like to join with us in expressing their appreciation also. (Applause.)

Sisters and Brothers, the time is drawing near for the election of officers. We have had the final report of the Credentials Committee, and by the time we prepare for the election and give instructions the time will be here for us to begin our election.

TABLE CHAIRMEN

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: You know, Sisters and Brothers, this year was dedicated to our Masonic Brothers, and I am going to ask some of our very distinguished Masons to assist us this morning.

I am going to ask Brother J. T. Sanders, who is Right Eminent Grand Commander, Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Texas, to serve as Chairman of Table No. 1.

I am going to ask Brother John R. Collard, of Spearman, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas, to serve as Chairman of Tellers for Table No. 2.

ELECTION CHAIRMAN

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: The Chairman of the Election will be Judge Dean Gauldin.

ADDING MACHINES

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I am going to ask Sister Lallah Mae Vollus to come to the table to the right, so that she may use the adding machine.

And I am going to ask Sister Thelma McReynolds to take the table to my left, Table No. 1, and use the adding machine.

I think by having two it will perhaps expedite the election.

Will you two very lovely and wonderful Past Grand Matrons do that for me?

The tables and chairs for the Tellers have been placed in position, as well as the ones for the adding machines. There will be forty Tellers seated at each table, and one at each of the adding machines.

BLACKBOARD

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Mr. Gerald C. Allen will be at the blackboard to my left, and Mr. Milton H. Mathews will be at the blackboard on my right.

INSTRUCTIONS

JUDGE DEAN GAULDIN: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, my Sisters and Brothers:

If you will let me have your attention I will give you some instructions pertaining to the balloting, and I am reading from the Constitution, if you will bear with me.

In making nominations, only the name of the candidate, and the name and location of the Chapter to which the candidate belongs and the office for which nominated, shall be given.

If only one candidate is nominated, the election may be by acclamation. If two or more candidates are nominated, the vote shall be by ballot upon the official ballot forms furnished to voting delegates upon registration. A majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to a choice.

If on any ballot no candidate has received a majority vote, the name of the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes shall be dropped. In case two or more candidates tie on the lowest number of votes, and there are at least two other candidates receiving a higher number of votes, then all candidates tied on the lowest number of votes shall be dropped. Subject to those regulations, the election shall proceed until some candidate receives a majority of all votes cast.

Sisters and Brothers, as we go into the nominations, please do not express any approval or disapproval. As nominations are offered, please refrain from any applause that might show your position one way or the other. And after an election has been declared, please do not demonstrate in behalf of the one who has been elected, because we all know that whoever is the choice of this Grand Chapter, this Grand Chapter as a unit is going to be behind them during their administration.

So let us be charitable to those who are not fortunate enough to be elected. They are all our Sisters and Brothers, and we wish them well, and at some future date they may be successful.

In voting, be sure to use the last name of the candidate, and not just the first name. We will not be too technical in holding you to the correct spelling of the name so long as it definitely identifies the person for whom you are voting. But do not just use the first name of the candidate on your ballot.

If there is any question that arises in the minds of the tellers they will call me, and if there is any question in my mind, I will take it up with the Worthy Grand Matron.

After an election has been declared the presiding judge will destroy the ballots.

For the first election on written ballots the Pages will take the ballots to Table No. 1, and the second time to Table No. 2, and back to No. 1, and so forth.

The tellers will be divided two and two, one across the table from the other; and each teller will count a portion of the ballots. And when you have completed your count, pass the ballots over to your partner across the table, and your partner in turn will pass her or his ballots to you, and you will recount them. And if there should be any discrepancy, then turn them over to me. We want a complete and correct count of the ballots.

The Grand Pages will come and pick up the boxes, and we will proceed with the election.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Judge Gauldin. Sisters and Brothers, I believe everything is in readiness to proceed with the election of Grand Officers.

When an election has been completed, and a decision reached by this Grand Chapter, please refrain from expressing an outward opinion or an applause of any kind.

During the counting of the ballots, we will proceed with the business of the Grand Chapter.

ELECTION OF GRAND OFFICERS

The following Grand Officers were elected:

Mrs. Edna Earl Duke, Worthy Grand Matron
 Judge Marvin B. Simpson, Jr., Worthy Grand Patron
 Mrs. Mildred Sharpe, Associate Grand Matron
 Mr. Herschel Harrington, Associate Grand Patron
 Mrs. Rebecca L. Miles, Grand Secretary
 Mrs. Jettie Hinton, Grand Treasurer
 Mrs. Nancy Bailey, Grand Conductress
 Mrs. Robbie Yates, Associate Grand Conductress.

Board of Grand Trustees:

Mrs. Annette Pierce, District No. 4.

Board of Directors of Grand Chapter Benevolences:

Mr. Paul Huffhines, District No. 3.

Board of Grand Examiners:

Mrs. Patricia Majors, District No. 1
 Mrs. Katherine Harbour, District No. 2
 Mrs. Aliene Houston, District No. 3
 Mrs. Earline Frazier, District No. 4
 Mrs. Frances Herrin, District No. 5
 Mrs. Margaret Hampton, Grand Examiner-at-Large.

During the process of election and while ballots were being counted the regular order of business was continued.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I recognize Brother Billy Bible, member of the Board of Grand Trustees.

REPORT OF GRAND TRUSTEES

REPORT No. 5

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Officers and Members of Grand Chapter:

October 27, 1965, the Board reconvened at 9:00 A. M. Meeting opened with prayer led by Mr. Preston Miller.

Bro. Chauncey Penix, our legal advisor, appeared before the Board to review matters pertaining to certain properties from which we are receiving revenue. Meeting adjourned at 12:00 noon.

Meeting reconvened at 2:00 P. M. The Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences met with the Board of Grand Trustees to discuss the proposed estimate of additional work to be done at the Home.

Bill for $12.60 for postage presented by Mrs. Gladys A. Lawson, Educational Fund Chairman. Motion to pay by Morris Lord. Seconded by Billy Bible. Motion Carried.

Respectfully submitted,

PRESTON MILLER, Chairman
 MORRIS LORD, Vice-Chairman
 MRS. LOREE HARRISON, Secretary
 BILLY BIBLE, Member
 LOIS BELL, Member

MR. BILLY BIBLE: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this partial report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: You have heard Report No. 5 as given by Brother Billy Bible of the Board of Grand Trustees. It has been moved and seconded that the report be adopted.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and Report No. 5 of the Board of Grand Trustees was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I recognize Brother Preston Miller, Chairman of the Board of Grand Trustees.

MR. PRESTON MILLER: Thank you, Worthy Grand Matron. If I might, I would like to mention a little off the record report. I know most of you heard the wonderful report last night, that we had 340 Chapters 100 per cent, which amounted to something over $93,000.00 of Welfare. We hope next year we will have about double that. And if all Eastern Stars in the State of Texas will do their part we will have a fine Home, with all its facilities that we need.

REPORT OF GRAND TRUSTEES

REPORT No. 6

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Officers and Members of Grand Chapter:

I would like to give a short resume of some of the accomplishments of the year.

As one of the accomplishments of the year, we have seen the remodeling and addition to the Grand Secretary's Office and Quarters.

We look forward to the time when the Home building is completely modernized.

We gave two $500.00 Scholarships from the Fannie V. Ward Educational Fund. Cecil Perdue, a student at Arlington State College, and Mrs. Dorothy Adkins, who will receive her degree from North Texas State University this year, were the recipients of these scholarships.

The incoming Worthy Grand Matron's new Oldsmobile (Jester) will be on display in front of the Coliseum this evening.

In our final report to you I would like to thank the Grand Chapter for giving me the opportunity to serve as a member of the Board of Grand Trustees, a service I shall always cherish.

To Mrs. Amy Goebel I want to express my appreciation for the cooperation she has given in all of the Board's work. She has helped in every way possible. This year's work with her has been very gratifying.

A very special thank you to Mrs. Rebecca Miles for her wise counsel and untiring cooperation. Her storehouse of knowledge is of great value to the Order of the Eastern Star. God bless you in your work and keep you always.

To Mrs. Jettie Hinton, Grand Treasurer, thank you for attending all meetings of the Board of Grand Trustees and your special interest in all the affairs of the Grand Chapter.

To you, the Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences, our sincere gratitude for your understanding of all our problems. It has been a pleasure to work with you. We cherish your friendship.

To you—members of my own Board—you shall always have a very special place in my heart. You were always ready to answer every call of duty. Your cooperation all the way has made my five years of service on the Board of Grand Trustees a great joy.

A "thank you" to all who have rendered the Board a service in any way.

May the Good Lord smile upon you as you continue in your work for others.

Fraternally submitted,

PRESTON MILLER, Chairman
MORRIS LORD, Vice-Chairman
MRS. LOREE HARRISON, Secretary
BILLY BIBLE, Member
MRS. LOIS BELL, Member

MR. PRESTON MILLER: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report, Report No. 6 of the Board of Grand Trustees.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that we adopt Report No. 6 of the Board of Grand Trustees.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and Report No. 6 of the Board of Grand Trustees was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: While the members of the Board are standing here I would like to take this opportunity to say thanks for a very fine Board and for the very fine work you are doing.

We recognize the fact that we need qualified members to serve on this Board, and these members have given their best toward the goal and the program that was set up for the year.

I appreciate all the efforts you have given and all the wonderful work you have done this year.

Thank you so much for your splendid cooperation. (Applause.)

Is Sister Mary B. Moore in the room?

Please come to the East.

Sister Ruby Cash, Chairman of the Founder's Day Committee, will you please come to the East?

And Sister Daisy James, Chairman of the International Temple Committee, please come to the East.

I recognize Sister Mary B. Moore, Chairman of the Welfare Committee, to move the adoption of her report.

ADOPTION OF WELFARE REPORT

MRS. MARY B. MOORE: Worthy Grand Matron, I move that the Welfare Report as presented Wednesday evening be accepted and referred to the auditor, with supplement to be added in the proceedings.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the Welfare Report as presented Wednesday evening be accepted and referred to the auditor, with supplemental report to be added in the proceedings.

It is not complete, and the total amount of the Welfare will be shown in the supplemental report.

The total amount as of this time is $93,292.15. My goal was $100,000.00, but I am happy with this report, Sister Mary B.

Now we will vote on this report.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I now recognize Sister Ruby Cash for the adoption of the Founder's Day Report.

Sister Ruby gave a splendid report. The total amount raised by this Founder's Day Committee was $10,237.80, which is designated for the Home Fund. You know that is your 10 cents per member, Sisters and Brothers, plus the additional amount raised by the Committee.

Sister Ruby Cash.

ADOPTION OF REPORT OF FOUNDER'S DAY COMMITTEE

MRS. RUBY CASH: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

I am Ruby Cash, Chairman of the Founder's Day Committee, and I move the adoption of the Founder's Day Committee as submitted on Wednesday evening, and that it be referred to the proper authority.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report of the Founder's Day Committee as submitted Wednesday evening be adopted and referred to the proper committee.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I recognize Sister Daisy James, Chairman of the International Temple Committee.

ADOPTION OF REPORT OF INTERNATIONAL TEMPLE COMMITTEE

MRS. DAISY JAMES: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of the report of the International Temple Committee which was given last evening.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I now invite the Worthy Grand Patron to preside.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: You have heard the motion. It has been seconded.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

APPRECIATION

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: I would like to take this opportunity to make a few acknowledgments, if I may.

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to the Boards and Committees for your many courtesies.

It is my most sincere and heartfelt conviction that you have all done an excellent job. Words are inadequate to convey my admiration of you, the finest people in the world.

Thank you for everything. (Applause.)

At this time will the Grand Choir give us a number?

GRAND CHOIR

MRS. CLOE THOMAS: Let's turn to page 61 of our program and sing "Smile Awhile and Give Your Face a Rest."

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: We will now have a report from the Board of Directors of Grand Chapter Benevolences.

I recognize Mr. Herbert Arnold.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF GRAND CHAPTER BENEVOLENCES

MR. HERBERT L. ARNOLD: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Officers and Members of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star:

We, the Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences, wish to submit our supplementary annual report of the fiscal year 1964-1965.

We wish to thank the C. J. Wrightsman Fund Charitable Foundation for the gracious contribution of $1,500.00. We wish to thank Judge Clyde E. Smith and Judge Marvin Simpson, Jr., for their untiring efforts for the benefit of the Eastern Star, especially the Home. You will recall this same Foundation gave the Home $1,000.00 last year and this year have increased it to 1,500.00.

Our thanks to the Dallas Past Matrons and Patrons Association for their program to install an intercom system at the Home, to erect a sign on the grounds of the Home, so all may know the location of our beautiful Home.

The need has long been felt for a Bus to transport the ladies, as a group, to special events. To this Association we are indebted for starting a program to provide this bus by securing sufficient books of Green stamps for this purpose. They have not suggested that I request books of stamps from the membership, but I believe they will gladly accept them. For further information about this contact Marie Harcum, President of this Association, or inquire of the Benevolent Board.

We are saddened by the death of two additional members of the Home since our original report. Our hearts are always heavy at the loss of members in the Eastern Star Home and of our Order.

Plans are in the final state of completion and as soon as we receive authorization from the Board of Grand Trustees we are prepared to proceed to advertising for bids and awarding of contract for the modernization of the center and east wings of the old building. When this work is completed, we will eliminate extensive maintenance cost as this building is approximately 40 years old.

The Board has spent much time in rewriting and modernizing the application forms and rules governing the Eastern Star Home and has standardized procedures for applications.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to the Worthy Grand Matron, the Worthy Grand Patron and the entire membership of the Grand Chapter for ever thinking of the Home in all their welfare programs and that we were privileged to have the fullest cooperation of the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron and all these committees. We are also pleased to note that our incoming Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Edna Earl Duke, has selected as her primary welfare program work in the Eastern Star Home and we know that Judge Marvin B. Simpson, Jr., will sanction her every wish and afford her any assistance within his power.

Finally, we again express our appreciation to the complete cooperation of the Board of Grand Trustees without whose authorizations for the expenditures of money we could not proceed with any of the programs.

Fraternally submitted,

HERBERT L. ARNOLD, Chairman
LILLIE MAY HURST, Vice-Chairman-Secretary
SUDIE BETH HANCOCK, Treasurer
DAVE L. REANEY, Member
JAMES B. STARNES, Member

MR. HERBERT L. ARNOLD: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of our final report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that we adopt the final report of the Board of Directors of Grand Chapter Benevolences.

Is there discussion?

The question was taken and the report was adopted.

MR. HERBERT ARNOLD: Worthy Grand Matron, while we are here, I would like to introduce the members of the Board and thank them for the cooperation they have given me. They have all worked very hard, and are earnest and sincere.

Mrs. Lillie May Hurst, Vice-Chairman and Secretary
Mrs. Sudie Beth Hancock, Treasurer
Mr. Dave L. Reaney, Member
Mr. James B. Starnes, Member.
And I am Herbert L. Arnold, retiring Chairman.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters and Brothers, our distinguished Board members have worked very hard and very effectively for the interest of our Home.

Our Brother Herbert Arnold, our District 3 member, will retire from the Board, and I would like to take the opportunity at this time of saying personally to Brother Herb what a wonderful job he has done on the Board.

I could not begin to enumerate the many accomplishments of this Board and the many things that are outlined to be accomplished in the future.

And to you, Brother Herb, and the other members of the Board, how wonderful it is to have worked with you this year.

So to each of you, a very special thank you.

I feel that the members will want to join with me in expressing their appreciation to this very wonderful Board. (Applause.)

MESSAGE FROM JUDGE CLYDE SMITH

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I have received a message from Judge Clyde Smith. Judge Smith came to Fort Worth and was present at our meetings Sunday, but because of the illness of his mother was called away.

This morning he sends his regrets to this Grand Chapter, and wishes for us a wonderful Grand Chapter Session.

We sincerely hope Judge Smith's mother is improving and will soon be well.

Now, Sisters and Brothers, you see how efficient our Boards are. They have given their final reports.

Now I would like to recognize Sister Maude Arnold, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee.

She is the wife of our own Brother Herbert Arnold, who has been serving on the Board of Directors of Grand Chapter Benevolences. I know she has worked right by his side, perhaps doing much of the work.

I recognize Mrs. Maude Arnold.

REPORT OF RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Patron, Dr. James Goettee, General Grand Chapter Officers, Grand Officers, Distinguished Guests, Sisters and Brothers:

May I present my co-workers, Mrs. Bertha Mesigh and Mrs. Dorothy Alexander.

We, your Resolutions Committee, wish to submit the following report:

WHEREAS, the Eighty-third Session of Grand Chapter of Texas has convened in Fort Worth, Texas, the All America City, for its "Autumn Enchantment" Session; and

WHEREAS, we offer our grateful thanks to our Father in Heaven for His watchful care over our Grand Officers as they served our beloved Order this year.

To our Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel, and our Worthy Grand Patron, Dr. James Goettee, our sincere appreciation for your unselfish leadership. Your year will be long remembered when Autumn leaves begin to fall into the lives of all of us who have been privileged to touch hands with you in passing.

To our General Grand Chapter Officers, we in Texas are indeed happy and always feel indebted to you for your presence.

To our Distinguished Guests from other Jurisdictions we are glad that you came and hope you come our way again.

To our Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons, Texas' own star is made brighter by your presence and guidance.

To the Grand Organist and Grand Choir, may we express our thanks for the enjoyable music. It was like a delightful dessert with every dinner course.

To the Grand Chaplain our thanks for a Memorial Service that was so beautiful to all of us. May God guide us by His love and keep us ever close to Him as we continue in the work of our Great Order and lead us to that land of eternal love.

To the Grand Marshal and all who participated in the beautiful drills, we express our appreciation for the hours spent in making this Eighty-third Session an Enchanted Autumn.

To the Boards and Committees, this has been a year of great progress and our humble thanks for your efforts and time spent to make it successful.

To the Arrangements Committee, our sincere and deep appreciation for your labor of love so evident in our comfort and conveniences provided during this Grand Chapter Session.

To each and every member in attendance, for your presence and interest, we thank you.

Worthy Grand Matron, a very special thanks for you for the privilege you gave to me and my co-workers of serving on this committee. It has been a year in which we, your Resolutions Committee, have been justifiably proud of you and the record of your's and the Worthy Grand Patron's sincere service.

Respectfully submitted,

MAUDE ARNOLD, Chairman
BERTHA MESIGH
DOROTHY ALEXANDER

MRS. MAUDE ARNOLD: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: You have heard this very fine report as presented by the Resolutions Committee. It has been moved and seconded that it be adopted.

The question was taken and the report of the Resolutions Committee was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you so much for serving this year on our Resolutions Committee.

Sisters and Brothers, we have a committee in Grand Chapter composed of some of our most distinguished members, which is known as the Purposes and Policy Committee. This Committee remains almost completely in the background until Grand Chapter time, when they give a report. This is a Committee that works on the long range planning for our Grand Chapter.

I would like for you to know and to meet the members of this Committee. I am sure they need no introduction, because of the service they have rendered to Grand Chapter, but will the members of the Purposes and Policy Committee please come to the East?

Mrs. Agnes Lee Howard, Chairman
Mr. Claud L. Austin
Mrs. Elsie Bills
Mrs. Mary Ella Schoverling
Mrs. Birdie Jane Easterling

I am happy to present Sister Agnes Lee Howard, Chairman of the Purposes and Policy Committee.

REPORT OF PURPOSES AND POLICY COMMITTEE

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, other Distinguished Members of the Order and my Sisters and Brothers:

We, the members of the Purposes and Policy Committee of Grand Chapter are appreciative of the opportunity that is ours to serve on this particular Committee for the purpose of long range planning for our great Order in Texas.

Due to the extensive expansion program at Arlington, Texas, in which our Order is now engaged and toward which great accomplishments have been made during this Eastern Star Year of 1964-1965, we have not deemed it feasible to offer recommendations at this time. We trust that in the future, however, when the need arises our Committee will be equal to the task.

In conformance with our Code of Laws, Article 162-A, (4), Page 104, the Associate Grand Matron, Mrs. Edna Earl Duke, has submitted in writing her proposed Welfare Plan of 1965-1966 to this Committee which states in part: "Believing that an informed Eastern Star will respond not only in service, but in sacrificial giving, I am naming the Home Fund as Number One Project. The Eastern Star Training Awards for Religious Leadership which was adopted by Grand Chapter at the 1956 Session as a permanent phase of Texas' Welfare Program, I name as Number Two Project."

This Committee heartily approved Mrs. Duke's Welfare Program and wholeheartedly endorses with the sincere hope that the vast membership of Texas will respond with the same generous support as exhibited in the past.

Thank you, Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, for your interest in this Committee and my personal thanks to you, Worthy Grand Matron, for the appointment to the Board which allowed me to serve as the Chairman this year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD, Chairman
 MR. CLAUD L. AUSTIN
 MRS. ELSIE BILLS
 MRS. MARY ELLA SCHOVERLING
 MRS. BIRDIE J. EASTERLING

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report be adopted.

Is there discussion:

The question was then taken and the Report of the Purposes and Policy Committee was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Agnes Lee Howard and members of the Committee, for the service you are rendering to our Grand Chapter.

I know now, that the "Autumn Enchantment" Session is drawing to a close, and we will be looking forward to the next session of Grand Chapter.

So at this time I am going to ask that the Invitation Committee come forward.

Brother Bill Vollus is already up here. Will Mrs. Thelma Joyce Alsup and Mrs. Evelyn Pollard please come to the East.

Sisters and Brothers, I am happy to present to you now Brother William G. Vollus, Chairman of the Invitation Committee, Mrs. Thelma Joyce Alsup, President of the Past Matrons and Past Patrons Association of Houston, and Mrs. Evelyn Pollard, who is President of the Worthy Matrons Club of Houston.

Brother Vollus.

REPORT OF INVITATION COMMITTEE

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Sisters and Brothers:

It is with pleasure that I present to you the two lovely ladies serving with me.

Mrs. Thelma Joyce Alsup, President of the Past Matrons and Past Patrons Association of Houston, and Mrs. Evelyn Pollard, President of the Worthy Matrons Club of Houston, known as the Edna Earl Duke Club.

Your Invitation Committee has been informed that during the past year each of the Eastern Star Chapters of Houston has passed unanimous resolutions inviting the Grand Chapter of Texas to hold the 84th Annual Session in the City of Houston. These letters have been addressed to Mrs. Edna Earl Duke, Associate Grand Matron.

The members of the Order in Houston remember the many pleasant sessions of previous years, all of which have added much joy and created great interest in the work of the Order. The Masonic Bodies, the Shrine, the City officials and the citizens of Houston all join in extending this invitation. We have received letters from:

The Mayor of Houston, The Honorable Louie Welch; the President of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Gail Whitcomb; the Manager of the Hotel Managers Association, Mr. Sam Arnett; the President of the Retail Merchants Association, Mr. Don Herod; President of the Houston Restaurant Association, Mr. Jack Bryant; President of the Houston Motel Association, Mr. Week Leeper; Executive Vice-President of the Greater Houston Convention Center, Mr. Chester A. Wilkins; Potentate of Arabia Temple Shrine, Mr. Miles Strickland; and last but surely not least, the Past Matrons and Past Patrons Association of Houston.

After reviewing these cordial invitations, it is the sincere conviction of the committee, that an enjoyable session will be prepared for the membership of Grand Chapter.

We therefore recommend that we accept the invitation of Houston to hold the 84th Annual Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas in their fine city during the year of 1966.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM G. VOLLUS, Chairman
THELMA JOYCE ALSUP
EVELYN POLLARD

MR. WILLIAM G. VOLLUS: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters and Brothers, it has been moved and seconded that we accept the invitation from the City of Houston to hold the Eighty-fourth Annual Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas in that city.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

MRS. EDNA EARL DUKE: Worthy Grand Matron, I appreciate the invitation from the City of Houston and the fact that this Grand Chapter has accepted its invitation, and I know we will have a wonderful Session down in Houston, in my home district, in the year 1966.

Thank you, Brother Bill, Thelma Joyce and Evelyn, for serving on this committee. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I recognize Brother J. B. Vaughan, Jr., Chairman of the Transportation and Mileage Committee.

Brother Vaughan.

REPORT OF TRANSPORTATION AND MILEAGE COMMITTEE

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Sisters and Brothers:

We, your Transportation and Mileage Committee wish to express to you our appreciation for the opportunity in serving you and the membership of Texas. We are indebted to Sister Rebecca Miles, Grand Secretary, and Sister Jettie Hinton, Grand Treasurer, for their invaluable assistance, without whose assistance this committee could not have functioned efficiently. Also, we wish to express our appreciation to the Credentials and Registration Committee for their help and cooperation.

It is a pleasure to introduce the members of this committee who have worked diligently the past week: Sisters Vivian King, Ann Westrope and Brothers Connie H. Henry and Clyde O'Grady, Jr.

We, your committee, submit the following report:

Respectfully submitted,

J. B. VAUGHAN, JR., Chm.
VIVIAN KING
ANN C. WESTROPE
CONNIE H. HENRY
CLYDE R. O'GRADY, JR.

MR. J. B. VAUGHAN, JR.: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of the report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report be adopted.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: At this time I would like to express appreciation to this very capable committee. They have performed their duties in a manner that certainly is commendable. I am proud of them, and I know that Grand Chapter appreciates efficiency as well as the Worthy Grand Matron.

At this time I know you will want to show your appreciation for the service that this committee has rendered. (Applause.)

Will the Telegram Committee please come forward at this time?

I recognize Sister Lois Burnett and her committee, for the Telegram report.

REPORT OF TELEGRAM COMMITTEE

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, Sisters and Brothers:

I would like to ask Sister Mattie Mitchell and Sister Birdie Jane Easterling to rise at this time.

I want to introduce these two beloved distinguished Past Grand Matrons who were appointed to serve with me on this committee.

Worthy Grand Matron, your committee has sent 19 telegrams, sixteen to Texas Past Grands and three to other Grand Jurisdictions, one of which was to the Most Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Josephine Browning.

We have a telegram from Dr. Russell Holt, Past Grand Patron, stating: "Regret circumstances prevent me from being in Fort Worth this week and therefore cannot assist in opening Grand Chapter Wednesday afternoon."

We also have a telegram from Mrs. Bobbie Primm, Junior Past Grand Matron of Colorado, expressing her regret that she cannot be with us.

We also have a letter from Mr. James L. Lee, Past Grand Patron, who is now living in Los Angeles, expressing regret that he cannot be with us at this Grand Chapter Session.

Our expenses incurred in connection with our work amounts to $27.63.

Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this Telegram Committee Report, and that Grand Chapter authorize the payment of $27.63 that we spent.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters and Brothers, it has been moved and seconded that we adopt the report of the Telegram Committee, and that Grand Chapter pay the amount of $27.63 expenses incurred.

Are you ready for the question?

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Lois Burnett, Sister Mattie Mitchell and Sister Birdie Jane Easterling, for serving on this Committee.

ADOPTION OF REPORT OF DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MATRONS AND DEPUTY GRAND MATRONS

MRS. LORAIN FORD: Worthy Grand Matron, I move that the Report presented on Wednesday afternoon by the District Deputy Grand Matrons and the Deputy Grand Matrons be adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the Report of the District Deputy Grand Matrons and the Deputy Grand Matrons be adopted.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I recognize Brother Paul Stoneman for the Report of the Texas Finance Committee.

REPORT OF TEXAS FINANCE COMMITTEE

MR. PAUL STONEMAN: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, Sisters and Brothers:

I am sorry to announce that Sister Lillian Barnard is confined to her room. She has done a great deal of work. However, at the last moment she asked me to substitute for her and present the report to you.

I have in my hand a report from A. C. Upleger and Company, Auditors for our Grand Chapter, which is very detailed, and I believe that the essence of this report which is of interest to you is found in the final figures. Therefore, in the essence of time, I will make this very brief.

This entire report will be printed in the proceedings and you can read it in detail at your leisure.

The Auditor reports that the total expenditure by Mr. James Lee, Past Grand Patron, who was General Chairman for the Triennial Assembly in Dallas, expended from the Texas Grand Chapter Fund, was a total of $33,419.67.

I am informed by our Grand Secretary, Sister Miles, that there is an additional sum in the amount of approximately $2,800.00 which has been returned to this fund, and which will be shown in the next report. But for this report, the total of $33,419.67 is the amount expended from the Texas Grand Chapter Fund.

Worthy Grand Matron, I wish, on behalf of our Chairman, to express to you our thanks in allowing us to serve in that capacity.

LILLIAN BARNARD, Chairman
RICHARD PORTER, Member
PAUL C. STONEMAN, Member

MR. PAUL C. STONEMAN: Worthy Grand Matron, I move that this report be adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report be adopted.

Is there any discussion?

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

October 19, 1965

Grand Chapter of Texas,
Order of the Eastern Star:

We have made an examination of the receipts and disbursements of the General Grand Chapter Entertainment Fund, James L. Lee, General Chairman, for the General Grand Chapter Triennial Assembly of 1964, held in Dallas, Texas.

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The total expenditures amounted to $79,537.88 and the receipts at the assembly from registration, sale of tickets, and miscellaneous items, were $31,266.12. This resulted in an excess of expenditures over receipts of $48,271.76. Of this sum the Grand Chapter of Colorado furnished $10,000.00 and the Grand Chapter of Texas, $38,271.76. This represents a ratio of 20.7% for Colorado and 79.3% for Texas.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements fairly present the cash receipts and disbursements of the General Grand Chapter Assembly entertainment and expense fund as administered by James L. Lee, General Chairman, and his committees for the 1964 assembly held in Dallas, Texas.

Respectfully submitted,

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Brother Chauncey Penix, do you have your final report?

FINAL REPORT OF JURISPRUDENCE COMMITTEE

We, the members of your Jurisprudence Committee, would like to express our appreciation and thanks to our Worthy Grand Matron for appointing us to serve in this capacity. We trust that our efforts have benefited the Order of the Eastern Star.

The maintaining and observance of our Rules and Regulations is the basis of our conduct. Our Order is no different than other organizations or form of government, we must respect our Laws, and answer to the responsibility to see that they are obeyed. If we allow any members or group of members to do as they desire, without respect for law and order, then we find ourselves a member of an organization that will bring discredit to all members.

In this day and time, in which we live, when more people have less respect for rules of conduct and order, we all need to enact appropriate laws, and then to obey them in our daily conduct. (Applause.)

We again express our thanks to the Worthy Grand Matron, and the members of the Order of the Eastern Star, for their kindness and cooperation this past year, and for the opportunity of serving.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY BERNHARD
MYRTLE ROGERS
CHARLES E. BAIRFIELD
GEORGE T. NEWCOMB
CHAUNCEY E. PENIX, Chairman

MR. CHAUNCEY PENIX: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the final report of the Jurisprudence Committee be adopted.

The question was taken and the Final Report of the Jurisprudence Committee was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Brother Chauncey and members of the Jurisprudence Committee, I want to take this opportunity to express to you my sincere appreciation for the service you are always ready to render our Order. Always I have felt that I have been welcome to counsel with you or any members of this committee at any time.

I appreciate the cooperation that you have given and your ready answers to any questions concerning the law that I have had.

I am deeply grateful to you, and I know that the Grand Chapter of Texas appreciates the service you are rendering and that you have been rendering in the past.

Thank you so much. (Applause.)

APPRECIATION—HOSTESS CHAPTERS

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Last evening the Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons of the Hostess Chapters were introduced, and I would like to say to them again how much we appreciate their cooperation and their work concerning the planning of this Grand Chapter Session.

At this time I am going to ask for a partial report of the Executive Committee.

Sister Doris Efird, will you please come to the East?

I would like the Chairman of the Arrangements Committee also to come to the East.

PRESENTATION OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND CHAIRMAN ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters and Brothers, I am happy to present to you the members of the Executive Committee.

Mr. John Tarter, Chairman
Mr. Vernon N. Barnes
Mrs. Cleatrice Bounds
Mrs. Clevia Cross
Mrs. Merlyn DeVore
Mrs. Doris Efird.

And the Chairman of the Arrangements Committee:

Mr. Marvin Justice, Chairman
Mr. Milton Mathews.

At this time we will have the report of the Executive Committee.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron,

My Sisters and Brothers:

Worthy Grand Matron, words could never express to you my appreciation for the opportunity of serving our Grand Chapter in this capacity. It has been a great honor to me sharing and working with the other members of this Committee who have labored endlessly to make this Grand Chapter Session one of the finest we have had. I would like to name them again at this time:

Mr. John Tarter	Chairman
Mr. Vernon N. Barnes	Vice-Chairman
Mrs. Clevia Cross	Housing Chairman
Mrs. Cleatrice Bounds	Social Chairman
Mrs. Merlyn DeVore	Decor and Stage Consultant
Mr. Marvin Justice	Arrangements Chairman
Mr. Milton H. Mathews	Vice-Chairman Arrangements

Recognition is due the members of the Arrangements Committee, as well as the other loyal and dedicated members of District 3, Section 1, who furnished and drove their personal automobiles for courtesy cars, who furnished the use of their typewriters, adding machines, desks, file cabinets, trucks and professional services, and also the Fort Worth Downtown Association who supplied the registration bags to us at no cost.

It is through the assistance of these wonderful people that the Executive Committee is able to record this good report, as follows:

Respectfully submitted,

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
 DORIS M. EFIRD, Secretary-Treasurer

MRS. DORIS EFIRD: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report be adopted.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters and Brothers; it is not always easy to find those who are willing to accept such an important responsibility. I am grateful to each member of this committee, and I am sure the members in attendance here are.

Please accept my sincere thanks for all your careful planning, the consideration shown to others, and for your splendid cooperation at all times. (Applause.)

Now we will have a report from the Chairman of Arrangements.

REPORT OF ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE

MR. MILTON MATHEWS: Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Members and Visitors, my Sisters and Brothers all: I feel somewhat guilty of usurpation of the rights and privileges of our Brother Marvin Justice, Chairman of the Grand Arrangements Committee, however, as many of you know, our esteemed Brother has been plagued with infirmities this year, culminating in an emergency operation of serious nature less than one month back. Through sheer desire and loyalty, he has been at this Session daily, even if only for a brief time. We are happy that Brother Marvin has progressed this far and look forward to his complete return to good health.

Worthy Grand Matron, in behalf of all the members of this Committee, may I express our appreciation in being a part of your Grand Family. Ours is a working committee, not noted for reports. Under the guidance of the Executive Committee with whom we have worked closely, we divided ourselves into 15 sub-committees and diligently set to work. The helping hands of many volunteers not actually Grand Officers, also the three Assemblies of Rainbow Girls, played an important part in our progress—this we acknowledge. We hope the results have pleased you and this Grand Chapter. Our mistakes have been of the head, not of the heart.

Again I want to thank you for the privilege of being able to contribute to this Grand Chapter Session.

Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

MILTON H. MATHEWS.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report be adopted.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Brother Milton Mathews. I know the members of this Grand Chapter will want to express appreciation to this fine committee for the work they have done. Their names are listed in the back of your program. So will you join me at this time in saying a special, thank you? (Applause.)

We will now have the report of the Grand Examiners.

I am happy to recognize our Grand Examining Board.

This is one of the important Boards of our Grand Chapter. No one is more honored than those who come to us as our teachers, such as we have in our Grand Examiners. They travel about the state assisting you and inspiring the members to learn more about the work of our Order.

It is my privilege now to present the Grand Examining Board to you.

I believe Sister Earline Frazier is to give the report.

REPORT OF GRAND EXAMINERS

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Distinguished Members, Sisters and Brothers:

We come to you to bring the report of the certificates issued in our separate Districts.

	Schools	A	B	Total
District 1	10	1,375	215	1,590
District 2	10	1,094	371	1,465
District 3	10	1,011	442	1,453
District 4	10	1,798	544	2,342
District 5	10	1,344	264	1,608
	50	6,622	1,836	8,458

It has been a rich and rewarding experience for us to serve during this year of Love and Understanding. It has been a joy to meet the Membership of the Order, and work with them in a work that is worthy of our most earnest effort. Our lives have been fully blessed and we hope that our efforts have, in a small measure, brought credit to the Order.

Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, we pray that God will continue to bless and keep you and let your lives always be a blessing to your fellowman.

To the membership of this Grand Chapter, we offer our thanks for the privilege to serve in this capacity.

Fraternally submitted,

EARLINE FRAZIER, Chairman
FRANCES HERRIN, Secretary
MARGARET HAMPTON
PATRICIA MAJOR
KATHERINE HARBOUR

MRS. EARLINE FRAZIER: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of the report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report of the Grand Examiners be adopted.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: To the Examining Board, I would like to say to each of you that it was my pleasure to travel with you in your respective Districts.

I have the greatest respect and admiration for those who serve on the Examining Board. I know their problems, because I have served there too, and I know the pleasure that it affords of getting to know the members of Texas better.

Thank you, girls, for the many courtesies you extended to me when I was in your Districts. I wish you God's speed next year, and that He will watch over you carefully as you continue to serve this wonderful membership of Texas.

Thank you. (Applause.)

Now I recognize Sister Joyce Roberts, Grand Examiner-at-Large, for her report.

REPORT OF GRAND EXAMINER-AT-LARGE

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Grand Officers, Sisters and Brothers:

I express deep and sincere appreciation for the privilege of serving you as Grand Examiner-at-Large. It has been an interesting experience, and I have endeavored to give conscientious attention to the duties of my office.

I am most grateful to the members of the Board of Grand Examiners and members who have assisted me in the examining room. It is through their faithful service that I am able to submit the following report:

DISTRICT No. 1:

"A" Certificates	4
"B" Certificates	1
Total	5

DISTRICT No. 2:

Respectfully submitted,

JOYCE ROBERTS,
Grand Examiner-at-Large

MRS. JOYCE ROBERTS: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of the report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: You have heard the report of the Grand Examined-at-Large. It has been moved that the report be adopted. There is a second.

The question was taken and the report was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Sister Joyce Roberts and members of the Committee, for taking care of our Examining Room at this Grand Chapter Session.

Now I would like to recognize the Chairman of the Registration Committee.

In recognition of the very efficient service rendered to this Grand Chapter by the members of the Registration Committee, it is with special pride and pleasure that I present to you Mrs. Claribel Kendall, Chairman, who will give the report at this time.

REPORT OF REGISTRATION COMMITTEE

MRS. CLARIBEL KENDALL: First, I would like to thank the members of the committee for their splendid cooperation and assistance at all times, and also to express appreciation to Mrs. Miles, our Grand Secretary, and to many members who so willingly worked untiringly for many weeks before Grand Chapter in order that we would be better prepared for the members who planned to attend.

Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pleasure that I introduce the members of the Registration Committee:

Pat Monaghan, District 1
Flora McNeill, District 2

Jerry Sullivan, District 4
 Gladys Tobin, District 5

We wish to express to you our appreciation for the opportunity of serving you and Grand Chapter and sincerely hope our efforts have proven satisfactory.

Worthy Grand Matron, we your Committee on Registration, are pleased to submit this final report:

Total number registered	4,685
Out-of-State visitors	25
Members of Eastern Star Home	5
Total	4,715

CLARIBEL KENDALL, Chairman
 MRS. FLORA McNEILL, Member
 MRS. GLADYS B. TOBIN, Member
 JERRY SULLIVAN, Member
 R. Y. MONOGHAN

MRS. CLARIBEL KENDALL: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of this report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report of the Registration Committee be adopted.

The question was taken and the report of the Registration Committee was adopted.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Claribel and members of the Registration Committee, I feel that we owe you a debt of gratitude. We are aware of the many responsibilities of this Committee. In a way it is a thankless job, if we look at it from that angle. Some of our members do not realize the important duties this committee assumes. I assure you that the members have worked long, and they have given many hours, Sisters and Brothers, so that our Grand Chapter would run smoothly, and their contribution to this session is of inestimable value.

My sincere thanks and appreciation to the members of this fine committee and all who assisted, for the very efficient manner in which you have served this Grand Chapter. It is a fine thing to have ability, but the ability to discover ability in others and to recognize them for it is the real test.

I know that the membership would want to join with me in saying a special thank you to this committee, who has served all of us in such a quiet, efficient manner. (Applause.)

I do not think of any other business right now.

At this time I am going to invite our Grand Choir to sing for us.

GRAND CHOIR

MRS. CLOE THOMAS: Worthy Grand Matron, we would like to sing the theme song of this Grand Chapter, "Love is the Theme," and I would like everyone in the audience to join with me.

The Grand Choir and the Assembly sang "Love is the Theme."

CHAPTER REPRESENTATIVES

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: You know, Sisters and Brothers, I think it would be interesting to see the hands of the Chapter Representatives to see how many are left in this Grand Chapter room.

Will you please raise your hands if you are Chapter Representatives.

Now where are the others? You know your Chapters pay your way to come to Grand Chapter as their Chapter Representatives.

I wish the Chapter Representatives would consider more seriously staying inside and listening to the deliberations of the Grand Chapter Sessions.

We will now have the report of the By-Laws Committee.

REPORT OF BY-LAWS COMMITTEE

Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron, Officers and Members of Grand Chapter:

We, your By-Laws Committee, want you to know that it has been a pleasure to serve on this committee this year. We have thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to have a part in the accomplishments of your year and we hope that our efforts have met with your approval. Our sincere thanks for asking us to serve with you this year and our partial report follows:

MRS. FANNIE LEE STRATHDEE: Worthy Grand Matron, I move the adoption of the report.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It has been moved and seconded that the report of the By-Laws Committee be adopted.

The question was taken and the motion prevailed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, Mrs. Fannie Lee Strathdee and members of the committee, for a job well done.

INTRODUCTIONS—MR. E. GAUNTT

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Do we have Grand Officers present who have not been introduced at this Grand Chapter Session?

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will present our Past Grand Patron at the Altar.

SISTER GRAND CONDUCTRESS: Worthy Grand Matron, it is with pleasure that I present Mr. E. B. Gauntt, Past Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Brother Gauntt, it is with distinct pride and pleasure that we welcome you to this Grand Chapter. Your continued interest and loyalty to our Grand Chapter merits the honor and esteem in which you are held.

Sisters Grand Conductress and Associate Grand Conductress, you will escort our Past Grand Patron to the East.

Mr. E. B. Gauntt, Past Grand Patron, was escorted to the East, introduced, and given Grand Honors.

APPRECIATION

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: I wish to express thanks and appreciation to the Boards, Committees and all others for your many courtesies. It is my sincere and heartfelt conviction that you have done an excellent job. Words are inadequate to convey my admiration of you, the finest people in the world.

All good things have to come to an end. This is about that time.

Some of the things that have happened during this Grand Chapter remind me of a yarn I heard. A little boy in school was taking a test. On top of his paper he wrote: "Lord God of Hosts, be with me yet, lest I forget, lest I forget."

So the next day he got his paper back from the teacher, and he hurriedly turned through it and read what the teacher had written very nicely: "The Lord of Hosts was with you not, for you forgot."

So sometimes we forget.

But let me assure you it has been a pleasure to serve you. You have been wonderful, and I have had the privilege of serving with the most wonderful Worthy Grand Matron. She has been patient and efficient. You have observed how she has completed the work of this Session in a very effective and efficient manner. It makes me know she has all the good qualities of a good School Teacher, for no one can cope with this many adults without having exceptional ability. She could have a teaching job in anybody's school. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Rebecca, do you know of anything to come before this Grand Chapter at this time?

GRAND SECRETARY: Worthy Grand Matron, there is nothing within my knowledge.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Any other announcements?

MRS. EDNA EARL DUKE: No further announcements. Just everybody be back on time to be installed.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call this Grand Chapter from labor to rest until 6:15 P. M., and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM LABOR TO REST

The Bible was closed, and Grand Chapter was called from labor to rest at 2:30 P. M.

BENEDICTION

The Benediction was sung by the Grand Choir.

Thus came to a close the "Autumn Enchantment" Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas. For the past year the affairs of Grand Chapter has been in capable and responsible hands. Mrs. Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron, and Dr. James H. Goettee, Worthy Grand Patron, have been constantly active and energetic throughout their term of service. They have responded promptly and ably to every request from a member or a Chapter. Their work was constructive, and their accomplishments will have a lasting effect on the future success of this Grand Chapter.

No Worthy Grand Matron has ever presided over the Sessions with more poise and assurance, and throughout the Sessions no question was ever raised as to her rulings. She exhibited a remarkable ability to conduct the business of Grand Chapter with efficiency and dispatch, and long before the final ballot was cast on the day of election all the regular business of Grand Chapter had been satisfactorily concluded.

She is a very gracious, a very fine, and a very beautiful lady.

EIGHTY-FOURTH
INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS
GRAND CHAPTER OF TEXAS
ORDER OF THE EASTERN STAR
WILL ROGERS MEMORIAL COLISEUM
FORT WORTH, TEXAS

The Eighty-fourth Installation of Grand Officers was lovingly dedicated to the Mother of the Worthy Grand Matron-elect, Mrs. Mary Wyles Johnson, to Wisteria Chapter No. 823, Beaumont, Texas, the Home Chapter of the Worthy Grand Matron-elect, and to Richland Hills Chapter No. 1040, Fort Worth, Texas, the home Chapter of the Worthy Grand Patron-elect.

For the Installation the scene in the coliseum had changed. The wall remained in back of the chairs in the East, but the autumn leaves had gone, and in front of and on the wall were lovely wisteria trees and climbing wisteria vines in full bloom. The wisteria motif ran throughout the floral decorations. The front wall of the stage from its floor to the Grand Chapter floor, and the front of the podium, were literally covered with passion flowers.

The podium, the Altar and the Station pedestals were covered with silk drapes, wisteria color.

The Statute of Justice had been removed, and three golden bells hung from the arch of the central opening.

Preceding the call to order there was an organ prelude by Mrs. Genevieve Halbert, Past Matron, Hemphill Chapter, and Miss Peggy Patterson, Past Matron, Nocona Chapter, serving as Assistant Grand Organist.

CALL TO ORDER

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Members of the Order of the Eastern Star and Friends:

It is now my pleasure to call to order the Eighty-third "Autumn Enchantment" Session for the purpose of the Eighty-fourth Installation of Grand Officers of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star. I extend to each of you a warm, fraternal greeting, and a special welcome to this Installation.

Time passes, silently, swiftly, but surely, leaving a measure of joy and happiness to all. This evening marks an ending of another wonderful year of service to our Order, and the beginning of a new year. There is a tendency to regret the passing of the one, while at the same time we wait with eager anticipation for the other.

This marks the closing of the year of Love and Service for the Officers of 1964-1965. It is time for us to make way for the new officers, and we do so with the very best wishes to each one for a year of happiness as they work together in promoting the interest of the Grand Chapter of Texas.

We are most appreciative for the delegates and visitors who have shared in the activities and attainments of this Eighty-third Annual Session. Life holds no greater gift than the opportunity of serving others. This is a very special occasion in our Grand Chapter. To the incoming officers, we pledge our support, our love, and our loyalty.

I extend my very best wishes to our incoming Worthy Grand Matron, Worthy Grand Patron and their corps of Grand Officers.

May all God's richest blessings
Be theirs along the way,
And may He grant them happiness
Through every hour of every day.
For with His trust to guide them
In everything they do,
Their fondest hopes and dreams
Will all come true.

(Applause.)

It is now my pleasure to present the Worthy Grand Patron, who will also extend words of welcome at this time.

Dr. Goettee.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Thank you, Worthy Grand Matron.

It is a pleasure to join our Worthy Grand Matron in extending to each of you fraternal greetings and best wishes at this final session of the "Autumn Enchantment" Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas, for the Installation of a new corps of officers.

I wish to express thanks and appreciation to the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel, for the many courtesies extended throughout our tenure of service to Grand Chapter. I am grateful to all who have helped to make our year a very pleasant one.

I wish to extend to Mrs. Edna Earl Duke, Worthy Grand Matron-elect, and Judge Marvin B. Simpson, Jr., Worthy Grand Patron-elect, and their corps of officers my best wishes for a very successful year as leaders of our Grand Chapter.

Thank you. (Applause.)

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: It is now with special pride that I present the Master of Ceremonies for the evening. Mrs. Agnes Lee Howard will be escorted by Mr. Gerald C. Allen.

It is with pleasure that I present the gavel to Sister Agnes Lee Howard, who will preside.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Thank you, Worthy Grand Matron.

It is my pleasure now to present the Grand Officers for 1965-1966.

Before I call their names and the names of their escorts may I make a suggestion? These officers will come from my right and my left, and they will come in couples, and you will hold your applause, and give it as both are standing in the archway.

Thank you.

DRESSES

As the Grand Officers stepped through the archways they were lovely in their silk and lace dresses of aqua color with beaded bodices. A panel hung from the neck line to the hem of the formal in the back. They carried beautiful white beaded bags and wore silver slippers. The men wore tux and black ties.

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: I now present the Grand Officers:

Grand Sentinel, Mr. Joe Ryals, escorted by Mrs. Vee Ryals.

Grand Warder, Mrs. Kathryn Bell, escorted by J. V. Bell, Jr. (Applause.)

Grand Electa, Mrs. Margaret Landrum, escorted by Mr. Malcolm Landrum.

Grand Martha, Mrs. Velma Frost, escorted by Mr. James Frost. (Applause.)

Grand Esther, Mrs. Earlyn Simpson, escorted by Mr. Marvin Simpson, III. (Applause.)

Grand Ruth, Mrs. Thelma Joyce Alsop, escorted by Mr. Jerry Sullivan. (Applause.)

Grand Adah, Mrs. Clara Fuqua, escorted by Dr. R. O. Fuqua. (Applause.)

Grand Organist, Mrs. Mabel L. Guinn, escorted by Mr. Max L. Porter. (Applause.)

Grand Marshal, Mrs. Loyce Loper, escorted by Mr. Herbert L. Loper. (Applause.)

Grand Chaplain, Mrs. Bea Vaughan, escorted by Mr. J. B. Vaughan, Jr. (Applause.)

Associate Grand Conductress, Mrs. Robbie Yates, escorted by Mr. Floy Yates. (Applause.)

Grand Conductress, Mrs. Nancy Bailey, escorted by Mr. E. R. Bailey. (Applause.)

Grand Treasurer, Mrs. Jettie Hinton, escorted by Mr. Bobby Jones. (Applause.)

Grand Secretary, Mrs. Rebecca L. Miles, escorted by Mr. C. D. Miller. (Applause.)

Associate Grand Patron, Mr. Herschel Harrington, escorted by Mrs. Herschel Harrington. (Applause.)

Associate Grand Matron, Mrs. Mildred Sharpe, escorted by Mr. Fred Nance. (Applause.)

Worthy Grand Patron, Judge Marvin B. Simpson, Jr., escorted by Miss Deborah Simpson. (Applause.)

Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Edna Earl Duke, escorted by Mr. James M. Johnson. (Applause.)

Time tears the leaves from the Book of Life
And memories hold them fast,
And writes on the Scroll in words of gold
The beautiful things that last.

Mrs. Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron, and Dr. James H. Goettee, Worthy Grand Patron, just one short year ago you faced the bridge of service with your highest aspirations, knowing that you might not reach them all, but confident that you could look up and see their beauty and believe in them, determined to try to follow them wherever they would lead. Tonight you have crossed over that bridge at the culmination of this beautiful and memorable "Autumn Enchantment" Session and prepare to enter upon a new phase of life, that of completed executive service to our beloved Order and the ranks of the Past Grands. Surely I now speak for your entire membership when I say, "You have been weighed in the balances and not found wanting."

A distinct honor is mine now as I present a fine Christian gentleman, one dedicated to the betterment of mankind, my own Worthy Grand Patron, Mr. Gerald C. Allen.

There's one thing that stays the same
 For days and months on end,
 And that's the privilege that is mine
 In calling you my friend.

MR. GERALD C. ALLEN: Thank you, Sister Agnes Lee Howard, my own Worthy Grand Matron.

It is a pleasure to stand in the East with you and extend greetings to the members of this Grand Chapter.

Sister Amy and Brother James, your year has been a most successful one. Your accomplishments will be remembered by the membership of our Order. You have earned the esteem of all with whom you have been associated.

To Sister Edna Earl Duke and Brother Marvin Simpson, I congratulate you and your Grand Officers. This Grand Chapter is most fortunate in having you to lead the membership. I know the affairs of Grand Chapter are in capable hands.

My very best wishes. May God direct you throughout your year of service.

Thank you very much. (Applause.)

PROCESSIONAL OF DISTINGUISHED GUESTS

As the distinguished guests were presented they entered the Grand Chapter room from the West and were escorted to chairs on the platform in the East. Headed by Mrs. Mildred Haney Harris, Past Most Worthy Grand Matron of General Grand Chapter, attired in a strikingly beautiful wisteria colored formal, and looking the part of queenly person she has always been, they were heartily applauded.

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: To our most distinguished member in Texas, the immediate Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, we proudly claim you and honor you, not only for having attained and served in the highest office in the Order of the Eastern Star, but for the renown that you have brought to Texas, and we cordially invite you to come to the East.

Mrs. Mildred Haney Harris, escorted by Mr. J. T. Sanders, Right Eminent Grand Commander, Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Texas. (Applause.)

I present Mrs. Mabel Harle, member of the Appeals and Grievances Committee of General Grand Chapter, escorted by Judge Dean Gauldin, Past Grand Patron. (Applause.)

I present Mr. Frank R. Phillips, member of Educational Committee of General Grand Chapter, escorted by Mrs. Frank Phillips. (Applause.)

It is now my pleasure to present the following:

Mrs. Norton B. Wellborn, Past Grand Matron. (Applause.)

Mrs. Margery Wofford, Past Grand Matron. (Applause.)

Mrs. Birdie Jane Easterling, Past Grand Matron. (Applause.)

Mrs. Mattie Mitchell, Past Grand Matron. (Applause.)

Mrs. Hallie Anglin, Past Grand Matron. (Applause.)

Mrs. Katherine Poulis, Past Grand Matron. (Applause.)

Mrs. Cheba Dewees, Past Grand Matron, escorted by Dr. T. G. Rogers, Past Grand Patron. (Applause.)

Mrs. Cynthia May Watts, Past Grand Matron, escorted by Mr. J. B. Vaughan, Jr. (Applause.)

Mrs. Flora Besst Boone, Past Grand Matron, escorted by Mr. Earl G. Manning, Past Grand Patron. (Applause.)

Mrs. Thelma McReynolds, Past Grand Matron, escorted by Mr. Hal Burnett, Past Grand Patron. (Applause.)

Mrs. Molly Goodpasture, Past Grand Matron, escorted by Mr. E. P. (Van) Plumlee, Past Grand Patron. (Applause.)

Mrs. Viva S. Huffman, Past Grand Matron, escorted by Mr. Paul C. Stoneman, Past Grand Patron. (Applause.)

Mrs. Eunice Connell, Past Grand Matron, escorted by Judge M. A. Childers, Past Grand Patron. (Applause.)

Mrs. Mary Katharine Smith, Past Grand Matron, escorted by Mr. Gordon Smith, Past Patron. (Applause.)

If the passing of the years brings anything to our Order, it is the rich experiences, the deeper truths, the surer hopes, the better attainments. Always the best is yet to be. The presence of each of these distinguished members of Texas is evidence of their dearest hope that each year is bringing the Order closer to the best that is to be.

Every noble life leaves the fiber of itself interwoven forever in the work of the world. Truly the tapestry of our Order was enhanced and more brilliantly hued by the "Tie That Binds Session" over which Mrs. Cheba Dewees, Past Grand Matron, presided here in Fort Worth in 1948.

Mrs. Dewees will now present the Dedication of the Year.

DEDICATION

Inasmuch as all these have, throughout their lives, climbed God's highest mountain to ring the bells proclaiming the glad tidings in the service of our beloved Order of the Eastern Star, do I lovingly dedicate this year.

PAST GRAND MATRONS AND PAST GRAND PATRONS OF THE GRAND CHAPTER OF TEXAS

Represented by:

Mrs. Lillian Barnard, Worthy Grand Matron 1945-1946
(when the present Worthy Grand Matron served as Worthy Matron of Wisteria Chapter No. 823)
Mr. William G. Vollus, Worthy Grand Patron 1930-1931
(who Instituted and Constituted the Worthy Grand Matron's home Chapter)

PAST MATRONS AND PAST PATRONS OF THE SUBORDINATE CHAPTERS OF TEXAS

Represented by:

Mrs. Mary Richardson and Mr. Jason G. Richardson
(first Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, also Life Members, of Wisteria Chapter No. 823)

CHARTER MEMBERS, LIFE MEMBERS, 50-YEAR
MEMBERS OF THE SUBORDINATE CHAPTERS

Represented by:

Mrs. Nora Ainsworth, 50-year Member of Robstown
Chapter No. 540

(Great Aunt of the Worthy Grand Matron)

MRS. CHEBA DEWEEES: Inasmuch as all of these have throughout their lives climbed God's highest mountain to ring the bells proclaiming the Glad Tidings of joy in the service of our beloved Order of the Eastern Star, the Worthy Grand Matron-elect, Mrs. Edna Earl Duke, dedicates this year to:

The Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons of the Grand Chapter of Texas, represented by:

Mrs. Lillian Barnard, Worthy Grand Matron 1944-1945 when Mrs. Edna Earl Duke served as Worthy Matron of Wisteria Chapter No. 823.

Mr. William G. Vollus, Worthy Grand Patron 1930-1931, who Instituted and Constituted the Worthy Grand Matron-elect's Home Chapter, and the Past Matrons and Past Patrons of the Subordinate Chapters of Texas, represented by:

Mrs. Nora Ainsworth, 50-Year Member of Robstown Chapter No. 540, Great Aunt of the Worthy Grand Matron-elect, who is not present.

Thus, it is written, "The heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament shews His handiwork . . . Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto the night sheweth knowledge.

"Let the words of my mouth, and the meditations of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer."

Be ye therefore perfect. As the tree is bent so shall the tree grow. Elect to be perfect and you shall be perfect. The will of man in this world determines the man to be in the next world. Here life is conceived and takes shape and reaches fulfillment. As no perfection is attained here, so no imperfection exists in heaven. A life patterned after the Master shall become like unto the Master.

No good thing is ever lost. Nothing dies, not even life which gives up one form only to resume another. No good action, no good example dies. It lives forever in the hearts of those that love in truth and faith.

So it is that those whom we now honor, specially as individuals of the year, have done their best not because work is worth it, but because you are. Whatever you are doing you are making manhood. The only way for our standard is by continually living up to the highest in all that you do.

Will Brother William G. Vollus, escorted by his wife, Mrs. Lallah Mae Vollus, at this time come to our Altar? (Applause.)

Mr. William G. Vollus, Past Grand Patron, was escorted to the Altar by his wife, Mrs. Lallah Mae Vollus, Past Grand Matron.

MRS. CHEBA DEWEEES: Mr. William G. Vollus, the Worthy Grand Matron-elect is dedicating the year to you who Instituted and Constituted Wisteria Chapter No. 823, her beloved home Chapter.

Mr. Vollus, Past Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of Texas, "How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, thy God reigneth."—Isaiah 52:7.

Bill Vollus, educated in the schools of Houston and served in World War I, returned to take his place in the civic and fraternal activities of his beloved Houston. A member of Gray Lodge No. 329, A. F. & A. M., and other Bodies of Masonry.

We have heard it said that "A man stands tall, when he reaches to help a child." Bill Vollus through the many years of his membership in the great Masonic Fraternity, through great sacrifice many times to personal interests, never waived, and gave his best to those obligations he had assumed.

Bless you, Bill, as you continue to serve our great Order. "May the Giver of all perfect gifts, that made you, continue to smile on you and your devoted wife, Lallah Mae."

Your presence means much to the Worthy Grand Matron-elect and the membership of this great Order of the Eastern Star.

You will be escorted to the East by Mrs. Lallah Mae Vollus, where a place of honor is reserved for you. (Applause.)

Sisters and Brothers, it is my pleasure to present to you Mr. William G. Vollus, Past Grand Patron, whom we honor at this time.

Will Mrs. Lillian Barnard, escorted by her Worthy Grand Patron, Mr. Boughten Gauntt, come to the Altar, please?

MRS LILLIAN BARNARD

Mrs. Lillian Barnard was escorted to the Altar by Mr. Boughten Gauntt, Past Grand Patron.

MRS. CHEBA DEWEES: Sister Lillian Barnard, it is the wish of the Worthy Grand Matron-elect that you be signally and notably honored this evening on her Installation as Worthy Grand Matron of Texas. You served as Worthy Grand Matron when Mrs. Duke was Worthy Matron of Wisteria Chapter No. 823, in 1945-1946.

Your wonderful attributes and great wisdom distinguished you and as a fraternal link representing this great Order. The Worthy Grand Matron-elect, Mrs. Edna Earl Duke, strives to serve with patience, courtesy, good fellowship and sincerity. These qualities have been transplanted from your good life to the lofty aims and have taken root in the very being of our administration for the coming year of 1965-1966. Few can project their desires.

"Behold, I have done according to thy words; there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee."

Brother Boughten Gauntt, Worthy Grand Patron of 1944-1945, honor has come to you from many groups, other than our fraternal Order, and justly deserved because of your gentlemanly actions, divine conception of human endeavor and love of people and life in all its fullness. "May your tribe increase."

Mrs. Lillian Barnard, you will be escorted by Mr. Boughten Gauntt, to places reserved for you in the East.

Sisters and Brothers, it is my pleasure to present Mrs. Lillian Barnard, Past Grand Matron, and Mr. Broughten Gauntt, Past Grand Patron, whom we honor this evening. (Applause.)

WORTHY MATRONS AND WORTHY PATRONS OF WISTERIA CHAPTER AND RICHLAND HILLS CHAPTER

MRS. CHEBA DEWEES: Will the Worthy Matron of Wisteria Chapter and the Worthy Patron of Wisteria Chapter, the Worthy Grand Matron-elect's own Chapter, and the Worthy Matron of Richland Hills Chapter and the Worthy Patron of Richland Hills Chapter, the Worthy Grand Patron-elect's own Chapter, come to the Altar at this time?

Mrs. Inez Walker, Worthy Matron of Wisteria Chapter, Mr. J. T. McGown, Worthy Patron of Wisteria Chapter, and Mrs. Pat Wheeler, Worthy Matron of Richland Hills Chapter, and Mr. Kenneth Stome Stone, Worthy Patron of Richland Hills Chapter, were introduced at the Altar, presented in the East, given a hearty welcome, and seated in the East.

PRESENTATION OF BIBLE AND SQUARE AND COMPASSES

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: In our Order we often refer to the "Tie that Binds," but surely in all life there is no tie more binding than that of the family tie. It is a personal joy to me to present those nearest and dearest to the heart of the Worthy Grand Matron-elect, her daughter, her mother and her sister.

Mrs. Jimmie Lee Huey will present the Bible, one of the greatest blessings bestowed on man, with all its purity, all of its sincerity; nothing too much, nothing wanting.

Miss Diana Duke will present the Square and Compasses, most precious heritage of our Order, and the significant emblems of that great Masonic Fraternity of Texas.

They will now dedicate the Installation to Mrs. Mary Wyles Johnson, mother of the Worthy Grand Matron-elect, and they will be escorted by Mr. W. A. Carter, uncle of the Worthy Grand Matron-elect.

DEDICATION

Mrs. Jimmie Lee Huey read the dedication, and while it was being read the Worthy Grand Matron-elect came to the place her mother was seated in a wheel chair, and then walked by her side when she was being escorted to her place in the audience. Mrs. Johnson was presented with a large spray of red roses.

Miss Diana Duke sang "There is a Song in My Heart."

The dedication and the singing were followed by prolonged applause.

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: The Grand Conductress will open the Bible.

The Bible that was on the Altar was the family Bible of the Worthy Grand Matron-elect. While it was being opened by the Grand Conductress the Grand Organist played "My God and I."

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: In 1944 a rare personality, abundant in passion for sympathetic and loving service, presided over the Peace

Session of the Grand Chapter held here in Fort Worth. I proudly present Mrs. Cynthia May Watts, the Worthy Grand Matron who presided over that session. She is brilliant in conversation, with a voice of rich musical cadence, and whose creative mastery of words is truly indescribable. She will invoke the blessings of our Heavenly Father upon this assembly.

INVOCATION

MRS. CYNTHIA MAY WATTS: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name!

At the close of this day of beauty, and as the soft rays of twilight fall gently and silently about us, we give Thee thanks for every expression of Thy kindness and love.

We are so grateful for this marvelous week of fraternal fellowship and friendship, and the many rich blessings that have been ours to enjoy. We praise Thee for Thy goodness to each of us.

For the splendid leadership of Sister Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron, and Brother James Goettee, Worthy Grand Patron, we give Thee praise, and ask that continued blessings be with them in the days to follow. Be very near to them at all times.

In the beginning of this New Year in our beautiful Order of the Eastern Star, may we be aware, our Father, that this is an occasion symbolizing an end as well as a beginning; signifying renewal as well as change. We pray for rededication of our lives to Thy service; for new grace to watch each day what we write, what we say, and what we do, and for lives that will reflect the love of Jesus. May we be busy going about doing good, looking for the beautiful and the sweetness in the lives of our Sisters and Brothers, and trying to act like Christians toward one another.

Heavenly Father, we pray for special blessings to abide with our beloved leaders assuming the responsibilities of this Order, Sister Edna Earl Duke, Worthy Grand Matron, and Brother Marvin Simpson, Jr., Worthy Grand Patron. May Thy presence be felt in their lives; may they serve in faith, in love, in dignity, and touch many hearts for good. Keep them in good health, watch over them as they travel, and give them courage and wisdom as they serve the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star.

Bless the other officers, the members of this Lone Star State, and all of us, so that we may live in truth, in faith, and in love. Lead us by Thy spirit, strengthen us by Thy power, and sustain us by Thy love.

In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: I now invite the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Amy Goebel, to assume the station of the Grand Marshal.

GRAND MARSHAL

A most interesting feature was the additional role of Mrs. Amy Goebel, Worthy Grand Matron, in the Installation. As the Installing Grand Officers were introduced she conducted them to their respective stations. She wore a formal of rich shade of red, exquisitely designed, and was a vision of loveliness on the Grand Chapter floor. She was applauded frequently, and as she returned to her station was greeted with tremendous applause.

INSTALLING GRAND OFFICERS

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: It is with pride I present the Installing Grand Officers:

Installing Grand Officers, Mrs. Lois Burnett, Past Grand Matron, escorted by Mr. Charles E. Bairfield, Past Grand Patron.

Assistant Installing Grand Officer, Mrs. Mildred Garlitz, Past Grand Matron, escorted by Dr. R. O. Fuqua, Past Grand Patron.

Installing Grand Chaplain, Mrs. Mabel Harle, General Grand Chapter Committee Member, escorted by Judge Dean Gauldin, Past Grand Patron.

Installing Grand Marshal, Mrs. Lallah Mae Vollus, Past Grand Matron, escorted by Mr. Chauncey E. Penix, Past Grand Patron.

Installing Grand Secretary, Mrs. Mary Ella Schoverling, Past Grand Matron, escorted by Mr. Ed. Sharpe, Past Grand Patron.

Installing Grand Organist, Mrs. Helen Dobbins, Past Matron of Loyal Chapter No. 648, escorted by Mr. Murle Howard, Past Patron of Albany Chapter No. 733.

Music makes the soul and lifts it high. In 1956, the "Song of Ideals" was sung when the "Symphony Session" was held here in Fort Worth. I present to you the Worthy Grand Matron who presided over that inspiring session, Mrs. Lois Burnett, best described as a person of stateliness, of quiet modest dignity, lost in utter self-forgetfulness. We are privileged to have her as our Installing Grand Officer.

INSTALLATION CEREMONY

In a most impressive ceremony the following Grand Officers were installed:

Mrs. Edna Earl Duke, Worthy Grand Matron
 Judge Marvin B. Simpson, Jr., Worthy Grand Patron
 Mrs. Mildred Sharpe, Associate Grand Matron
 Mr. Herschel Harrington, Associate Grand Patron
 Mrs. Rebecca L. Miles, Grand Secretary
 Mrs. Jettie Hinton, Grand Treasurer
 Mrs. Nancy Bailey, Grand Conductress
 Mrs. Robbie Yates, Associate Grand Conductress
 Mrs. Beatrice Vaughan, Grand Chaplain
 Mrs. Loyce Loper, Grand Marshal
 Mrs. Mabel Guinn, Grand Organist
 Mrs. Clara Fuqua, Grand Adah
 Mrs. Thelma Joyce Alsup, Grand Ruth
 Mrs. Earlyne Simpson, Grand Esther
 Mrs. Velma Frost, Grand Martha
 Mrs. Margaret Landrum, Grand Electa
 Mrs. Kathryn Bell, Grand Warder
 Mr. Joe L. Ryals, Grand Sentinel.

Particularly noticeable during the ceremony of Installation was the performance of Mrs. Lallah Mae Vollus, Grand Installing Marshal. She was beautifully attired, perfect in her work, and was loudly applauded as she returned to her station.

MRS. LOIS BURNETT: Worthy Grand Matron, there is much in my heart that I could and would like to say to you. The many years it has been my privilege to know you and to claim you as my friend I want you to know that my life has been made happier because of the association with you.

I know as you launch on this year's work you will serve the great membership of Texas in a marvelous way. And we, your Sisters and Brothers here at your beautiful Installation join your friends in saying we congratulate you, and wish you God's speed in everything that you do.

I want to say to you, Sister Edna Earl Duke and Brother Marvin Simpson, I know when we come to Grand Chapter a year from now that you will have made many, many wonderful friends in this Order, and that you will feel great satisfaction in rendering to your Sisters and Brothers the greatest leadership that we all know you are capable of rendering.

May God bless you and be with each of you, is my prayer.

Worthy Grand Matron, I now present you the gavel.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Thank you, my lovely friend.

CLOSING OF THE BIBLE

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Grand Conductress, you will close the Bible.

Mrs. Nancy Bailey, Grand Conductress, closed the Bible.

DRILL BY RAINBOW GIRLS AND PRESENTATION

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: The fairest flower in the garden of creation is a young mind, offering and unfolding to the influence of worthwhile things. Could there be a more formative media for youth than the Order of the Rainbow for Girls?

Miss Sheila Frazier, Grand Worthy Advisor and personal friend of the Worthy Grand Matron, together with other members of the Grand Assembly, under the direction of Mrs. Vivian Couch, Member of Grand Committee on Work, in the absence of their distinguished leader, Mrs. Martha Marie Whitfield, Supreme Inspector, will make a presentation.

The Rainbow Girls were presented in a beautiful drill, in which two of the most prominent participants were Miss Diana Duke, daughter of the Worthy Grand Matron, and Miss Deborah Simpson, daughter of the Worthy Grand Patron. Diana escorted her mother into the formation, where Miss Sheila Frazier, Grand Worthy Advisor, presented the Worthy Grand Matron with a white Bible.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Miss Sheila Frazier, Grand Worthy Advisor, and you beautiful Rainbow Girls, including my own precious daughter, Diana, and Judge Simpson's lovely daughter, Deborah, and all these other beautiful daughters of our members and friends, I cannot tell you how honored I am tonight.

It was a perfectly beautiful thing for Diana to escort her mother to the Altar. And then to have the beautiful Bible presented to me by the lovely girl I have known since she was a very little girl, very close to my heart, is something I shall always remember and cherish in my heart. I have always thought she was one of the sweetest Christian girls I have ever known. She comes from a wonderful family.

So thank you, each and every girl of this fine Assembly, each and every Rainbow Girl, for what you have meant through the years in my life.

Just know that I will keep this Bible very close to my bed, and I will remember to read it each night. It will be precious to me as long as I live.

Thank you. (Applause.)

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Worthy Grand Matron, you possibly believe that your Cloud No. 9 is complete and that nothing could be added. But this I promise, the surprise that you are about to receive will remain a part of your memory forever and will prove to be the extra drops that will make your "cup runneth over."

I present now your present and Past Worthy Patron of your beloved Wisteria Chapter No. 823, Mr. J. T. McGown, the personification of a beautiful and rare, loyal and productive friendship.

Mr. McGown.

CONGRATULATION

MR. J. T. MCGOWN: Worthy Grand Matron, I take much pride in calling you that tonight.

I have a few words of congratulations I would like to bring to you.

Beaumont, Texas

Dear Mrs. Duke:

Many of us are aware that we have many fine citizens in our fine City of Beaumont and also that we have a large number that excel in many respects. I am most happy to learn that you have been chosen as the Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star, as you are worthy of this high office and I can truthfully say that not only myself and the City Council of the City of Beaumont but all of our fine citizens take great pride in the fact that you have been so chosen for this fine honor.

I would like to congratulate you personally and on behalf of the City Council and the people of Beaumont upon attaining this position of honor, trust and eminence in your Chapter. In attaining this position, you have not only brought honor to yourself personally but to the City of Beaumont and have placed yourself in the position of being one of our top citizens. The City of Beaumont is richer and certainly will receive much recognition through your efforts in discharging your duties. We are grateful that you are one of our

PRESENTATION OF WORTHY GRAND MATRON'S JEWEL

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Mrs. Amy Goebel, Junior Past Grand Matron, will now make the presentation of the Worthy Grand Matron's Jewel.

MRS. AMY GOEBEL: Edna Earl, throughout this year and in the years to come, as you witness the miracles of each new day, may you have:

Grateful appreciation of your blessings and opportunities,
Strength and courage for whatever the day may bring,
Wisdom for your problems and decisions,
Faith for your disappointments and sorrows,
Humility for your successes,
Charity for the action of others
No annoying regrets of yesterday
And no undue concern for tomorrow.

It is a joy to address you as our leader, and to present to you this jewel which represents the faith and trust of a wonderful membership. It also represents the many responsibilities and duties of the office, and is a symbol of much happiness.

May you see your hopes fulfilled, and all your plans crowned with success.

ACCEPTANCE OF WORTHY GRAND MATRON'S JEWEL

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Amy Goebel, Junior Past Grand Matron, I am happy that it is my privilege to be the recipient of this meaningful and beautiful Jewel presented in such a gracious manner by you, my friend. I shall remember your words and strive always to merit the honor, to be worthy of the confidence and trust which accompanies the wonderful privilege which is mine, as I proudly wear the authorization of this high office.

I want to express to you and to Brother Jim Goettee, these words of appreciation written by a great lady whom I admired:

"All human beings have failings, all human beings have needs, and temptation and stresses. Men and women who live together and work through long years get to know one another's failings; but they also get to know what is worthy of respect and admiration in those they live with and work with. If at the end one can say, 'This man, this woman, used to the limit the powers that God granted, she and he were worthy of love and respect and of the sacrifices of many people, made in order that she or he might achieve the task at hand,' then that life has been lived well and there are no regrets."

You have both accomplished the great task, and we love and admire you for your sincerity of purpose and your unswerving dedication to your positions of leadership. I salute you, our newest and grandest, Junior Past Grand Matron and Junior Past Grand Patron.

PRESENTATION OF WORTHY GRAND PATRON'S JEWEL

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Dr. James H. Goettee, Junior Past Grand Patron, will present the Worthy Grand Patron's Jewel.

DR. JAMES H. GOETTEE: Worthy Grand Patron, Judge Marvin B. Simpson, Jr., I am indeed honored to have the privilege of presenting you this beautiful Worthy Grand Patron's Jewel, and I now pin it upon you.

Your record of service speaks for your greatness as a citizen and as a leader in our Order. I am confident that you will be an excellent Worthy Grand Patron.

Among my most treasured memories are the many pleasant experiences we have shared in our service to Grand Chapter. May your year as Worthy Grand Patron be fruitful and pleasant. I am pleased and happy that you are my successor.

ACCEPTANCE OF WORTHY GRAND PATRON'S JEWEL

WORTHY GRAND PATRON: Dr. James H. Goettee, Junior Past Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of Texas:

I accept this Jewel in deep humility and with a full realization of the high honor you have brought to this badge in your tenure of service to our Order this past year.

Thank you very much. (Applause.)

PRESENTATION OF THEME

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: The art of living rightly is like all arts. It must be learned and practiced with incessant care. It is only fitting that the Worthy Grand Matron has chosen Mrs. Flora Besst Boone, Past Grand Matron, to present her Theme for the year.

Mrs. Boone.

MRS. FLORA BESST BOONE: Jesus said "I am the vine, you are the branches."—John 15:5.

Christ is the vine and we as individual disciples are the branches.

We strive to live the scriptural lessons of the Holy Bible. Likewise we teach the moral and beneficent purposes of our Order. To the extent that we are faithful and diligent in our efforts to abide by the Gospel of Christ and to live up to the landmarks of our Order will we be the branches and bearers of the Glad Tidings of Good Things.

SOLO

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: I now present Miss Diana Duke, who will sing "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains," by Harper.

In excellence voice, Miss Diana Duke sang beautifully "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains." The prolonged applause was ample evidence of the great favor with which her rendition was received by the Assembly.

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Music is well said to be the speech of Angels. All of us here tonight were privileged to witness this beautiful rendition agree with the proud mother that it was done by "an Angel."

The radiant personality possesses magic and draws out the best that is in others. Just such a person is our Worthy Grand Matron, and I deem it a real honor to present her to you now.

My Sisters and Brothers, Mrs. Edna Earl Duke.

ADDRESS OF WORTHY GRAND MATRON

MRS. EDNA EARL DUKE: Long before the Psalms were written, men found strength in the hills, and were lifted toward God. And to this day poets continue to ask: What is there in a mountain to lift the heart high?

Mrs. Howard, Master of Ceremonies, Worthy Grand Patron, General Grand Chapter Officers, other Distinguished Members and Guests, Sisters, Brothers, and Friends:

Tonight I am standing at the foot of this highest, most magnificent mountain of all those I have attempted to scale in the wonderful years of my Eastern Star service. Because of your confidence, your loyalty, and your faith in my integrity, I accept with pride and firmness of purpose the responsibilities which are mine in the exhilarating climb. There will ever be a keen awareness of the heritage which accompanies the title of Worthy Grand Matron, as the ascension of this year of dedicated service is begun. I have only to look about me, here in the East, to see all of these honorable, beloved Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patrons, to whom this year has been dedicated, to be even more aware of my heritage and its challenge. I am grateful for their expressions of interest and encouragement.

Particularly, do I want to thank Mrs. Mildred Haney Harris, immediate Past Most Worthy Grand Matron, for her presence. We shall enjoy her greetings later in the program. We are pleased by the attendance of our other Honor Guests, Mrs. Harle and Mr. Phillips, also.

From among this distinguished group are those Past Grand Matrons under whose leadership I have served as an elected or appointed officer, or with whom I have been closely associated in a very special, personal way.

To my Installing Grand Officers, Mrs. Lois Burnett, Mrs. Mildred Garlitz, Mrs. Mabel Harle, Mrs. Lallah Mae Vollus, Mrs. Amy Goebel, Mrs. Mary Ella Schoverling, and Mrs. Helen Dobbins, please accept my deep gratitude for the impressive and beautiful manner in which you installed, or assisted in installing, the Grand Officers of 1965-1966. Because of you, there is a joyous ringing in my heart tonight: A Melody of Love.

To the Master of Ceremonies, Mrs. Agnes Lee Howard, to all who have participated, or will participate, in these significant presentations: Mr. Wm. G. Vollus, Mrs. Lillian Barnard, Mrs. Cheba Dewees, Mrs. Cynthia May Watts, Mrs. Flora Besst Boone, Mr. Hal C. Burnett, Mrs. Thelma McReynolds, Mrs. Mary Katharine Smith, Mrs. Molly Goodpasture, Mrs. Eunice Connell, and Mrs. Viva Huffman, there is a deep appreciation for your meaningful and well chosen words, and the favorite song, which will bring to fruition all that has been locked in my mind and heart for so many years.

I have only to look out there at you, the Worthy Matrons of Texas, affectionately called My Duchesses, at your fine Worthy Patrons, and the distinguished Past Matrons and Patrons, and the devoted members always anxious to help, to know that my resolve to uphold the dignity of this office, to try to be worthy of your esteem and trust, must always be sincere and steadfast. Though the climb may be difficult, because of your belief in me, I will believe in myself, and there will never be any turning back.

From among you has come the Worthy Grand Patron of Texas, who will steadily and surely help to make this mountain scaling experience a more eventful and a more successful endeavor.

I shall always be grateful to the members of the Grand Chapter of Texas for electing Judge Marvin B. Simpson, Jr., to this high office. His fine service to our Order, and his zeal in our cause, are qualifications which will render his counsel and advice invaluable. It will be a genuine pleasure to serve with him and his lovely wife, Earlyne, who is our Grand Esther.

A sincere "Thank You" to the following who have given so much of themselves in their various efforts to make this Installation a memorable occasion:

Mrs. Victoree Hendrix, for the dedication of the "Joyous Bells March."

Miss Peggy Patterson, Mrs. Genevieve Helbert, and Mr. Wm. L. Hill for their inspiring music.

Miss Sheila Frazier, Grand Worthy Advisor, and the lovely Rainbow Girls, including my own daughter, Diana, and Miss Deborah Simpson, the daughter of our Worthy Grand Patron, for the impressive presentation of the beautiful Bible. It shall be read, then re-read, and kept always as a rare and priceless gift in the Duke home.

To the members of my Home Chapter, Wisteria No. 823: Will you all please stand now? The Installation is dedicated to you, too, tonight because, when I started at the bottom of this ascent of the mountain of service in our Order, you were the ones who encouraged and inspired me always with the words, "Excelsior, Excelsior." I heard you very clearly, and I know, with you by my side, the climb to the top will be a glorious one. Thank you for your love and loyalty. (Applause.)

Will the other members of my home town and Section, District 4, Section 2, stand now? I am so pleased to recognize you tonight, too. Your unselfish devotion has brought much joy and happiness to me always. A special "Thanks" to Mrs. Jean Anderson and all of you who spent many hours on these lovely Wisteria decorations. There is a bus load here, that left Beaumont at 12:30 today, and are driving back tonight. (Applause.)

You have met my gallant mother and my wonderful sister, without whose abiding love and encouragement none of this would be possible for me tonight.

To my lovely and adored daughter, Diana, whose mature understanding and unselfish devoted cooperation have been a tower of strength to her mother, I proudly say, borrowing from Keat's well-known words:

"She is a thing of beauty and a joy forever;
Her loveliness increases; it will never pass into nothingness." (Applause.)

Will the other members of my family please rise? My aunt, Mrs. Nora Earl Young, Mrs. Johnnie Stanford, Mrs. Irene Carter, the wife of my uncle, W. A. Carter, whom you have already met, my cousins, Mrs. Velma Seibenthal, Mrs. Lorraine Weiler. I am so happy and proud you could be here tonight. Thank you for coming. Your presence means more than just words can express. (Applause.)

Looking up to the sublimity of the peaks, we are filled with awe and reverence. We see masses of rocky ledges, yellow with sunshine, their recesses blue and purple in the distance, beckoning us, challenging us. The lofty cliffs are almost unsurmountable, but with brave determination we will begin, for along the way there will be grassy slopes covered with tall pines where we can rest from the climb.

There may be dangerous ledges, and slippery footing, but we will have valuable tools to help us.

First, a compass, which will be the "Landmarks of our Order."

Second, the staff upon which we will lean to keep our balance, "Faith in the Existence of a Supreme Being."

Last, we will take three ropes:

Rope one we will call Dedication. This is our honest consent to put our concentrated thought and effort into this venture, so that we will attain our goal.

Rope two will be Loyalty to our purpose. Believing we can, we look for the steps cut into the stonily walls named Fidelity, Constancy, Courage, Faith, and Love. There they are, so plainly heven and widely marked that even the newest and youngest members can follow.

Rope three is Sincerity. Why are we willing to work and sacrifice to try to attain perfection? Because it is natural for everything God has planted to grow upward. It is our nature to climb heavenward for spiritual perfection. So we add Sincerity to our ropes, that others may not stumble, but recognize in us a real friend in need, a true friend who cares as we pursue the uncertain ascent together.

When at last we reach the summit of our magnificent mountain, what a glorious view is ours! Where are the mighty gorges, the giant rocks which blocked our path! They are blended, rock and vale. The beautiful valley below shows no rough, formidable road. We are again reassured; our hearts quicken with joy; our resolve is strengthened that we have found the way, we are on the right path.

And so it is with life! When we can overcome the obstacles, they are obstacles no longer. When we have conquered the difficulties and scaled the heights, the way seems to have been easy. When at last from the topmost peak we can view the discouragements we have conquered, the rough road we have traversed, it all appears to be a united whole.

This, my Sisters and Brothers, and Friends, is our message to the world, as we shout from the mountain top, and our voices echo and re-echo, like beautiful bells, far down the canyons, this our:

"Glad Tidings of Good Things!" (Prolonged applause.)

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE KEYSTONE

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: There is one human desire that needs no explanation in its relation to our cosmic urge. That is the eternal quest for fraternal love and friendship. I know of no one more representative of fraternity than Mr. Hal Burnett, Past Grand Patron, a real friend, characterized by loyalty, sincerity and courtesy, with "his eyes on the stars and his feet on the ground." He will now present the Significance of the Keystone.

Brother Hal.

THE KEYSTONE

MR. HAL BURNETT: Perhaps no symbol in the Holy Bible is more beautiful or has more meaning than that of the Keystone. The Keystone was used in Ancient Architecture to complete the structure. In the erection of King Solomon's Temple and many other beautiful Cathedrals, the Keystone was considered the most important stone in all the building because it united two walls or structures together to complete the building.

The stones that were used in the erection of King Solomon's Temple were cut, squared and numbered in the quarry where they were raised and moved thence to where they were to be used. When the Keystone for this Temple arrived at the site of the building it was rejected and disposed of in the rubbish of the Temple because it was not a square or cubical stone and they did not understand how it could be used, and thought it worthless and of no use. As they neared completion of the building they found that this stone was necessary to the completion of the plans of this beautiful structure and were compelled to search and find it.

We find in Psalms 118, Verse 22, "The Stone which the builders refused is become the Head of the Corner."

In the Parable given by Christ, recorded in the 42nd Verse of Chapter 21 of St. Matthew, Christ said, "Did ye never read in the Scriptures, the stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the Corner?"

So Christ was rejected, crucified, and cast aside to be forgotten, but He, being the Keystone of God's Love, changed the Cruel Cross of Calvary to honor, dignity, and love, from hatred, shame and disgrace. He arose from the dead and is the Keystone that completes the Arch of Love between God and Man.

It is said of Christ, Acts 4:11, "This is the stone which was set at naught of you builders, which is become the Head of the Corner." In Masonry each individual Mason becomes the Keystone or Cement which, in effect, unites us in one Society, or Arch, of Friends and Brothers among whom no hatred or contention should ever exist, but that noble contention, or rather emulation, of who can best work and best agree.

Christ said in John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." It is our duty as Christians to continue God's plan as exemplified by Christ. As Christ is the Keystone between God and Man, it is our individual duty to be the Keystone of harmony and love with and between our Sisters and Brothers of our beautiful Fraternity.

Are we a Keystone to unite our great Fraternity in its true principles and precepts, or, are we the wedge to be driven between Masonry or two individuals to separate the real purposes of Freemasonry? Let us follow the greatest Keystone of them all, and humbly exemplify as nearly as possible the real meaning of His love and harmony so very essentially necessary to the success of our Order.

Our Masonic Brothers wear the Keystone as a Symbol of unity and love, and to represent that the person who wears the Keystone Emblem has been made symbolically a Living Stone for the construction of the Spiritual House not made with hands, Eternal in the Heavens. (Applause.)

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: There is tangible significance of the Keystone for the Worthy Grand Matron, because tonight she wears an heirloom Keystone, precious jewel, which belonged to her great grandfather, the late Mr. John Hanley Carter, pioneer of my own Shackelford County, and member of one of the oldest Royal Arch Masonic Chapters in Texas.

SOLO

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Music is a prophecy of what life is to be, the rainbow translated out of seeing into hearing. Let us listen now to the beautiful voice of Mr. W. L. Hill, Worthy Patron of Houston Chapter No. 385.

Mr. W. L. Hill sang "He Smiled On Me," by O'Hara.

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: The vision of high ideals belongs to every man who has a sincere desire to look to the finer possibilities beckoning him ever onward and upward. Sisters and Brothers, I proudly present our Worthy Grand Patron, Judge Marvin B. Simpson, Jr.

WORTHY GRAND PATRON

Judge Marvin B. Simpson, Jr., expressed his appreciation to the membership of Texas for their confidence and support in advancing him to the office of Worthy Grand Patron.

He pledged his enthusiastic support of the program and projects of the Worthy Grand Matron, and assured the membership that he would exert every effort within his power to make this the most successful year in the long history of successful years of this Grand Chapter.

Mrs. Mildred Garlitz, Past Grand Matron, was thanked for her part in the Installation, and for her advice, encouragement and support in his upward journey in our Order.

The members of Richland Hills Chapter, his home Chapter, were recognized and asked to stand. The group filled one entire section of the boxes.

He presented the members of his family: his wife, Mrs. Earlyne Simpson, Grand Esther; his charming daughter, Miss Deborah Simpson; and explained that his handsome son, Cadet Marvin B. Simpson, III, who had escorted his mother and the Worthy Grand Matron early in the program, had been compelled to depart for his return to A. and M. University.

He then presented the Worthy Grand Matron with a gavel that had been made by Chuck Bramlett especially made for her, and which was composed of a great variety of most interesting materials.

At the conclusion of his address and presentations Judge Simpson was heartily applauded.

PRESENTATION OF MASONIC HERITAGE COMMITTEE

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Human life and conduct are affected by ideals in the same way that they are affected by the examples of eminent men. The paragon of the great Masonic Fraternity has stood the test of the ages.

The Worthy Grand Matron will now present her Masonic Heritage Committee.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: I have observed with much interest the closer relationship between the Masonic Fraternity and the Order of the Eastern Star, which has seemed to exist this year as a result of the fine work of the Masonic Relations Committee.

Realizing that the strength and unity of these two beloved Fraternities is ever uppermost in the hearts and minds of all dedicated Masons and Eastern Stars, the continuation of this Committee and its development to even greater significance is important to your Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron.

The aims and purposes of this Committee have been outlined with suggested ways of accomplishing these, and placed in the hands of the Committee Chairman, Mr. Leslie Burnett. He will, in turn, give copies of these to the five Co-chairmen, one from each of the five Districts. Eventually all plans and objectives will reach each of the members, of whom there is at least one from each Section. It is intended that this type of organization should create a state-wide representation of this committee, so that each one of the 50 Sections in the state can benefit from its influence for good.

It is with great pride that I present the Masonic Heritage Committee, who, as their names are called, will enter and make the formation of the Square and Compasses on our Grand Chapter Floor.

The Masonic Heritage Committee was presented in a formation of the Square and Compasses. When the formation was complete on the Grand Chapter floor the Worthy Grand Matron was escorted to the Altar by the Chairman of the Committee, Mr. Leslie Burnett.

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: No person has come to true greatness whose life has not, in a great degree, belonged to others. Our Immediate Past Most Worthy Grand Matron is a wonderful confirmation of this great truth. As I present her now to bring greetings to this vast assemblage, I am wondering if she concurs with the poet who penned these famous lines:

“What sweet delight a quiet life affords.”

Mrs. Mildred Haney Harris.

GREETINGS FROM PAST MOST WORTHY GRAND MATRON

MRS. MILDRED HANEY HARRIS: I deeply appreciate the privilege of bringing a word of greeting to you my friends, on this very important event in your life, a pinnacle in your Fraternal Pathway of service.

Not only do I greet you in the name of our General Grand Chapter and thank you for your special contribution to the success of our recent Triennial held in Dallas, towards which you gave much in time and talent, but I wish to extend a very personal greeting and a sincere wish for you to see the realization of your beautiful dreams for our Texas Grand Chapter. May you be a great medium of Truth, Love and Understanding which will fill the hearts of our people in every highway and byway.

We honor both of you for your high record of dedicated service and accomplishments. My wish for you is that our Heavenly Father, who sees all things, will bestow upon you His three graces:

Faith that lifts you beyond all fear,
Hope that points to a glorious day
And Love that enfolds you all of the way.

With these three our Order will grow in purpose, vision and understanding love for all mankind. (Applause.)

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: “I will do my best. I cannot do more. I would not do less.”

No words could more adequately describe Mrs. Thelma McReynolds, the Past Grand Matron who has been chosen by the Worthy Grand Matron to present the Climbing Colors. Nothing is too high for a man to reach, but he must climb with care and confidence.

Mrs. McReynolds.

CLIMBING COLORS

MRS. THELMA McREYNOLDS:

The Climbing Wisteria

This is a rampant vine that bears great clusters of graceful flowers. These resemble pea blossoms, and the clusters are one to two feet long—drooping from a heavy screen of foliage. The branches of this vine will sometimes reach out 300 feet from each side of the central woody stalk. This showy plant will climb to great heights, if given deep soil and plenty of moisture and sunshine.

The Bougainvillea Vine

This flowering, climbing shrub was introduced to this country from Brazil. A tropical and subtropical plant, it grows in Florida and around the Gulf Coast. This massively showy blossoming vine was named for the first Frenchman to cross the Pacific Ocean, Louis de Bougainville. Blossoms vary from purple to rose, with a less hardy deep red variety.

The Clematis

This is a climbing shrub. The best-known American species is the virgin's-bower. It is so named because of its fragrant, starlike flowers.

The Morning-Glory

This lovely climbing plant has heavenly blue flowers like a funnel, and green leaves that are heart shaped. Its blossoms are full-blown when the sun rises, but the strong light of the day closes them before noon.

The Passion-flower

This wierd, tropical vine, native of Brazil, has a religious connotation. Ten green petals represent the ten apostles who saw the Crucifixion. The darker inside circle stands for either a crown of thorns, or a halo. Five central stamen represent the five hammers used to nail Christ to the cross. The coiling tendrils with which the vine grasps support represent the scourges of Christ's persecutors. (Applause.)

PRESENTATION OF WELFARE PROGRAM

A noble woman does not find roses in her path, she leaves them there. This is her enchantment. Just such a person is Mrs. Mary Katharine Smith, Past Grand Matron, who is listed on the Program to present the Welfare Program for 1965-1966. Due to illness, Mrs. Smith is not present.

WELFARE

God in His wisdom equipped man with hands. He designed that these hands be used to work that which is good—tools to serve as man wills. We use these hands in climbing the mountains of life, where there are many steep and rough places. If we have the strength, we can climb the highest peak, but what happens to our aged, indigent members who do not have the stamina and steadiness to climb unassisted?

We must reach down and cheerfully extend our helping hand "A man's reach should exceed his grasp, or what's Heaven for?"

An informed Eastern Star is aware of the needs of his fellow man. Being aware, he is sensitive to the suffering those needs may bring about. Being sensitive, he is filled with compassion and concern. In comparison, and with deep concern, he responds in service and sacrificial giving to those needs.

Because of this loving response by the gentle hands and tender hearts of the great Membership of the Order in Texas, our beautiful Eastern Star Home at Arlington stands as a monument of devotion. When the new wing was completed in 1964, making it possible for many more members to receive needed care, our Home became even more imposing in appearance.

So it is that I name the Home as our foremost project for 1965-1966. Knowing that you are interested and eager to contribute generously where a need becomes known to you, I suggest that you give your dollar now to your Worthy Grand Matron's Welfare Program for the year. Give through your Chapter.

As each Chapter reaches 100 per cent in its contributions, $1.00 per member, proper recognition will be made in our Grand Chapter Bulletin—issued monthly. Then at the Grand Chapter Session in 1966, each 100 per cent Chapter will again be recognized in a special program.

ESTARL. The Eastern Star Training Awards for Religious Leadership was adopted by Grand Chapter at the 1956 Session as a permanent phase of Texas' Welfare Program.

The splendid young people who are benefited by these ESTARL scholarships go forth into the world to bring "Glad Tidings" to all people everywhere. Thus it is by our generous contributions to this worth-while project, also, that we reach down to help a young man or young woman climb the mountain of high ideals and Christian living.

Remember, then, by using your hands and hearts in the worthy work of giving of yourselves and your money, $1.00 individually, through your respective Chapters to the Home; also, by assisting the youth of today to become religious leaders of tomorrow, by giving your money, time and encouragement to them—

"He Climbs Highest Who Helps Another Up—Climb 'Til Our Dreams Come True."

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: The message of Good Tidings "which shall be to all people" presents the great challenge of "Climb 'Til Our Dreams Come True," and should touch the hearts of the great membership of Texas.

Musical artists have been endowed by God in a very special manner with the ability to bless the world in an articulate manner. Add this talent to a graceful figure with beauty of face, and we have Mrs. Molly Goodpasture, Past Grand Matron, who will sing now the ever inspiring song, "Climb Every Mountain," by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

SOLO

Mrs. Molly Goodpasture, Past Grand Matron, thrilled the assembly by her rendition of "Climb Every Mountain."

PRESENTATION OF SYMBOL

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: "All is holy where devotion kneels." The devotion to the principles of our Order of Mrs. Eunice Connell, Past Grand Matron, has become a symbol to the membership of Texas, and it is only fitting that she has been chosen to present the Worthy Grand Matron's symbol for the year.

MRS. EUNICE CONNELL:

SYMBOL

"BELLS"

Symbolism having come down through the ages from the first men who inhabited this earth is the language of the wise ancients. Symbolism is much older than reading or writing. It is the most ancient method known for the imparting of knowledge.

All Secret Orders employ a system of symbols to more effectively impart the work upon initiates.

Our leaders of tomorrow are exerting every effort to inspire our members to make a deeper study of our mysteries and aims and to awaken their desire to be of greater service to humanity.

As the early man studied and used those things about him, as provided by nature, to establish reasoning and certain conclusions, so our Worthy Grand Matron has selected, from intensive study of Religion, History and other sources, a symbol which is of special significance to her, and which she hopes will be to each of us. It is "BELLS."

The history of BELLS is fascinating! They originated in Asia and were known in China in the 800's B. C. Archaeologists have found a richly ornamented Assyrian bronze bell used for ceremonial purposes, that dates from the same period.

The BELL is a hollow cup-shaped vessel with a tongue, or clapper, suspended inside. Bells are made of various materials—metals, glass or china. They vary in tone depending upon their structure, and their uses are many.

Our Worthy Grand Matron is presenting her symbol of the BELL to you in five different categories:

1. WORSHIP:

Through the ages BELLS and chimes have been closely associated with religious services. Christians around the world have used them to summons people to worship. The largest and heaviest Carrillon in the world is in Riverside Church in New York City.

2. PATRIOTIC DUTY:

The most famous Bell in America is the Liberty Bell. It pealed forth the news of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Bells are rung to announce important events, and in olden countries were used to summon Council meetings. Bells early summoned soldiers to arms and sounded the alarm in fire or tumult. They have also, in deep-sounding tones, announced victories or triumphs.

3. KNOWLEDGE:

Memories from the days departed—When summer sighed to September and the School teacher brought out once again the rusty School Bell. Today, hours that pass like minutes are signaled by Assembly bells.

4. REJOICING:

We've all heard the bells on Christmas Day—Their old, familiar carols play—And wild and sweet—The words repeat—Of peace on earth, Good-will to men! (Longfellow.) Within the shadow of the event that celebrates the birth of the Prince of Peace, the bells ring in a brand New Year—a brave New Year, for it is filled with new hopes; new courage; renewed faith and a challenge to preserve our precious heritage.

5. REUNIONS:

Through the medium of the bells of the Telephone, the door bell and the dinner bell, family and friends are brought together for Happy Reunions—precious memories.

As time unlocks the door to a new year may the symbol of the BELL ring a merry, happy note for each of us. As the last echo of its chimes dies within our ears may they forever reverberate in our hearts peace, love and good-will, and a memory hold dear.

PRESENTATION OF PAST GRAND MATRON'S JEWEL

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: These two who have well sown the seeds of faith, hope and love may now experience the joy of bringing in the sheaves, because it is the very nature of such seeds to yield a joyous harvest.

I present now Mr. Lud T. Goebel to present the Past Grand Matron's Jewel.

MR. LUD T. GOEBEL: Amy, many, many pleasant experiences I have had in my lifetime. One of the most loved and cherished ones is the opportunity you have given me of presenting you the Past Grand Matron's Jewel.

The Eastern Star members are aware of the many duties and the heavy responsibilities that have been yours during the past year, but none are as familiar as I am with the many sacrifices that you have made in order to serve us well.

You have worked long hours every day and often far into the night. Your dignity, modesty and pleasing personality have endeared you not only to the membership but to all with whom you have come in contact.

Therefore, Amy, wear this pin on all proper occasions, and always with pride.

Now, in behalf of the Grand Chapter of Texas, I proudly present to you this Past Grand Matron's Jewel. (Applause.)

ACCEPTANCE OF PAST GRAND MATRON'S JEWEL

MRS. AMY GOEBEL: This is a proud moment for me, as I accept this beautiful Jewel of the Past Grand Matron, presented to me by my husband, Brother Lud T. Goebel, on behalf of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star. My sincere thanks and appreciation to a very

Grand Officers of 1965 and 1966 wonderful membership, whom I was proud to serve. I shall wear it with humility, pride and love, and a fond regard for each of you always. (Applause.)

PRESENTATION OF PAST GRAND PATRON'S JEWEL

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: I present Mrs. Edna Goettee, who will present the Past Grand Patron's Jewel.

MRS. EDNA GOETTEE: Jim, we have shared many happy years together, and I have always been proud of you, proud and honored to be your wife, but the proudest moment of my life is to have the privilege of presenting to you, from the Grand Chapter of Texas, this Past Grand Patron's Jewel.

May this beautiful Jewel be a constant reminder of your work for the Order and the love of friends you have made. May you wear it with pride and joy as it represents the love and good wishes of the members of the Grand Chapter of Texas.

I am grateful that God has protected you and given you health and strength in doing for others. Your love for mankind, your devotion to high ideals and noble purposes have been exemplified in your service to this Order and to all. You have truly lived a life of love and service for others.

So, in behalf of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star, I present to you this Past Grand Patron's Jewel.

May God bless you and keep you always is my prayer. (Applause.)

ACCEPTANCE OF PAST GRAND PATRON'S JEWEL

DR. JAMES H. GOETTEE: Thank you, Edna, for that beautiful presentation of the Past Grand Patron's Jewel.

You have been an inspiration and a source of strength to me through the years. I shall always be grateful to you for your love, devotion, concern and helpfulness.

I shall wear this Jewel with pride, and I hope always with honor to the Order of the Eastern Star.

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to the Grand Chapter for this beautiful emblem, a symbol of service to the Order. (Applause.)

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: Worthy Grand Matron, no words of mine can adequately express the emotions of gratitude and personal joy that have been mine tonight in sharing this all important night with you. Together with my love and appreciation for you goes my sincerest prayer that this year will bring a realization of your every dream.

I am pleased now to present your gavel to you.

INTRODUCTIONS OF BOARDS, OFFICERS OF GRAND CHAPTER AND GRAND REPRESENTATIVES

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters and Brothers, now comes that part of the Installation for which all of you have waited.

You know I can remember about ten years ago when I was District Deputy Grand Matron the Worthy Grand Matron called us, and there were five of us together. We were talking about being Worthy Grand Matron, and I remember well saying: "I will tell you one thing, if I ever get to be Worthy Grand Matron I will not make everybody wait five hours to see the Grand Officers on the floor."

But I did. (Applause.)

Somehow it just seems we cannot get along faster.

Thank you for your patience, your loyalty, and do stay with us. All through the year we hope you will keep on doing that way.

DRESSES

The lady members of the Boards, Officers of Grand Chapter and Grand Representatives were lovely in formals in the Colors of the Climbing Vines: The Climbing Wisteria, the Bougainvillea, the Clematis, the Heavenly Blue of the Morning Glory and the Passion Flower. All participating wore silver slippers. The Worthy Matrons of Texas were dressed in white.

BELL OF SERVICE

As their names were called the members of the Boards, Officers of Grand Chapter and Grand Representatives were escorted to their designated positions on the Grand Chapter floor by Mrs. Mabel Harle, Grand Installing Chaplain, forming the Bell of Service suspended from the Keystone, outlined by the Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons of Texas. The clapper of the Bell, formed by the Grand Floor Officers, moved slowly back and forth as the chimes rang out.

The Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons outlined the Bell in the form of an arch and, as the last presentation, the Masonic Heritage Committee in the form of a Keystone moved in to close and support the arch and form the base of the Bell. The Worthy Grand Matron then announced that all things were ready to proceed with the work of the new year.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sisters and Brothers, these are your Boards, Officers of Grand Chapter and Grand Representatives, forming the Bell of Service, suspended from the Keystone, which is now set in the Arch formed by the Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons of Texas.

BENEDICTION

MRS. AGNES LEE HOWARD: God dwells far off from us, but prayer brings Him down to earth, and links His power with our efforts. Mrs. Viva Huffman, Past Grand Matron, will bring the benediction.

MRS. VIVA S. HUFFMAN: May we bow our heads in prayer.

Our Heavenly Father, at the close of this beautiful "Autumn Enchantment" Session, we pause to give thanks for the good that has been accomplished by crossing bridges of service, through Faith, Hope and Love. We pray that it will be to Thy Honor and Glory forever. We ask Thy blessing upon our new leaders. May the opening of this New Year be in harmony with Thy great plans. May each member of our great Order strive to bring "Glad Tidings of Good Things" to all mankind. May the joy bells in heaven peal forth "well done thou good and faithful servants." The Lord Bless us and keep us; The Lord make His face shine upon us, and be gracious unto us; the Lord lift up His countenance upon us, and give us peace. Amen.

GRAND CHAPTER CALLED FROM REST TO LABOR

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Grand Warden, you will see that the doors to the Grand Chapter are secure, and inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to call Grand Chapter from rest to labor, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

Grand Chapter was proved, the Bible was opened, and Grand Chapter was called from rest to labor at 12:15 A. M., Friday, October 29.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Is there any further business to come before this Grand Chapter at this time?

GRAND CHAPTER AUTOMOBILE

MR. PRESTON MILLER: Worthy Grand Matron, as my last duty as a member of the Board of Grand Trustees it is a pleasure to present to you this letter. allowing you to go into other states and visit other Grand Chapters, and we present to you the keys of a new Jester Oldsmobile automobile.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: You know I am glad Brother Preston Miller was Chairman of the Board of Grand Trustees at the time this car was bought and that he had the privilege of presenting it to me tonight. Ever since I have been an Eastern Star Preston Miller has done nice things for me.

Thank you, Preston, for this presentation.

And, Mr. Lord, the new Chairman, I want you to know that I know this will be an outstanding Board; and for all I can do to cooperate in any way for the Welfare of our Grand Chapter I pledge my untiring efforts.

Thank you.

MR. MORRIS LORD: Thank you, Worthy Grand Matron. I assure you it will be my pleasure to work with you on any project you may start.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Rebecca, do you know of any other business to come before this Grand Chapter Session at this time?

GRAND SECRETARY: Worthy Grand Matron, so far as I know, we have covered everything, and some more. (Applause.)

FLAG RETIRED

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Grand Marshal, you will retire the flag.

The United States Flag was retired by the Grand Marshal.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Associate Grand Matron, do you know of any further business to come before this Grand Chapter at this time?

ASSOCIATE GRAND MATRON: There is none within my knowledge, Worthy Grand Matron.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON: Sister Grand Warder, you will inform the Grand Sentinel that we are about to close this Grand Chapter, and direct him to permit no interruption while we are thus engaged.

Grand Chapter was closed in ritualistic form at 12:30 A. M., Friday, October 29.

Edna Carl Duke
Worthy Grand Matron.

Marion B. Simpson Jr.
Worthy Grand Patron

Grand Secretary

Appendix

In Remembrance
of the Loved and Lost Awhile
of
Other Grand Jurisdictions

*"Beyond life's golden sunset lies a city bright and fair,
In the land of God's tomorrow our loved ones await us there.
'Tis a place of perfect beauty where they know no grief or fears,
And where God Himself, in tenderness, shall wipe away all tears.
So rejoice today knowing that your loved one has found peace
In the land of God's tomorrow, where His blessings never cease."*

Dedicated to the Memory
of the
ONE THOUSAND
SIX HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-SEVEN MEMBERS
of the
SUBORDINATE CHAPTERS OF TEXAS WHO ENTERED THEIR ETERNAL HOME DURING THE YEAR.

*"As one by one, the autumn leaves fade in the forest deep
So, one by one, to each of us must come the touch of sleep;
As, one by one, the roses burst into the morning light
So, one by one our souls shall make again beyond the night."*

Members of the Board of Directors of Grand Chapter Benevolences
Grand Chapter of Texas
Order of the Eastern Star
Arlington, Texas

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have examined the statement of cash balances of the Board of Directors of Grand Chapter Benevolences, Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star, for the fiscal year ended August 31, 1965, and the related statement of cash receipts and disbursements for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records, and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

Cash balances at August 31, 1965, amounted to $80,405.77 in the following funds:

Board Funds:

Home Fund	$ 30,393.14
Benevolent Fund	23,838.08	$ 54,231.22

Superintendent's Funds:

Maintenance Fund	$ 13,532.78
Furnishings Fund	776.64
Wrightman Fund	183.97
Trust Funds	11,681.16	26,174.55

Total Cash on Hand		$ 80,405.77
--------------------------	--	---------------------

HOME FUND

BOARD OF GRAND CHAPTER BENEVOLENCES

The total funds received during the year into the Home Fund amounted to $156,036.05 which consisted of the 1964-65 appropriation of $152,810.00; the balance of 1963-64 appropriation of $2,910.00, and miscellaneous income of $316.05. The balance of the 1964-65 appropriation in the amount of $7,000.00 had not been transferred from the Grand Secretary to the Home Fund as of August 31, 1965.

The total expenditures by the Board amounted to $145,821.97, which included operating funds transferred to the Superintendent in the amount of $117,459.96 and amounts of $4,800.00 for the Superintendent's Salary and $4,200.00 for the graduate nurse's salary. Other expenditures made directly from the Home Fund amounted to $19,362.01 and are detailed on folio 3.

HOME FUND—SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE

There was a cash balance at the beginning of the fiscal year of $14,564.58, plus the transfer from the Board of $117,459.96 making total funds available of $132,024.54. There was expended for Home maintenance and operations the sum of $64,787.70 and for Hospital operations $53,704.06, a total of $118,491.76. A detailed schedule appears on folio 8.

Special funds received during the year consisted of contributions to the Home Furnishings Fund in the amount of $753.98, which, added to a balance at the beginning of the year of $382.00, made a total of $1,135.98. There was expended the sum of $359.34, leaving a balance of $776.64.

The Wrightman Fund, a fund designed for the benefit of the members in the Home, expended $147.28 for clothing during the year. A balance of $183.97 remains in the fund as of August 31, 1965.

Members' Trust Funds, funds for the use of individual members in the Home, totaled $11,681.16 as of August 31, 1965. A detailed listing of amounts held to the credit of each member is presented on folios 13 and 14.

OPERATIONS COMPARED TO BUDGET

The schedule of Home Fund disbursements compared to the budget, shown on folio 4, reflects the disbursements by the Board for the ten-month period beginning November 1, 1964, and ended August 31, 1965. This is due to the budget being applied to the Grand Chapter year ending October 31st each year. The total appropriation and budget was $159,810.00 and the disbursements for the ten-month period were $122,183.51, leaving a balance available for the two additional months of this year of $37,626.49. The expenditures in excess of the budget allotments were for directors' supplies, $95.78, and hospital repairs and replacements, $61.25.

The cost of operations of the Home compared to the preceding year is shown on folio 6, and reflects an increase of $4,142.99. The principal expense items showing increases were for salaries, $5,002.09; utilities, $1,565.09; and laundry, $1,809.62. The operating cost per member per month decreased from $118.55 in 1963-64 to $110.77 in 1964-65, due to increased occupancy.

BENEVOLENT FUND

The budget appropriation for the Benevolent Fund for 1964-65 was $35,000.00. There was expended through the various Chapters for the benefit of individual members in need, the sum of $25,420.00. A balance of $23,838.05 remains in the fund as of August 31, 1965. This balance is greater than the amount that will be expended in the remaining two months of the fiscal year because the excess funds from the 1963-64 budget year in the amount of $9,554.79 were not refunded to the Grand Chapter.

OPINION

In our opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly the cash balances of the Board of Grand Chapter Benevolences, Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of Eastern Star, as of August 31, 1965, and income and disbursements for the year then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted,

A. C. UPLEGER AND COMPANY

Auditor's Report of All O. E. S. Funds

A. C. UPLEGER & COMPANY
Certified Public Accountants
October 8, 1965

Board of Grand Trustees,
Grand Chapter of Texas,
Order of Eastern Star:

We have examined the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances of the funds, as set out in the consolidated section of the report, of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of Eastern Star, as of August 31, 1965, and the related statements of cash receipts and disbursements or statement of income and expense for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

All statements are on the cash basis with the exception of the Supply Sale Fund which carries an inventory which is used in determining cost of sales.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements fairly present, on the cash basis, except as noted above with regard to the Supply Sale Fund, the financial condition of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of Eastern Star, as of August 31, 1965, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted,

A. C. UPLEGER AND COMPANY
Certified Public Accountants
